साकेत नगर में दूसरी बार अवैध इमारत सील

कानपुर। केडीए ने साकेतनगर जूही के डब्लू-1 में भूखंड संख्या 127/819 पर बन रही अवैध इमारत को दूसरी बार सील कर दिया। कारोबारी शम्मी शाही की इस इमारत को पिछली बार जब केडीए ने सील किया था तो शमन कराया गया था। अब दोबारा नक्शे के खिलाफ निर्माण शुरू हुआ तो एक्सईएन एके सिंह ने इसे सील कर दिया।

व्यापारी अपनी-अपनी दुकानें बंदकर सड़क पर आ गए और जेसीबी के सामने खड़े हो गए। जानकारी पर गोविन्द नगर सीओ फोर्स के साथ मौके पर पहुंच गए और व्यापारियों को समझाकर शांत कराया गया। एसीएम ने व्यापारियों को फुटपाथ खाली करने के लिए 48 घंटे का समय दिया।

जोन-5 के विजय नारायण अरोड़ा के अगुवाई में बुधवार को अतिक्रमण दस्ता गोविन्द नगर नटराज सिनेमा चौराहे पहुंचा। नगर निगम ने जैसे ही अतिक्रमण ढहाना शुरू किया। व्यापारी विरोध करने लगे। देखते ही देखते सैकड़ों व्यापारी दुकान बंद करके सड़क पर आ गए। व्यापारियों के विरोध करने पर गोविन्द नगर सीओ विशाल पाण्डेय फोर्स के साथ मौके पर पहुंचे और समझाने का प्रयास किया, लेकिन व्यापारी नहीं माने। व्यापारियों का कहना था कि उन्हें बिना सूचना दिए नगर निगम अतिक्रमण ढहाने आ गया।

385 Indian applications for trademark registration in FY16

Mumbai, May 4: The World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) received only 385 applications from the Indian entrepreneurs aspiring to have their trademarks registered globally during the year 2015-16. On the other hand, 24,000 international registrations sought protection of trademarks in India in this period.

WIPO is the global forum for intellectual property services, policy, information and co-operation.

"Out of these 24,000 international registrations, 11,778 have already been notified in the fiscal 2015-16," controller general of patents, designs and trademarks O P Gupta told PTI, speaking on the sidelines of a Make in India event organised by the World Trade Centre and All India Association of Industries (AIAI) here.

"Unfortunately, we have received merely 385 applications from Indian entrepreneurs so far and out of which, 265 applications have already been processed by WIPO," he said. But the situation is quite different when it comes to applications for trademarks within the country.

"We have received around 2,85,000 applications for trademarks from Indian entrepreneurs in 2015-16, from 2,00,000 in 2014-15, a 43% increase," he said. "During the current fiscal, we have received around 25,000 applications from Indian entities so far," he said.

The domestic industry is still not taking advantage of convention and treaties to which India is party, and which provide facilitation of registration of trademarks outside the country, he said, adding "this is why we are holding seminars on the subject so as to create awareness."

Crackdown on sugar millers for FRP payments

Nanda Kasabe

Pune, May 4: Even as Maharashtra's sugar season is slated to end on May 10, when the last couple of factories that are still crushing cane will complete crushing operations for the season of 2015-16, the government continues to maintain pressure on millers for Fair and Remunerative Price (FRP) payments.

Around 740 lakh tonne of cane has been crushed so far resulting in production of 84 lakh tonnes of sugar so far, top officials of the Maharashtra Sugar Commissionerate said. The commissionerate has initiated stern action against 20 mills for their failure to make FRP payments for the season.

"At the latest hearing, Revenue Recovery Certificate (RRC) orders have been issued against 6 mills, crushing licenses of 6 mills has been cancelled and crushing licences of another 8 mills has been suspended. Of the 8 mills, four mills have made payments," Vipin Sharma, Maharashtra Sugar commissioner told FE. The total fine for crushing without licence comes upto Rs 116 crore, he said. Hearings were held for some 32 factories last week. As per the latest arrear report, around 84% of the FRP payments have been recovered while 14% millers still owe payments to farmers.

385 Indian applications for trademark registration in FY16

Mumbai, May 4: The World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) received only 385 applications from the Indian entrepreneurs aspiring to have their trademarks registered globally during the year 2015-16. On the other hand, 24,000 international registrations sought protection of trademarks in India in this period.

WIPO is the global forum for intellectual property services, policy, information and co-operation.

"Out of these 24,000 international registrations, 11,778 have already been notified in the fiscal 2015-16," controller general of patents, designs and trademarks O P Gupta told PTI, speaking on the sidelines of a Make in India event organised by the World Trade Centre and All India Association of Industries (AIAI) here.

"Unfortunately, we have received merely 385 applications from Indian entrepreneurs so far and out of which, 265 applications have already been processed by WIPO," he said. But the situation is quite different when it comes to applications for trademarks within the country.

"We have received around 2,85,000 applications for trademarks from Indian entrepreneurs in 2015-16, from 2,00,000 in 2014-15, a 43% increase," he said. "During the current fiscal, we have received around 25,000 applications from Indian entities so far," he said.

The domestic industry is still not taking advantage of convention and treaties to which India is party, and which provide facilitation of registration of trademarks outside the country, he said, adding "this is why we are holding seminars on the subject so as to create awareness."

Crackdown on sugar millers for FRP payments

Nanda Kasabe

Pune, May 4: Even as Maharashtra's sugar season is slated to end on May 10, when the last couple of factories that are still crushing cane will complete crushing operations for the season of 2015-16, the government continues to maintain pressure on millers for Fair and Remunerative Price (FRP) payments.

