Sudarshan announces Award of Sword of Honour from British Safety Council

The British Safety Council has announced that Sudarshan, India's leading pigment manufacturer, will be receiving the Sword of Honour for the manufacturing locations in Roha and Mahad, India on November 23rd at a ceremony in London. This follows the 5 star rating for Health and Safety Management Systems for both sites in April 2012.

Mr. Rajesh Rathi, Head of Sudarshan's Pigment Division comments "The British Safety Council Sword of Honour represents a pinnacle of achievement in the world of health and safety management. As a major pigment manufacturer, we understand the value of protecting and caring for our employees and local communities. Everyone at Sudarshan works relentlessly to establish and maintain robust safety practices, and it is being recognized internationally. We thank all our employees."
