SECTION III – RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider all the information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below before making an investment in the Equity Shares.

We have described the risks and uncertainties that we believe are material, but these risks and uncertainties may not be the only risks relevant to us, the Equity Shares, or the industry in which we currently operate or propose to operate. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factor below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial or other implication of any of the risks mentioned in this section. If any or a combination of the following risks actually occur, or if any of the risks that are currently not known or deemed to be not relevant or material now actually occur or become material in the future, our business, cash flows, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could suffer, the trading price of the Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

To obtain a more detailed understanding of our business and operations, see this section in conjunction with the sections titled “Our Industry”, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations”, respectively, as well as other financial and statistical information contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Unless otherwise indicated or unless the context requires otherwise, our financial information used in this section are derived from our Restated Financial Statements. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our business and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and risks involved. Prospective investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences to them of an investment in our Equity Shares.

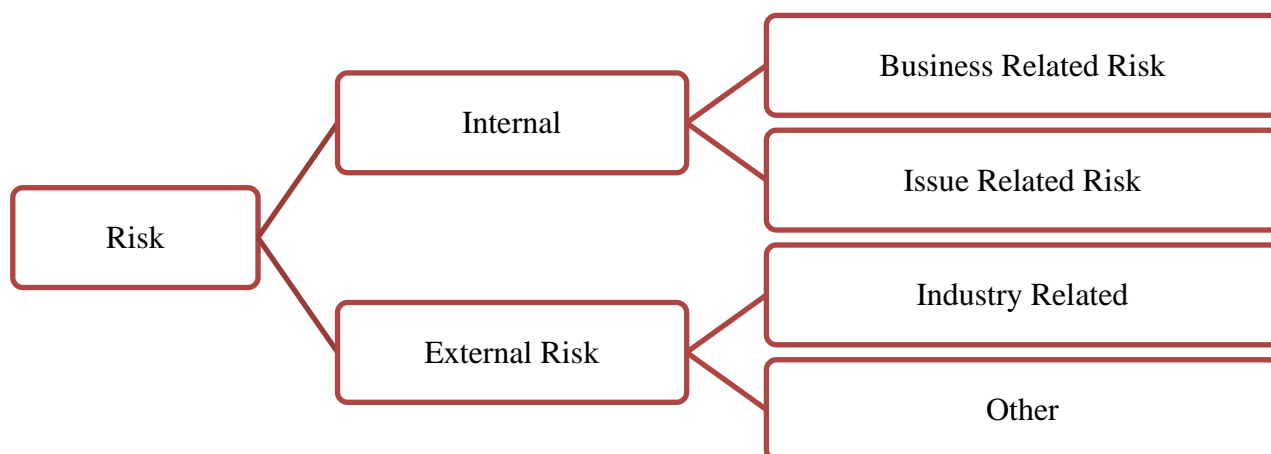

This Draft Red Herring Prospectus also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, assumptions, estimates and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including but not limited to the considerations described below. For details, refer to the chapter “Forward-Looking Statements”.

Materiality

The Risk factors have been determined on the basis of their materiality, which has been decided on the basis of following factors:

- Some events may not be material individually but may be material when considered collectively.
- Some events may have an impact which is qualitative though not quantitative.
- Some events may not be material at present but may have a material impact in the future.

Classification of Risk Factors

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

1. We are dependent on few suppliers for sourcing our liquified petroleum gas. As of March 31,2025, we procured liquified petroleum gas from three suppliers which constituted more than 99% of our total quantity purchased. Any disruption in the receipt of liquified petroleum gas from these third parties, or delay or default in timely sourcing of the liquified petroleum gas could lead to a disruption or failure in the supply of liquified petroleum, gas by us, which could adversely affect our business, reputation, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Business is highly dependent on third-party suppliers for sourcing of LPG. As of March 31, 2025, we procured 99.42% of our liquified petroleum gas from three key suppliers. The following table sets forth our top 3 suppliers in the periods indicated:

(₹ In Lakhs)

Particulars	March 31 2025		March 31 2024		March 31 2023
	Amount	In %	Amount	In %	Amount	In %
Top 3 Suppliers	6143.38	99.42	5,240.20	96.87	4,095.82	97.90

Any disruption or intervention in the supply chain poses significant risks to our business continuity, including but not limited to disruptions in the supply of liquified petroleum gas pose several risks to our business operations. Operational downtime due to logistical issues, geopolitical events, or natural disasters can halt production and delay delivery, directly affecting customer commitments. Interruptions may also force us to source from more expensive suppliers, leading to unplanned cost fluctuations and reduced profitability. Additionally, supply chain bottlenecks may ripple through our broader operations, creating delays and increased costs for critical goods and services. Such disruptions could damage our reputation, strain long-term relationships, and harm our ability to meet regulatory compliance standards, potentially resulting in fines or loss of licenses. Furthermore, relying on a limited number of suppliers increases exposure to risks from external factors like political instability or environmental issues. Lastly, ongoing disruptions could force us to reevaluate strategic plans, delaying expansion or innovation and weakening our competitive position in the market. Although there have been no instances of supply interruptions in the past, we cannot entirely eliminate the possibility of such events occurring in the future.

2. Our transportation of LPG is majorly done by our related party i.e. “Prime Fuel Logistics Private Limited” our group company. As of March 31, 2025, we transported LPG from our group company which constituted more than majority of our total transport cost. Any disruption in the transport of such LPG from our group company, or delay or default in timely transportation of the LPG or any mishap happened during transportation could lead to a disruption or failure in the transportation of LPG by us, which could adversely affect our business, reputation, results of operations and cash flows.

We rely on logistics companies for transport of our LPG from supplier’s point to our various ALDS situated at various locations. This reliance creates significant risk for our operations delays or interruptions in transportation, whether due to mechanical failures, adverse weather conditions, labour strikes, or regulatory issues, can result in supply chain disruptions and delays in product delivery to retail outlets. These disruptions could prevent us from meeting customer demand, leading to stockouts, lost sales, and diminished customer satisfaction. Additionally, transportation of LPG is subject to strict safety regulations, and any accidents, spills, or mishaps during transit could result in legal liabilities, fines, or damage to the environment. These incidents could also cause reputational harm, eroding customer trust and tarnishing our brand image. Furthermore, transportation failures may force us to seek alternative, often costlier, logistics providers, increasing operational costs and impacting profitability. The reliance on transporters further complicates risk management, as factors beyond our control, such as geopolitical events or logistical issues, could disrupt the timely and safe delivery of LPG. Although there have been no instances of logistics interruptions in the past, we cannot entirely eliminate the possibility of such events occurring in the future.

The following table sets forth the parties from whom we transport the gas in the periods indicated:

(₹ in lakhs)

Nature of Transaction	Name of Related Parties	For the Year Ended on
		March 31 2025	March 31 2024	March 31 2023
Transportation Services Received	Prime Fuel Logistics Private Limited	430.00	366.20	268.82

3. Transporting LPG is hazardous and could result in accidents, which could adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

LPG is highly combustible. Our operations are subject to the risks and hazards inherent in the business of LPG transportation and distribution such as:

- accidents, fires and explosions;
- leaks or other losses of LPG or other hydrocarbons as a result of the malfunction of equipment;
- damage from third parties, including from construction and utilities equipment and from other surface users;

- blowouts (uncontrolled escapes of LPG from pipelines);
- difficulties maintaining and extending our widespread network infrastructure; and
- natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods, storms, landslides and other adverse weather conditions and hazards.

These risks could result in serious injury and death to employees and others, significant damage to property, environmental pollution, legal proceedings, impairment of our business and operations and curtailment or suspension of our supply of LPG, which in turn could lead to substantial loss to us. We could also receive adverse publicity and experience diversion of management attention and resources in defending such claims. Further, the location of our laid down network infrastructure and storage facilities in or near heavily populated areas, including residential areas, commercial business centres and industrial sites, may increase the chance of sustaining injuries, causing deaths or resulting in damages resulting from any such related incidents. Although there have been no instances of supply interruptions in the past, we cannot entirely eliminate the possibility of such events occurring in the future.

4. LPG is highly flammable and poses significant safety risks if mishandled. Compliance with strict safety regulations and standards is crucial to mitigate the risk of accidents, fires, and explosions which could adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

LPG is highly combustible, leading to risks of accidents, fires, and explosions. These incidents can cause serious harm to employees and others, significant property damage, and environmental pollution. Malfunctioning equipment can lead to leaks or losses of LPG, posing environmental and safety risks. Prompt detection and maintenance are crucial to mitigate these risks. Construction activities and utilities equipment can damage pipelines, leading to leaks or other operational disruptions. Uncontrolled escapes of LPG from pipelines can occur, necessitating robust preventive measures and emergency response plans. Maintaining and expanding a widespread network infrastructure is complex and requires continuous investment and attention to prevent failures. Events like earthquakes, floods, storms, landslides, and adverse weather conditions can damage infrastructure and disrupt operations. These risks could result in serious injury and death to employees and others, significant damage to property, environmental pollution, legal proceedings, impairment of our business and operations and curtailment or suspension of our supply of LPG, which in turn could lead to substantial loss to us. We could also receive adverse publicity and experience diversion of management attention and resources in defending such claims. Further, the location of our laid down network infrastructure and storage facilities in or near heavily populated areas, including residential areas, commercial business centres and industrial sites, may increase the chance of sustaining injuries, causing deaths or resulting in damages resulting from any such related incidents. While there have been no such instances in the past and as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus the damages to any such instances cannot be quantified and we cannot assure that we will be able to appropriately respond to such incidents in the future.

5. There have been instances in the past where we have not made certain regulatory filings with the ROC and there were certain instances of discrepancies in relation to certain statutory filings and corporate records of our company.

The Company has, in the past, experienced certain instances of non-compliance under the Companies Act, 1956 and the Companies Act, 2013. These include share transfers undertaken in 2010 without execution of the prescribed share transfer deeds under Section 108 of the Companies Act, 1956; deficiencies in annual return and financial statement filings under Sections 92 and 134, such as absence of Directors' Report in certain years, reports signed by only one director, non-filing of Form MGT-9, discrepancies in general meeting dates, and incorrect reference to Section 160 in an AGM resolution; instances where directors' names appeared as disqualified under Section 164(2) in certain annual return filings during 2016–2018; omissions and deficiencies in Directors' Reports for certain years, including absence of signatures or report itself; reappointment resolutions for statutory auditors passed by the Board between FY 2020–21 and FY 2024–25 where only ratification was required, constituting a procedural lapse under Section 139(1) of the Companies Act, 2013; and a historical gap exceeding the permissible interval between two Board meetings in 2010 in contravention of Section 285 of the Companies Act, 1956. Most of these instances are historical in nature, and no rectification is possible. The Company has since appointed a qualified Company Secretary and Compliance Officer to oversee statutory and regulatory compliances, and management believes that such instances of non-compliance are not expected to occur in the future.

6. The sale of our products & services is concentrated in our core market of Karnataka, Telangana and Maharashtra. Any adverse developments affecting our operations in such region, could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

The sale of our products is majorly concentrated in the state of Karnataka, Telangana and Maharashtra. The following table sets forth our revenue from operations in the periods indicated:

Particulars	March 31, 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount(₹ Lakhs)	In %	Amount(₹ Lakhs)	In %	Amount(₹ Lakhs)	In %

Telangana	5,719.81	63.67	4463.85	59.89	3408.81	58.76
Maharashtra	2,750.00	30.61	2820.45	37.84	2249.76	38.78
Karnataka	514.01	5.72	169.50	2.27	143.03	2.47
Total	8,983.83	100.00	7,453.80	100.00	5,801.59	100.00

Due to the geographic concentration of the sale of our products and Services in Maharashtra, Telangana and Karnataka, our operations are susceptible to local and regional factors, such as economic and weather conditions, natural disasters, demographic changes, and other unforeseen events and circumstances. Consequently, any significant social, political or economic disruption, or natural calamities or civil disruptions in this region, or changes in policies of the state or local governments or the government of India or adverse developments related to competition in this region, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. While we have not experienced any of the above risks that had an adverse impact on our business operations and financial conditions in the last three Fiscals, we cannot assure you that these risks will not arise in the future. For further details in relation to Company's products offered in select States, see the chapter titled "Our Business" on page 119 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus

7. Unsecured loans taken by us can be recalled by the lenders thereof at any time.

Our unsecured debt as of March 31, 2025 is ₹ 330.83 Lakhs. These unsecured loans are repayable on demand. If our lenders recall the payments of the outstanding amounts before they fall due, it could place significant strain on our cash flows leading to material negative impact on our financial position.

8. We are dependent on Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) for cost of Auto LPG supplied. Any updation reflecting shifts in global LPG prices, exchange rates, and local market conditions could adversely affect our business, reputation, operations and cash flows.

Auto LPG, used as an automotive fuel in India, has a unique pricing structure distinct from domestic LPG. The pricing of Auto LPG is also updated monthly, reflecting shifts in global LPG prices, exchange rates, and local market conditions. Public Sector Undertakings are responsible for setting the selling price of Auto LPG, guided by the All India LPG Coalition.

A key factor in Auto LPG pricing is maintaining a reasonable price differential, or "delta," compared to petrol. Generally, Auto LPG prices are set at around 40% lower than petrol prices, making it an affordable alternative fuel for vehicles. This substantial cost difference encourages a shift toward Auto LPG, which is more environmentally friendly, offering lower emissions compared to petrol. By keeping Auto LPG competitively priced, PSUs support a balanced fuel economy that helps reduce dependency on more expensive, less eco-friendly fuels.

The pricing of Auto LPG in India faces significant risks due to its dependence on global LPG price fluctuations, exchange rate volatility, and domestic market conditions. Since Auto LPG is largely imported, any spike in global LPG prices or a weakening of the Indian rupee can lead to higher costs, potentially narrowing the price differential between Auto LPG. This could make Auto LPG less attractive to consumers, undermining its appeal as a cost-effective alternative. Additionally, any changes in government policy, such as reducing subsidies or increasing taxes on Auto LPG, could further drive up prices. These pricing risks can impact consumer demand, as a sharp increase in fuel prices may lead to a shift back toward petrol or other alternatives, potentially stunting the growth of the Auto LPG market.

