Re: Appointment of Interim Resolution Professional by NCLT Divison Bench , Chennai

We acknowledge receipt of your e-mail seeking clarifications on the appointment of Interim Resolution Professional by NCLT Divison Bench , Chennai.

We wish to mention that we have appealed against the orders of NCLT , Chennai with NCLAT and hope to hear from NCLAT anytime soon. The interim resolution professional appointed by NCLT , Chennai is collating data from various sources as part of the resolution process which is still at a nascent stage .

In view of the above we wish to mention that all the queries raised by you could be answered by us only after hearing from the IRP / NCLAT order.

However we wish to inform you that after appointment of IRP , there is a time limit of 180 days given to IRP to come up with a resolution plan which can be finalized only after convening a meeting of Committee of Creditors. Since there are lot of activities which needs to be handled in a particular sequence the queries no. 1 to 9 raised by you can only be answered at a later stage.

As regards filing of claims by Financial Creditors , we request you to kindly refer the order passed by NCLT , Divison Bench , Chennai , which was furnished to NSE on November 8, 2018.

Thanking You,

Yours faithfully,
