SECTION III – RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all the information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares. To obtain a better understanding, you should read this section together with "Our Business" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" on pages 146 and 257 respectively, as well as the other financial and statistical information contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The risks and uncertainties described in this section are not the only risks that we may face. Additional risks and uncertainties not known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial, actually occur, our cash flows, business, financial condition and results of operations could suffer, the price of our equity shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors mentioned below. However, there are risks where the impact is not quantifiable and hence the same has not been disclosed in such risk factors. Investment in equity and equity related securities involve a degree of risk and investors should not invest any funds in this Issue unless they can afford to take the risk of losing their investment. Investors are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in this Issue. Before making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the Issue and us.

This Draft Red Herring Prospectus contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors below. However, there are risk factors the potential effects of which are not quantifiable and therefore no quantification has been provided with respect to such risk factors. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and the risks involved. You should not invest in this Issue unless you are prepared to accept the risk of losing all or part of your investment, and you should consult your tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences to you of an investment in our Equity Shares.

*In this Prospectus, any discrepancies in any table between total and the sums of the amount listed are due to rounding off. #### Materiality

The Risk factors have been determined and disclosed on the basis of their materiality. The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality:

1. Some events may have material impact quantitatively;
2. Some events may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively;
3. Some events may not be material individually but may be found material collectively;
4. Some events may not be material at present but may be having material impact in future.

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

1. Our top ten customers contribute majority of our revenues from operations and we do not have long-term or firm commitment arrangements with any of our customers. Any loss of business from one or more of them may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our top ten customers have contributed 69.46%, 72.17%, 81.14% and 79.50% of our revenue from operations for the period ended September 30, 2025 and financial year ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 respectively based on Restated Financial Statements. However, our top customers may vary from period to period depending on the demand and thus the composition and revenue generated from these customers might change as we continue to add new customers in normal course of business.

Details of our top customers for preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended on September 30, 2025 are as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		For FY 2025		For FY 2024		For FY 2023
	Amount	%*	Amount	%*	Amount	%*	Amount	%*
Top 1 Customer	619.52	13.32	1,165.84	14.19	1,008.41	12.46	1,373.64	14.62
Top 3 Customers	1551.97	33.37	3,092.90	37.65	2,840.09	35.10	3,503.48	37.29
Top 5 Customers	2,241.20	48.19	4,161.37	50.66	4,387.90	54.23	5,017.42	53.40
Top 10 Customers	3,230.16	69.46	5,928.26	72.17	6,565.08	81.14	7,470.18	79.50

Since our business is concentrated among few significant customers, we could experience a reduction in our results of operations, cash flows and liquidity if we lose one or more of these customers or the amount of business we obtain from them is reduced for any reason, including but not limited on account of any dispute or disqualification.

Accordingly, we cannot assure you that the customers which contribute to the major part of our revenue stream will pay us the amounts due to us on time, or at all. In the event any of our significant customers fail to fulfil their respective obligations, our business, financial condition and results of operations would be adversely affected.

Further, we do not have long-term firm commitment agreements or exclusive supply contracts with our customers. Our customers generally source components based on their current requirements and may reduce, defer or discontinue purchases at their discretion, without obligation to maintain historical order volumes. Any decline in demand from one or more customers or a shift in their sourcing strategy could have an adverse impact on our revenues, cash flows and operational performance.

While we believe we have maintained good and long-term relationships with our customers, there can be no assurance that we will continue to have such long-term relationship with them. We cannot assure that we shall generate the same quantum of business, or any business at all, from these customers, and loss of business from one or more of them may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

- A significant portion of our purchases is sourced from a limited number of suppliers, with our top ten suppliers accounting for a substantial share of our total purchases. Also, we do not have long-term or firm commitment arrangements with any of our suppliers. Any disruption in supplies, deterioration in relationships, or inability of such suppliers to meet our requirements on commercially acceptable terms could adversely affect our production schedules, operating margins and business operations.

Our top ten suppliers accounted for approximately 97.02%, 96.04%, 92.08% and 92.77% of our total purchases for the period ended September 30, 2025, and the financial years ended March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively, based on our Restated Financial Statements. Our reliance on these suppliers exposes us to risks relating to availability of raw materials, pricing, credit terms and timely delivery. While our top suppliers may vary from period to period depending on demand-supply dynamics and commercial considerations, any disruption in supply, deterioration in relationships, inability of such suppliers to meet our requirements on commercially acceptable terms, or loss of one or more key suppliers could adversely affect our production schedules, operating margins and business operations.

Details of our top suppliers for preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended on September 30, 2025 are as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		For FY 2025		For FY 2024		For FY 2023

*% of total purchases.

Further, we do not have long-term procurement arrangements with our key suppliers for raw materials or other critical inputs. Supplies are generally obtained on a purchase-order basis, and suppliers are free to revise quantities, pricing or delivery schedules, or cease supplies altogether. Any disruption in supply of raw materials, change in supplier terms, or inability to identify alternate vendors in a timely manner may affect our ability to meet production schedules, leading to delayed deliveries or increased procurement costs.

As our business is concentrated among a limited number of suppliers, we may experience a reduction in purchases or disruption in operations if we lose one or more of these suppliers due to disputes, regulatory restrictions, financial difficulties or other reasons. While we believe we have maintained long-standing relationships with our suppliers, we cannot assure that such relationships will continue, or that we will be able to source materials on comparable terms, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

3. Our business is largely concentrated in three States i.e. Punjab, Haryana and Tamil Nadu, any adverse developments in these states may negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our sales are geographically concentrated, and a material portion of our revenue is generated from customers located in Punjab, Haryana and Tamil Nadu. For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, sales to these three states accounted for approximately 58.74% of our revenue from operations, and for Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2023, these states represented approximately 65.80%, 67.94% and 67.01% of our revenue from operations, respectively.

Revenue from these three states for preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended on September 30, 2025 are as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)

Sr · N o.	State	For the period ended September 30, 2025		For FY 2025		For FY 2024		For FY 2023

*% of Revenue from Operation.

For detailed geography-wise revenue from operations, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on page 146.

Any adverse economic, political, regulatory or industrial developments in these states may materially affect demand for our products or disrupt customer operations. Events such as changes in state-level tax policies, imposition of transport restrictions, labour availability issues, industrial slowdowns, localised supply chain disruptions, natural calamities or regional competition may have a disproportionate impact on our business compared to companies with a more diversified geographic presence.

If we are unable to grow our sales in other regions of India or diversify our customer base beyond these states, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

4. A portion of our revenue is derived from our growing export operations that are concentrated in select overseas markets, particularly Indonesia, and are subject to risks arising from changes in international trade policies, government regulations and geopolitical developments.

Our export sales have increased in recent periods and are dependent on a limited number of overseas markets. Export revenue contributed 10.10% of our revenue from operations in Fiscal 2025 and 18.74% for the six months ended September 30, 2025. Within this, Indonesia accounted for 4.84% and 9.79% of revenue from operations in Fiscal 2025 and the six months ended September 30, 2025, respectively. Our historical export performance also reflects varying volumes across geographies and reporting periods.

Revenue from Exports for preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended on September 30, 2025 are as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business,” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 146] and 257 respectively.

