 - b. As such, it was necessary for the Transferor Company to set up a new Non-Banking Financial Company ("NBFC") and transfer the appropriate businesses from the Company (other than investments in Group Companies, as defined under the CIC Guidelines) to the new NBFC.
 - c. Therefore, the Transferor Company has set up the Transferee Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Transferor Company, which has been incorporated pursuant to an approval accorded at the Board Meeting of the Transferor Company held on 19th October, 2010. The Transferee Company is proposed to be registered with RBI as an NBFC and has filed an application in this regard with RBI.
 - d. To achieve the above, the Transferor Company has proposed to transfer the Transferred Undertaking of the Transferor Company by way of a sale of business on a going concern basis for a pre-agreed cash consideration being discharged by the Transferee Company to the Transferor Company. The business of investments in securities of group companies and investment in other group entities as permitted under the CIC guidelines, investment advisory business, portfolio management services and management of private equity funds would continue to reside in the Transferor Company.

- e. Subsequent to the above, it is proposed to effect the transfer of the Transferred Undertaking of the Transferor Company to the Transferee Company through a Scheme of Arrangement under Sections 391 – 394 and other applicable provisions of the Act, so as to provide an opportunity to all the stakeholders to review and approve the arrangement as well as to get the assent of a judicial authority.

The latest accounts of both companies indicate that they are in a solvent position and would be able to meet liabilities as they arise in the course of business. There is no likelihood that any secured or unsecured creditor of either of the companies would lose or be prejudiced as a result of the Scheme being passed nor are their rights sought to be modified in any manner. Hence, the transfer of the Transferred Undertaking of the Transferor Company to the Transferee Company pursuant to the proposed Scheme will not cast any additional burden on the shareholders or creditors of the Transferor Company or the Transferee Company, nor will it affect the interest of any of the shareholders or creditors. It is submitted that the aggregate assets of the Transferor Company and the Transferee Company are more than sufficient to meet all their respective external liabilities and the Scheme will not adversely affect the rights and interest of any of the creditors of any company in any manner whatsoever.