9. We typically require 7-8 months to generate revenue in our ALDS Business Operations. Any further delay in realizing revenue may affect our projections, results of operations and cash flows.

Our business involves setting up Auto LPG Dispensing Stations (ALDS), which requires regulatory approvals and construction before becoming operational. Historically, it took 7-8 months to generate revenue, but delays due to external factors like elections, natural disasters, pandemics, regulatory changes, or other disruptions can lead to a loss of projected revenue. These delays may reduce the operational period within the financial year, affecting profitability and cash flow, and could increase costs for extended site management and workforce adjustments. While we have not faced any such delays in the past, we cannot guarantee there will be no such delays in the future. In case there are any such delays in the future, our revenues will be delayed due to delay in operations thus leading to a negative impact on our financial position.

10. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

Our Company has entered into related party transactions with our Promoters, Group Companies, Promoter group members in the past. While our Company believes that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis and are accounted as per AS 18 'Related Party Disclosures' and are in compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable laws, however there can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favorable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we may enter into related party transactions in the future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Nature of Transaction	FY25 (₹ Lakhs)	FY24 (₹ Lakhs)	FY23 (₹ Lakhs)

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Related party Transactions" beginning on page 174 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

11. We are dependent on third parties, including service providers, independent contractors, and suppliers, for the completion of our network infrastructure expansion. Any failure by these third parties to perform their obligations could adversely affect our business, results of operations, and cash flows.

Our business depends on third-party service providers, independent contractors, and suppliers for the setup and construction of our Auto LPG Dispensing Stations, which are essential for the expansion of our network infrastructure. These third parties play a critical role in ensuring the successful and timely delivery of products and services necessary for the completion of our projects. Any failure on their part such as delays in service delivery, inferior quality of work, or non-compliance with the terms outlined in the contract can have serious implications for the progress of our infrastructure expansion.

Such delays can prevent us from meeting key project milestones, leading to disruptions in our business operations and affecting our ability to serve customers efficiently. In some cases, the additional costs required to resolve these delays or mitigate their effects could further strain our financial resources. Though our company has not faced any regulatory or any other issues in the past, but there can be no guarantee that such instances will not occur in the future.

12. We require various licenses and approvals for undertaking our businesses and the failure to obtain or retain such licenses or approvals in a timely manner, or at all, may adversely affect our operations.

Our business operations are subject to various laws, the compliance of which is supervised by multiple regulatory authorities and government bodies. In order to conduct our business, we are required to obtain multiple licenses, approvals, permits and consents. For further information, see "Government and Other Approvals" on page 199. Additionally, our government approvals and licenses are subject to numerous conditions, some of which are onerous including making an application for amending the existing approval and require us to make substantial expenditure. Most of these approvals and licenses are subject to ongoing inspection and compliance requirements and are valid only for a fixed period of time subject to renewals and accreditations. Additionally, we may need to apply for more approvals in the future including renewal of approvals that may expire from time to time. If we fail to renew, obtain or retain any of such approvals, in a timely manner, or at all, our business and operations may be adversely affected. For further information, see "Government and Other Approvals" on page 199.

We may also have consent and intimation requirements under these approvals and licenses which may get triggered during the course of our business operations. We cannot assure that we will be able to attain a waiver from the regulators for every instance where such consent is required or be able to timely intimate the regulators in every instance where we are required to provide such intimation to the relevant regulator. If we fail to comply with applicable laws and regulations, whether existing or new, we could be subject to fines, penalties or other enforcement action by the authorities which regulate our business and operations. For details, please see "Key Regulations and Policies" on page 137. Further, to operate our business, we are required to maintain a number of licenses, permits and authorizations and adhere to the PNGRB Regulations and Guidelines. For details, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 199.

13. While there are various fuel options available for different vehicles, we currently supply only LPG from our ALDS. Hence, our customer base is limited to only customers who drive LPG fueled vehicles.

Our company supplies a significant quantity of liquefied petroleum gas to a small customer base segment, which includes individual vehicle owners and fleet operators primarily within the commercial sectors. This limited customer base poses several risks as a substantial portion of our revenue is derived from these key clients. If any of these customers, experience financial difficulties, reduce their demand, or choose to switch suppliers, our financial performance could be significantly impacted. This dependency makes us vulnerable to changes in their operational needs or strategic directions.

While serving a select group of customers allows for tailored services and operational efficiencies, it also limits our market diversification. A lack of a broader customer base could hinder our ability to absorb shocks from individual customer losses or industry downturns. Our concentrated customer base may lead to operational challenges if we face disruptions in supply chain logistics or production capabilities. Any operational setbacks could have a magnified effect due to our reliance on a small number of clients.

14. Our LPG transmission operations are subject to engineering and design risks which could expose it to liabilities, loss in revenues and increased expenses.

Our gas transmission operations are subject to hazards inherent in the transportation of gas, such as the risk of engineering and design defects in the gas transmission pipelines. These hazards include faults in pipe material, manufacturing processes that cause pipeline defects, and welding defects. Such defects can cause pipelines to leak or rupture, which may result in injury, loss of life, severe damage to property and equipment, environmental damage, suspension of its operation and the imposition of civil and criminal liabilities. The occurrence of any such event may disrupt our business and operations and may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and reputation. While there have been no such instances in the past, we cannot entirely eliminate the possibility of such incidents occurring in the future.

15. Our registered office is not located on land owned by us and we have only leasehold rights. In the event we lose or are unable to renew such leasehold rights, our business operations may be adversely affected.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to renew our leases on commercially acceptable terms or at all. In the event that we are required to vacate our current premises, we would be required to make alternative arrangements for our infrastructure and we cannot assure that the new arrangements will be on commercially acceptable terms. If we are required to relocate our business operations, we may suffer a disruption in our operations or have to pay increased charges, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. If we are unable to renew these leases or relocate on commercially suitable terms, it may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operation, financial condition and cash flows. Though there have not been any such instances in the last three Fiscals and as on the date of this DP we cannot assure you that in future such instance may not arise.

For further details in relation to the property kindly refer to the head “Our Places of Business” in the chapter titled ‘Our Business’ on page 119 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

16. We presently do not own the trademark or logo under which we currently operate and if third parties infringe the trademark, logo and intellectual property that we use, our business and reputation would be adversely affected.

Our Company has applied for trademark registration in relation to the logos of our Company. The details of our trademark applications are as follows:

Particulars	Trademark Image	Type of trademark	Class	Date of Application	Current Status	Application No.
PRIMEFUEL		Device mark	4	25/11/2019	Objected	4357240

PRIMEFUEL		Device mark	35	25/11/2019	Objected	4357242
PRIMEGAS		Device mark	35	25/11/2019	Objected	4357243
PRIMEGAS		Device mark	4	25/11/2019	Objected	4357241

With respect to our trademarks that have been applied for, has been objected. As a result, we may not be able to prevent infringement of our trademarks and a passing off action may not provide sufficient protection until such time that this registration is granted.

While we endeavor to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights, there can be no assurance that we will not face any intellectual property infringement claims brought by third parties. Any claims of infringement, regardless of merit or resolution of such claims, could force us to incur significant costs in responding to, defending and resolving such claims and may divert the efforts and attention of our management away from our business. We could be required to change the name of our Company, pay third party infringement claims or obtain fresh licenses resulting from a name change. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could result in unexpected expenses.

We are currently using these logos for our business. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully obtain the said registration in a timely manner or at all. Any unauthorized or inappropriate use of our brand, trademarks and other related intellectual property rights by others in their corporate names or product brands or otherwise could harm our brand image, competitive advantages and business, and dilute or harm our reputation and brand recognition. For more details, refer “Our Business” on page 119.

17. Our Promoters, Directors, KMPs and SMPs may have interests other than reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration or benefits in our Company.

Our promoters, directors, KMPs and SMPs may be interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them in our Company, and any dividends, bonuses or other distributions on such Equity Shares. For further details, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits, please see “Our Management” and for promoter “Our Promoter and Promoter Group” on page 150 and 163 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

18. Inadequate training and orientation of outlet operators may increase safety, operational, legal and financial risks.

Our retail outlets are operated by personnel who do not undergo a structured training and orientation program specific to Auto LPG handling, safety protocols, emergency response and regulatory compliance. Inadequate operator preparedness may heighten the likelihood of operating errors, non-adherence to standard operating procedures, and delayed or improper responses to emergencies. This could lead to accidents, equipment damage, fires or explosions, product losses, service interruptions, property damage, and regulatory non-compliance. Serious incidents could result in injuries or loss of life, leading to legal claims, compensation liabilities and heightened regulatory action.

In the event of an incident at an outlet, our ability to recover losses from the operator may be limited to the amount of the security deposit collected, which may be inadequate relative to the scale of potential damage.

19. Our company does not have succession policy it may be exposing us to significant risks, especially in the event of unexpected leadership transitions, such as the departure, illness, or retirement of key executives or employees. A lack of succession planning can create uncertainty, disrupt operations, and impact the company's long-term stability and growth.

Our companies’ operations are highly dependent upon the skills and knowledge of our promoters, directors, key executives and employees and as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus our company has not yet formulated a formal business succession policy. While the company has put in place certain internal guidelines for leadership continuity, a comprehensive, formalized succession plan is still under development. The absence of such a policy may stem from various factors, such as the company’s size, organizational structure, or reliance on current leadership for the near term. However, this lack of a formal succession plan presents several risks to the business including the company may face significant risks that could impact its operations and long-term stability. Leadership instability is a key concern, as unexpected departures or incapacitation of key executives could create confusion, delays in decision-making, and a lack of direction, undermining stakeholder confidence. Without a formal succession plan, leadership transitions could be inefficient, leaving critical functions vulnerable to neglect and mismanagement, disrupting ongoing projects, and straining client relationships. This lack of planning also threatens business continuity, particularly for family-owned or closely-held businesses where leadership is often tied to specific individuals. Without a structured approach to knowledge transfer and role delegation, the company could struggle to maintain its competitive advantage or adapt to changing market conditions. Additionally, investors, employees, and stakeholders may view the absence of a succession policy as a sign of poor governance and a lack of long-term planning, potentially damaging the company's reputation and causing a loss of investor confidence. Finally, depending on the regulatory environment, failure to implement a succession policy may lead to legal risks, as some jurisdictions require businesses to have formal succession plans, especially for key executive roles, which could result in non-compliance, fines, or further reputational harm.

20. We are substantially dependent upon our group company CZAR Metric System Private Limited for machinery and technology to be used in our business to keep our operations competitive. Any disruption in the business operations of our group companies may expose us to business risks or losses that could adversely affect our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

We are highly dependent on the machinery and technology provided by our group companies, “CZAR Metric System Private Limited”, for the smooth functioning of our business. Any disruption in the operations of our group company could expose us to significant business risks, potentially leading to operational delays, increased costs, or a loss of critical support services. Such disruptions may adversely affect our business prospects, operational performance, and financial condition, as we rely on the continued availability and functionality of the machinery and technology sourced from these entities. If group company experience financial, operational, or technical problems, it may struggle to provide necessary maintenance, spare parts, or upgrades, leading to disruptions in the dependent company's operations. There's also the risk of supply chain interruptions, as our group may not be able to deliver the required components or services, hindering the dependent company's ability to maintain or enhance its machinery. Additionally, there are legal and contractual risks, such as potential intellectual property disputes or breach of contract if the group company cannot meet its obligations. Financial instability in the group company could also result in increased costs or force the dependent company to seek alternative suppliers, which may be less reliable or cost-effective. Furthermore, any failure in the group company's business could damage the reputation of the entire group, causing a loss of trust among clients, investors, and stakeholders. Finally, management and strategic risks may arise if our group company's issues reflect deeper systemic problems within the corporate group, potentially affecting the stability of all related companies.

21. We track certain operational metrics with internal systems and tools. Certain of our operational metrics are subject to inherent challenges in measurement which may adversely affect our business and reputation.

We track certain operational metrics, including transaction volumes and key business GAAP and non-GAAP metrics such as Revenue from Operations, EBITDA, EBITDA Margins, PAT, EPS, ROCE, ROE, among others, with internal systems and tools, which may differ from estimates or similar metrics published by third parties due to differences in sources, methodologies, or the assumptions on which we rely. We have implemented various management information systems to track our operational data accurately. However, our internal systems and tools still have inherent limitations, and our methodologies for tracking these metrics may change over time, which could result in unexpected changes to our metrics. If the internal systems and tools /we use to track these metrics undercount or over count performance or contain algorithmic or other technical errors, the data we report may not be accurate. While these numbers are based on what we believe to be reasonable estimates of our metrics for the applicable period of measurement, there are inherent challenges in measuring how our platforms are used across large populations. In addition, limitations or errors with respect to how we measure operational metrics may affect our understanding of certain details of our business, which could affect our long-term strategies. If our operating metrics are not accurate representations of our business, if investors do not perceive our operating metrics to be accurate, or if we discover material inaccuracies with respect to these figures, we expect that our business, reputation, results of operations and financial condition would be adversely affected.

22. Our operations are subject to ongoing compliance with approvals, licenses, and land-use regulations. While all current sites have been developed as per applicable norms and duly endorsed by PESO, future regulatory changes, delays in renewals, or additional requirements could impact timelines or increase compliance costs.

Some of our Auto LPG Dispensing Stations and related facilities may be located on land that is not approved for commercial use, and the required change of land use and related zoning permissions have not yet been obtained. Operating on such land may be treated by the authorities as non-compliance with applicable municipal and land-use laws.