Around 740 lakh tonne of cane has been crushed so far resulting in production of 84 lakh tonnes of sugar so far, top officials of the Maharashtra Sugar Commissionerate said. The commissionerate has initiated stern action against 20 mills for their failure to make FRP payments for the season.

"At the latest hearing, Revenue Recovery Certificate (RRC) orders have been issued against 6 mills, crushing licenses of 6 mills has been cancelled and crushing licences of another 8 mills has been suspended. Of the 8 mills, four mills have made payments," Vipin Sharma, Maharashtra Sugar commissioner told FE. The total fine for crushing without licence comes upto Rs 116 crore, he said. Hearings were held for some 32 factories last week. As per the latest arrear report, around 84% of the FRP payments have been recovered while 14% millers still owe payments to farmers.

VVIP chopper probe: ED tracks cash; summons ex-IAF chief

New Delhi, May 4: Widening its probe in the ₹3,600-crore VVIP chopper deal, the ED has begun a trail of "cash" which is suspected to have been paid as alleged kickbacks for the purchase of 12 helicopters from UK-based AgustaWestland.

The financial probe agency has set the ball rolling with the second round of questioning of witnesses and accused in connection with the scam and is likely to quiz former IAF Chief SP Tyagi on Thursday, provided his recording of statement with the CBI ends on Wednesday.

The Enforcement Directorate (ED), which has been probing the money laundering angle in the case, has summoned cousins of Tyagi after his round of questioning is over besides realty firm Emaar MGF's boss Shravan Gupta.

Gupta's name cropped up after it was found that the alleged middleman Guido Haschke was an independent director of the firm between September to December 2009.

Company officials said Gupta will cooperate with investgative agencies.

The ED, in its charge sheet filed last year in a court, had claimed to have detected flow of alleged kickbacks sent from abroad to companies of the accused Gautam Khaitan and cousin brothers of the former IAF chief.

Officials said the flow of funds is being probed as it is alleged that it was quid pro quo to make AgustaWestland eligible to get selected for the final delivery of the 12 AW-101 helicopters to India for VVIP flying duties.

The ED, as per the charge sheet, had traced two payments of 1,26,000 euros and another two lakh euros from a company based in Tunisia and others made to Tyagi brothers "camouflaged" in the form of consultancy fee and its probe had found that the said "remittances correspond with the developments taking place in alteration/reduction of mandatory servicing ceiling of the helicopters."

The ED claimed that "besides these two remittances, the Tyagi brothers including the then IAF Chief Tyagi, also received some amount of cash from Haschke and Gerosa."

The ED probe found that the alleged middlemen Haschke and Carlo Gerosa, in collusion with the Tyagi brothers Sanjeev, Rajeev and Sandeep "managed to make inroads in IAF through Air Chief Marshal Tyagi and thereby could influence and subvert the consistent stand of IAF regarding mandatory service ceiling of the helicopters."

This ground was used by CBI and ED to register their respective FIRs in the case and brought out the alleged illegal involvement of the ex-IAF chief and his cousins in perpetrating the scam.

The agency, sources said, suspects the tainted cash could have been used by the accused for making certain high-value payments and purchase of costly items.

SC asks tobacco firms to adhere to new rules on health warning

New Delhi, May 4: The Supreme Court on Wednesday directed the tobacco companies to implement the rule mandating larger pictorial health warnings on packets of tobacco products and refused the manufacturers' plea to stay the implementation of new cigarette packaging rules introduced from April 1.

The apex court said that the tobacco companies have to follow the rules till the Karnataka High Court, where all the petitions from various high courts are being transferred, pronounced its final order.

While directing the transfer of the related petitions from High Courts of Delhi, Bombay and Gujarat to the Karnataka High Court, the top court said the operation of order of the principal bench of the Karnataka High Court in Bengaluru refusing stay on the new rules would continue.

A bench comprising Justices Pinaki Chandra Ghose and Amitava Roy also directed that all the petitions challenging the amendments to Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products (Packaging and Labeling) Amendment Rules, 2008 (COTPA), pending before various high courts, will be heard fresh by the Karnataka High Court.

Clear ₹1.3k cr dues or face supply cut, NTPC to discoms

fe Bureau
New Delhi, May 4

IN what could worsen Delhi's scorching summer, state-run NTPC has issued notices to Reliance Infra-run power distribution companies, saying that power supply to them would be regulated from May 11 if the firms do not clear ₹1,300 crore of combined dues.

"The allocation letter issued by the government of India provides that in case of default in payment and non-maintenance of letter of credit, NTPC has the right to shut off or restrict power supply from power station and reallocate power," NTPC said in its notice to BSES Yamuna and BSES Rajdhani.

The proposed regulation of power would be implemented with effect from midnight of May 10. The thermal generator has also said it would supply the excess power resulting from regulating supply to any region that requests for it.

The notices refer to several reminders sent to the discoms regarding liquidation of outstanding bills. It said BSES firms have repeatedly defaulted on payments beyond the due date. Additionally, BSES firms have failed to maintain LC for the requisite amount and to extend the validity of the same for the period as per power purchase agreements (PPAs), NTPC said in its regulation notice to the discoms. NTPC has been supplying power to BRPL and BYPL since unbundling and privatisation of DVB.

Meanwhile, BSES said it is under huge financial stress due to non-liquidation of regulatory assets estimated to be over ₹16,000 crore as on March 31, 2016. "The payment of dues to power utilities by BSES discoms is sub judice in the Supreme Court. The judgment in the matter is reserved since February 2015. We are awaiting the judgment, which will clear the path for recovery/liquidation of regulatory assets," it said.

Apple again loses legal battle to keep its 'iphone' label off Chinese wallets

Hong Kong, May 4

APPLE has lost its fight to keep the "iphone" name exclusive to its products with a Beijing court deciding a little-known accessories maker can use the label for a range of wallets and purses.