Our dependence on export markets exposes us to a range of external risks including, but not limited to, changes in trade and import policies, tariff and duty impositions, restrictions on cross-border movement of goods, currency fluctuations, regulatory requirements, certification needs and geopolitical or diplomatic developments affecting India or the jurisdictions to which we export. Any adverse change in such conditions may impact demand, pricing, customer ordering patterns or our ability to supply to overseas customers on a timely and cost-effective basis.

Our future ability to grow exports will depend on several factors outside our control, including the stability of bilateral trade relationships, global economic conditions and the competitive positioning of domestic suppliers vis-à-vis foreign manufacturers. In the event we are unable to maintain or expand exports to Indonesia or other overseas markets, or if global trade conditions deteriorate, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

5. We have substantial capital expenditure and working capital requirements and may require additional capital and financing in the future and our operations could be curtailed if we are unable to obtain the required additional capital and financing when needed.

Our business is capital intensive. We have expanded and upgraded our existing manufacturing facilities in the last three Fiscals and the stub period ended on September 30, 2025. The following tables set forth details of our capital expenditure (i.e. payments for acquisition of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (including capital work in progress, intangible assets under development and capital advance)) as a percentage of gross block (i.e. cost of property, plant and equipment, capital work-in-progress, cost of intangible assets and intangible assets under development) in the years/ periods indicated:

*Capital Expenditure comprises payments for acquisition of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (including capital work in progress, intangible assets under development and capital advance).

Our Working Capital for preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended on September 30, 2025 are as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)

Particulars	As of / For the period ended September 30, 2025	As of / For the Fiscal
		2025	2024	2023
Working Capital	1,851.71	1,749.67	1,874.92	1,449.52
% of increase in Working Capital Requirements	-	(6.68)	29.35	-

We intend to fund purchase of certain plant and machinery from the Net Proceeds and the total amount to be financed from Net Proceeds for such capital expenditure is approximately Rs. 1,168.29 lakhs. For further information, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 99.

The actual amount and timing of our future capital requirements may differ from estimates as a result of, among other factors, unforeseen events beyond our control, unforeseen delays or cost overruns, unanticipated expenses, regulatory changes, economic conditions, engineering design changes, weather related delays, technological changes and additional market developments and new opportunities in the industries we operate.

Our sources of additional capital, where required to meet our capital expenditure plans or funding working capital requirement, may include the incurrence of debt or the issue of equity or debt securities or a combination of both. Further, our budgeted resources may prove insufficient to meet our requirements which could drain our internal accruals or compel us to raise additional capital. If we are required to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows and we may be subject to additional covenants, which could limit our ability to access cash flows from operations.

In many cases, a significant amount of our working capital is required to finance the purchase of materials and the performance of manufacturing and other work before payment is received from customers. Our inability to obtain adequate amount of working capital at such terms which are favourable to us and in a timely manner or at all may also have an adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Continued increases in our working capital requirements may have an adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

6. Fluctuation in the prices of our principal raw materials, power, fuel and consumables may adversely affect our business, profitability and results of operations.

Our manufacturing operations require continuous procurement of raw materials such as steel bars and other allied inputs, as well as significant consumption of power, fuel and oils for operating our forging, machining and heat treatment processes. Prices of these inputs are subject to volatility driven by factors including domestic and international demand-supply dynamics, availability of raw materials, fluctuations in commodity and energy markets, changes in government policies, duties and import regulations, transportation and logistics costs and macroeconomic conditions.

We may not always be able to pass on increases in raw material, power or fuel costs to our customers in a timely manner or at all, which may adversely impact our operating margins. Conversely, sudden decreases in steel or other raw material prices may result in inventory valuation losses or require downward adjustments in selling prices.

In addition, any shortage, disruption or increase in the cost of power supply, fuel or oils, whether due to changes in tariff structures, supply constraints, regulatory actions, geopolitical developments or volatility in energy markets, may adversely affect our production schedules, cost structure and capacity utilisation. Any sustained increase in the prices of raw materials, power, fuel or consumables, or our inability to manage such price variations effectively, could adversely impact our cost of production, working capital requirements, profitability and overall financial performance.

7. *In the past we have entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

We have entered into related party transactions with our Promoters, Promoters Group, Group Companies and Directors. For details of these transactions, please refer “Note 35 - Related Party Disclosures” under the chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on page 212. The relevant resolutions are duly passed for such transactions under the Companies Act, 2013.

Transactions with our Group Companies are primarily undertaken due to the complementary nature of manufacturing capabilities across our Company and Group Companies. Our Company operates an integrated cutting, forging and machining setup, whereas our Group Companies have limited or no forging facilities and varying levels of machining capacity. Accordingly, purchase and sale transactions involving forgings, semi-finished and finished goods are undertaken among the Group Companies to address capacity constraints and ensure continuity of operations. Where Group Companies lack forging capabilities, they procure forgings and semi-finished goods from us, and in situations where we face machining limitations, we may procure semi-finished or finished goods from such entities. While these arrangements are intended to optimise utilisation of available manufacturing infrastructure, such related party transactions may give rise to potential conflicts of interest and may be subject to increased regulatory scrutiny.

However, all the related party transactions carried out by the Company in the past are in compliance with the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable provisions at that time.

Although all related-party transactions that we have entered into are on an arm’s length basis and are subject to approval by our Audit Committee, Board or Shareholders, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (“SEBI Listing Regulations”), we cannot assure you that such transactions in the future, individually or in aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations or that we could not have achieved more favourable terms if such transactions had not been entered into with related parties. Such related-party transactions in the future may potentially involve conflicts of interest which may be detrimental to the interest of our Company and we cannot assure you that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our minority shareholders and will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. There can also be no assurance that any dispute that may arise between us and related parties will be resolved in our favour.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain the terms of such transactions, or that, in the event we enter into future transactions with related parties, the terms will be favourable to us.

8. *Our operations require significant power and fuel, and any disruption in supply or increase in utility costs may adversely affect our results of operations.

Our manufacturing activities, including forging, machining and heat treatment, are dependent on continuous and reliable availability of power and other utilities. Any interruption in power supply, whether due to grid outages, load shedding, equipment failure, regulatory restrictions, or transmission issues, may disrupt production schedules, reduce plant efficiency and increase operating costs.

The following tables set forth below our power and fuel expenses for the preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended September 30 2025:

(Rs. in Lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	For Fiscal
		2025	2024	2023
Power and Fuel Expenses	443.77	751.96	763.14	772.16
% of Total Expenses	10.40	9.48	10.06	8.24
% of Revenue from Operations	9.54	9.15	9.43	8.22

We also rely on third-party sources for electricity and fuel requirements, and utility rates are subject to change based on government tariffs, policy decisions, fuel price movements and changes in taxation or regulatory frameworks. Any increase in power tariffs, fuel costs or surcharges may adversely impact our operating margins if we are unable to pass on such increases to customers. However, our Company haven't face any power outages during the reporting period.

If we experience prolonged or frequent disruption in power supply or a material increase in utility costs, our production capacity, cost competitiveness, delivery schedules and profitability may be adversely affected.

9. Our inability to collect receivables and default in payment from our customers could result in the reduction of our profits and affect our cash flows.

We extend credit to our customers in the ordinary course of business, and a significant portion of our current assets comprises trade receivables. Our receivable levels may increase with growth in sales, longer credit periods, expansion into new markets, supply to new customers or changes in customer ordering patterns.

