Tata Consultancy Services Receives 15 Brandon Hall Group Awards

Commitment to Human Capital Management (HCM) has Earned TCS Multiple Awards for Human Resources, Retail, Life Sciences, and Business Process Services Programs

NEW YORK | MUMBAI, February 14, 2017: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) a leading global IT services, consulting and business solutions organization, today announced it has been awarded 15 Brandon Hall Group awards across five human resources categories at the Brandon Hall Group's HCM Excellence Awards 2016.

TCS' Human Resources, Retail, Life Sciences, and Business Process Services units were all recognized for custom talent management programs that inspire employee learning and development. TCS received nine awards, five of which were gold, in the Excellence in Learning Awards category; three awards (two gold) in the Excellence in Talent Acquisition Awards category; a gold award in the Excellence in Leadership Development Awards category; a silver award in the Excellence in Technology Awards category; and a bronze award in the Excellence in Talent Management Awards category.

"TCS invests in learning programs to engage and enable our employees to acquire and build new skills and leadership techniques," said Ajoy Mukherjee, Executive vice president and Global Head, Human Resources. More than 190,000 TCSers are equipped with new capabilities with different digital technologies to help our customers with their transformations. We also have invested in platforms for 'anywhere anytime' learning accessibility. Recognition from the Brandon Hall Group is a testament to TCS' dedication to offering innovative and technology-driven learning."

"Winning a Brandon Hall Group Excellence Award means an organization is an elite innovator within Human Capital Management. The award signifies that the organization's work represents a leading practice in that HCM function," said Rachel Cooke, Chief Operating Officer of Brandon Hall Group and head of the awards program. "Their achievement is also notable because of the positive impact their work in HCM has on business results. All award winners have to demonstrate a measurable benefit to the business, not just the HCM operation. That's an important distinction. Our HCM award winners are helping to transform the business.

The Brandon Hall HCM Excellence awards are presented annually by Brandon Hall Research, a leading research firm in training and development. The award entries were evaluated by a panel of veteran, independent senior industry experts, Brandon Hall Group analysts and executives based upon the following criteria: fit the need, design of the program, functionality, innovation, and overall measureable benefits. Award winners were honored at Brandon Hall Group's HCM Excellence Conference 2016, held from January 27-29 in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.