The ruling affirmed that Xintong Tiandi Technology (Beijing) has the right to use the name on a swath of luxury leather goods, state publication Legal Daily reported.

While Apple retains the trademark for mobile devices, it defeats the company's efforts to gain full ownership of the moniker in the world's largest mobile market and is the second time it has lost exclusive use in China of a brand name it coined.

Xintong holds a Class 18 trademark running the gamut of leather and imitation leather goods, from smartphone cases to products that Apple has never launched like wallets and clutches, Legal Daily said.

The court decision upholds a 2013 ruling that centered on the fact that, when the Chinese company sought its trademark in September 2007, the iPhone had only been linked to products outside of China. Apple didn't start selling its iconic iPhones in the country until 2009, it said.

Apple declined to comment ahead of a formal statement. Xintong Tiandi, which uses the all-capital IPHONE label on its products, confirmed the court ruling on its website and said the decision represented a victory for free consumer markets.

The decision is unlikely to hurt the US company, which faced a similar issue over the iPad trademark. In 2012, Apple paid $60 million to Proview International Holdings to settle a dispute over the right to the iPad name in China.

Cut in coal imports may save ₹40k cr in FY17: Goyal

New Delhi, May 4: The government is aiming to save ₹40,000 crore in foreign exchange on account of lower coal imports this fiscal.

Helped by record coal production by the world's largest coal miner Coal India, India reduced its import bill of the dry fuel by around ₹28,000 crore last fiscal.

"Last year (fiscal), we did saving of ₹28,000 crore in foreign exchange. This year we are targeting ₹40,000 crore," coal and power minister Piyush Goyal said. He was addressing the media after the launch of the web portal on 'Contract Labour Payment Management System'.

"We would endeavour to... reduce the import of thermal coal and increase the production of domestic coal.

Coal secretary Anil Swarup said Coal India's output for this fiscal is fixed at 598 million tonnes. He said Coal India had decided to set up 15 washeries, which are expected to be completed by October 1, 2017.

He further said, "Thereafter, ensuring that all coal that has ash content of more that 34% is washed... and we are going well on our target. We are monitoring them very closely" PTI

Clear ₹1.3k cr dues or face supply cut, NTPC to discoms

fe Bureau
New Delhi, May 4

IN what could worsen Delhi's scorching summer, state-run NTPC has issued notices to Reliance Infra-run power distribution companies, saying that power supply to them would be regulated from May 11 if the firms do not clear ₹1,300 crore of combined dues.

"The allocation letter issued by the government of India provides that in case of default in payment and non-maintenance of letter of credit, NTPC has the right to shut off or restrict power supply from power station and reallocate power," NTPC said in its notice to BSES Yamuna and BSES Rajdhani.

The proposed regulation of power would be implemented with effect from midnight of May 10. The thermal generator has also said it would supply the excess power resulting from regulating supply to any region that requests for it.

The notices refer to several reminders sent to the discoms regarding liquidation of outstanding bills. It said BSES firms have repeatedly defaulted on payments beyond the due date. Additionally, BSES firms have failed to maintain LC for the requisite amount and to extend the validity of the same for the period as per power purchase agreements (PPAs), NTPC said in its regulation notice to the discoms. NTPC has been supplying power to BRPL and BYPL since unbundling and privatisation of DVB.

Meanwhile, BSES said it is under huge financial stress due to non-liquidation of regulatory assets estimated to be over ₹16,000 crore as on March 31, 2016. "The payment of dues to power utilities by BSES discoms is subjudice in the Supreme Court. The judgment in the matter is reserved since February 2015. We are awaiting the judgment, which will clear the path for recovery/liquidation of regulatory assets," it said.

Water scarcity to harm growth: WB

Washington, May 4: The World Bank has warned that water scarcity, exacerbated by climate change, could impact growth, spur migration and spark conflict across the globe including in India where several regions are facing water deficit.

A World Bank report 'High and Dry: Climate Change, Water and the Economy' released on Tuesday said the combined effects of growing populations, rising incomes and expanding cities will see demand for water rising exponentially, while supply becomes more erratic and uncertain.

Calling for need to enhance efficiency of water use in India, a top World Bank official said there is going to be mounting, increasing water deficits, or at least increasing demands for water across India.

In India, property related violence increases by about 4% when there is below average rainfall and communal riots become more frequent following episodes of floods, the World Bank said.

Cut in coal imports may save ₹40k cr in FY17: Goyal

New Delhi, May 4: The government is aiming to save ₹40,000 crore in foreign exchange on account of lower coal imports this fiscal.

Helped by record coal production by the world's largest coal miner Coal India, India reduced its import bill of the dry fuel by around ₹28,000 crore last fiscal.

"Last year (fiscal), we did saving of ₹28,000 crore in foreign exchange. This year we are targeting ₹40,000 crore," coal and power minister Piyush Goyal said. He was addressing the media after the launch of the web portal on 'Contract Labour Payment Management System'.

"We would endeavour to... reduce the import of thermal coal and increase the production of domestic coal.

Coal secretary Anil Swarup said Coal India's output for this fiscal is fixed at 598 million tonnes. He said Coal India had decided to set up 15 washeries, which are expected to be completed by October 1, 2017.

He further said, "Thereafter, ensuring that all coal that has ash content of more that 34% is washed... and we are going well on our target. We are monitoring them very closely."

There is not a single coal-based power plant in the country which has critical coal stock position, Goyal said.

"The thermal power plants in the country have an average coal stock of 26-27 days. The target before us is that there should be no shortage of coal in any coal-based power plant," the minister added.

"Record coal production by CIL leads to reduction in import by 34.26 million tonnes (MT). Results in a saving of ₹28,070 crore in foreign exchange during 2015-16," Coal Secretary had earlier said in a tweet.