Lack of approvals may lead authorities to suspend or close affected sites, impose fines and other penalties, require alterations, relocation or demolition of structures, and initiate enforcement or prosecution, resulting in sales interruptions, lower throughput, and adverse cash-flow impacts. Any suspension or discontinuation of operations at non-compliant locations, together with penalties, remediation and relocation costs, potential litigation and loss of sales, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

23. We have contingent liabilities as on March 31, 2025 and in the future if they materialize, it may affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

As of March 31, 2025, we have following contingent liabilities:

(In ₹ Lakhs)

Particulars	For the Year Ended on
	March 31 2025	March 31 2024	March 31 2023
TDS Defaults with respect to Delay filing fee, Short Deduction and Interest thereon	7.00	6.20	5.76

We cannot assure you that we will not incur similar or increased levels of contingent liabilities in the future. If any of these contingent liabilities materialize or if at any time we are compelled to pay all or a material proportion of these contingent liabilities, our financial condition and results of operation may be adversely affected.

24. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees for loan facilities obtained by our Company and any failure or default to repay such loans in accordance with the terms and conditions of the financing documents could trigger repayment obligations on them, which may impact their ability to effectively to effectively service their role as a promoter and directors and thereby, impact our business and operations

Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees for our borrowings to secure few of our loans by mortgaging their personal properties.

Any default or failure by our Company to repay the loans in a timely manner, or at all could trigger repayment obligations of our individual Promoters in respect of such loans, which in turn, could have an impact on their ability to effectively service their role as a promoter and directors, thereby having an effect on our business, results of operation and financial condition. Furthermore, in the event that our individual Promoters withdraw or terminate their guarantees, our lenders for such facilities may ask for alternate guarantees, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or even terminate such facilities. Accordingly, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be adversely affected by the revocation of the personal guarantee provided by our Promoters. Though there have not been any such instances in the last three Fiscals, we cannot assure you that in future we may not face such situation.

25. Our funding requirements and the proposed deployment of Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and we have not entered into any definitive arrangements to utilize certain portions of the Net Proceeds of the Issue.

Our funding requirement is based management estimates, current circumstances of our business and prevailing market conditions, which are subject to changes in external factors, such as financial and market conditions, market feedback and demand of our products, competition, business strategy and interest/exchange rate fluctuations, which may not be within the control of our management. The objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Based on the competitive nature of our industry, we may have to revise our business plan and/or management estimates from time to time and consequently our funding requirements may also change. Such internal estimates may differ from the value that would have been determined by third party appraisals, which may require us to reschedule or reallocate our expenditure, subject to applicable laws. In case of increase in actual expenses or shortfall in requisite funds, additional funds for a particular activity will be met by any means available to us, including internal accruals and additional equity and/or debt arrangements, and may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Accordingly, investors in our Equity Shares will be relying on the judgment of our management regarding the application of the Net Proceeds.

Further, pursuant to Section 27 of the Companies Act and other applicable law, any variation in the Objects of the Issue would require a special resolution of the shareholders and the promoter or controlling shareholders will be required to provide an exit opportunity to the shareholders who do not agree to such proposal to vary the Objects of the Issue, at such price and in such manner in accordance with applicable law.

Our Company, in accordance with the applicable law and to attain the objects set out above, will have the flexibility to deploy the Net Proceeds. Pending utilization of the Net Proceeds for the purposes described above, our Company may temporarily deposit the Net Proceeds within one or more scheduled commercial banks included in the Second Schedule of Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 as may be approved by our Board.

26. We may be subject to fraud, theft, employee negligence or similar incidents

Our operations may be subject to incidents of theft or damage to inventory in transit. Our industry typically encounters some inventory loss on account of employee theft, vendor fraud, and general administrative error. We cannot assure you that we will not experience any fraud, theft, employee negligence, security lapse, loss in transit or similar incidents in the future, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Additionally, in case of losses due to theft, fire, breakage or damage caused by other casualties, we cannot assure you that we will be able to recover from our insurers the full amount of any such loss in a timely manner, or at all. If we incur a significant inventory loss due to third-party or employee theft it could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Though there have not been any such instances in the last three Fiscals, we cannot assure you that in future such instance may not arise.

27. We may require to raise additional equity or debt in the future in order to continue to grow our business, which may not be available on favorable terms or at all.

Our strategy to grow our business may require us to raise additional funds or refinance our existing debt for our working capital or long-term loans. We cannot assure you that such funds will be available on favorable terms or at all. Additional debt financing may increase our financing costs. Our financing agreements may contain terms and conditions that may restrict our ability to operate and manage our business, such as terms and conditions that require us to maintain certain pre-set debt service coverage ratios and leverage ratios and require us to use our assets, including our cash balances, as collateral for our indebtedness. If we decide to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows. Any issuance of equity to raise additional funds, on the other hand, would result in a dilution of the shareholding of existing shareholders. If we are unable to raise additional funds on favorable terms or at all as and when required, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects could be adversely affected.

28. We may not be able to sustain or manage our growth and our past results may not be indicative of our future performance.

We were incorporated in 2007 and although we have been involved in the LPG trading business since 2014 our strategy will place significant demands on our management as well as our financial, accounting and operating systems. Further, as we increase the scale and diversity of our operations, we may not be able to execute our developments efficiently, which may result in delays, increased costs and could adversely affect our reputation. Our failure to manage our growth may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our past financial results will not be indicative of our future financial performance.

29. The issue may be undersubscribed, and we may not receive sufficient funds pursuant to the Issue for utilization of Net Proceeds towards deployment of the Objects of the Issue.

The Issue only comprises of a Fresh Issue and an offer for sale is not contemplated. Our Company will utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds towards deployment of the Objects of the Issue, which are (i) funding capital expenditure requirements for (ii) prepayment or repayment of all or a portion of certain outstanding borrowings availed by our Company; and (iii) general corporate purposes. We cannot assure you that we will receive sufficient funds from the investors pursuant to the Issue. In the event the Issue is undersubscribed, and we are unable to raise sufficient funds, we will be unable to deploy the Net Proceeds towards total deployment of the Objects of the Issue, which will have an adverse effect on our reputation, business operations and cash flows.

30. The deployment of funds raised through this Issue shall not be subject to any Monitoring Agency and shall be purely dependent on the discretion of the management of our Company.

Since the issue size is less than ₹10,000 lakhs, there is no mandatory requirement of appointing an Independent Monitoring Agency for overseeing the deployment of utilization of funds raised through this Issue. The deployment of these funds raised through this Issue, is hence, at the discretion of the management and the Board of Directors of our Company and will not be subject to monitoring by any independent agency. Any inability on our part to effectively utilize the Issue proceeds could adversely affect our financials.

31. Employee misconduct, errors or fraud could expose us to business risks or losses that could adversely affect our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

Employee misconduct, errors or frauds could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions, penalties and serious harm to our reputation. Such employee misconduct includes breach in security requirements, misappropriation of funds, hiding unauthorized activities, failure to observe our operational standards and processes, and improper use of confidential information. It is not always possible to detect or deter such misconduct, and the precautions we take to prevent and detect such misconduct may not be effective. In addition, losses caused on account of employee misconduct or misappropriation of petty cash expenses and advances may not be recoverable, which we may result in write-off of such amounts and thereby adversely affecting our results of operations. Our employees may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions in which case, our reputation, business prospects, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

32. We have not commissioned an industry report for the disclosures made in the section titled ‘Industry Overview’ and made disclosures on the basis of the data available on the internet and such data has not been independently verified by us.

We have neither commissioned an industry report, for the disclosures which need to be made in the section titled “Our Industry” beginning on page 110 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We have made disclosures in the said chapter based on the relevant industry related data available online for which relevant consents have been obtained wherever necessary. We have not independently verified such data. We cannot assure you that any assumptions made are correct or will not change and, accordingly, our position in the market may differ from that presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Further, the industry data mentioned in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus or sources from which the data has been collected are not recommendations to invest in our Company. Accordingly, investors should read the industry related disclosure in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus in this context.

33. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to cover all losses or liabilities that we may incur in our business and operations.

Our Company has obtained insurance coverage in respect of certain risks. We have taken employee’s health insurance policy to insure our employees against some specified risks. While we believe that we maintain insurance coverage in adequate amounts consistent with size of our business, our insurance policies do not cover all risks, specifically risks like housebreaking, terrorism, etc. There can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance has been availed. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. Further, we deem it imperative to uphold a Keyman Insurance policy as a strategic measure to safeguard our business against potential financial ramifications arising from the unfortunate event of the death or incapacitation of a crucial team member. This policy serves as a crucial tool in mitigating the adverse financial consequences associated with the loss of a key employee. By ensuring funds are readily available, the policy covers prospective losses, recruitment expenses, and other related costs. Given the substantial reliance our company places on our individual promoter and their relatives, the absence of this insurance policy exposes us to significant risks. Therefore, the maintenance of this policy is deemed indispensable for risk mitigation and the sustained stability of our operations. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

For further details, please refer chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on page 134 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

34. Some of our Immovable Properties are not stamped and registered, our business operations may be adversely affected.

Our business requires leasehold land properties for the sale of Auto LPG through our own Auto LPG Dispensing Stations (ALDS) network and storage infrastructure across Telangana, Karnataka, and Maharashtra. For this purpose, we take land on lease basis. Some of our immovable properties are not stamped or registered. For more details regarding properties that are not stamped or registered.

Not stamping and registering immovable properties exposes the business to several risks. Without formal registration, the business may struggle to comply with regulatory requirements, delaying necessary approvals, permits, or clearances from authorities. This can disrupt operations or prevent the business from expanding. Financially, unregistered properties may not be eligible for use as collateral, limiting access to funding and affecting growth opportunities. Moreover, the absence of formal agreements can strain relationships with landowners and other stakeholders, potentially harming our company’s reputation and stability. Ultimately, these risks can adversely affect business continuity, making it essential to formalize all property agreements. Though our company has not faced any regulatory or any other issues in the past, but there can be no guarantee that such instances will not occur in the future.

35. Our success significantly depends upon the services of our promoters, directors and other key managerial personnel and our ability to retain them. Our inability to attract, hire, train and retain key managerial personnel may adversely affect the operations of our Company.

Our success is substantially dependent on the expertise and services of our directors, promoters and our key managerial personnel. They provide expertise which enables us to make well informed decisions in relation to our business and our prospects. Our future performance will depend upon the continued services of these persons. Demand for key managerial personnel in the industry is intense. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain any or all, or that our succession planning will help to replace, the key members of our management. The loss of the services of such key members of our management team and the failure of any succession plans to replace such key members could have an adverse effect on our business and the results of our operations.

36. Our Promoters will continue jointly to retain majority control over our Company after the Issue, which will allow them to determine the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval.

After completion of the Issue, our Promoters will own [●] % of the Equity Shares. As a result, our Promoters together with the members of the Promoter Group will be able to exercise a significant degree of influence over us and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act and our Articles of Association. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company. In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or minority shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

37. We may not be successful in our technological adoptions, which may lead to an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and cash flows.

Our future success may depend in part on our ability to respond to technological advances and emerging standards and practices on a cost effective and timely basis. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully make timely and cost-effective enhancements and additions to the technology underpinning our operational platforms, or that we will be able to keep up with technological improvements to meet our customers' needs or that the technology developed by others will not render our services less competitive or attractive. In addition, rapid and frequent technology and market demand changes can often render existing technologies and equipment obsolete, requiring substantial new capital expenditures or write-down of assets. Our failure to successfully adopt such technologies in a cost effective and a timely manner could increase our costs (in comparison to our competitors who can successfully implement such technologies) and lead to us being less competitive in terms of our prices or the quality of services we provide. Following implementation, our technological platforms require timely maintenance and servicing to avoid technical glitches, technical failures or complete shutdown. If we do not effectively respond to such technical failures, our ability to expand our operations through the deployment of these technologies will be adversely affected. Further, the implementation of new or upgraded technology may not be cost-effective, which may adversely affect our profitability. Our success depends, in part, upon our ability to develop, innovate and introduce new technology and to add features to existing technology that accommodate market demands. We may not be able to be successful in developing new technology and introducing new solutions or features to our operations.

Further, our information technology systems may be vulnerable to computer viruses, privacy, hacking or similar disruptive problems which could lead to disruptions in our ability to maintain a track record and analyse the work in progress, cause loss of data and disruption in operations, including an ability to assess the progress of the projects, process financial information or manage creditors/debtors or engage in normal business activities. Moreover, we may not operate an adequate disaster recovery system and therefore do not maintain data recovery policy. Fixing such problems caused by computer viruses or security breaches may require interruptions or delays, which could adversely affect our operations. Breaches of our information technology systems may result in unauthorized access to confidential information. Such breaches of our information technology systems may require us to incur further expenditure to put in place advanced security systems to prevent any unauthorized access to our networks. The completion of our projects can be delayed on account of aforesaid reasons.

38. The requirements of being a public listed company may strain our resources and impose additional requirements.

With the increased scrutiny of the affairs of a public listed company by shareholders, regulators and the public at large, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur in the past. We will also be subject to the provisions of the listing agreements signed with the Stock Exchange. In order to meet our financial control and disclosure obligations, significant resources and management supervision will be required. As a result, management's attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could have an adverse effect on our business and operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or readily determine and report any changes to our results of operations in a timely manner as other listed companies. In addition, we will need to increase the strength of our management team and hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate public company experience and accounting knowledge, and we cannot assure that we will be able to do so in a timely manner. Failure of our Company to meet the listing requirements of stock exchange could lead to imposition of huge penalties, if any including suspension of trading, imposed by Stock Exchange.

39. We have certain outstanding litigation against our promoter, an adverse outcome of which may adversely affect our business, reputation and results of operations.

There are certain outstanding legal proceedings involving our promoter which are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and other authorities. Such proceedings could divert our management's time and attention and consume financial resources in their defence or prosecution. The amounts claimed in these proceedings have been disclosed to the extent ascertainable and quantifiable and include amounts claimed jointly and severally. Any unfavourable decision in connection with such proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, could materially adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations. A summary of outstanding matters set out below includes details of civil and criminal proceedings, tax proceedings, statutory and regulatory actions and other material pending litigation involving us, our Subsidiary, Directors, Promoters and Group Companies, as at the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We cannot assure you that any of the outstanding litigation matters will be settled in our favour or that no additional liabilities will arise out of these proceedings. In addition to the above, we could also be adversely affected by complaints, claims or legal actions brought by persons, including before consumer forums or sector-specific or other regulatory authorities in the ordinary course of business or otherwise, in relation to our business operations, our intellectual property, our branding or marketing efforts or campaigns or our policies. We may also be subject to legal action by our employees and/or former employees in relation to alleged grievances, such as termination of employment. We cannot assure you that such complaints, claims or requests for information will not result in investigations, enquiries or legal actions by any regulatory authority or third persons against us.

