KEC International wins orders worth Rs. 610 crore

- Enters Georgia Market— Adds 3rd country within three years of entry in the CIS region
- Consolidates its presence in South African (SADC) region— Secures orders from South Africa & Zambia.
- Re-enters Far East Asia region after a decade— Secures order from Philippines market
- Secures Supply orders for LT, HT and EHV Power Cables

Mumbai, July 08, 2010: KEC International Ltd. (KEC), a global leader in the power transmission EPC business and an RPG group company, has won orders in the Transmission and Cables space to the tune of Rs. 610 crore.

In the Transmission segment, the company has won total orders of Rs. 487 crore for turnkey transmission lines in the Georgia, South Africa, Zambia, Philippines and UAE.

The company has added one more country to its already illustrious list of 44 countries where it has its footprints, by securing orders from Georgia. The order is for turnkey construction of 400 kV, 500 kV S/C transmission lines. Project duration is 18 (400kV) & 24 (500 kV) months. Total order value is Rs. 326 crore.

The company has consolidated its presence in South African (SADC) region by re-entering Zambia and securing another order from South Africa. Total order value is Rs. 66 crore. Last year, the company had secured orders from Mozambique, Namibia and South Africa.

The company has re-entered Far East Asia region after a decade by securing order from Philippines worth Rs. 42 crore. We are looking to expand our presence in this region.

In the Cables segment, the company has won orders for supply of Low Tension, High Tension and Extra High Voltage Power Cables worth Rs. 123 crores from various customers

"Entering Georgia is a great achievement for KEC. With this, KEC has made a mark in 3rd country in the natural resource rich Central Asian region after Kazakhstan & Tajikistan within 3rd year of entry. In addition to this, Re-entering in Far East Asia region after a decade is a significant event for us." said Mr. Ramesh Chandak, MD & CEO, KEC International Ltd.
