Karjat shut for a day against Torrent project

Sayaji Shinde calls devpt by felling forests fake; Ganesk Naik says will explore ways to save trees

FPJ News Service
NAGPUR / KARJAT

Karjat observed a complete shutdown on Monday in response to a bandh called by the Shiv Sena (UBT) demanding cancellation of Torrent Power's proposed pumped-storage project in Saidongar, Raigad. Shops, commercial establishments and offices remained closed as traders and residents backed the protest against large-scale tree felling.

Meanwhile, actor and Sahyadri Foundation head Sayaji Shinde announced the 'Save Sahyadri' movement in Nagpur, warning against what he called a "tree-eater virus" threatening the region's forests. "Development achieved by cutting down forests is fake," he said, urging citizens to unite against environmental destruction.

On Saturday, state forest minister Ganesh Naik said he was exploring ways to preserve as many trees as possible at the proposed project site. The forest department had earlier permitted the felling of 32,490 trees for the Rs13,500-crore project, but the exercise was halted following opposition from citizens and political parties.

Speaking to reporters in Vashi, Naik said the permission had been granted before he took charge of the forest department. He said he was reviewing the project details and examining measures to minimise environmental damage.

In Karjat, UBT workers, environmental activists and residents took out a rally from the party office, Shivalay, to the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Memorial. Representatives of the Karjat Environment Protection Committee and NCP (SP) joined the protest.

Shiv Sena deputy district chief Nitin Sawant warned of intensifying the agitation, while committee member advocate Kailas More said the project would be challenged in court. NCP city president, advocate Babasaheb More. also demanded its cancellation.

In Nagpur, Shinde alleged that forests, rivers and the forts associated with Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj were under threat in the name of development. He appealed to artistes, and citizens to join the movement.

Shinde urged people to perform 'aarti' of trees, beat metal plates and register protests on social media. He said the campaign was aimed at protecting the Sahyadri mountain ranges.

Desalination: Row over felling of trees

Devashri Bhujbal
MUMBAI

The Watchdog Foundation urged the BMC Tree Authority to reject the proposal to cut down 971 trees

The Watchdog Foundation, a citizens' group, has opposed proposed felling of 971 trees for the upcoming desalination plant in Mumbai, urging the BMC Tree Authority to reject the proposal until statutory planning and environmental requirements are fulfilled. "I have learnt it through sources that there is a hearing scheduled before the Superintendent of Gardens on the said proposal this week," said Godfrey Pimenta, trustee of Watchdog Foundation.

Pimenta has said in a communication to the BMC that augmenting Mumbai's water supply should not come at the cost of large-scale destruction of the city's existing green cover. Highlighting the ecological impact of removing 971 trees, the foundation said the loss could adversely affect biodiversity, air quality and temperature regulation.

The FPJ tried contacting BMC's Superintendent of Gardens Jitendra Pardeshi for a comment on any proposal for tree felling for desalination plant, however, he could be reached.

The objection comes amid the foundation's demand on whether the desalination project has been incorporated into and examined under Mumbai's Development Plan 2034. It has demanded that the project's land-use designation and necessary planning permissions be established before tree-felling.

In a recent reply to the foundation, the BMC said the project was conceived after extensive marine studies and consultations with local residents.

But the BMC confirmed that the collector of Mumbai Suburban District handed it over advance possession of the land, for building the plant.

Local producers must reap Kumbh Mela gains, says CAIT

FPJ News Service
MUMBAI

Balakrishna Bhartia, national president of the Confederation of All India Traders (CAIT), has urged the state government to reserve special stalls for local producers under the 'One District, One Product' and 'Vocal for Local' initiatives, ensuring that the Kumbh Mela's economic benefits reach local communities rather than being cornered by large corporate entities.

Bhartia, also national convenor of the Swadeshi Vyapari Manch, said the Nashik-Trimbakeshwar Simhastha Kumbh Mela, to be held on the banks of the Godavari after 12 years, was not merely a religious gathering but a major opportunity to accelerate Maharashtra's economy.

He said the event would transform Nashik into one of India's largest temporary centres of economic activity. Speaking on the concept of a religion-based economy at an event organised by CAIT's Nagpur team, he estimated direct and indirect business opportunities worth more than Rs50,000 crore.

With more than two crore devotees expected, the MSME sector, hospitality industry and transport services would benefit significantly. Hotels, auto-rickshaw operators, tent providers and stall owners could see substantial demand. Bhartia projected more than one lakh employment opportunities for local youth.

Demand for bedding, mattresses, bedsheets and pillows would also create opportunities for local manufacturers and traders.

Farmers in the Godavari belt would gain direct market access for flowers, fruits, vegetables, salad ingredients, corn and groundnuts. Pilgrims would boost trade in Paithani sarees, Trimbakeshwar rudraksha beads, copper and brass utensils, and religious articles.

Bhartia said the gathering could promote Nashik's grapes, wine and pav misal internationally, alongside the Trimbakeshwar Jyotirlinga.

He sought a comprehensive awareness campaign, urging farmers to plan cultivation around the event's schedule. CAIT and the Swadeshi Vyapari Manch were travelling across Nashik and surrounding areas to sensitise local traders to the anticipated business opportunities, he said.

MSEDCL engg held taking bribe

Mumbai: The Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) arrested Devendra Gilurkar, 51, Executive Engineer (Civil), MSEDCL Civil Division, Bhandup, on Monday for allegedly accepting a Rs50,000 bribe from a government civil contractor to clear pending bills. According to the ACB, the 37-year-old contractor had outstanding bills of around Rs21 lakh for civil works undertaken since June 2026. Gilurkar allegedly demanded Rs1.80 lakh to sanction the payments. The contractor complained to the ACB on October 26. During verification on October 30, Gilurkar allegedly agreed to accept Rs1.80 lakh in instalments, demanding Rs50,000 upfront to process the files. The ACB laid a trap on November 2 and caught Gilurkar allegedly accepting Rs50,000. Officials seized his mobile phone for investigation. A case under the Prevention of Corruption Act has been registered.

CIDCO imposes 15% water cut, max so far

Raina Assainar
NAVI MUMBAI

CIDCO has imposed a 15% water cut across all nodes from November 2, introducing weekly 24-hour shutdowns and alternate-day supply in parts of Ulwe and Dronagiri. This is the first state-owned body to impose such a major cut in any part of the Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR)

The decision follows Maharashtra government directives to conserve available reserves amid concerns over future water scarcity. An October 5 Government Resolution directed authorities to prioritise drinking water, curb consumption and minimise leakage until August 31, 2027.

The government cited the previous year's El Niño effect, saying inadequate rainfall had caused shortages.

A CIDCO spokesperson said the restrictions aimed to ensure economical use of available water and safeguard drinking water supplies,.

Kharghar and New Panvel East will face 24-hour shutdowns on Mondays; New Panvel West and designated Ulwe areas on Tuesdays; Kalamboli on Wednesdays; Karanjade on Thursdays; and Taloja, Kalundre and Kamothe on Fridays.

Tuesday shutdowns in Ulwe will cover Sectors 2, 3, 5, 6, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, 25 and 25A, besides Gavhan, Kopar and Morave.

Alternate-day water supply will apply in Ulwe Sectors 8, 9, 10B, 15C, 16, 17 and 18, and Shelghar, Bamandongari, Nhava, Shivajinagar and Nhava Khadi. In Dronagiri, Sectors 1, 2, 11, 12, 15, 30, 47, 48, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54 and 55, along with Dhutum, Bhendkhal, Pagota, Funde, Navghar, Navghar Pada, Bokadvira and Kunde, will receive water on alternate days.