He had further tweeted, imports of the crucial natural resource came down by 27.4% to 15.54 MT in March last fiscal from 21.42 MT during March 2014-15.

In 2015-16, Coal India had achieved a production of 536 MT.

However, CIL — which accounts for over 80 per cent of the domestic coal production — was eyeing 550 MT in 2015-16.

Big data breaches found at major email services

Frankfurt, May 4: Hundreds of millions of hacked usernames and passwords for email accounts and other websites are being traded in Russia's criminal underworld, a security expert told Reuters.

The discovery of 272.3 million stolen accounts included a majority of users of Mail.ru, Russia's most popular email service, and smaller fractions of Google, Yahoo and Microsoft email users, said Alex Holden, founder and chief information security officer of Hold Security.

It is one of the biggest stashes of stolen credentials to be uncovered since cyber attacks hit major US banks and retailers two years ago.

Holden was previously instrumental in uncovering some of the world's biggest known data breaches, affecting tens of millions of users at Adobe Systems, JPMorgan and Target and exposing them to subsequent cyber crimes.

The latest discovery came after Hold Security researchers found a young Russian hacker bragging in an online forum that he had collected and was ready to give away a far larger number of stolen credentials that ended up totalling 1.17 billion records.

After eliminating duplicates, Holden said, the cache contained nearly 57 million Mail.ru accounts — a big chunk of the 64 million monthly active email users Mail.ru said it had at the end of last year. It also included tens of millions of credentials for the world's three big email providers, Gmail, Microsoft and Yahoo, plus hundreds of thousands of accounts at German and Chinese email providers.

"This information is potent. It is floating around in the underground and this person has shown he's willing to give the data away to people who are nice to him," said Holden, the former chief security officer at US brokerage RW Baird. "These credentials can be abused multiple times," he said.

'Requests rise'

■ Washington, May 4: FBI requests for customer records under a secretive surveillance order increased by nearly 50% in 2015, according to a US government transparency report published this week. Internet and telecommunications companies in 2015 received 48,642 requests, up from 33,024 reported in 2014, for data via so-called National Security Letters (NSLs). The NSL is a tool used by the FBI.

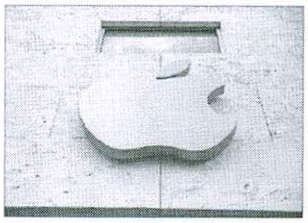
Apple loses legal battle to keep 'iphone' label off Chinese wallets



Hong Kong, May 4: Apple has lost its fight to keep the "iphone" name exclusive to its products with a Beijing court deciding a little-known accessories maker can use the label for a range of wallets and purses.

The ruling affirmed that Xintong Tiandi Technology (Beijing) has the right to use the name on a swath of luxury leathergoods, state publication Legal Daily reported.

While Apple retains the trademark for mobile devices, it defeats the company's efforts to gain full ownership of the moniker in the world's largest mobile market and is the second time it has lost exclusive use in China of a brand name it coined.

Xintong holds a Class 18 trademark running the gamut of leather and imitation leather goods, from smartphone cases to products that Apple has never launched like wallets and clutches, Legal Daily said.

The court decision upholds a 2013 ruling that centered on the fact that, when the Chinese company sought its trademark in September 2007, the iPhone had only been linked to products outside of China. Apple didn't start selling its iconic iPhones in the country until 2009, it said.

Apple declined to comment ahead of a formal statement. Xintong Tiandi, which uses the all-capital IPHONE label on its products, confirmed the court ruling on its website and said the decision represented a victory for free consumer markets.

The decision is unlikely to hurt the US company, which faced a similar issue over the iPad trademark. In 2012, Apple paid $60 million to Proview International Holdings to settle a dispute over the right to the iPad name in China.

"Apple could appeal this case to the Supreme People's Court in Beijing and they probably will," said Ted Chwu, a partner and lawyer specialising in intellectual property at Bird & Bird in Hong Kong. "If you've got the budget to make a huge commercial splash then you should expect that splash to attract attention in the wrong way."

The ruling is the latest in a series of setbacks for the world's largest technology company in China, where its book and movie services were blocked in April for violating foreign publishing regulations.

VVIP chopper probe: ED tracks cash; summons ex-IAF chief

New Delhi, May 4: Widening its probe in the ₹3,600-crore VVIP chopper deal, the ED has begun a trail of "cash" which is suspected to have been paid as alleged kickbacks for the purchase of 12 helicopters from UK-based AgustaWestland.

The financial probe agency has set the ball rolling with the second round of questioning of witnesses and accused in connection with the scam and is likely to quiz former IAF Chief SP Tyagi on Thursday, provided his recording of statement with the CBI ends on Wednesday.

The Enforcement Directorate (ED), which has been probing the money laundering angle in the case, has summoned cousins of Tyagi after his round of questioning is over besides realty firm Emaar MGF's boss Shravan Gupta.

Gupta's name cropped up after it was found that the alleged middleman Guido Haschke was an independent director of the firm between September to December 2009.

Company officials said Gupta will cooperate with investgative agencies.

The ED, in its charge sheet filed last year in a court, had claimed to have detected flow of alleged kickbacks sent from abroad to companies of the accused Gautam Khaitan and cousin brothers of the former IAF chief.

Officials said the flow of funds is being probed as it is alleged that it was quid pro quo to make AgustaWestland eligible to get selected for the final delivery of the 12 AW-101 helicopters to India for VVIP flying duties.

The ED, as per the charge sheet, had traced two payments of 1,26,000 euros and another two lakh euros from a company based in Tunisia and others made to Tyagi brothers "camouflaged" in the form of consultancy fee and its probe had found that the said "remittances correspond with the developments taking place in alteration/reduction of mandatory servicing ceiling of the helicopters."

