Sonata recognized in the Leadership zone for Software Product Engineering by Zinnov

Wins recognition four years in a row

Bengaluru, December 15th, 2015

Sonata Software, a global technology services and solutions company, announced today that it maintained its position in the Leadership zone in the recent Global Service Providers Ratings (GSPR) 2015 published by Zinnov, for Software Product Development in Enterprise and Consumer Software categories. According to the survey, Sonata Software was rated as an established and niche service provider overall.

Sonata has a very strong service portfolio for Independent Software Vendors (ISVs) spanning Product Engineering, Professional Services and Go to Market, with two decades of experience in working with them. With its capability on new platforms and frameworks like Cloud, Mobility, Analytics & DevOps, Sonata provides solutions that enable ISVs to successfully manage the change such new digital technologies are bringing to the business software product market. Sonata's track record of working with Fortune 500 companies and world class alliances with Microsoft, SAP & Oracle, make it a partner of choice for ISVs focused on enterprise software.

Speaking on the occasion, Srikar Reddy, MD & CEO, Sonata Software said,"Product Engineering is a key segment for Sonata and we strive hard to provide best-in-class services to our clients. This recognition from Zinnov is an evidence of our pursuit of excellence. Getting featured in the leadership zone four years in a row, is a testimony that we are working in the right direction to provide solutions for changing customer needs."

"Sonata Software has consistently been rated in the leadership position in Zinnov's GSPR ratings for Software Product Development services. Sonata's deep understanding, based on their rich product engineering heritage, imparts them an edge over other Product Engineering Services organizations. Having executed 360 degree relationships with some of the largest ISV customers, their flexibility to partner with their customers through innovative and risk sharing business models makes them a standout candidate for any organization looking for a true engineering partner", said Sidhant Rastogi, Partner & Practice Head of Zinnov.