40. Our operations could be adversely affected by strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our employees or any other kind of disputes with our employees or contract workers or both.

The table below sets forth the number of employees employed by us:

Particulars	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Total Employees	20	17	15

This includes only employees who are on our payroll and does not include contractual labour.*

While there have been no instances of strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands in the past, we cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in work due to disputes or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to perform our business operations. Further, the engagement of the contractual workforce requires us to comply with applicable labour laws. Changes in labour laws, such as minimum wage laws, may also require us to incur additional costs, such as raising salaries or increasing our contributions to the Employees Provident Fund (“EPF”). The success of our operations depends on availability of labour and maintaining good relationship with our workforce. While we have not faced any strikes by our employees until date, we cannot assure you that our relations with our employees shall remain cordial at all times and that the employees will not undertake or participate in strikes, work stoppages or other industrial actions in the future. Any labour disruption may adversely affect our operations and business prospects.

For further details, see head Human Resource under the Chapter titled “Our Business” on page 119 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

41. LPG in India may face increased competition from importers and alternative sources of energy.

LPG in India may face increasing competition from alternative energy sources as the country moves towards more sustainable energy solutions. Electricity is becoming a viable alternative with growing electrification, and technologies like induction cooktops are gaining popularity. Biogas, especially in rural areas, offers a cost-effective and sustainable cooking option, supported by government programs. LPG is increasingly used in urban centers due to its lower cost and environmental benefits. Additionally, solar energy, including solar cookers and water heaters, is expanding in regions with abundant sunlight. Hydrogen is a potential future fuel, while biomass remains prevalent in rural areas despite its environmental drawbacks. With growing government support and technological advancements, these alternatives could reduce reliance on LPG in both residential and industrial sectors.

42. Our inability to successfully implement our business plan, expansion and growth strategies could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

We have expanded our operations and experienced considerable growth over the last few years. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain our historical growth rates or our market position. Our continued growth requires significant time and attention from our management and may place strains on our operational systems and processes, financial systems and internal controls and other aspects of our business. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully implement our business expansion plans and growth strategies. If any of the aforementioned risks were to materialize, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected.

43. We cannot assure payment of dividends on the Equity Shares in the future.

While our declaration of dividends is at the discretion of our Board and subject to Shareholder approval as set out in the section titled “Dividend Policy” on page 173 and the amount of future dividend payments by our Company, if any, will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditures, applicable Indian legal restrictions and other factors. We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Additionally, we may not be permitted to declare any dividends under the loan financing arrangement that our Company may enter into future, if there is a default under such loan agreements or unless our Company has paid all the dues to the lender up to the date on which the dividend is declared or paid or has made satisfactory provisions thereof. Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholder’s investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate.

44. We may incur material costs to comply with, or suffer material liabilities as a result of health, safety and environmental laws and regulations.

Our operations are subject to extensive laws and regulations pertaining to pollution and protection of the environment and health and safety of workers. These laws and regulations govern, among other things, emissions to the air, discharges onto land and into water, maintenance of safe conditions in the workplace, the remediation of contaminated sites, and the generation, handling, storage, transportation, treatment and disposal of waste materials. We incur, and expect to continue to incur, significant capital and operating costs to comply with these requirements, including costs to reduce air emissions and discharges to the natural water bodies and to remedy contamination at various facilities where our products or wastes have been handled or disposed. We also could incur significant costs, including cleanup costs, fines and civil and criminal sanctions, if we fail to comply with these laws and regulations or the terms of our permits.

In addition, future changes to environmental laws and regulations, such as changes in laws and regulations relating to climate change, could result in substantial additional capital expenditure, taxes and reduced profitability from increased operating costs or in restrictions on our revenue generation, operations or strategic growth opportunities. We may incur environmental liabilities in respect of our operations even for environmental damage caused by acts or omissions of our contractors.

45. Managing employee benefit pressures in India may prevent us from sustaining our competitive advantage which could adversely affect our business prospects and future financial performance.

Employee benefits represent a major expense for us and our ability to maintain or reduce such costs is critical for our business operations. We may be required to increase employee compensation levels to remain competitive and manage attrition, and consequently we may need to increase the prices of our products and services. An increase in wages/ salaries paid to our employees may result in a material adverse effect on our profits in the event that we are unable to pass on such increased expenditure to our users or customers without losing their business to our competitors. Likewise, if we are unable to sustain or increase the number of employees as necessary to meet growing demand, our business, financial condition, and results of operations could be adversely affected.

46. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the offer, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price, or at all.

Prior to this Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Our Company and the Lead Manager have appointed [●] as Designated Market Maker for the Equity Shares of our Company. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in the Emerge Platform of NSE, securities markets in other jurisdictions, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

47. A slowdown in economic growth in India could adversely affect our business.

The structure of the Indian economy has undergone considerable changes in the last decade. These include increasing importance of external trade and of external capital flows. Any slowdown in the growth of the Indian economy or the Construction, any future volatility in global commodity prices could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. India's economy could be adversely affected by a general rise in interest rates, fluctuations in currency exchange rates, adverse conditions affecting housing and tourism and electricity prices or various other Factors. Further, conditions outside India, such as slowdowns in the economic growth of other countries, could have an impact on the growth of the Indian economy and government policy may change in response to such conditions. The Indian economy and financial markets are also significantly influenced by worldwide economic, financial and market conditions. Any financial turmoil, especially in the United States, Europe or China or Asian emerging market countries, may have an impact on the Indian economy. Although economic conditions differ in each country, investors' reactions to any significant developments in one country can have adverse effects on the financial and market conditions in other countries. A loss of investor confidence in the financial systems, particularly in other emerging markets, may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets, and could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and the price of the Equity Shares.

48. The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence could adversely affect the financial markets and our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, pandemic and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition. Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may adversely affect the Indian securities markets. In addition, any deterioration in international relations, especially between India and its neighbouring countries, may result in investor concern regarding regional stability which could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. In addition, India has witnessed local civil disturbances in recent years and it is possible that future civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic or political events in India could have an adverse effect on our business. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the market price of the Equity Shares.

49. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws, in the jurisdictions in which we operate may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected by changes in the laws, rules, regulations or directions applicable to us, or the interpretations of such existing laws, rules and regulations, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations. For details on the laws applicable to us, please see "Key Regulations and Policies" on page 137 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The governmental and regulatory bodies may notify new regulations and/or policies, which may require us to obtain approvals and licenses from the government and other regulatory bodies, impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations, in addition to those which we are undertaking currently. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the implementation of new regulations may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition

In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations, including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and investments in our Company by non-residents, could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals.

The Government of India has notified four labour codes which are yet to completely come into force as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, namely, (i) The Code on Wages, 2019, (ii) The Industrial Relations Code, 2020, (iii) The Code on Social Security, 2020 and (iv) The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020. Such codes will replace the existing legal framework governing rights of workers and labour relations

There can be no assurance that the Government of India will not implement new regulations and policies requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the Government of India or other regulatory bodies or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time-consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

50. Compliance with, and changes in, environmental, health and safety laws and regulations or stringent enforcement of existing environmental, health and safety laws and regulations may result in increased liabilities and increased capital expenditures may adversely affect our cash flows, business results of operations and financial condition. Further, our ALDS operation involve dangerous operations. In the event of any accidents, we may be held liable for damages and penalties which may impact our financials.

Our ALDS operations are subject to environmental, health and safety and other regulatory and/ or statutory requirements in the jurisdictions in which we operate. Our ALDS operations may generate pollutants and waste, some of which may be hazardous. We are accordingly subject to various national, state, municipal and local laws and regulations concerning environmental protection in India, including laws addressing the discharge of pollutants into the air and water, the management and disposal of any waste. We may incur substantial costs in complying with environmental laws and regulations. We cannot assure you that compliance with such laws and regulations will not result in delays in completion, a material increase in our costs or otherwise have an adverse effect on our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Further, ALDS activities in India are also subject to various health and safety laws and regulations as well as laws and regulations governing their relationship with their respective employees in areas such as minimum wages, maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and terminating employees, contract labour and work permits. Accidents, in particular fatalities, may have an adverse impact on our reputation and may result in fines and/or investigations by public authorities as well as litigation from injured workers or their dependents. Non-compliance with these laws and regulations, which among other things, limit or prohibit emissions or spills of toxic substances produced in connection with our operations, could expose us to civil penalties, criminal sanctions and revocation of key business licences. Environmental laws and regulations in India are becoming more stringent, and the scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted with any certainty. In case of any change in environmental or pollution regulations, we may be required to invest in, among other things, environmental monitoring, pollution control equipment, and emissions management.

As a consequence of unanticipated regulatory or other developments, future environmental and regulatory related expenditures may vary substantially from those currently anticipated. We cannot assure you that our costs of complying with current and future environmental laws and other regulations will not adversely affect our business, results of operations or financial condition. In addition, we could incur substantial costs and we could face other sanctions, if we were to violate or become liable under environmental laws or if our projects become non-compliant with applicable regulations. Our potential exposure includes fines and civil or criminal sanctions, third-party property damage or personal injury claims and clean-up costs.

Our employees/labour may be required to work under potentially dangerous circumstances in the Construction & Development projects. Any mishandling of equipment and machineries could also lead to serious and sometimes fatal accidents. These accidents can cause personal injury and loss of life, severe damage to and destruction of property and equipment, environmental damage and may result in the suspension of operations and the imposition of civil and criminal liabilities. Liabilities incurred as a result of these events have the potential to adversely impact our financial position and reputation. Events like these could result in liabilities, or adversely affect our reputation employees and the public, which could in turn affect our financial condition and business performance.

51. The COVID-19 pandemic, or a similar public health threat, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Since first being reported in December 2019, the outbreak of COVID-19 has spread globally, and the virus has mutated several times. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the governments of many countries have adopted preventive or protective measures, such as prohibiting people from assembling in large numbers, instituting quarantines, restricting travel, issuing “stay-at-home” orders and restricting the types of businesses that may continue to operate, among many others. These measures have impacted and may have a further impact on our workforce and operations in India, the business of our customers and suppliers. There may be instances of other variants of COVID-19 in the future, which may have an adverse effect on our financial condition. Unfavorable market conditions resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic and responses to it may also continue to affect us. The COVID-19 pandemic has affected and may continue to affect our business, results of operations and financial condition in a number of ways such as:

- a. result in a complete or partial closure of, or disruptions or restrictions on our ability to carry out, our business operations.
- b. impact our ability to enter into or complete material contracts and other business transactions including delay in delivery of LPG to customers.

- c. our inability to source LPG as a result of the temporary or permanent closure of the facilities of our key suppliers and disruptions in transportation of LPG to our pipelines from our suppliers due to restrictions imposed on account of the COVID-19 pandemic;
- d. non-availability of labour, which could result in a slowdown of our operations and consequent delay in distribution timelines; and
- e. ability to successfully implement our capital expenditure plans in a timely and desired manner. We have also faced certain delays due to the COVID-19 pandemic in certain of our key business plans and operations.

Any delay, and cost overrun due to such delay, may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. The extent to which the COVID-19 impacts our business and results will depend on future developments, which are uncertain and cannot be predicted. The resurgence of COVID-19 or any other similar public threat may affect our results of operations and financial condition. Further, to the extent that the COVID-19 pandemic adversely affects our business and operations, it may also have the effect of heightening many of the other risks described in this section.

52. Any changes in regulations or applicable government incentives would materially adversely affect our Company's operations and growth prospects.

Our Company is subject to regulations in India. Our Company's business and prospects could be adversely affected by changes in any of these regulations and policies, or if any or all of the incentives currently available cease to be, including the introduction of new laws, policies or regulations or changes in the interpretation or application of existing laws, policies and regulations. However, there can be no assurance that our Company will succeed in obtaining all requisite approvals in the future for its operations or that compliance issues will not be raised in respect of its operations, either of which would have a material adversely effect on our Company's operations and financial results. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Key Regulations and Policies" on page 137 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

53. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe and certain emerging economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia, Russia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and us. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. Following the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union ("Brexit"), there remains significant uncertainty around the terms of their future relationship with the European Union and, more generally, as to the impact of Brexit on the general economic conditions in the United Kingdom and the European Union and any consequential impact on global financial markets. For example, Brexit could give rise to increased volatility in foreign exchange rate movements and the value of equity and debt investments.

Further, the ongoing Russia Ukraine conflict and the conflict between Israel and Palestine could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition.

In addition, China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall long-term effect of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilizing effects. Any significant financial disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operation. These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

54. We may be affected by competition laws and labour laws, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, of India, as amended ("Competition Act"), regulates practices having an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India ("AAEC"). Under the Competition Act, any formal or informal arrangement, understanding or action in concert, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is considered void and may result in the imposition of substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment or the provision of services or shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner, including by way of allocation of geographical area or number of customers in the relevant market or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an AAEC and is considered void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise.

On March 4, 2011, the Government notified and brought into force the combination regulation (merger control) provisions under the Competition Act with effect from June 1, 2011. These provisions require acquisitions of shares, voting rights, assets or control or mergers or amalgamations that cross the prescribed asset and turnover based thresholds to be mandatorily notified to and pre-approved by the Competition Commission of India (the “CCI”). Additionally, on May 11, 2011, the CCI issued Competition Commission of India (Procedure for Transaction of Business Relating to Combinations) Regulations, 2011, as amended, which sets out the mechanism for implementation of the merger control regime in India.