The ED claimed that "besides these two remittances, the Tyagi brothers including the then IAF Chief Tyagi, also received some amount of cash from Haschke and Gerosa."

The ED probe found that the alleged middlemen Haschke and Carlo Gerosa, in collusion with the Tyagi brothers Sanjeev, Rajeev and Sandeep "managed to make inroads in IAF through Air Chief Marshal Tyagi and thereby could influence and subvert the consistent stand of IAF regarding mandatory service ceiling of the helicopters."

This ground was used by CBI and ED to register their respective FIRs in the case and brought out the alleged illegal involvement of the ex-IAF chief and his cousins in perpetrating the scam.

The agency, sources said, suspects the tainted cash could have been used by the accused for making certain high-value payments and purchase of costly items.

SC asks tobacco firms to adhere to new rules on health warning

New Delhi, May 4: The Supreme Court on Wednesday directed the tobacco companies to implement the rule mandating larger pictorial health warnings on packets of tobacco products and refused the manufacturers' plea to stay the implementation of new cigarette packaging rules introduced from April 1.

The apex court said that the tobacco companies have to follow the rules till the Karnataka High Court, where all the petitions from various high courts are being transferred, pronounced its final order.

While directing the transfer of the related petitions from High Courts of Delhi, Bombay and Gujarat to the Karnataka High Court, the top court said the operation of order of the principal bench of the Karnataka High Court in Bengaluru refusing stay on the new rules would continue.

A bench comprising Justices Pinaki Chandra Ghose and Amitava Roy also directed that all the petitions challenging the amendments to Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products (Packaging and Labeling) Amendment Rules, 2008 (COTPA), pending before various high courts, will be heard fresh by the Karnataka High Court.

Clear ₹1.3k cr dues or face supply cut, NTPC to discoms

fe Bureau
New Delhi, May 4

IN what could worsen Delhi's scorching summer, state-run NTPC has issued notices to Reliance Infra-run power distribution companies, saying that power supply to them would be regulated from May 11 if the firms do not clear ₹1,300 crore of combined dues.

"The allocation letter issued by the government of India provides that in case of default in payment and non-maintenance of letter of credit, NTPC has the right to shut off or restrict power supply from power station and reallocate power," NTPC said in its notice to BSES Yamuna and BSES Rajdhani.

The proposed regulation of power would be implemented with effect from midnight of May 10. The thermal generator has also said it would supply the excess power resulting from regulating supply to any region that requests for it.

The notices refer to several reminders sent to the discoms regarding liquidation of outstanding bills. It said BSES firms have repeatedly defaulted on payments beyond the due date. Additionally, BSES firms have failed to maintain LC for the requisite amount and to extend the validity of the same for the period as per power purchase agreements (PPAs), NTPC said in its regulation notice to the discoms. NTPC has been supplying power to BRPL and BYPL since unbundling and privatisation of DVB.

Meanwhile, BSES said it is under huge financial stress due to non-liquidation of regulatory assets estimated to be over ₹16,000 crore as on March 31, 2016. "The payment of dues to power utilities by BSES discoms is subjudice in the Supreme Court. The judgment in the matter is reserved since February 2015. We are awaiting the judgment, which will clear the path for recovery/liquidation of regulatory assets," it said.

Water scarcity to harm growth: WB

Washington, May 4: The World Bank has warned that water scarcity, exacerbated by climate change, could impact growth, spur migration and spark conflict across the globe including in India where several regions are facing water deficit.

A World Bank report 'High and Dry: Climate Change, Water and the Economy' released on Tuesday said the combined effects of growing populations, rising incomes and expanding cities will see demand for water rising exponentially, while supply becomes more erratic and uncertain.

Calling for need to enhance efficiency of water use in India, a top World Bank official said there is going to be mounting, increasing water deficits, or at least increasing demands for water across India.

In India, property related violence increases by about 4% when there is below average rainfall and communal riots become more frequent following episodes of floods, the World Bank said.

Cut in coal imports may save ₹40k cr in FY17: Goyal

New Delhi, May 4: The government is aiming to save ₹40,000 crore in foreign exchange on account of lower coal imports this fiscal.

Helped by record coal production by the world's largest coal miner Coal India, India reduced its import bill of the dry fuel by around ₹28,000 crore last fiscal.

"Last year (fiscal), we did saving of ₹28,000 crore in foreign exchange. This year we are targeting ₹40,000 crore," coal and power minister Piyush Goyal said. He was addressing the media after the launch of the web portal on 'Contract Labour Payment Management System'.

"We would endeavour to... reduce the import of thermal coal and increase the production of domestic coal.

Coal secretary Anil Swarup said Coal India's output for this fiscal is fixed at 598 million tonnes. He said Coal India had decided to set up 15 washeries, which are expected to be completed by October 1, 2017.

He further said, "Thereafter, ensuring that all coal that has ash content of more that 34% is washed... and we are going well on our target. We are monitoring them very closely."

There is not a single coal-based power plant in the country which has critical coal stock position, Goyal said.

"The thermal power plants in the country have an average coal stock of 26-27 days. The target before us is that there should be no shortage of coal in any coal-based power plant," the minister added.

"Record coal production by CIL leads to reduction in import by 34.26 million tonnes (MT). Results in a saving of ₹28,070 crore in foreign exchange during 2015-16," Coal Secretary had earlier said in a tweet.

He had further tweeted, imports of the crucial natural resource came down by 27.4% to 15.51 MT in March last fiscal from 21.42 MT during March 2014-15.

In 2015-16, Coal India had achieved a production of 536 MT.

However, CIL — which accounts for over 80 per cent of the domestic coal production — was eyeing 550 MT in 2015-16.

