50 percent representation by females in teachers' recruitments: CM Chouhan

CM gifts construction works worth Rs 21 crore to Prithvipur

Chronicle Reporter, Bhopal

Teachers' recruitments will be made in the month of September, in which 50 percent will be represented by females. Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan said this today while addressing a huge public meeting after performing bhoomi-pujan of construction works worth more than Rs 21 crore at Prithvipur in Tikamgarh district.

CM Chouhan said that the Sambal Yojana is a campaign to transform the lives of the poor. The state government has opened its treasury to enrich the poor. He said that there is no difference in the state government's action and words.

What the government says, so it does. The Chief Minister said that the state government has not just given the slogan of poverty alleviation like the previous government, but it has actually meted out justice to the poor. Giving information about the development and public welfare schemes of the state government, Chouhan said that the Group Tap Water Scheme worth Rs 173 crore in Prithvipur has been completed. This scheme will enable supply of water to every house in about 150 villages of the area through taps.

Ken-Betwa Project to provide water to state also Chouhan said that the Ban-Sujara irrigation project will help bring greenery and prosperity in the region. Referring to the Ken-Betwa project he said that discussion is in progress with the Uttar Pradesh regarding the state's share of water. We will get our share of water which can transform the entire irrigation scenario of the region. Our government has given topmost priority to irrigation.

Giving information about Saubhagya Yojana, Chouhan said that every village, majra-tola has power connection now. The day is not far when every poor person's house will be illuminated.

Referring to Sambal Yojana, he said that the state government is providing all facilities and assistance to meritorious students from poor families up to higher education.

He called upon the poor families to shed all worries regarding the higher education of their children and educate them, as the state government will take care of all necessary arrangements.

Union Minister of State for Women and Child Development Dr. Virendra Kumar, Minister in charge Rustum Singh, MLA Smt. Anita Sunil Naik and Anil Jain, District Panchayat President Parvatilal Ahirwar, other public representatives and a huge crowd of people were present on the occasion.

Foodgrain production rises by 207 percent in Madhya Pradesh

Roadmaps being prepared for farmers on village level also

Chronicle Reporter, Bhopal

A roadmap has been prepared in Madhya Pradesh to double the income of farmers in five years. Work is being undertaken at a fast pace in various departments including Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Fish Farming, Forestry, Irrigation Expansion, Sericulture, Cottage and Village Industries. The district-level roadmap is also ready and the village-level roadmap is underway.

Agriculture production in the year 2016-17 has increased to 5.44 crore metric tonne with priority being given to agriculture sector in the state. Foodgrain production has increased by 207 percent. The total foodgrain production would be 1.43 crore metric tonne in the year 2004-05 which has increased to 4.39 crore metric tonne in the year 2016-17.

Farmers have been provided special facilities to increase pulses and oilseeds production in state as a result of which production of pulses has increased up to 136 percent in the last one decade. The production of pulses which would be just 33.51 lakh metric tonne in the year 2004-05, has now increased to 79.23 lakh metric tonne in the year 2016-17. Record rise has been recorded in the production of oilseeds in Madhya Pradesh. The production of oilseeds which was hardly 49.08 lakh metric tonne in the years 2004-05, has now increased to 87.35 lakh metric tonne in the year 2016-17 in Madhya Pradesh which amounts to a 78 percent rise.

Around 57 lakh hectare agriculture sector area has increased in the last 12 years in the state. Agriculture area of Madhya Pradesh has increased to 2.49 lakh hectare in the year 2016-17. The average Agriculture Growth Rate of Madhya Pradesh in the last 4 years has been more than 18 percent. Madhya Pradesh is the first state to have achieved this growth. Due to these reasons, Madhya Pradesh has been bagging the Krishi Karman Award for 5 years consecutively in the field of agriculture production.

MP govt committed towards welfare of scribes: PR Minister Dr. Mishra

Dr. Mishra hands over letters of approval to kin of deceased journalists

Chronicle Reporter, Bhopal

Public Relations, Water Resources and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Dr. Narottam Mishra today gave away letters of approval of financial assistance worth Rs 5 lakh each to the relatives of two deceased journalists of Madhya Pradesh. This amount has been sanctioned under the Journalists Health and Accident Group Insurance Scheme.

Dr. Mishra said that the government is committed to provide financial assistance to the families of the journalists who died under unnatural circumstances. Several steps have been taken in the state for the security and honour of journalists and to provide them facilities.

Smt. Seema Sharma, wife of Late Manish Sharma, a journalist from Indore who died in a road mishap, was given an approval letter of Rs 5 lakh and a cheque.

Similarly, Manish Jain was given an approval letter of Rs 5 lakh following the murder of his brother Late Kamlesh Jain, journalist from Mandsaur as financial assistance. This amount has been sanctioned under the United India Insurance Company's Insurance Scheme.

Where those people disappeared who claimed to get Rs 3 lakh crore worth of black money from demonetization: Kamal Nath

Chronicle Reporter, Bhopal

Madhya Pradesh Congress President Kamal Nath raised the question that where those people are gone who were claiming to get black money worth Rs. 3 lakh crore from the demonetization. Even today, the notes in the co-operative banks are not counted completely and if all these notes are counted then the figure will be much higher. He alleged that the due to the demonetization the unemployment has increased.

Kamal Nath told media that the discussion of India's issues in foreign countries was first initiated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Now they are raising questions on Rahul Gandhi.

On the voter list, he said that the election should be on the correct voter list and every party should raise this issue. They tainted BJP that it does not demand a fair voter list.

On Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chauhan's statement that Congress is fighting on the issue of shoes and slippers instead of fighting for ideologies, in response PCC President asked that can't we fight for poor tribal brothers and sisters?

According to Nath, tribals have been given foot wears of their own money and those foot wears contain chemicals too that could cause dangerous diseases.

It was purchased from the bonus of Tendu leaves which have to be distributed to tribal. Nath called the 'Mahakumbh' of September 25 is to mislead public.