As of September 30, 2025, March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, our trade receivables were Rs. 2,018.39 lakhs, Rs. 1,603.45 lakhs, Rs. 2,211.17 lakhs and Rs. 2,332.31 lakhs, respectively.

The following table sets forth below details of our credit cycle, as well as our trade receivables for the preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended September 30, 2025:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	For Fiscal
		2025	2024	2023
Average Credit Cycle (No. of Days)	71	85	102	85
Trade Receivables (in lakhs)	2,018.39	1,603.45	2,211.17	2,332.31
Trade Receivables, as a Percentage of Revenue from Operations (%)	43.40	19.52	27.33	24.82

There is no assurance that our customers will make payments within the agreed credit period, or at all. Delays or defaults in collecting receivables may arise due to factors including financial stress faced by customers, disputes relating to product quality or delivery timelines, adverse market conditions in customer industries, insolvency or bankruptcy of customers, or tightening liquidity in the automotive and industrial sectors.

Any delay in receipt of payments may lengthen our working capital cycle, increase reliance on external borrowings and adversely affect our cash flows. In the event of non-recovery of dues or bad debts, we may be required to make provisions or write-offs, which may negatively affect our profitability. If we are unable to effectively monitor and manage our receivables, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely impacted.

10. We are required to maintain high levels of inventory, and any inability to effectively manage our inventory may adversely affect our business, working capital and results of operations.

Our business requires us to maintain adequate levels of raw materials, work-in-process and finished goods to meet customer delivery schedules and production planning requirements. We procure key inputs such as steel bars and other allied inputs in advance based on expected demand, production cycles and order forecasts. As a result, a significant portion of our working capital remains tied up in inventory at any given time.

We may, from time to time, maintain higher inventory levels due to fluctuations in customer orders, supply chain uncertainties, lead times for sourcing specific grades of steel, or anticipated changes in pricing. If our inventory build-up does not correspond to actual sales, or if customer demand is delayed, reduced or cancelled, we may be exposed to excess or obsolete stock, valuation losses, quality deterioration or additional storage and handling costs.

The following table sets forth below details of inventory days, as well as our cost of goods sold for the preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended September 30, 2025:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	For Fiscal
		2025	2024	2023
Inventory Days (No. of Days)	196	189	165	118
Cost of Goods Sold (Rs. in lakhs)	3,158.18	5,942.11	5,526.76	6,920.63
Cost of Goods Sold, as a Percentage of Revenue from Operations (%)	67.91	72.34	68.31	73.65

Inventory utilisation may also be affected by changes in product specifications, customer mix, production scheduling, new product introduction, or delays in ramp-up of proposed capacity expansion. Any such mismatch between demand and inventory may lengthen our working capital cycle and increase our reliance on short-term borrowing.

If we are unable to effectively plan, monitor and manage inventory levels, or if we incur significant write-downs or valuation losses, our liquidity position, profitability and financial performance may be adversely affected.

11. Our financial performance has fluctuated in recent periods, and any inability to grow revenue or maintain profitability may adversely affect our business and valuation.

Our results of operations have shown volatility across reporting periods. Revenue from operations has fluctuated, decreasing by 13.89% in Fiscal 2024 compared to Fiscal 2023, increasing marginally by 1.52% in Fiscal 2025, and showing further variation in the period ended September 30, 2025. Profit after tax and PAT margins (%) has also been fluctuated materially.

The following table sets forth our revenue from operations and profit after tax for the periods indicated and the percentage movement thereof:

(Rs. in lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	For Fiscal
		2025	2024	2023
Revenue from Operations	4,650.85	8,214.03	8,090.85	9,396.47
% of change in Revenue from Operations	-	1.52	(13.89)	-
Profit after Tax	393.19	234.19	468.93	40.42
PAT margins (%)	8.45	2.85	5.80	0.43

Such variations may result from changes in customer demand, raw material price movement, capacity utilisation levels, operational inefficiencies, foreign exchange fluctuations, competitive pressures, product mix, or other internal and external factors. There can be no assurance that our revenues and profitability will not experience further fluctuations in the future.

Any sustained decline or inconsistency in our financial performance could adversely affect our cash flows, ability to fund operations and growth, creditworthiness, valuation, and overall financial condition.

12. *There may be discrepancies in corporate filings made by us from time to time. We cannot assure you that regulatory proceedings or actions will not be initiated against us in the future and that we will not be subject to any penalty imposed by the competent regulatory authority in this regard.

We are required to make regulatory filings for certain corporate actions undertaken by our Company, in the ordinary course of our business. In this regard, our corporate filings may have certain discrepancies, including with respect to any amount mentioned in such filings or any missing annexures in such form filings.

While we have filed the necessary forms along with additional fee/ late fee to rectify such discrepancies, as may be required, we cannot assure you that our corporate filings will not have discrepancies in the future or that any regulatory proceedings or actions will not be initiated against us for any such discrepancies. While no penalty or fine has been levied by the appropriate authorities against us for our past discrepancies, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to any penalty imposed on us by any competent regulatory authority in this respect. While we believe that such penalties will not be levied, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to such penalties and fines in the future which may have a material adverse impact on our financial condition and cash flows. There can be no assurance that any such delays or associated penalties will not occur in the future.

The Company has appointed Ms. Isha Ghai as Company secretary and compliance officer to ensure timely compliance in the future, any recurrence of such delays could result in additional penalties and may also impact our ability to undertake certain corporate actions that require Registrar of Companies (ROC) clearance.

13. *Our existing manufacturing unit is subject to operating risks. The unexpected shutdown or slowdown of operations at our manufacturing facility could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our manufacturing unit is subject to operating risks, such as the breakdown or failure of equipment, power supply or processes, performance below expected levels of efficiency, obsolescence, labour disputes, natural disasters, industrial accidents and the need to comply with the directives of relevant government authorities, failure of a supplier to provide us with the raw materials. While we undertake precautions to minimize the risk of any significant operational problems at our plants, there can be no assurance that our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition will not be adversely affected by disruption caused by operational problems at our manufacturing facility. Any unscheduled, unplanned or prolonged disruption of our manufacturing operations, including, power failure, fire and unexpected mechanical failure of equipment, performance below expected levels of output or efficiency, obsolescence, labour disputes, strikes, lock-outs, earthquakes and other natural disasters, industrial accidents, any significant social, political or economic disturbances, could reduce our ability to meet the conditions of our contracts and adversely affect sales and revenues from operations in such period. The occurrence of any of these risks could affect our operations by causing production to shut down or slowdown. No assurance can be given that one or more of the factors mentioned above will not occur, which could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Any interruption in production may require significant and unanticipated capital expenditure to affect repairs or increase the cost, which could have a negative effect on profitability and cash flows. Any or all of these occurrences could result in the temporary or long-term closure of our manufacturing units, severely disrupt our business operations and materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. While we have not experienced any major disruptions at our manufacturing facility in the last three Fiscals, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such disruptions in the future.

14. *Any disruption to the steady and regular supply of workforce for our operations, including due to strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our workforce or any other kind of disputes with our workforce or our inability to control the composition and cost of our workforce could adversely affect our business, cash flows and results of operations.