The Competition Act aims to, among others, prohibit all agreements and transactions which may have an AAEC in India. Consequently, all agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the CCI has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an AAEC in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. However, since we pursue an acquisition driven growth strategy, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI or if any prohibition or substantial penalties are levied under the Competition Act, it would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Government of India has passed new laws relating to social security, occupational safety, industrial relations and wages namely, the Code on Social Security, 2020, the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 and the Code on Wages, 2019, respectively which were to take effect from April 1, 2021 (collectively, the “Labour Codes”). The Government of India has deferred the effective date of the Labour Codes and they shall come into force from such date as may be notified by the Government. Further, the Code on Social Security, 2020 (“Social Security Code”) will impact overall employee expenses and, in turn, could impact the profitability of our Company. Under the Social Security Code, a new concept of deemed remuneration has been introduced, such that where an employee receives more than half (or such other percentage as may be notified by the Central Government), of their total remuneration in the form of allowances and other amounts that are not included within the definition of wages under the Social Security Code, the excess amount received shall be deemed as remuneration and accordingly be added to wages for the purposes of the Social Security Code and the compulsory contribution to be made towards the employees’ provident fund. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

55. We are subject to regulatory, economic, social and political uncertainties and other factors beyond our control.

We are incorporated in India, and we conduct our corporate affairs and our business in India. Our Equity Shares are proposed to be listed on NSE. Consequently, our business, operations, financial performance and the market price of our Equity Shares will be affected by interest rates, government policies, taxation, social and ethnic instability and other political and economic developments affecting India.

Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations may include:

- any exchange rate fluctuations, the imposition of currency controls and restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets;
- any scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse effect on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing for our expansions;
- prevailing income conditions among Indian customers and Indian corporations;
- epidemic or any other public health in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India’s various neighbouring countries;
- macroeconomic factors and central bank regulation, including in relation to interest rates movements which may in turn adversely impact our access to capital and increase our borrowing costs;
- volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India’s principal stock exchanges;
- decline in India’s foreign exchange reserves which may affect liquidity in the Indian economy;
- downgrading of India’s sovereign debt rating by rating agencies; and
- difficulty in developing any necessary partnerships with local businesses on commercially acceptable terms and/or a timely basis.

Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy or certain regions in India, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and the price of the Equity Shares. For example, our manufacturing facilities are located in western India, hence any significant disruption, including due to social, political or economic factors or natural calamities or civil disruptions, impacting this region may adversely affect our operations.

56. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our services at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our customers and our profits might decline.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of salaries, and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and the same may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase our rates to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the GOI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

57. Adverse geopolitical conditions such as an increased tension between India and its neighbouring countries, Russia- Ukraine conflict, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and its neighbouring countries, resulting in any military conflict in the region could adversely affect our business and operations. Such events may lead to countries including the Government of India imposing restrictions on the import or export of products or components, among others, and affect our ability to procure raw materials required for our business operations. We could also be affected by the introduction of or increase in the levy of import tariffs in India, or changes in trade agreements between countries. For instance, the government of India has imposed additional tariffs in the nature of countervailing duty and anti-dumping duty on a number of items imported from China. Any such measure or reciprocal duties imposed on Indian products by China or other countries may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Further, prolonged Russia-Ukraine conflict that is currently impacting, inter alia, global trade, prices of oil and gas could have an inflationary impact on the Indian economy.

58. Any downgrading of India's sovereign rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing may be available. This could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

59. A downgrade in ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available, including raising any overseas additional financing. A downgrading of India's credit ratings may occur, for example, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our control. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

ISSUE RELATED RISK FACTORS

60. A third-party could be prevented from acquiring control of us post this Issue, because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Issue. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of Takeover Regulations.

61. There are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Following the Issue, our listed Equity Shares will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed on listed companies by the Stock Exchange, which does not allow transactions beyond certain volatility in the trading price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian Stock Exchanges. The percentage limit on the Equity Shares' circuit breaker will be set by the Stock Exchanges based on historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchange are not required to inform our Company of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker, and they may change the limit without our knowledge. This circuit breaker would effectively limit the upward and downward movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares beyond the circuit breaker limit set by the Stock Exchange. As a result of this circuit breaker, we cannot give you any assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares.

62. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding and sale of Equity Shares by shareholders with significant shareholding may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering of Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares including through exercise of employee stock options, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of our Equity Shares by our shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of our Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. Any disposal of Equity Shares by our major shareholders or the perception that such issuance or sales may occur, including to comply with the minimum public shareholding norms applicable to listed companies in India may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. We cannot assure you that we will not issue Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares or that our Shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future. Any future issuances could also dilute the value of your investment in the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

63. We previously filed a Draft Red Herring Prospectus, which was voluntarily withdrawn. We are refiling and there is no assurance of timely completion or approval.

We had earlier filed a Draft Red Herring Prospectus and subsequently voluntarily withdrew the filing after attaining an in-principle approval from NSE EMERGE. We are now refiling the Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The prior withdrawal and current refiling may be perceived unfavorably by investors, regulators, or other stakeholders, and may lead to additional scrutiny, queries, or disclosure requirements by SEBI and the stock exchange. Any delay, additional compliance burden, or adverse perception arising from the prior withdrawal and refiling could adversely affect the timing, size, structure, and success of the proposed offering.

64. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the relevant stock exchange in a timely manner or at all.

There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the relevant stock exchange in a timely manner or at all. In accordance with Indian law, permission for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Issue and until Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to this Issue. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, our Equity Shares are required to be listed on the relevant stock exchange within such time as mandated under UPI Circulars, subject to any change in the prescribed timeline in this regard. However, we cannot assure you that the trading in our Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all. Any failure or delay in obtaining final listing and trading approvals may restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

65. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against us, our Directors, the LM or any of their directors and executive officers in India respectively, except by way of a lawsuit in India.

Our Company is a company incorporated under the laws of India. A majority of our assets, our Key Managerial Personnel and officers are located in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to affect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if that court was of the view that the amount of damages awarded was excessive or inconsistent with public policy, or if judgments are in breach or contrary to Indian law. In addition, a party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI to execute such a judgment or to repatriate outside India any amounts recovered. Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with only a limited number of jurisdictions, such as the United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates, Singapore and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment from a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements established in the Indian Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. The CPC only permits the enforcement and execution of monetary decrees in the reciprocating jurisdiction, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, fines or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India, including the United States, cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be directly enforceable in India. The party in whose favour a final foreign judgment in a non-reciprocating territory is rendered may bring a fresh suit in a competent court in India based on the final judgment within three years of obtaining such final judgment. However, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages as excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India. Further, there is no assurance that a suit brought in an Indian court in relation to a foreign judgment will be disposed of in a timely manner. In addition, any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain the prior approval of the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered, and we cannot assure that such approval will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, or at all, or that conditions of such approval would be acceptable. Such an amount may also be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable law.

66. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, which has been incorporated as the proviso to Rule 6(a) of the FEMA Non-debt Rules, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country or where the beneficial owner of the Equity Shares is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, can only be made through the Government approval route, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. While the term “beneficial owner” is defined under the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005 and the General Financial Rules, 2017, neither the foreign direct investment policy nor the FEMA Rules provide a definition of the term “beneficial owner”. The interpretation of “beneficial owner” and enforcement of this regulatory change involves certain uncertainties, which may have an adverse effect on our ability to raise foreign capital. Further, there is uncertainty regarding the timeline within which the said approval from the GoI may be obtained, if at all. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further information, see “Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities” on page 268 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

67. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

As stated in the reports of the Auditor included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus under chapter “Financial Statements as Restated” beginning on page 174 the financial statements included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on financial information that is based on the audited financial statements that are prepared and presented in conformity with Indian GAAP and restated in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and no attempt has been made to reconcile any of the information given in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus to any other principles or to base it on any other standards. Indian GAAP differs from accounting principles and auditing standards with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP and U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with Indian GAAP contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Accordingly, the degree to which the financial information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is dependent on familiarity with Indian GAAP, the Companies Act and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian GAAP on the financial disclosures presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus should accordingly be limited.

68. Any future issuance of Equity Shares by us or sales of Equity Shares by our Promoter could adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares and in the case of the issuance of Equity Shares by us result in the dilution of our then current Shareholders.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by us may dilute your shareholding in the Company, adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and our ability to raise capital through an issue of our securities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. No assurance may be given that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. The disposal of Equity Shares by any of our significant shareholders, or the perception that such sales may occur may significantly affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will not issue Equity Shares or that such shareholders will not dispose off, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

As disclosed in “Capital Structure” on page 62, an aggregate of 20% of our fully diluted post-Issue capital held by our Promoter shall be considered as minimum Promoter’s Contribution and locked in for a period of three years (3) and the balance Equity Shares held by the Promoter following the Issue (assuming all of the Issued Shares are sold in the Issue) will be locked-in for one (1) year from the date of Allotment. Except for the customary lock-in on our ability to issue equity or equity-linked securities discussed in “Capital Structure” on page 62, there is no restriction on disposal of Equity Shares by promoter. As such, there can be no assurance that our Company will not issue additional Equity Shares after the lock-in period expires or that our Promoter will not sell, pledge or encumber his Equity Shares after the lock-in periods expire. Future issuances of Equity Shares or convertible securities and the sale of the underlying Equity Shares could dilute the holdings of our Shareholders and adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Such securities may also be issued at prices below the then trading price of our Equity Shares or the Issue Price. Sales of Equity Shares by the Promoter could also adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹ 24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investor.

Overview of the Indian Economy¹

India, with its vast and diverse economy, has positioned itself as a significant player in the global market. Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, India's economy is projected to remain resilient and exhibit robust growth. The country has been capturing an increasing share in the global export of goods and services, demonstrating its competitiveness on the international stage. The government's focus on policies such as Make in India and Atmanirbhar Bharat (Self-Reliant India) aims to promote domestic manufacturing, reduce dependency on imports, and strengthen India's position in global supply chains.

Furthermore, the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme, introduced by the Indian government, provides financial incentives to manufacturers in key sectors, encouraging investments, and fostering technological advancements. These initiatives, combined with a growing entrepreneurial ecosystem, skilled workforce, and favorable demographics, contribute to the overall growth outlook of the Indian economy.

Introduction²

The Indian economy closed FY24 strongly with its growth surpassing market expectations, despite strong external headwinds. Early indications suggest a continuation of the economic momentum during the first quarter of FY25. The emerging robust trends in important high-frequency indicators of growth like the GST collections, e-way bills, electronic toll collections, sale of vehicles, purchasing managers' indices and the value and number of digital transactions attest to the growing strength of the economy.

Industrial activity is gaining momentum. This is clear from improving industrial capacity utilization and volume indicators like the Index of Industrial Production and Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) for manufacturing. Concurrently, fixed investment is gathering pace on the back of the focus of the Government on capital spending and the resultant crowing in of private investment. The forward-looking surveys of the Reserve Bank also indicate improving consumer confidence and industrial outlook.

The job market trends are reassuring. While the urban unemployment rate declined y-o-y during the quarter ending March 2024, the labour force participation rate and worker-to-population ratio have improved. Formal jobs are rising, as indicated by the growing net payroll additions under the Employee Provident Fund Organization.

Along with growth and employment, the other macroeconomic indicators are also improving. Retail inflation clocked 4.83 per cent in April 2024, the lowest in the past 11 months. On the external front, despite global challenges, India's foreign exchange reserves are comfortable, and the Indian rupee has been one of the most resilient vis-à-vis the US dollar in recent months. From the fiscal angle, robust trends in the capital spending of the general government during April-February of FY24, combined with the fiscal consolidation plans reflected in the Budget for FY25, have laid to rest concerns about debt sustainability. Thus, the major pillars of India's macro-economic strength, including growth, price stability and fiscal management, are directionally positive and mutually reinforcing.

The unrelenting geopolitical tensions and volatility in global commodity prices, especially of petroleum products, present substantial multi-frontal challenges. Nonetheless, the expectation is that the macro-economic buffers nurtured and strengthened during the post-Covid management of the economy will help the Indian economy navigate these challenges reasonably smoothly.

India has SMEd as the fastest-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three economic powers in the world over the next 10-15 years, backed by its robust democracy and strong partnerships.

Market Size³

In FY23, GDP growth had declined, with Q3 showing a moderation to 4.4 per cent. The GDP growth rate had fallen to 6.3 per cent in Q2FY23 from 13.5 per cent in Q1FY23, largely due to pandemic-related statistical distortions. However, Q4 numbers exceeded expectations, lifting India's growth to 7.2 per cent for FY23, surpassing the 7 per cent cited in earlier estimates.

India's GDP grew at 7.8 per cent annually in the last quarter (Q4) of FY24. The Centre now estimates the overall growth rate for FY24 to be 8.2 per cent, as per the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MOSPI). The Q3 growth rate was revised upwards to 8.6 per cent from 8.4 per cent, with growth in previous quarters recorded at 8.2 per cent in Q1 and 8.1 per cent in Q2. The real Gross Value Added (GVA) for FY24 grew by 7.2 per cent over 6.7 per cent in FY23. This increase is attributed to significant growth in the manufacturing sector (9.9 per cent in FY24 compared to a contraction of 2.2 per cent in FY23) and the mining sector (7.1 per cent in FY24 over 1.9 per cent in FY23).

Experts had anticipated robust growth for the January to March quarter. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) had estimated Q4FY24 real GDP growth at 7 per cent. The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) raised the real GDP forecast for FY25 to 7.2 per cent from an earlier estimate of 7 per cent, citing improving rural and urban demand buoyed by favorable monsoon forecasts. Quarterly growth for FY25 is projected at 7.3 per cent for Q1, 7.2 per cent for Q2, and 7.3 per cent for Q3.

FY25 Started with a Strong Performance of Domestic Activity in April²

- Domestic economic activity remained buoyant in FY24, and the momentum has continued in FY25. GST collection jumped to a high of ₹ 2.1 lakh crore in April 2024. The strong uptick was driven by an increase in domestic transactions and imports. The average GST collections have also displayed a level shift upwards over the years due to heightened economic activity and a widening tax base.

