PRESS RELEASE

JET AIRWAYS DECLARED "FAVOURITE FULL-SERVICE AIRLINE" AT THE OUTLOOK TRAVELLER AWARDS 2011

Mumbai, February 2, 2012: Jet Airways, India's premier international airline, has been declared the 'FAVOURITE FULL-SERVICE AIRLINE' at the OUTLOOK TRAVELLER AWARDS 2011 in New Delhi.

The awards were presented in New Delhi, in front of several luminaries from the travel and trade industry. Renowned for the warmth and hospitality of its acclaimed in-flight service, a reflection of the high standards of the airline's rigorous in-flight training procedures, Jet Airways emerged victorious from amongst a field comprising several leading airlines.

Ms. Ragini Chopra, Vice President, Corporate Communications and Public Relations, Jet Airways, received the prestigious award on behalf of the airline, from Hon'ble Minister for Tourism, Shri Subodh Kant Sahai at the Outlook Traveller Award 2011 function, at a glittering ceremony at the Lalit, New Delhi on February 1, 2011. The awards were given away in 18 categories.

These Awards, based on exhaustive readers response study conducted across cities, seek to recognize and honour the best in travel, based on an objective study conducted by Outlook Traveller Magazine. Under the aegis of the Nielsen Company, the survey is polled through the magazine and website and is an authoritative benchmark of consumer preferences in travel and tourism across 18 categories including hotels, airlines and holiday destinations.

Mr. Sudheer Raghavan, Chief Commercial Officer, Jet Airways, said, "The Outlook Traveller Awards are widely respected across the tourism and trade industry and we are delighted to receive this honour. This award is a reflection of the emphasis laid by Jet Airways, in ensuring that customer needs are kept uppermost in the mind to offer guests as comfortable a travel experience as possible. Awards such as these stand testimony to the quality of our services. We will persist in our endeavor to exceed customer expectations and create benchmarks in service standards for others to follow."

Outlook Traveller, India's leading travel magazine, is celebrating 10 years of publishing. The magazine is a mine of information, keeping one updated with latest trends in travel and tourism. The magazine reaches out to an up market urban readership.