Our manufacturing activities are labour intensive, require our management to undertake significant labour interface, and expose us to the risk of industrial action. As on December 31, 2025, we had 429 employees. We may be subject to industrial unrest, slowdowns, and increased wage costs, which may adversely affect our business, financial conditions, cash flows and results of operations. While we consider our relationship with our employees to be good and there has been no such instance in the three Fiscals and six months ended September 30, 2025, we could experience disruptions in work due to disputes or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to perform our business operations.

The employee attrition rate for the preceding 3 financial years and December 31, 2025 are as follows:

Particulars	For December 31, 2025	For Fiscal
		2025	2024	2023
Number of Employees Resigned	81	105	170	372
Attrition Rate	22%	33%	51%	90%

**Attrition rate is calculated as number of employees left during the year divided by average number of employees in the relevant Fiscal/ Period.*

Further, work stoppages due to strikes or other events could result in slowdowns or closures of our operations which could have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows and results of operations. While there has been no instance in the last three Fiscals and six months ended September 30, 2025 where we experienced work stoppages due to strikes or labour unrest that resulted in closure of our operations, there is no assurance that we may not experience any such events in the future.

15. *Our Group Companies operate in business segments similar to or related to ours, which may result in potential competitive overlap, conflicts of interest and loss of business opportunities.

Our Group Companies, Happy Axle & Gear Private Limited, Happy Autocomp Private Limited, Northstar Autocomp Private Limited, Happy Forgings Limited and Gamo Forgings Private Limited, operate in business areas that are similar to, or form part of, the broader auto component manufacturing value chain in which we operate.

There are certain transactions with our Group Companies primarily undertaken due to the complementary nature of manufacturing capabilities across our Company and Group Companies. Our Company operates an integrated cutting, forging and machining setup, whereas our Group Companies have limited or no forging facilities and varying levels of machining capacity. Accordingly, purchase and sale transactions involving forgings, semi-finished and finished goods are undertaken among the Group Companies to address capacity constraints and ensure continuity of operations. Where Group Companies lack forging capabilities, they procure forgings and semi-finished goods from us, and in situations where we face machining limitations, we may procure semi-finished or finished goods from such entities. While these arrangements are intended to optimise utilisation of available manufacturing infrastructure, such related party transactions may give rise to potential conflicts of interest and may be subject to increased regulatory scrutiny.

While these entities currently undertake manufacturing or supply of products that vary in scope, technical specifications or customer base from ours, we cannot assure that their business activities will not overlap with or expand into product lines or customer segments currently serviced by our Company. While each entity functions independently with its own operational focus, there may be instances in the future where certain business areas, customer segments, or vendor networks overlap.

Such overlapping or expansion may result in potential competition for customers, supply arrangements, business opportunities or technical talent. There may also be risks relating to perceived or actual conflicts of interest among promoters, directors or key management personnel associated with both our Company and such Group Companies.

Further, there can be no assurance that future transactions entered into with such Group Companies, including procurement of raw materials, supply arrangements or shared resources, will always remain favourable or on terms comparable to those available from unrelated third parties. Any conflict of interest or competition scenario involving our Group Companies may adversely affect our market position, our ability to grow existing customer relationships, pricing strategy and overall business performance.

However, to date, our Company has not encountered any material conflict or business disruption due to such overlaps and all transactions entered into between our Company and Group Companies have been conducted at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business.

16. Our manufacturing capacity may not be fully utilized and we may be unable to effectively utilise our existing or expanded manufacturing capacities.

As on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we have one operational manufacturing unit located at Ludhiana, Punjab with a total installed capacity of 8,640.00 MT per annum for the cutting process, 7,776.00 MT per annum for the forging process, and 4,492.80 MT per annum for the machining process as of March 31, 2025.

Our installed manufacturing capacity is based on certain assumptions relating to machine availability, production cycle time, manpower deployment, raw material availability and operational efficiency. Actual production levels may vary from installed capacity, and we may not be able to operate our facility at optimal utilisation levels at all times.

Details of installed production capacity and capacity utilisation of our manufacturing unit are as follows:

Note: As per the certificate issued by Garg & Associates, Chartered Engineer, by way of their certificate dated December 25, 2025.

Further, we are proposing to expand our manufacturing capabilities by adding new machinery as stated above. There can be no assurance that such expanded capacity will be utilized as anticipated. Factors such as fluctuations in customer demand, delays in receipt of purchase orders, changes in market conditions, inability to develop additional customers, supply chain disruptions, equipment downtime, labour availability constraints or operational inefficiencies may affect our ability to fully utilize incremental capacity.

If we are unable to operate at or near our installed capacity, or if production does not ramp up in line with our planned expansion, our revenue growth, cost absorption and profitability may be adversely affected.

17. There are outstanding legal proceedings involving our Company, Directors, Promoters, KMPs, SMPs and Group Companies. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are involved in certain legal proceedings which are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals, enquiry officers, and appellate authorities.

We cannot provide assurance that these legal proceedings will be decided in our favour. Any adverse decisions in any of the proceedings may have a significant adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

A summary of the pending civil and other proceedings involving the Company, Promoters, Directors, KMPs, SMPs and Group Companies is provided below:

The amounts claimed in these proceedings have been disclosed to the extent ascertainable and include amounts claimed jointly and severally. If any new developments arise, such as a change in Indian law or rulings against us by appellate courts or tribunals, we may need to make provisions in our financial statements that could increase our expenses and current liabilities.

18. We have experienced negative cash flows in the past. Any such negative cash flows in the future could affect our business, results of operations and prospects.

Our Company had reported certain negative cash flows from operating, investing activities and financing activities in the previous years as per the Restated Financial Statements and the same are summarized as under:

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If our Company is not able to generate sufficient cash flows, it may affect our business and financial operations. For further details please refer to the chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on Page 212.

19. Certain corporate records and other documents filed by us with the RoC, are not traceable. While we have conducted a search with the RoC, in respect of the unavailability of such forms and other records, we cannot assure you that such forms or records will be available at all or any time in the future.

Our Company is unable to trace certain corporate records and regulatory filings made by us. These include form 2, Form 23 AC, Form 23 ACA, Form 23B, Form 32 etc. We have included details of such allotments and appointments in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus based on other corporate records such as the board and shareholders’ resolutions.

Accordingly, we had commissioned a physical and electronic search of the RoC records through an independent practicing company secretary, K V Bindra & Associates, Company Secretaries to ascertain the details of all corporate actions undertaken by our Company since incorporation. Pursuant to the foregoing, the practicing company secretary firm has issued its Report dated February 09, 2026 (the “Search Report”). The key observations in relation to the Search Report are as follows:

We cannot assure you that the regulatory filings or corporate records which we have not been able to locate will be available in the future, or that the information gathered in this regard is correct, or that the regulatory filings were done in accordance with applicable law or at all or in timely manner. Additionally, while no notices, disputes or penalties have arisen or been imposed in connection with these corporate records and other documents as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we cannot assure you that no notices, dispute or penalties will arise or be imposed on us in this regard in the future.

20. A portion of the Net Proceeds may be utilized for pre-payment of term loans availed by our Company.

We propose to pre-pay of loans availed by our Company from Banks from the Net Proceeds. The Company has chosen the loans to be prepaid based on commercial considerations. For details, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 99.

This will reduce our outstanding debt and interest obligations, however, there can be no assurance that the prepayment of such loans from the Net Proceeds contribute to the growth of our business operations or revenue generation. Additionally, the decision to allocate Net Proceeds for loan pre-payment may limit the availability of funds for other strategic initiatives or unforeseen financial requirements.