Big data breaches found at major email services

Frankfurt, May 4: Hundreds of millions of hacked usernames and passwords for email accounts and other websites are being traded in Russia's criminal underworld, a security expert told Reuters.

The discovery of 272.3 million stolen accounts included a majority of users of Mail.ru, Russia's most popular email service, and smaller fractions of Google, Yahoo and Microsoft email users, said Alex Holden, founder and chief information security officer of Hold Security.

It is one of the biggest stashes of stolen credentials to be uncovered since cyber attacks hit major US banks and retailers two years ago.

Holden was previously instrumental in uncovering some of the world's biggest known data breaches, affecting tens of millions of users at Adobe Systems, JPMorgan and Target and exposing them to subsequent cyber crimes.

The latest discovery came after Hold Security researchers found a young Russian hacker bragging in an online forum that he had collected and was ready to give away a far larger number of stolen credentials that ended up totalling 1.17 billion records.

After eliminating duplicates, Holden said, the cache contained nearly 57 million Mail.ru accounts — a big chunk of the 64 million monthly active email users Mail.ru said it had at the end of last year. It also included tens of millions of credentials for the world's three big email providers, Gmail, Microsoft and Yahoo, plus hundreds of thousands of accounts at German and Chinese email providers.

"This information is potent. It is floating around in the underground and this person has shown he's willing to give the data away to people who are nice to him," said Holden, the former chief security officer at US brokerage RW Baird. "These credentials can be abused multiple times," he said.

'Requests rise'

Washington, May 4: FBI requests for customer records under a secretive surveillance order increased by nearly 50% in 2015, according to a US government transparency report published this week. Internet and telecommunications companies in 2015 received 48,642 requests, up from 33,024 reported in 2014, for data via so-called National Security Letters (NSLs). The NSL is a tool used by the FBI.

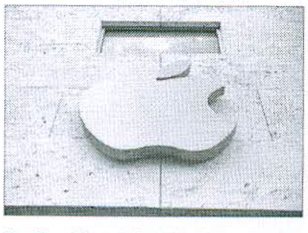
Apple loses legal battle to keep 'iphone' label off Chinese wallets



Hong Kong, May 4: Apple has lost its fight to keep the "iphone" name exclusive to its products with a Beijing court deciding a little-known accessories maker can use the label for a range of wallets and purses.

The ruling affirmed that Xintong Tiandi Technology (Beijing) has the right to use the name on a swath of luxury leather goods, state publication Legal Daily reported.

While Apple retains the trademark for mobile devices, it defeats the company's efforts to gain full ownership of the moniker in the world's largest mobile market and is the second time it has lost exclusive use in China of a brand name it coined.

Xintong holds a Class 18 trademark running the gamut of leather and imitation leather goods, from smartphone cases to products that Apple has never launched like wallets and clutches, Legal Daily said.

The court decision upholds a 2013 ruling that centered on the fact that, when the Chinese company sought its trademark in September 2007, the iPhone had only been linked to products outside of China. Apple didn't start selling its iconic iPhones in the country until 2009, it said.

Apple declined to comment ahead of a formal statement. Xintong Tiandi, which uses the all-capital IPHONE label on its products, confirmed the court ruling on its website and said the decision represented a victory for free consumer markets.

The decision is unlikely to hurt the US company, which faced a similar issue over the iPad trademark. In 2012, Apple paid $60 million to Proview International Holdings to settle a dispute over the right to the iPad name in China.

"Apple could appeal this case to the Supreme People's Court in Beijing and they probably will," said Ted Chwu, a partner and lawyer specialising in intellectual property at Bird & Bird in Hong Kong. "If you've got the budget to make a huge commercial splash then you should expect that splash to attract attention in the wrong way."

The ruling is the latest in a series of setbacks for the world's largest technology company in China, where its book and movie services were blocked in April for violating foreign publishing regulations.

VVIP chopper probe: ED tracks cash; summons ex-IAF chief

New Delhi, May 4: Widening its probe in the ₹3,600-crore VVIP chopper deal, the ED has begun a trail of "cash" which is suspected to have been paid as alleged kickbacks for the purchase of 12 helicopters from UK-based AgustaWestland.

The financial probe agency has set the ball rolling with the second round of questioning of witnesses and accused in connection with the scam and is likely to quiz former IAF Chief SP Tyagi on Thursday, provided his recording of statement with the CBI ends on Wednesday.

The Enforcement Directorate (ED), which has been probing the money laundering angle in the case, has summoned cousins of Tyagi after his round of questioning is over besides realty firm Emaar MGF's boss Shravan Gupta.

Gupta's name cropped up after it was found that the alleged middleman Guido Haschke was an independent director of the firm between September to December 2009.

Company officials said Gupta will cooperate with investgative agencies.

The ED, in its charge sheet filed last year in a court, had claimed to have detected flow of alleged kickbacks sent from abroad to companies of the accused Gautam Khaitan and cousin brothers of the former IAF chief.

Officials said the flow of funds is being probed as it is alleged that it was quid pro quo to make AgustaWestland eligible to get selected for the final delivery of the 12 AW-101 helicopters to India for VVIP flying duties.

The ED, as per the charge sheet, had traced two payments of 1,26,000 euros and another two lakh euros from a company based in Tunisia and others made to Tyagi brothers "camouflaged" in the form of consultancy fee and its probe had found that the said "remittances correspond with the developments taking place in alteration/reduction of mandatory servicing ceiling of the helicopters."

The ED claimed that "besides these two remittances, the Tyagi brothers including the then IAF Chief Tyagi, also received some amount of cash from Haschke and Gerosa."

The ED probe found that the alleged middlemen Haschke and Carlo Gerosa, in collusion with the Tyagi brothers Sanjeev, Rajeev and Sandeep "managed to make inroads in IAF through Air Chief Marshal Tyagi and thereby could influence and subvert the consistent stand of IAF regarding mandatory service ceiling of the helicopters."

