Mindtree wins two top awards at SAP® TechEd Las Vegas

Awards highlight mobility solutions for retail and transport and logistics industries

Bangalore (India) and Warren (NJ), December 9, 2013 – Mindtree, a global information technology solutions company, today announced that two of its solutions have won the SAP® 2013 Industry Mobile App Challenges at the SAP TechEd conference held in Las Vegas from October 21-25. The winners were honored in a special ceremony at the conference.

Mindtree was the winner of the SAP 2013 Transport and Logistics Mobile App Challenge with its mInspect solution which tightly integrates with the SAP Commercial Project Management application, bringing project issue and change management) to mobile devices. Mindtree also was the winner of the SAP 2013 Retail Mobile App Challenge for its mPromo solution. mPromo enables real-time insight into performance of promotions and provides proactive analysis to help retailers make real-time decisions. The multichannel-ready apps were built on SAP Mobile Platform, the industry-leading mobile platform for business employee and consumer apps.

"Companies across the world are looking to create unique experiences and engage customers through mobile devices. These awards are a testimony to early investments we have made in building strong mobile competency," said Arun Rangaraju, Head, Packaged Solutions, Mindtree. "We will continue to work to further enable faster decision making using leading-edge mobile technology from SAP."

SAP TechEd is one of the premier technical education conferences for IT architects, administrators, and developers. SAP 2013 Industry Mobile App Challenges is a unique opportunity for SAP partners to showcase innovative solutions developed using mobile technology and platforms from SAP. The mobile app challenges are part of SAP's contest series for apps built on SAP Mobile Platform."

"These solutions from Mindtree are a great example of successful collaboration with the SAP PartnerEdge® program for Application Development, which provides the avenue to build, certify, and offer solutions on SAP Store," said Bernd-Uwe Pagel, senior vice president of Platform Ecosystem and e-Channels at SAP. "We congratulate Mindtree on winning the SAP 2013 Industry Mobile App Challenges in two categories and on creating new possibilities for the retail and transport and logistics industries."

These solutions are part of a broad portfolio of offerings from Mindtree that help enterprises build, customize and deploy mobility solutions.