21. We cannot assure you that the Objects of the Issue will be achieved within the expected time frame, or at all, and any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders’ approval.

Our Company proposes to utilise the Net Proceeds towards the following objects:

(Rs. in Lakhs)

Sr. No.	Particulars	Amount
A.	Capital Expenditure
	Plant & Machinery	1,111.26
	Other Expanses	57.03
	Total (A)	1,168.29
B.	Repayment/ Prepayment of Loans
	HDFC Bank Limited (Term Loan) A/c No. 750	219.87
	HDFC Bank Limited (Term Loan) A/c No. 746	44.50
	HDFC Bank Limited (Term Loan) A/c No. 546	158.32
	HDFC Bank Limited (Term Loan) A/c No. 160	122.85
	Total (B)	545.54
	Grand Total (A+B)	1,713.83

The Objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. The proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds is based on current business plan, current conditions and other commercial and technical factors including interest rates and other charges, the financing and other agreements entered into by our Company, which is subject to change in light of changes in external circumstances and other factors beyond our control such as general economic conditions, inflation, technological changes, changing customer preferences and competitive landscape, credit availability and interest rate levels. Our management will have broad discretion to revise our business plans, estimates and budgets from time to time. Consequently, our funding requirements and deployment of funds may change, which may result in rescheduling of the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, subject to compliance with applicable law. A portion of the use of the Net Proceeds involving deployment towards general corporate purposes is at the discretion of the management of our Company. For further details please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 99.

In case of increase in actual expenses or shortfall in requisite funds, additional funds for a particular activity will be met by any means available to us, including internal accruals and additional equity and/or debt arrangements. If actual utilisation towards the objects of the Issue is lower than the proposed deployment, such balance will be used for future growth opportunities, including funding other existing objects, if required. If estimated utilisation of the Net Proceeds is not completely met in a fiscal year, it shall be carried forward.

Any variation in the objects of the Issue shall be made in compliance with Sections 13(8) and 27 of the Companies Act which requires us to obtain a shareholders’ approval, and SEBI ICDR Regulations which requires us to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the issue or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI and in accordance with any other applicable law. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the shareholders’ approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such shareholders’ approval may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, our Promoters would be required to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Issue or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement on Promoters to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

22. Our success is dependent on our Promoters, senior management and skilled workforce, and any inability to retain or replace such key personnel could adversely affect our business, operations and future prospects.

Our business operations, strategic planning and overall performance are significantly dependent on the experience, leadership and expertise of our Promoters, senior management and skilled workforce. In particular, our Promoters, who also serve as our key managerial personnel, namely Mr. Abhishek Garg, Managing Director, with approximately 20 years of experience in our business, Mr. Parveen Kumar Garg, Whole-Time Director, with approximately 30 years of experience in our business, and Mr. Deepak Garg, Whole-Time Director, with approximately 9 years of experience in our business, play a critical role in the management, operations and growth of our Company.

The loss of services of any of our Promoters or key managerial personnel, whether due to resignation, retirement, illness or otherwise, or our inability to attract and retain qualified managerial, technical and skilled personnel, may disrupt our operations, adversely affect our customer relationships, delay implementation of our business strategies and negatively impact our competitive position.

Further, competition for experienced managerial, technical and skilled personnel in the automotive component and engineering manufacturing industry is intense. There can be no assurance that we will be able to retain our existing personnel or successfully recruit suitable replacements in a timely manner or on commercially acceptable terms. Any such inability may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

For further details of our Promoters and Management, please refer to the chapters titled “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” and “Our Management” beginning on Page 201 and 184 respectively.

- 23. *We have not yet placed orders in relation to the capital expenditure for the purchase of some of the plant and machineries at our manufacturing unit. In the event of any delay in placing the orders, or in the event the vendor is not able to provide the plant and machineries in a timely manner, or at all, it may result in time and cost overruns and our business, prospects and results of operations may be adversely affected. Further, such proposed capital expenditure may not result in an increase in revenue from operations for our Company.

We intend to utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds for funding capital expenditure requirements towards the purchase of plant and machineries at our manufacturing unit. While we have procured quotations from vendors in relation to the capital expenditure to be incurred, except for Upsetting Machine and Rotary Forging Machine, we have not placed orders for the capital expenditure proposed to be funded from the Net Proceeds and have not entered into any definitive agreements with the vendors in relation to such capital expenditure as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. For details in respect to the capital expenditure, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 99. Such bids are valid for a certain period of time and may be subject to revisions, and other commercial and technical factors. We cannot assure you that we will be able to undertake such capital expenditure within the cost indicated by such bid or that there will not be cost escalations. Further, the actual amount and timing of our future capital requirements may differ from our estimates as a result of, among other things, unforeseen delays or cost overruns, unanticipated expenses, regulatory changes, design changes and technological changes. In the event of any delay in placing the orders, or an escalation in the cost of acquisition of the plant & machinery or in the event the vendor is not able to provide the equipment/ machinery in a timely manner, or at all, we may encounter time and cost overruns. Further, if we are unable to procure the requisite plant & machinery from the vendors from whom we have procured bid, we cannot assure you that we may be able to identify alternate vendor to provide us with the materials which satisfy our requirements at acceptable prices. Our inability to procure the machinery and equipment at acceptable prices or in a timely manner, may result in an increase in capital expenditure, the proposed schedule of implementation and deployment of the Net Proceeds may be extended or may vary accordingly, thereby resulting in an adverse effect on our business, prospects and results of operations.

- 24. *We have outstanding indebtedness, which requires cash flows to service and may subject us to certain conditions and restrictions in terms of our financing arrangements, which restricts our ability to conduct business and operations in the manner we desire.

As of December 31, 2025, our total outstanding indebtedness were Rs. 4,194.53 lakhs. Out of the proceeds of the Issue, an amount of Rs. 545.54 lakhs is proposed to be utilised towards repayment and/or prepayment, in full or in part, of certain of our outstanding borrowings. While such repayment is expected to reduce our overall indebtedness and finance costs, we may continue to have outstanding borrowings and may incur additional indebtedness in the future.

Our level of indebtedness may have important consequences for us, including:

- increasing our vulnerability to general adverse economic, industry and competitive conditions;
- limiting our ability to borrow additional amounts in the future;
- requiring a portion of our cash flows to be utilised towards servicing our debt obligations
- affecting our capital adequacy requirements; and
- increasing our finance costs.

Our financing arrangements contain certain financial and other covenants. Although we are currently in compliance with such covenants, we cannot assure you that we will continue to remain in compliance in the future or that we will be able to obtain waivers for any non-compliance on a timely basis or at all. Any inability to comply with the covenants or to obtain necessary consents may result in consequences such as termination of credit facilities, levy of penal interest, acceleration of repayment obligations and enforcement of security, if any.

If our borrowings are accelerated, we may be required to utilise a substantial portion of our cash flows from operations towards repayment, which could adversely affect our working capital requirements and our ability to fund business operations and growth. Further, in the event lenders of a material portion of our borrowings declare an event of default simultaneously, our Company may face liquidity constraints and may be unable to meet its obligations as they fall due.

For further details, please refer to the chapters titled “Objects of the Issue”, “Restated Financial Statements” and “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 99, page 212 and page 253 respectively.