This ground was used by CBI and ED to register their respective FIRs in the case and brought out the alleged illegal involvement of the ex-IAF chief and his cousins in perpetrating the scam.

The agency, sources said, suspects the tainted cash could have been used by the accused for making certain high-value payments and purchase of costly items.

SC asks tobacco firms to adhere to new rules on health warning

New Delhi, May 4: The Supreme Court on Wednesday directed the tobacco companies to implement the rule mandating larger pictorial health warnings on packets of tobacco products and refused the manufacturers' plea to stay the implementation of new cigarette packaging rules introduced from April 1.

The apex court said that the tobacco companies have to follow the rules till the Karnataka High Court, where all the petitions from various high courts are being transferred, pronounced its final order.

While directing the transfer of the related petitions from High Courts of Delhi, Bombay and Gujarat to the Karnataka High Court, the top court said the operation of order of the principal bench of the Karnataka High Court in Bengaluru refusing stay on the new rules would continue.

A bench comprising Justices Pinaki Chandra Ghose and Amitava Roy also directed that all the petitions challenging the amendments to Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products (Packaging and Labeling) Amendment Rules, 2008 (COTPA), pending before various high courts, will be heard fresh by the Karnataka High Court.

Clear ₹1.3k cr dues or face supply cut, NTPC to discoms

fe Bureau
New Delhi, May 4

IN what could worsen Delhi's scorching summer, state-run NTPC has issued notices to Reliance Infra-run power distribution companies, saying that power supply to them would be regulated from May 11 if the firms do not clear ₹1,300 crore of combined dues.

"The allocation letter issued by the government of India provides that in case of default in payment and non-maintenance of letter of credit, NTPC has the right to shut off or restrict power supply from power station and reallocate power," NTPC said in its notice to BSES Yamuna and BSES Rajdhani.

The proposed regulation of power would be implemented with effect from midnight of May 10. The thermal generator has also said it would supply the excess power resulting from regulating supply to any region that requests for it.

The notices refer to several reminders sent to the discoms regarding liquidation of outstanding bills. It said BSES firms have repeatedly defaulted on payments beyond the due date. Additionally, BSES firms have failed to maintain LC for the requisite amount and to extend the validity of the same for the period as per power purchase agreements (PPAs), NTPC said in its regulation notice to the discoms. NTPC has been supplying power to BRPL and BYPL since unbundling and privatisation of DVB.

Meanwhile, BSES said it is under huge financial stress due to non-liquidation of regulatory assets estimated to be over ₹16,000 crore as on March 31, 2016. "The payment of dues to power utilities by BSES discoms is subjudice in the Supreme Court. The judgment in the matter is reserved since February 2015. We are awaiting the judgment, which will clear the path for recovery/liquidation of regulatory assets," it said.

Water scarcity to harm growth: WB

Washington, May 4: The World Bank has warned that water scarcity, exacerbated by climate change, could impact growth, spur migration and spark conflict across the globe including in India where several regions are facing water deficit.

A World Bank report 'High and Dry: Climate Change, Water and the Economy' released on Tuesday said the combined effects of growing populations, rising incomes and expanding cities will see demand for water rising exponentially, while supply becomes more erratic and uncertain.

Calling for need to enhance efficiency of water use in India, a top World Bank official said there is going to be mounting, increasing water deficits, or at least increasing demands for water across India.

In India, property related violence increases by about 4% when there is below average rainfall and communal riots become more frequent following episodes of floods, the World Bank said.

Cut in coal imports may save ₹40k cr in FY17: Goyal

New Delhi, May 4: The government is aiming to save ₹40,000 crore in foreign exchange on account of lower coal imports this fiscal.

Helped by record coal production by the world's largest coal miner Coal India, India reduced its import bill of the dry fuel by around ₹28,000 crore last fiscal.

"Last year (fiscal), we did saving of ₹28,000 crore in foreign exchange. This year we are targeting ₹40,000 crore," coal and power minister Piyush Goyal said. He was addressing the media after the launch of the web portal on 'Contract Labour Payment Management System'.

"We would endeavour to... reduce the import of thermal coal and increase the production of domestic coal.

Coal secretary Anil Swarup said Coal India's output for this fiscal is fixed at 598 million tonnes. He said Coal India had decided to set up 15 washeries, which are expected to be completed by October 1, 2017.

He further said, "Thereafter, ensuring that all coal that has ash content of more that 34% is washed... and we are going well on our target. We are monitoring them very closely."

There is not a single coal-based power plant in the country which has critical coal stock position, Goyal said.

"The thermal power plants in the country have an average coal stock of 26-27 days. The target before us is that there should be no shortage of coal in any coal-based power plant," the minister added.

"Record coal production by CIL leads to reduction in import by 34.26 million tonnes (MT). Results in a saving of ₹28,070 crore in foreign exchange during 2015-16," Coal Secretary had earlier said in a tweet.

He had further tweeted, imports of the crucial natural resource came down by 27.4% to 15.54 MT in March last fiscal from 21.42 MT during March 2014-15.

In 2015-16, Coal India had achieved a production of 536 MT.

However, CIL — which accounts for over 80 per cent of the domestic coal production — was eyeing 550 MT in 2015-16.

Big data breaches found at major email services

Frankfurt, May 4: Hundreds of millions of hacked usernames and passwords for email accounts and other websites are being traded in Russia's criminal underworld, a security expert told Reuters.

The discovery of 272.3 million stolen accounts included a majority of users of Mail.ru, Russia's most popular email service, and smaller fractions of Google, Yahoo and Microsoft email users, said Alex Holden, founder and chief information security officer of Hold Security.

