JET AIRWAYS TO UPGRADE DAILY SERVICES BETWEEN DELHI AND SINGAPORE

Airbus A330 flights will cater to growing demand on the sector

Mumbai, November 12, 2015: Jet Airways, India's premier international airline, will upgrade its daily flights between Delhi and Singapore to an Airbus A330 aircraft, effective 25 November 2015.

This will enable guests on this high demand sector to experience enhanced cabin comfort on board the wide-body aircraft, while offering convenient connections for those travelling from India to Australia and the ASEAN region over Singapore on codeshare and interline partner airlines.

The upgraded service will offer 50 per cent more seat capacity than the Boeing 737 currently operating on this route.

The A330 offers guests Jet Airways' award winning inflight experience with enhanced cabin comfort and a customised two-cabin seating configuration of 18 seats in Premiere and 236 in Economy. Premiere guests get to experience the luxury of flatbeds set in a herringbone layout, while guests travelling in economy can enjoy the comfort of a spacious cabin fitted with ergonomically-designed seating.

Gaurang Shetty, Senior VP Commercial, Jet Airways said: "We are happy to deploy Jet Airways' spacious and modern wide-body aircraft to provide additional capacity on the highly popular Delhi - Singapore – Delhi route."

"This sector has seen a steady growth in traffic, particularly among business travellers. In addition, connecting traffic over Singapore to Australia and the ASEAN region booked through codeshare and interline partners is also growing [illegible] benefit make Jet Airways the perfect option for Jet Airways flight 9W 018 will depart Delhi at 0955 hrs, and arrive in Singapore at 1815 hrs (LT). On the return, Jet Airways flight 017 will depart Singapore at 1945 hrs (LT) and arrives in Delhi at 2255 hrs.

Every seat on Jet Airways' A330 offers a wide choice of on-demand video and audio entertainment options including Bollywood and Hollywood films, television shows and a selection on music channels with Indian and world music genres.

On international flights, Jet Airways offers delectable Indian and international meal options along with a carefully selected list of fine wines and spirits.

About Jet Airways:
Jet Airways Group currently operates a fleet of 115 aircraft, which includes a mix of state-of-the-art Boeing 777-300 ERs, Airbus A330-200/300, Next Generation Boeing 737s and ATR 72-500/600s. With an average age of 6.04 years, this is one of the youngest fleets in the region. Jet Airways has confirmed an order for 75 Boeing 737 Max aircraft at the 2015 Dubai Airshow to ensure it maintains a modern, environmentally friendly fleet.