25. *Our inability to obtain, maintain, or enforce intellectual property rights, including our trademark, may affect our ability to protect our brand value and business.

We rely on our intellectual property, including our trademarks and wordmarks, to distinguish our products and services from those of our competitors and to protect our market position. Our ability to obtain, maintain and enforce such intellectual property rights may be subject to delays, oppositions, cancellations, infringement claims or other legal and administrative proceedings, and there can be no assurance that such rights will be adequately protected or successfully enforced in all jurisdictions in which we operate.

Our Company has filed certain trademark and wordmark applications with the Trademarks Registry. Further, the Company has also applied for the assignment of certain trademarks in its favour. For the details regarding the trademarks and wordmarks, please refer to the chapter titled “Government and other Statutory Approvals” on page 281.

There can be no assurance that these trademarks and wordmarks will ultimately registered/assigned in the name of the Company. If we are unable to successfully obtain or maintain registration of our trademarks and wordmarks, we may not be able to secure exclusive rights to use such marks in connection with our products and business. We may be required to rebrand our products, incur additional costs in developing alternative trademarks and wordmarks, or face legal proceedings initiated by third parties claiming superior rights. Any such developments could result in financial losses, operational disruptions, and damage to our reputation and market position. The inability to protect intellectual property rights may result in loss of competitive advantage and affect brand value and business.

Protection of intellectual property requires ongoing investment in trademark registrations, monitoring of market for infringements, and legal actions against unauthorized users. Our Company may incur substantial costs in filing trademark applications, responding to objections, defending against cancellation petitions, or pursuing infringement actions in courts or before tribunals. The time required for resolution of intellectual property disputes may extend over multiple years, during which period our Company may face continued loss of sales or market share. Any adverse outcome in intellectual property disputes may result in payment of damages, loss of rights to use brand names, or requirement to rebrand products, which may affect customer recognition and business continuity.

26. *We operate from a single manufacturing unit, and any disruption at this location may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our manufacturing operations are currently carried out at a single unit located in Ludhiana, Punjab. As a result, our business is susceptible to risks arising from concentration of production at one location. Any disruption at this facility, whether due to equipment breakdown, power supply interruptions, labour unrest, insufficient workforce, natural disasters, fire or industrial accidents, supply chain interruptions, epidemics, regulatory actions, change in local policies or any other unforeseen event may lead to delays, reduced production volumes or temporary suspension of operations.

Given that we do not maintain an alternate manufacturing location, we may not be able to promptly shift production or meet customer delivery schedules in the event of such incidents. This may lead to customer dissatisfaction, potential loss of orders, contractual penalties, reduction in revenue and adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

27. Our operations are subject to environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, and we may be subject to environmental notices, directions or penalties in the future.

Our manufacturing operations are subject to various environmental, health and safety laws, rules and regulations in India, including those relating to air and water pollution, collection, generation, storage, transportation and disposal of hazardous and non-hazardous waste, occupational health and safety and other environmental protection measures. These laws and regulations are administered and enforced by multiple governmental authorities, including the Punjab Pollution Control Board and other relevant authorities, and require us to obtain, maintain and periodically renew certain statutory approvals, consents, licenses and registrations. For details of the material statutory and regulatory approvals obtained by us, please refer to the chapter titled “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” on page 281.

While we believe that we have obtained the material approvals required for our current operations and endeavour to comply with applicable environment, health and safety laws and regulations, such laws and regulations are subject to changes in interpretation, implementation and enforcement, and there can be no assurance that our operations will at all times be in full compliance with all applicable requirements. Our manufacturing activities involve processes that may result in emissions, effluents or waste, and any actual or alleged non-compliance may attract regulatory scrutiny.

In the future, we may be subject to notices, directions, show cause notices, inspections or orders from regulatory authorities alleging non-compliance with applicable environment, health and safety laws or requiring us to undertake remedial or corrective measures, suspend or restrict operations, or pay fines or penalties. Compliance with existing and any future environment, health and safety laws and regulations may require us to incur additional capital expenditure or operating costs, modify our manufacturing processes, or make investments in pollution control, monitoring and occupational health and safety systems.

Any failure to obtain, maintain or renew the requisite statutory and regulatory approvals, or any adverse regulatory action or proceeding under applicable environmental, health and safety laws, may result in financial liabilities, reputational harm, operational disruptions or restrictions on our manufacturing activities, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

28. Our insurance coverage may be inadequate, which could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

While we maintain insurance coverage for certain anticipated risks which are largely standard for our business and operations, including transportation, fire safety, other business-related risks etc. we may not have sufficient insurance coverage to cover all possible economic losses, including when the loss suffered is not easily quantifiable and in the event of severe damage to our reputation. We maintain insurance coverage in amounts that we believe are consistent with industry norms and would be adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our business. However, in the event of a substantial loss, such policies may not be sufficient to recover the full extent of our losses.

Details of our total insurance coverage vis-à-vis our net assets for the stub period ended on September 30, 2025 and preceding 3 financial years are as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)
Particulars	As at September 30, 2025
Insurance Coverage (A)	12,705.49
Net assets* as per Restated Financial Statements (B)	6,295.54
Insurance coverage times the net assets (A/B)	2.02

*Net assets = Property, Plant and Equipment (net block) + Capital Work in Progress + Investment Property (Buildings net block) + Inventories.

** Insurance coverage times the net assets = Total insurance coverage amount by considering insurance policies of property, plant and equipment and inventories/ Net assets.

Insurance coverage times the net assets (A/B)**

While we have not made any claims during the reporting period, the occurrence of an event for which we are not adequately or sufficiently insured, or changes in our insurance policies (including premium increases or the imposition of deductible or co-insurance requirements), or rejection of a future claim could have an adverse effect on our business, reputation, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Further, we cannot assure you that renewal of our insurance policies in the normal course of our business will be granted in a timely manner, at an acceptable cost or at all.

29. Our Company, in the past has delayed in payment of statutory dues. Any Penalty or demand raised by statutory authorities in future will affect our financial position of the Company.

The Company experienced slight delays in filing of ESI Returns and EPF Returns during the fiscal years 2022-23. These delays were primarily due to technical issues, internal reconciliation challenges, and staffing shortages. However, the Company has addressed these issues by enhancing its accounts and finance team with qualified personnel. Looking ahead, potential technical issues, internal reconciliation challenges, staffing shortages, or unforeseen circumstances could lead to future delays in return filings, potentially resulting in fines and penalties that may affect the company's financial position.

The Detail of delay has been mentioned as given in table below.

Particulars	Fiscal Year	Amount Delayed (Rs. in lakhs)	Number of Instances	Number of Days Delay	Reason for Delay
ESI Return	2022-23	6.24	4	1-2 Days	Online portal not responding
EPF Return	2022-23	6.25	1	1 Days	Online portal not responding

Our Company has inadvertently delayed in the payment of the ESI and PF in the past. While our Company has paid the interest, as applicable on delays in payment of these statutory dues and no such dues are outstanding as on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we are in the process of improving the administration. As a result, it may be noted that there was no delay in FY 2023 – 24, FY 2024-25 and Stub period ended September 30, 2025 by our Company. In addition, while no actions have been initiated against our Company in relation to the abovementioned delay, our Company cannot assure you that any statutory action will not be initiated against our Company in future.