It is one of the biggest stashes of stolen credentials to be uncovered since cyber attacks hit major US banks and retailers two years ago.

Holden was previously instrumental in uncovering some of the world's biggest known data breaches, affecting tens of millions of users at Adobe Systems, JPMorgan and Target and exposing them to subsequent cyber crimes.

The latest discovery came after Hold Security researchers found a young Russian hacker bragging in an online forum that he had collected and was ready to give away a far larger number of stolen credentials that ended up totalling 1.17 billion records.

After eliminating duplicates, Holden said, the cache contained nearly 57 million Mail.ru accounts — a big chunk of the 64 million monthly active email users Mail.ru said it had at the end of last year. It also included tens of millions of credentials for the world's three big email providers, Gmail, Microsoft and Yahoo, plus hundreds of thousands of accounts at German and Chinese email providers.

"This information is potent. It is floating around in the underground and this person has shown he's willing to give the data away to people who are nice to him," said Holden, the former chief security officer at US brokerage RW Baird. "These credentials can be abused multiple times," he said.

'Requests rise'

Washington, May 4: FBI requests for customer records under a secretive surveillance order increased by nearly 50% in 2015, according to a US government transparency report published this week. Internet and telecommunications companies in 2015 received 48,642 requests, up from 33,024 reported in 2014, for data via so-called National Security Letters (NSLs). The NSL is a tool used by the FBI.

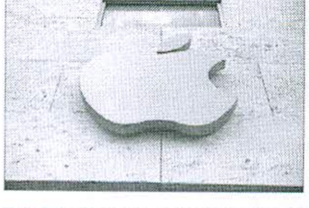
Apple loses legal battle to keep 'iphone' label off Chinese wallets



Hong Kong, May 4: Apple has lost its fight to keep the "iphone" name exclusive to its products with a Beijing court deciding a little-known accessories maker can use the label for a range of wallets and purses.

The ruling affirmed that Xintong Tiandi Technology (Beijing) has the right to use the name on a swath of luxury leather goods, state publication Legal Daily reported.

While Apple retains the trademark for mobile devices, it defeats the company's efforts to gain full ownership of the moniker in the world's largest mobile market and is the second time it has lost exclusive use in China of a brand name it coined.

Xintong holds a Class 18 trademark running the gamut of leather and imitation leather goods, from smartphone cases to products that Apple has never launched like wallets and clutches, Legal Daily said.

The court decision upholds a 2013 ruling that centered on the fact that, when the Chinese company sought its trademark in September 2007, the iPhone had only been linked to products outside of China. Apple didn't start selling its iconic iPhones in the country until 2009, it said.

Apple declined to comment ahead of a formal statement. Xintong Tiandi, which uses the all-capital IPHONE label on its products, confirmed the court ruling on its website and said the decision represented a victory for free consumer markets.

The decision is unlikely to hurt the US company, which faced a similar issue over the iPad trademark. In 2012, Apple paid $60 million to Proview International Holdings to settle a dispute over the right to the iPad name in China.

"Apple could appeal this case to the Supreme People's Court in Beijing and they probably will," said Ted Chwu, a partner and lawyer specialising in intellectual property at Bird & Bird in Hong Kong. "If you've got the budget to make a huge commercial splash then you should expect that splash to attract attention in the wrong way."

The ruling is the latest in a series of setbacks for the world's largest technology company in China, where its book and movie services were blocked in April for violating foreign publishing regulations.

385 Indian applications for trademark registration in FY16

Mumbai, May 4: The World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) received only 385 applications from the Indian entrepreneurs aspiring to have their trademarks registered globally during the year 2015-16. On the other hand, 24,000 international registrations sought protection of trademarks in India in this period.

WIPO is the global forum for intellectual property services, policy, information and co-operation.

"Out of these 24,000 international registrations, 11,778 have already been notified in the fiscal 2015-16," controller general of patents, designs and trademarks O P Gupta told PTI, speaking on the sidelines of a Make in India event organised by the World Trade Centre and All India Association of Industries (AIAI) here.

"Unfortunately, we have received merely 385 applications from Indian entrepreneurs so far and out of which, 265 applications have already been processed by WIPO," he said. But the situation is quite different when it comes to applications for trademarks within the country.

"We have received around 2,85,000 applications for trademarks from Indian entrepreneurs in 2015-16, from 2,00,000 in 2014-15, a 43% increase," he said. "During the current fiscal, we have received around 25,000 applications from Indian entities so far," he said.

The domestic industry is still not taking advantage of convention and treaties to which India is party, and which provide facilitation of registration of trademarks outside the country, he said, adding "this is why we are holding seminars on the subject so as to create awareness."

Crackdown on sugar millers for FRP payments

Nanda Kasabe

Pune, May 4: Even as Maharashtra's sugar season is slated to end on May 10, when the last couple of factories that are still crushing cane will complete crushing operations for the season of 2015-16, the government continues to maintain pressure on millers for Fair and Remunerative Price (FRP) payments.

Around 740 lakh tonne of cane has been crushed so far resulting in production of 84 lakh tonnes of sugar so far, top officials of the Maharashtra Sugar Commissionerate said. The commissionerate has initiated stern action against 20 mills for their failure to make FRP payments for the season.

"At the latest hearing, Revenue Recovery Certificate (RRC) orders have been issued against 6 mills, crushing licenses of 6 mills has been cancelled and crushing licences of another 8 mills has been suspended. Of the 8 mills, four mills have made payments," Vipin Sharma, Maharashtra Sugar commissioner told FE. The total fine for crushing without licence comes upto Rs 116 crore, he said. Hearings were held for some 32 factories last week. As per the latest arrear report, around 84% of the FRP payments have been recovered while 14% millers still owe payments to farmers.
