Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Update in relation to title suit no. 122 of 2016 filed by NCS Computech Limited before the Court of Civil Judge (Senior Division), Serampore, West Bengal against Quick Heal Technologies Limited (the "Company")

This is with respect to the captioned matter.

NCS Computech and others (the "Petitioners") had filed a title suit no. 122 of 2016 before the City Civil Court at Calcutta (the "Court") against our Company claiming intellectual property rights to the brand name "Total Security" and alleging illegal usage of the said brand name by our Company (the "Suit").

The Court by its order dated June 8, 2016 (which was received by the Company on June 29, 2016), has dismissed the Suit. The Suit was primarily dismissed by the Court on account of Petitioners being absent after repeated calls. It has been observed by the Court that Petitioner is not willing to proceed with the Suit.

Since the Petitioners did not show any seriousness in pursuing the Suit, it is evident that the Petitioners had no real ground for the Suit and it was frivolous in nature and that the Petitioners had ulterior motive to harass the Company during the initial public offering of the Company.

The dismissal of the Suit re-confirms that the Company has not indulged into any wrongdoing and that the Company owns intellectual property rights to the brand name "Total Security".

For Quick Heal Technologies Limited