30. We do not have documentary records evidencing the grant of the Consent to Establish for our manufacturing facility, which may expose us to regulatory action.

Our manufacturing facility is subject to environmental laws and regulations administered by the Punjab Pollution Control Board (“PPCB”) and other authorities, which, inter alia, require the obtaining of a Consent to Establish (“CTE”) prior to commencement of construction and installation of plant and machinery, and a Consent to Operate (“CTO”) for carrying out manufacturing operations. We have obtained a valid Consent to Operate from the PPCB for our manufacturing facility and the same is valid as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Details of the material environmental and other statutory approvals obtained by us are set out under the heading “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” on page 281.

However, we do not have documentary records evidencing that a Consent to Establish was obtained from the PPCB at the time of establishment of our manufacturing facility. While the grant of the Consent to Operate by the PPCB was based on inspection of our facility and assessment of compliance with applicable environmental norms, there can be no assurance that the absence of documentary records for the Consent to Establish will not result in regulatory scrutiny or adverse action. Any such regulatory action, including issuance of notices, imposition of penalties, requirement to obtain post-facto approvals, or suspension or restriction of our operations, may result in additional costs, operational disruptions and reputational harm, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

31. *There have been instances of transfer of equity shares in our Company pursuant to gift deeds where stamp duty was paid on a later date, and any non-compliance may attract penalties or other proceedings.

In the past, certain transfers of equity shares of our Company were undertaken by way of gift deeds, where the applicable stamp duty was not paid at the time of execution of such deeds but was subsequently paid at a later date. While, as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the applicable stamp duty on all such transfers has been duly paid, there can be no assurance that the relevant authorities may not initiate inquiries or seek clarification in relation to such delayed payments.

Any potential proceedings, penalties, interest or other consequences arising from delayed payment of stamp duty, if initiated, may result in additional compliance burden, adverse publicity or regulatory action, which may affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

32. *We may be subject to financial and reputational risks due to product quality and liability claims and legal proceedings if the quality of our products does not meet our customers' expectations.

Our products may contain quality issues or undetected errors or defects, especially when first introduced, resulting from the design or manufacture of the product or raw materials used in the product. While we test for quality on a sample basis, we cannot assure you that all products would meet the quality standards. Such quality issues can expose us to product liability claims or require us to replace such products, in the event that our products fail to meet the required quality standards, or are alleged to cause harm to customers. Further, if any of the products sold by us fail to comply with quality standards, it may result in customer dissatisfaction, which may have an adverse effect on our business, sales and results of operations.

However, we have taken Commercial General Product Liability Insurance for sufficient amount to cover us from the risk of legal proceedings and product liability claims being brought against us by our Customers for various reasons including for defective products sold. We cannot assure you that we will not experience any material product liability losses in the future or that we will not incur significant costs other than insured amount to defend any such claims, regardless of whether we are responsible for any alleged defects.

33. *Our Company has allotted Equity Shares during the preceding one year from the date of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus which may be lower than the Issue Price.

Our Company has, during the one year preceding the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, allotted Equity Shares at prices that may be lower than the Issue Price. As a result, investors participating in the Issue may incur immediate dilution in the value of their Equity Shares or may not realize returns comparable to those available to earlier investors.

The following table sets forth the details of Equity Shares issued at prices lower than the Issue Price during the one year preceding the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus:

Date of Allotment	Type of Issue	Face Value (in Rs.)	Issue Price	No. of Shares
December 29, 2025	Bonus Issue	10	Nil	89,98,440

The Equity Shares to be allotted to the investors pursuant to this Issue may be priced significantly higher due to various factors including better performance by the Company, better economic conditions and passage of time.

The Issue Price is to be determined by our Company in consultation with the Lead Manager based on various factors and may not reflect the price at which Equity Shares were previously issued. There can be no assurance that the market price of our Equity Shares after listing will be equal to or exceed the Issue Price. Any decline in the market price of our Equity Shares after listing could adversely affect the value of the investment made by investors in the Issue.

For further details, please refer to chapter titled “Capital Structure” beginning on page 81.

34. *We have not paid any dividends in the past Financial Years. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

Our ability to generate returns for Shareholders is dependent on a most of factors that impact our business and financial condition. Our Company has not paid any dividend on its Equity Shares in the past Financial Years. The amount of future dividend payments, if any, will depend upon a number of factors, such as our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, contractual obligations, applicable Indian legal restrictions, capital expenditures and cost of indebtedness.

In addition, our ability to pay dividends may be impacted by a number of factors, including restrictive covenants under the loan or financing agreements our Company may enter into. Even in years in which we may have profits, we may decide to retain all of our earnings to finance the development and expansion of our business and, therefore, may not declare dividends on our Equity Shares. There can therefore be no assurance that we will be able to pay dividends in the future. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Dividend Policy" on page 211.

35. *We have not independently verified certain data in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We have not independently verified data from the industry and related data contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and although we believe the sources mentioned in the report to be reliable, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regards to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy or the industries in which we operate that is included herein are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete, inaccurate or unreliable. Due to incorrect or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

36. *Our Promoters and Promoter Group, who will continue to hold a substantial shareholding in our Company after the Issue, may exercise significant influence over our Company, and their interests may conflict with those of the Company or minority shareholders.

Our Promoters and Executive Directors are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding, in addition to the remuneration, benefits and reimbursement of expenses that they receive. As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Promoter and Promoter Group collectively hold 99.33% of our outstanding Equity Share capital. Following completion of the Issue, they will continue to hold such equity share capital in our Company.

Accordingly, our Promoters and Promoter Group will continue to exercise significant influence over matters requiring shareholders' approval, including appointment or removal of Directors, dividend policy, major corporate actions such as mergers, acquisitions or joint ventures, amendments to the charter documents, capital raising, and other strategic decisions. We cannot assure that their actions or decisions will always align with the interests of our Company or those of minority shareholders.

There is also no guarantee that our Promoters will not pursue interests that could conflict with those of our Company, including in relation to expansion strategy, related party transactions, or voting decisions. Any such conflict, or perception of conflict, could adversely affect our business strategy, corporate governance and overall operations.

For further information on the interests of our Promoters and Directors, please refer to the chapter titled "Our Management", "Our Promoters and Promoter Group" and "Capital Structure" on pages 184, 201 and 81, respectively.

37. *Exchange rate fluctuations may adversely affect our results of operations as significant portion of our revenues and some portion of our expenditure is denominated in foreign currencies.

We are exposed to foreign exchange related risks as some portion of our revenue from operations are in foreign currency, including the US Dollar. For the Financial period ended September 30, 2025 and for the Fiscal year ending 2025, 2024 and 2023, revenue from operations outside India represented 100.00% of each period respectively, of our total revenue from operations in such periods. While we make provisions for foreign exchange fluctuations, a significant or frequent fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and other currencies, may adversely affect our results of operations.

The exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies, primarily the USD, has fluctuated in the past and our results of operations have been impacted by such fluctuations in the past and may be impacted by such fluctuations in the future. For example, during times of strengthening of the Indian Rupee, we expect that our revenue from offerings overseas will generally be negatively impacted as foreign currency received will be translated into fewer Indian Rupees. However, the converse positive effect of depreciation in the Indian Rupee may not be sustained or may not show an appreciable impact in our results of operations in any given financial period due to other variables impacting our business and results of operations during the same period. Accordingly, any appreciation or depreciation of the Indian Rupee against these currencies can impact our results of operations. We may from time to time be required to make provisions for foreign exchange differences in accordance with accounting standards.