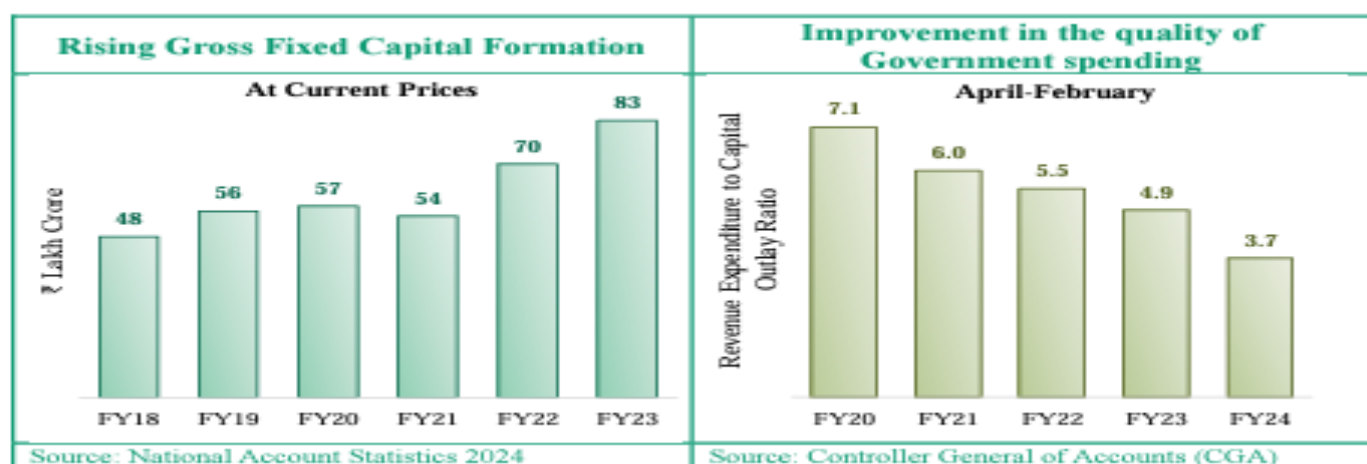

Among lead demand indicators, toll collection registered continued growth in April 2024. Electricity consumption also accelerated in April due to rising temperatures and increased industrial activity. Vehicle registrations surged in April 2024, led by two-wheelers on the back of stable fuel prices and a positive outlook for monsoon.

However, on account of seasonality, e-way bill generation softened compared to March 2024, but registered strong growth compared to the corresponding month last year.

GST collection recorded a 12.4 per cent year-on-year (yoy) growth driven by strong yoy increase in domestic transactions (13.4 per cent) and imports (8.3 per cent). Volume of E-way bill generation moderated to 9.7 crore in April 2024 from 10.4 crore in March 2024, still registering a growth of 14.4 per cent over April 2023. In April 2024, India's power consumption surged by 11 per cent to 144.2 billion units compared to the previous year. Vehicle registration went up by 27 per cent yoy to 2.2 million in April 2024. Toll collections as reported under Electronic Toll collection (ETC) data reached ₹55.6 billion in April 2024, registering a growth of 8.3 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

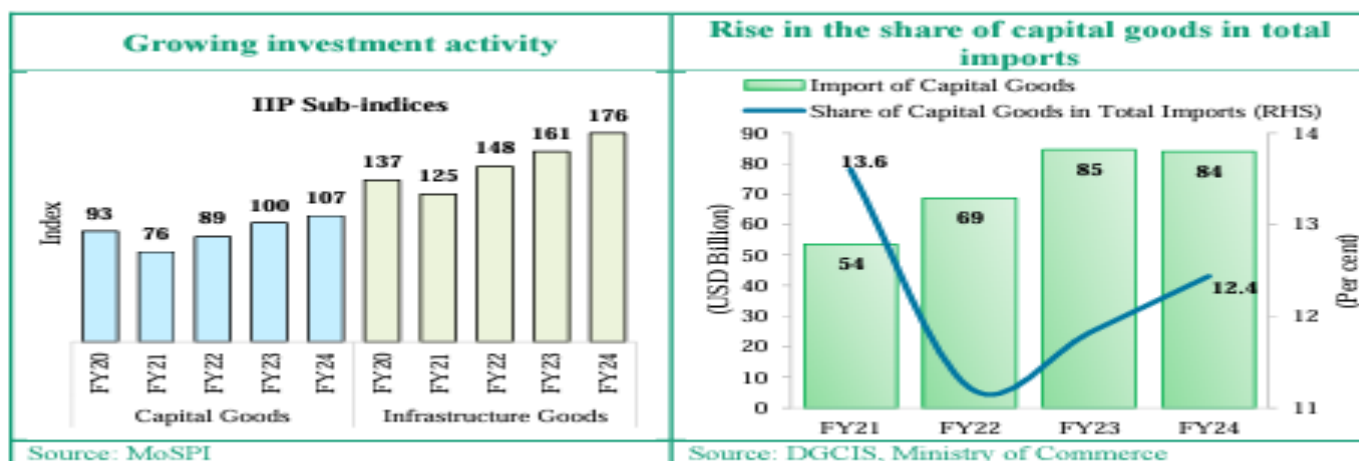

2. Investment activity continues to display stability despite ongoing geopolitical headwinds. As per the Second Advance Estimates of National Income released by the National Statistical Office (NSO), the Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF) is expected to be the largest GDP growth driver in FY24, with a percentage contribution of 44.9 per cent. The National Account Statistics 2024 shows GFCF growing by 18.7 per cent in FY23 from ₹69.8 lakh crore in FY22 to ₹82.9 lakh crore in FY23, with broad-based growth across sectors. GFCF in private non-financial corporations witnessed a most notable CAGR of 10.6 per cent from FY12 to FY23, highlighting a pick-up in private capital expenditure.

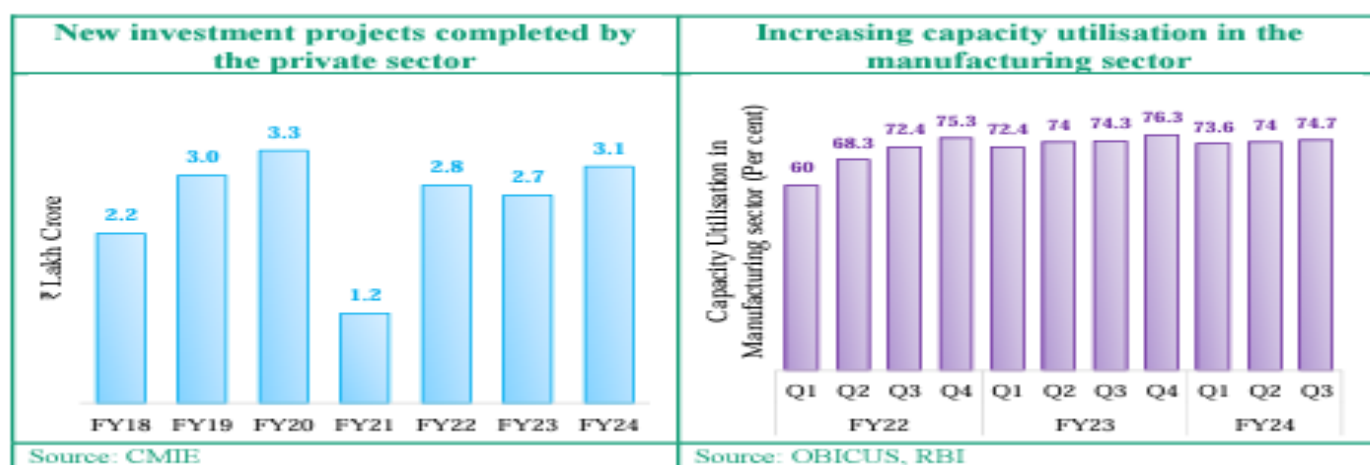

3. According to the data released by the Controller General of Accounts, capital expenditure by the Union Government from April 2023 to February 2024 stood at ₹8.1 lakh crore, 36.5 per cent higher compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. Increased capital expenditure by the Union Government has led to an improvement in the quality of Government spending, as reflected in the decline in the revenue expenditure to capital outlay ratio. The ratio declined from 7.1 in FY20 (April-February) to 3.7 in FY24 (April-February). The increased spending on capex has also incentivised States to increase their capital spending. Capital expenditure by 22 major States grew by 26.6 per cent during April 23-February 24, versus 13.3 per cent in the corresponding period of the previous year.1 Increased Government investment activity has also resulted in the crowding-in of private investment. Capital Goods and Construction/Infrastructure Goods indices of the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) were 6.2 per cent and 9.6 per cent higher during FY24 compared to the previous year. Though imports of capital goods in FY24 were marginally lower than that in the previous year, their share in overall imports increased from 11.8 per cent in FY23 to 12.4 per cent in FY24, indicating a continued build-up of productive capacity in the economy.

- The CMIE data on new investment announcements serves as an indicator for corporate capex plans. These figures represent intentions, which may or may not materialise, but they do mirror the sentiments and expectations of the companies. The overall scenario is promising, with a significant improvement compared to the pre-COVID era, despite the intentions being lower than the previous year. In FY24, the private sector announced new investment projects worth ₹23.5 lakh crore, much higher than the past five years' average of ₹14.4 lakh crore. Despite new investment projects announced by the private sector being lower in FY24 compared to the previous year, the investment projects completed by the private sector witnessed a significant uptick to ₹3.1 lakh crore in FY24 from ₹2.7 lakh crore in FY23.

- The upbeat investment environment is accompanied by increased capacity utilisation in the manufacturing sector, as seen in the RBI's quarterly Order Books, Inventory and Capacity Utilisation Survey (OBICUS) for Q3 of FY24. The aggregate capacity utilisation in the manufacturing sector picked up significantly from 74 per cent in Q2 to 74.7 per cent in Q3 of FY24. Manufacturing companies received a larger number of orders during this quarter as compared to the corresponding quarter of the previous year.
- While investment activity remains expansive, consumption is being propelled by consistent growth in urban demand and a resurgence in rural demand, thereby contributing to India's growth in FY24. As per the data published by Nielsen IQ, the volume sales of fastmoving consumer goods (FMCG) in rural markets saw a rise of 7.6 per cent in the Q4 of FY24 on a yoy basis. For the first time in five quarters, rural FMCG demand growth outpaced urban growth.

7. Other indicators of rural demand also demonstrate a robust growth in consumption activity in FY24. Two and three-wheeler sales increased by 14.2 per cent in FY24, at 186.7 lakh compared to 163.5 lakh in FY23, due to enhanced model availability, new product introduction and positive market sentiments. Carrying the momentum in FY25, two-wheeler sales registered a remarkable growth of 30.8 per cent in April 2024 on a yearly basis.
8. The resilience of urban demand is evident in the robust growth of housing personal loans, which increased by 36.9 per cent in FY24. Sales of passenger vehicles saw a rise of 8.4 per cent in FY24, spurred by the launch of cost-effective compressed natural gas fuel options and new electric models, coupled with positive market sentiment and the provision of high-quality after-sales service.
9. The robust consumption demand in urban areas is also reflected in rising domestic air passenger traffic. In FY24, domestic air passenger traffic surpassed the pre-pandemic peak, driven by a growing demand for air travel. The momentum in urban demand persisted in FY25, buoyed by positive consumer sentiment and festive celebrations.

10. According to the RBI's consumer confidence survey for April 2024, the Current Situation Index (CSI) rose by 3.4 points to 98.5 in March 2024, the highest level since mid2019. Consumers are quite optimistic about the general economic situation, income and spending. Consumer confidence for the year ahead improved further on the back of optimism in almost all parameters, such as economic situation, employment, income and spending. The Future Expectations Index (FEI)⁵ also rose further by 2.1 points to 125.2, also its highest level since mid-2019.

Government Initiatives¹

Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Over recent decades, India's rapid economic growth has led to a substantial increase in its demand for exports.

1. <https://www.ibef.org/economy/indian-economy-overview>

Besides this, a number of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, are aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. In this regard, some of the initiatives taken by the government to improve the economic condition of the country are mentioned below:

1. Border Tourism Development Programme: In September 2022, the foundation stone was laid for the Shri Tanot Mandir Complex Project in Jaisalmer under this program, led by Home & Cooperation Minister Mr. Amit Shah.
2. Agriculture and Farmers Welfare: In August 2022, four new facilities were inaugurated at the Central Arid Zone Research Institute (CAZRI) by Minister Mr. Narendra Singh Tomar, supporting agricultural research and development.
3. Special Food Processing Fund: A fund of ₹ 2,000 crores (US$ 242.72 million) was established in August 2022 with the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) to provide affordable credit for investments in Mega Food Parks and processing units.
4. Mega Cargo Handling Terminals: The Deendayal Port Authority (DPA) announced plans to develop two Mega Cargo Handling Terminals on a Build-Operate-Transfer (BOT) basis under Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Mode, with an estimated cost of ₹ 5,963 crores (US$ 747.64 million).
5. IT Collaboration with Maldives: In July 2022, India and Maldives signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to leverage information technology for court digitization, opening up growth opportunities for IT companies and start-ups in both countries.
6. Wildlife Conservation MoU: India and Namibia signed an MoU in July 2022 for wildlife conservation and sustainable biodiversity utilization, particularly focusing on reintroducing cheetahs into India's historical range.
7. International Trade Settlements: The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) approved international trade settlements in Indian rupees (INR) in July 2022, promoting global trade growth and supporting India's export interests.
8. Gujarat Development Projects: In June 2022, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi inaugurated and initiated development projects worth ₹ 21,000 crores (US$ 2.63 billion) in Vadodara, covering sectors like agriculture, IT, manufacturing, tourism, and defence.
9. AI in Defence: Minister of Defence Mr. Rajnath Singh launched 75 newly-developed AI products/technologies during the first-ever 'AI in Defence' (AIDef) symposium in New Delhi in July 2022.
10. UP Investors Summit: In June 2022, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi laid the foundation stone for 1,406 projects worth over ₹ 80,000 crores (US$ 10.01 billion) at the UP Investors Summit, spanning various sectors including agriculture, IT, renewable energy, tourism, and defence.

These initiatives are part of the government's broader efforts to boost economic growth, enhance infrastructure, promote innovation, and attract investments in various sectors. The government's flagship programs, such as Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, and the Smart City Mission, are also focused on creating opportunities and improving the economic conditions in the country.

The Road Ahead²

Indian economies are performing well, backed by brisk domestic demand and partially by tentative external demand. Domestic manufacturing will likely receive stronger external support in the upcoming months. Modestly improved economic activity and consumer sentiment in Europe and a steady US economy have aided India's exports in April. There are reports that show that the number of organisations in the US and Europe that are focusing on reindustrialisation has increased. Most of these organisations are focussing on enhancing supply chain resilience. This can benefit India's manufacturing firms as part of the China Plus One strategy. The EXIM Bank of India has forecasted that merchandise exports will post a double-digit growth in Q1 of FY25.

Factors like the ongoing recovery in the hotel and tourism industry, increased credit flow to transport and real estate segments, policy support and robust investments in physical and digital infrastructure and logistics will help the services sector. The strong export growth in April 2024 indicates that the momentum in services trade has been carried forward into FY25.

The future inflation path will be shaped by several elements. Government initiatives to stabilise the prices of essential food items, including their open market sale, stock monitoring and trade policy measures are helping to stabilize food prices. The harvest for the Rabi Marketing Season for 2024-25 is expected to temper the prices of key items like wheat and chana. The prediction of a normal Southwest Monsoon also augers well for food production and easing of price pressures. With the assumption of normal monsoon, the RBI forecasts a 4.9 per cent retail inflation for FY25's first quarter.

The positive indications in the farm sector should help India firewall against any adverse pressures that may arise from geopolitical tensions and global commodity prices. Likewise, the strong macro-economic buffers of India should help the real sectors of the economy navigate the external headwinds smoothly and continue the growth momentum of the previous year.

India's Oil and Gas Industry

Introduction

The oil and gas sector is among the eight core industries in India and plays a major role in influencing the decision-making for all the other important sections of the economy.

India's economic growth is closely related to its energy demand, therefore, the need for oil and gas is projected to increase, thereby making the sector quite conducive for investment. India retained its spot as the third-largest consumer of oil in the world as of 2023.

The Government has adopted several policies to fulfil the increasing demand. It has allowed 100% foreign direct investment (FDI) in many segments of the sector, including natural gas, petroleum products and refineries, among others. The FDI limit for public sector refining projects has been raised to 49% without any disinvestment or dilution of domestic equity in existing PSUs. Today, it attracts both domestic and foreign investment, as attested by the presence of companies such as Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) and Cairn India. The industry is expected to attract US$ 25 billion investment in exploration and production. India is already a refining hub with 23 refineries, and expansion is planned for tapping foreign investment in export-oriented infrastructure, including product pipelines and export terminals.

Market Size

Indian refining capacity has increased from 215.1 million metric tonne per annum (MMTPA) to 256.8 MMTPA as of FY24.

Domestic consumption of the petroleum products in FY25 was 239.2 MMTPA.

India imported 36,699 million standard cubic meters (mmscm) of liquefied natural gas (LNG) during FY25, reflecting a 15.4% increase over FY24.

Crude oil imports increased by 4.2% to 242.4 MT in FY25 compared to rise by 9.7 MT from previous year.

India's natural gas consumption is projected to grow by nearly 60% by 2030, reaching 297 million standard cubic metres per day (mmscmd), up from 188 mmscmd in FY24.

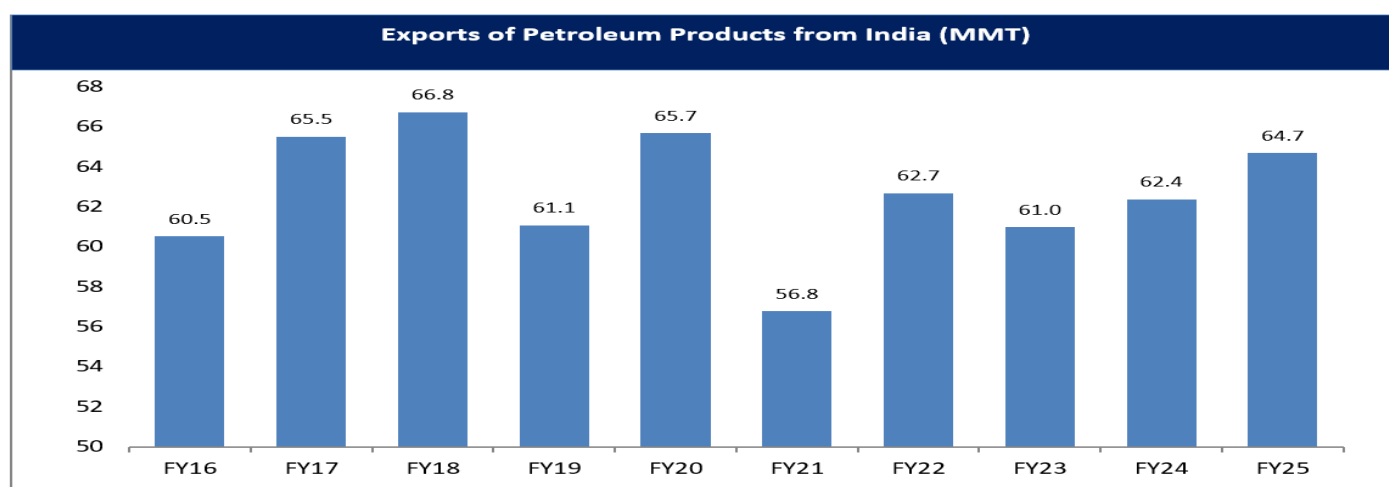

India's oil and gas sector has seen substantial investment and exploration success under the New Exploration Licensing Policy (NELP) and Open Acreage Licensing Policy (OALP). Before 2014, nine NELP bid rounds attracted over ₹ 3,07,368 crore (US$ 36 billion) in investment, yielding 177 oil and gas discoveries.

Indian refining capacity has increased from 215.1 million metric tonne per annum (MMTPA) to 256.8 MMTPA as of FY24.

The Union Budget FY26 has allocated ₹ 5,597 crore (US$ 640.46 million) to the petroleum and natural gas (PNG) ministry for phase II of the Indian Strategic Petroleum Reserves Ltd (ISPRL) project, aimed at turning two vast underground caverns into petroleum storage facilities.

In FY25 petroleum product export stood at 64.7 MMT.

According to the International Energy Agency (IEA), consumption of natural gas in India is expected to grow by 25 BCM, registering an average annual growth of 9% until 2024.

Road Ahead

Rapid economic growth is leading to greater outputs, which in turn is increasing the demand of oil for production and transportation. Crude oil consumption is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.59% to 500 million tonnes by FY40 from 223.0 million tonnes in FY23. In terms of barrels, India's oil consumption is forecast to rise from 4.05 MBPD in FY22 to 7.2 MBPD in 2030 and 9.2 MBPD in 2050. Diesel demand in India is expected to double to 163 MT by 2029-30, with diesel and petrol covering 58% of India's oil demand by 2045. Demand is not likely to simmer down anytime soon, given strong economic growth and rising urbanisation.

Indian refiners would add 56 million tonnes per annum (MTPA) by 2028 to increase domestic capacity to 310 MTPA.

India is planning to double its oil refining capacity to 450-500 million tonnes by 2030.

Energy demand of India is anticipated to grow faster than energy demand of all major economies globally on the back of continuous robust economic growth. Moreover, the country's share in global primary energy consumption is projected to increase to two-fold by 2035.

SWOT ANALYSIS

Strengths	Weaknesses
Owned and operated Auto LPG Dispensing Stations network with associated storage infrastructure.	Concentration in Auto LPG as a single-fuel business limits revenue diversification.
Presence across three states enables geographic diversification of demand and supply.	State-wise regulatory variations increase compliance workload and costs.
Integrated activities from procurement to retail sale provide operational control over key value-chain steps.	Exposure to input price volatility and currency fluctuations through procurement arrangements.
Established compliance processes for Auto LPG handling, storage, and dispensing under applicable regulations (including PESO permissions and Petroleum Rules), reducing operational interruptions.	Dependence on footfall at ALDS locations; sub-optimal sites may reduce throughput.
	High fixed costs in storage and dispensing infrastructure leading to operating leverage during demand downturns.
Opportunities	Threats
Potential to infill and densify the ALDS network within existing cities and corridors to improve utilization.	Regulatory changes impacting Auto LPG retailing, safety norms, licensing, or pricing mechanisms.
Fleet and commercial user tie-ups to stabilize volumes at select stations.	Competitive entry from existing fuel retailers and new ALDS operators in target micro-markets.
Addition of ancillary services at ALDS locations subject to approvals, to improve unit economics.	Substitution risk from alternative fuels (CNG, EVs, ethanol blends) affecting long-term demand in certain corridors.
Possible participation in government or municipal initiatives promoting cleaner automotive fuels, where applicable.	Supply chain disruptions (refinery/terminal outages, transport constraints) affecting station availability.
	Safety incidents at industry level leading to stricter compliance requirements and higher operating costs.

DETAILS OF THE MARKET

The Auto LPG market in India is growing. As of April 1, 2025, there are 440 Auto LPG Dispensing Stations (ALDS) across the country, operated by Public Sector Oil Marketing Companies. Auto LPG sales stood at 73.2 thousand metric tonnes (TMT) in FY25. The Southern region accounts for approximately 83.6% of Auto LPG volume sales.

Growth is supported by the cost advantage of Auto LPG relative to conventional fuels, state and central regulatory frameworks which provide safety and licensing norms, and increasing attention to cleaner fuel options due to environmental/governance policies. The residential LPG market has also expanded significantly—domestic LPG customers of PSU OMCs increased from about 14.9 crore in 2015 to nearly 33 crore in 2025.

Challenges include regulatory variation across states, infrastructure investment demands for storage, transport and dispensing, safety compliance, and competition from alternative fuels and vehicle technologies. The market outlook depends on increased network density of ALDS, vehicle conversions or OEM adoption of LPG-capable vehicles, and further policy support for Auto LPG.

OUR BUSINESS MODEL

The Company's business model comprises the distribution and retailing of Auto Liquefied Petroleum Gas ("Auto LPG") through Company-owned and operated Auto LPG Dispensing Stations ("ALDS"). The model begins with procurement of Auto LPG from suppliers under supply arrangements that may include volume commitments, delivery schedules, quality specifications, and standard commercial terms. Procured product is received at the Company's storage and allied infrastructure, where it is held, handled, and despatched to ALDS locations using contracted or owned logistics, with dispatch planning based on station throughput, inventory thresholds, and route efficiency.

At the retail level, the Company sells Auto LPG to end consumers in the transport segment through metered dispensing, with station operations covering product receipt, custody transfer, storage, dispensing, cash and digital collections, reconciliation, and daily reporting. Revenue is derived primarily from the retail sale of Auto LPG, with pricing determined by procurement cost, freight and handling, operating expenses, statutory levies, and prevailing market conditions, subject to applicable regulations. Key cost components include product cost, transportation, storage operations, utilities, maintenance, station staffing, rentals or site-related charges, regulatory compliances, and periodic inspections.

Working capital is deployed in inventory at storage and station level, trade receivables where applicable, and operational float for station expenses; the cash conversion cycle is managed through inventory turns, payment terms with suppliers and vendors, and settlement of statutory dues. Supply continuity is supported through scheduling, safety and compliance protocols, and contingency arrangements, including alternative routing and supplier diversification when available.

The Company's infrastructure footprint across Telangana, Karnataka, and Maharashtra supports distribution to its ALDS network within these states, with expansion undertaken through site identification, technical feasibility, statutory approvals, installation and commissioning, and integration into supply and monitoring systems. Compliance with regulatory requirements for Auto LPG storage, handling, transportation, and dispensing is embedded in site design, equipment selection, operating procedures, training, record-keeping, and periodic audits. Information systems support demand forecasting, inventory management, pricing updates, station performance tracking, preventive maintenance, and regulatory documentation. The Company engages with customers principally in the commercial transport and personal mobility segments using Auto LPG vehicles, with sales influenced by location access, turnaround time, and relative fuel economics compared to alternative fuels. The model depends on maintaining safe operations, reliable product availability, and cost discipline across procurement, logistics, and retail operations.

Growth is pursued by increasing throughput at existing stations, commissioning new ALDS in approved locations, and optimizing supply routes and storage utilisation to reduce per-unit distribution cost. Capital expenditure relates to storage facilities, dispensing equipment, safety systems, and site development, while operating expenditure relates to station operations and logistics. The business model is scalable within the limits of supply availability, infrastructure capacity, regulatory approvals, and site economics.

PRODUCT AND PRODUCT RANGE

Auto Liquefied Petroleum Gas is a petroleum-derived fuel comprising liquefied propane and butane, stored and transported under moderate pressure in cylinders and tanks for use in spark-ignition internal combustion engines fitted with approved conversion kits. In the context of the Company's business, Auto LPG is procured from suppliers, stored at the Company's facilities, transported to Auto LPG Dispensing Stations, and dispensed through metered nozzles for retail sale to end consumers in the transport segment. The product serves as an automotive fuel alternative to petrol for compatible vehicles, with consumption occurring at the point of sale via vehicle refuelling. Handling involves receipt, storage, transfer, and dispensing in accordance with applicable safety and regulatory requirements for Auto LPG storage, transportation, and retail distribution.

In the context of retail sales, Auto Liquefied Petroleum Gas is supplied as automotive fuel to auto-rickshaws, taxis, and small commercial vehicles used for passenger transport and last-mile goods movement. Use in motor vehicles is governed by the Liquefied Petroleum Gas (Regulation of Use in Motor Vehicles) Order, 2001.

BUSINESS PROCESSES

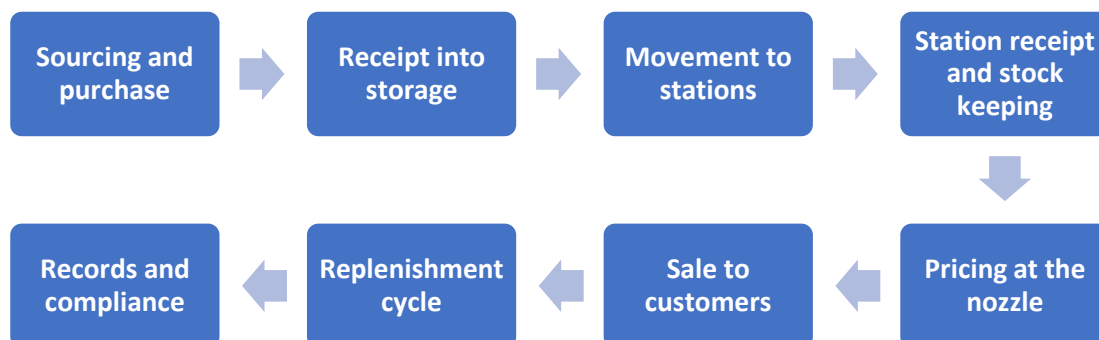

Establishing an Auto LPG Dispensing Station involves a planned and executed project management process, encompassing several distinct phases from initial planning to ongoing operations.

1.Setting up of an Auto LPG Dispensing Station:

- Choose the location: Select a plot with safe entry/exit for vehicles, adequate space, and local permission for fuel retail.
- Obtain permissions: Take required approvals from local civic bodies, fire department, and other authorities as applicable.
- Prepare the plan: Finalize a simple site layout showing where the storage tank, dispenser, and safety equipment will be placed.
- Apply for safety license: Submit the plan to the central safety authority (PESO) and obtain the necessary license to store and sell Auto LPG.
- Procure equipment: Purchase approved storage tanks, dispenser, safety gear (firefighting), basic electricals, and signage.
- Build the station: Complete civil works (foundation, fencing, canopy if any) and install the tank, dispenser, and safety equipment as per the approved plan.
- Test and verify: Check that equipment works properly, meters are accurate, safety systems function, and records are in place.
- Final inspection and license: Facilitate inspection by the authority and obtain the operating license and other registrations (trade/tax) as required.
- Commissioning: Receive the first supply, run basic functional checks, train staff on operating procedures and emergency steps.
- Operate and maintain: Start retail sales, monitor stock and daily collections, keep safety equipment ready, maintain records, and renew licenses on time.

2.Procurement and Sales:

- Sourcing and purchase: The Company selects suppliers and buys Auto LPG under standard purchase terms (quantity, price, delivery point, and payment timelines).
- Receipt into storage: Product is delivered to the Company's approved storage facility, where quantities are recorded and basic safety and documentation checks are performed.
- Movement to stations: From storage, Auto LPG is transported in approved tankers to the Company's Auto LPG Dispensing Stations based on each station's stock levels and sales trends.
- Station receipt and stock keeping: Each ALDS receives the product into on-site tanks, updates daily stock records, and maintains required safety equipment and logs.
- Pricing at the nozzle: Retail price at each station is set by the Company, taking into account product cost, transport, station operating costs, and applicable taxes/levies.
- Sale to customers: Vehicles fitted for Auto LPG refuel at the dispenser. Fuel is issued through a calibrated meter, and the transaction is completed by cash or digital payment. A receipt is provided on request.
- Replenishment cycle: When stock reaches a set minimum level, the Company schedules the next delivery to keep the station operational without interruption.

- Records and compliance: The Company and each ALDS maintain basic records of purchases, sales, inventories, and safety checks, and keep licences and inspections up to date.

CAPACITY UTILISATION

The Company plans and utilises storage capacity based on forecast demand and operational constraints across its storage facilities and Auto LPG Dispensing Stations. Demand forecasts are prepared using recent sales trends, seasonality, station throughput, and planned network changes. Based on these forecasts, the Company allocates receipts to storage locations, defines minimum and reorder levels, and schedules dispatches to ALDS to maintain service continuity while avoiding excess inventory.

Capacity utilisation is managed to operate within safe fill limits and licensing conditions, with buffer stock maintained for supply variability and logistics delays. The Company seeks to balance throughput across facilities by routing supplies to locations with available capacity and higher drawdown, while planning maintenance during lower demand windows to reduce disruption. Periodic reviews compare actual offtake with forecast and adjust receipts, dispatch frequency, and storage allocations. This approach is intended to optimise utilisation of available capacity, support uninterrupted retail operations, and comply with applicable safety and regulatory requirements.

Our Company has total employed around 20 employees, including KMPs, as on September 06, 2025. Our manpower is a prudent mix of the experienced and youth which gives us the dual advantage of stability and growth. Our work processes and skilled resources together with our strong management team have enabled us to successfully implement our growth plans.

MARKETING STRATEGIES

Marketing strategies used by our company to generate sales are:

1. Word-of-Mouth (Local Network Effects):

- The company actively drives referrals by maintaining consistent service hours, ensuring quick turnaround at the dispenser, and providing transparent billing.
- Driver unions, fleet owners, and aggregator partners are routinely engaged through station visits and informational briefings.
- Clear on-premise information—price displays, safety notices, and accepted payment modes—is prominently placed to reinforce trust and encourage repeat use.
- Station-level repeat-customer ratios and route-based traffic are continuously tracked to identify local advocates and peak refuelling windows.

2. Price Differential with Competitors:

- Retail prices at each ALDS are set based on product cost, freight, operating expenses, and applicable taxes/levies, with a defined target margin.
- Competing fuel options in nearby locations are regularly reviewed, and a measured price differential is maintained to support value perception while sustaining station economics.
- Periodic price audits are conducted to ensure the posted price equals the billed price and that meters remain properly calibrated.
- Differentials are calibrated by micro-market (e.g., proximity to transport hubs) to strike the right balance between throughput and margin.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

To sustain growth and remain competitive, the company has developed a comprehensive business strategy focusing on operational efficiency and market expansion. These strategic objectives aim to optimize product offerings, streamline customer experiences, and extend geographical reach, positioning the company effectively. Below is an outline of the key initiatives:

1. Network Expansion and Footprint

- The company identifies sites near transport hubs, wholesale markets, and high-throughput corridors in Telangana, Karnataka, and Maharashtra.
- Locations are prioritised based on established Auto LPG vehicle density and accessibility for tankers and retail traffic.
- A phased roll-out is followed, with clear commissioning milestones, utilisation targets, and post-launch reviews.

2. Supply, Procurement, and Logistics

- Supply arrangements with multiple vendors are in place to ensure continuity of product.
- Receipts to central and regional storage are planned against forecast demand and minimum stock levels.
- Secondary transport routes and frequencies are optimised to minimise station stock-outs and idle capacity.

3. Capacity Planning and Utilisation

- Monthly and weekly demand forecasts are prepared using station throughput, seasonality, and planned network changes.
- Product is allocated to storage and stations within licensed safe fill limits and defined buffer stocks.
- Maintenance is scheduled during lower-demand windows to reduce disruption to throughput.

4. Station Set-Up and Commissioning

- Feasibility, approvals, construction, testing, licensing, and commissioning steps are standardised across sites.
- Approved equipment and documented SOPs are used to ensure uniform station operations and training.

5. Operations and Cost Discipline

- Daily controls are implemented for meter readings, cash/digital collections, stock reconciliations, and variance tracking.
- Key cost drivers (freight, utilities, maintenance, staffing) are benchmarked, with defined targets for each station.
- Preventive maintenance schedules and spares planning are maintained to limit unplanned downtime.

6. Pricing and Margin Management

- Station prices are set from a defined formula (procurement cost, transport, operating costs, levies) within target margin bands.
- Competitor prices are reviewed by micro-market, with measured differentials applied to balance volume and margin.
- Periodic audits ensure posted price, billed price, and meter calibration remain aligned.

7. Market Development and Customer Retention

- Word-of-mouth is fostered in local catchments through consistent service hours, transparent billing, and station-level engagement with driver unions and fleet operators.
- Simple facilitation for fleets is provided (accepted payment modes, monthly statements) where permitted.
- Repeat-customer ratios, average ticket size, and peak refuelling times are tracked to guide staffing and delivery schedules.

8. Compliance, Safety, and Quality

- Operations are conducted within applicable licensing conditions for storage, handling, transport, dispensing, and legal metrology.
- Station-level safety checks, training records, emergency drills, equipment certifications, and incident logs are actively maintained.

- Quality and quantity controls are implemented through supplier specifications, documentation, and periodic meter calibration.

9. Technology, Data, and Reporting

- Basic MIS systems are deployed for demand forecasting, inventory monitoring, price updates, daily sales reporting, and reconciliation.
- Exception dashboards track stock-outs, variances, meter issues, and safety non-conformities.
- Station data is integrated with replenishment planning to automate delivery triggers at defined reorder levels.

10. Customer Segments and Partnerships

- Auto-rickshaws, taxis, and small commercial vehicles are served for passenger and last-mile movement.
- Aggregator and fleet relationships are explored and maintained for predictable volumes, subject to standard commercial terms and compliance.

11. Financial Planning and Working Capital

- Supplier payment terms, logistics cycles, and daily retail collections are aligned to shorten the cash conversion cycle.
- Inventory and receivables thresholds (if any) are set and monitored against utilisation and throughput targets.
- Capex is prioritised on stations and storage with faster utilisation ramps and established demand.

12. Risk Management

- Supplier base and delivery routes are diversified, with contingency stock maintained at select nodes.
- Regulatory changes affecting Auto LPG retailing, licensing, or vehicle conversion norms are actively monitored.
- Key assets are insured and contractual protections are maintained with vendors and logistics providers.

13. Governance and Review Cadence

- Weekly station reviews are conducted (price, volumes, stock, variances, safety checks), along with monthly management reviews (utilisation, margins, capex progress).
- Periodic internal audits cover operations, safety, pricing, and statutory records.
- Network plans, pricing guidelines, and replenishment rules are adjusted based on utilisation and compliance outcomes.

Product Sourcing and Logistics Overview

As per the policy and conditions stipulated by our license, all LPG operators are required to source the product either through direct importation or by establishing a sourcing agreement with authorized importers. Currently, our company procures LPG from authorized importers and do not directly import. The logistics from terminal to our storage or ALDS is our responsibility where we engage the services of transporters.

Logistics Arrangements

To facilitate the transportation of LPG from the terminal to our storage plant and outlets, we have entered into a logistics agreement with our group company viz. PrimeFuel Logistics Private Limited. This agreement covers all movements from the terminal to our storage facilities and directly to our retail outlets, in accordance with the terms outlined in the respective agreements. For details, please refer to the chapter titled “Related Party Transactions” beginning on page 174 of this DRHP.

PLANT AND MACHINERY

Our operations rely on specialized plant and machinery essential for the safe, efficient, and reliable functioning of Auto LPG dispensing stations. Central to our infrastructure are LPG storage tanks, which are high-pressure vessels designed to store Liquefied Petroleum Gas in liquid form. These tanks are engineered to stringent safety standards, ensuring secure containment and optimal performance under high-pressure conditions. The dispensing units form a critical part of our facilities and are equipped with advanced pumps, precision meters, and durable hoses, facilitating the seamless transfer of LPG from storage tanks into vehicle fuel systems. Designed for accuracy and operational efficiency, these units meet the high standards of reliability. Safety remains a core priority across all our operations. Each facility is equipped with safety systems, including advanced leak detection systems for the early identification and mitigation of gas leaks, flame arresters and pressure relief valves to prevent ignition hazards and maintain pressure control, and strategically placed fire extinguishers to enable immediate emergency response. Supporting systems such as compressors and filtration units play a vital role in ensuring the smooth operation of the dispensing stations. Compressors regulate and maintain gas flow pressure, while filtration units ensure the delivery of clean, impurity-free LPG to consumers. Additionally, automatic control systems provide precision control, real-time monitoring, and operational automation, enhancing both efficiency and safety compliance. Every element of our setup is designed to comply with industry safety and quality standards. This comprehensive infrastructure ensures smooth and secure operations while minimizing risks.

INDEBTEDNESS

For details of indebtedness please refer to “Restated Financial Information” on page 174 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

COMPETITION

We encounter strong competition from organised players in the Auto LPG retail and downstream petroleum engineering sector across India. Competitors include established oil marketing companies, licensed private operators, and other specialised players with significant financial resources, extensive networks, and diversified fuel offerings. Competition primarily revolves around factors such as retail pricing, location of dispensing stations, quality of service, adherence to safety and statutory norms, operational efficiency, and supply chain reliability. Players with strong capital backing, nationwide infrastructure, and access to large customer bases are able to achieve faster scale and stronger market penetration.

The Auto LPG industry, while supported by favourable government policies and rising adoption of green fuels, remains highly competitive due to the presence of large integrated companies and specialised operators. Obtaining regulatory approvals, securing prime locations, and managing supply logistics are critical success factors, and competition is expected to intensify as more players expand their networks in response to the growing demand for eco-friendly fuels.

KEY REGULATIONS AND POLICIES

The business of our Company requires, at various stages, the sanction of the concerned authorities under the relevant Central, State legislation and local laws. Liquidity and capital resources

Historically, our primary liquidity requirements have been to finance the working capital needs of our Auto LPG Dispensing Stations (ALDS) operations. These requirements have been met through cash flows generated from operations, equity infusions by shareholders, and borrowings. As of March 31, 2025, we had ₹200.06 lakhs in cash in hand, ₹28.11 lakhs as other bank balances, and 1692.82 lakhs in outstanding loans. We believe that, after considering the expected cash flows from our ALDS operations, our borrowings, and the proceeds from the Issue, we will have sufficient liquidity to meet our current obligations as well as the anticipated requirements for capital expenditure and working capital over the next 12 months.

Looking ahead, our capital requirements will depend on various factors, including the pace of our growth, the expansion of our ALDS network in central and northern India, and investments to enhance our operational capacity. Accordingly, we may seek additional equity or debt financing in the future.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. RESTRICTION ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 ("FEMA"). While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India ("DIPP").

The Government of India, from time to time, has made policy pronouncements on Foreign Direct Investment ("FDI") through press notes and press releases. The DIPP, has issued consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2020 ("FDI Policy 2020"), effective from October 15, 2020, which consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI Policy issued by the DIPP that were in force. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI policy once every year and therefore, FDI Policy 2020 will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular. The RBI also issues Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India every year.