Our ability to foresee future foreign currency fluctuations is limited and due to the time gap between the accounting of sales and actual receipts, the foreign exchange rate at which the sale is recorded in the books of accounts may vary with the foreign exchange rate at which the receipt is made, thereby benefiting or affecting us negatively, depending on the appreciation or depreciation of the Rupee. We may, therefore, be exposed to risks arising from exchange rate fluctuations and we may not be able to pass on all losses on account of foreign currency fluctuations to our clients, and as a result, suffer losses on account of foreign currency fluctuations.

There is no guarantee that we may be able to manage our foreign currency risk effectively or mitigate exchange exposures, at all times and our inability may harm our results of operations and cause our results to fluctuate and/or decline. We may experience foreign exchange losses and gains in respect of transactions denominated in foreign currencies.

38. *Misconduct or errors by manpower engaged by us could expose us to business risks or losses that could affect our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

Misconduct or errors by manpower engaged by us could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions, penalties and serious harm to our business. Such misconduct includes breach of security requirements, misappropriation of funds, hiding unauthorized activities, failure to observe our stringent operational standards and processes and improper use of confidential information. It is not always possible to detect or deter such misconduct, and the precautions we take to prevent and detect such misconduct may not be effective. Consequently, our ability to control the workplace environment in such circumstances is limited. The risks associated with the deployment of manpower engaged by us across several locations include, among others, possible claims relating to:

- actions or inactions, including matters for which we may have to indemnify our clients;
- our failure to adequately verify personnel backgrounds and qualifications resulting in deficient services;
- failure of manpower engaged by us to adequately perform their duties or absenteeism;
- errors or malicious acts or violation of security, privacy, health and safety regulations; and
- damage to our clients' facilities or property due to negligence or criminal acts.

These claims may give rise to litigation and claims for damages, which could be time-consuming. These claims may also result in negative publicity and effect our business. Any claims and proceedings for alleged negligence as well as regulatory actions may in turn materially and consequently, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

39. *Our Majority of directors do not have any prior experience of directorship of any listed entity.

Most of our Directors have not previously served as directors of a listed company and therefore may not have prior experience in complying with the governance, regulatory, and disclosure requirements applicable to a listed entity. As a result, there may be a learning curve in adapting to the increased compliance obligations, corporate governance practices, and procedural requirements prescribed under SEBI regulations and the Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements.

While our directors possess extensive experience in business management, logistics operations, finance, and administration, the absence of prior listed-company board experience could, initially, pose challenges in ensuring complete familiarity with the regulatory environment applicable to listed entities.

To mitigate this risk, the Company has appointed qualified professionals, including a full-time Company Secretary and Compliance Officer, and has constituted the required Board Committees to ensure adherence to statutory and listing requirements. Additionally, periodic training and familiarization programs will be conducted for the Directors to acquaint them with their roles, responsibilities, and compliance obligations as directors of a listed company.

Further, there can be no assurance that the transition to operating as a listed company will be seamless, and any delay or non-compliance in meeting listing obligations could have an adverse effect on the Company's reputation and regulatory standing.

40. *The activities carried out at our manufacturing facilities can cause injury to people or property in certain circumstances.

In spite there being no previous instances of such occurrences in past, the activities carried out at our manufacturing facilities may be potentially dangerous to our employees. While we employ safety procedures in the operation of our manufacturing facilities and maintain what we believe to be adequate insurance, there is a risk that an accident may occur at any of our manufacturing facilities. An accident may result in personal injury to our employees, or the deployed at our facilities, destruction of property or equipment, manufacturing or delivery delays, environmental damage, or may lead to suspension of our operations and/or imposition of liabilities. Any such accident may result in litigation, the outcome of which is difficult to assess or quantify, and the cost to defend such litigation can be significant. As a result, the costs to defend any action or the potential liability resulting from any such accident or death or arising out of any other litigation, and any negative publicity associated therewith, may have a negative effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

41. *Listing of equity shares may subject us to surveillance measures like ASM and GSM, affecting market perception.

Subsequent to the listing of the Equity Shares, we may be subject to Additional Surveillance Measures ("ASM") and Graded Surveillance Measures ("GSM") by the Stock Exchanges. These measures are in place to enhance the integrity of the market and safeguard the interest of investors. The criteria for shortlisting any security trading on the Stock Exchanges for ASM is based on objective criteria, which includes market-based parameters such as high low-price variation, concentration of client accounts, close to close price variation, market capitalization, average daily trading volume and its change, and average delivery percentage, among others. Securities are subject to GSM when its price is not commensurate with the financial health of the issuer. Specific parameters for GSM include net worth, net fixed assets, price-to-earning ratio, market capitalization and price-to-book value, among others. Factors within and beyond our control may lead to our securities being subject to GSM or ASM. In the event our Equity Shares are subject to such surveillance measures implemented by any of the Stock Exchanges, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in connection with trading of our Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active trading market for our Equity Shares. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to such disruptions.

42. *There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the NSE EMERGE Platform in a timely manner or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the NSE EMERGE platform. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

43. *A slowdown in economic growth in India may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

The performance and growth of our business are necessarily dependent on economic conditions prevalent in India, which may be materially and adversely affected by Centre or state political instability or regional conflicts, a general rise in interest rates, inflation, and economic slowdown elsewhere in the world or otherwise. Further, there have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. India's economic growth is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports (oil and oil products), global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production. Any continued or future slowdown in the Indian economy or a further increase in inflation could have a material adverse effect on the price of our raw materials and demand for our products and, as a result, on our business and financial results. The Indian financial market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly in emerging market in Asian countries. Financial turmoil in Asia, Europe, the U.S. and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have adverse effects on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and, indirectly, in the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability, including the financial crisis and fluctuations in the stock markets in China and further deterioration of credit conditions in the U.S. or European markets, could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur again and could harm our business and financial results.

44. *Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

A public limited company incorporated in India must issue its equity shareholders pre-emptive rights to subscribe to a proportionate number of equities shares to maintain their existing ownership, prior to issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution by a three-fourths majority of the equity shareholders voting on such resolution.

If you are a foreign investor and the law of the foreign jurisdiction that you are in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such foreign jurisdiction, you will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights, unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for your benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of any such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. To the extent that you are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of our Equity Shares, your proportional interests in our Company would be diluted.

45. *A deceleration in the economic growth of India or global economic instability may have a detrimental impact on our business, financial condition, and operational results.

We presently operate within India, a jurisdiction typically characterized by a developing economy, potentially lacking firmly established legal and regulatory systems compared to other nations. Our operational performance, growth trajectory, and the market value of our Equity Shares are heavily contingent on the overall performance of the Indian economy, its GDP growth rate, and the economic cycle within the country. Historical instances have seen India undergo economic slowdowns due to various factors, including the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, unsustainably high current account deficits, capital outflows, and subsequent exchange rate pressures. While recent indications suggest a positive economic turnaround, there is no certainty that growth will remain uninterrupted, and the possibility of increased inflation persists. An economic deceleration in India could adversely affect our business, as well as our customers and contractual counterparts, particularly if such a downturn is prolonged. In periods marked by high inflation rates, our operational expenses may escalate, potentially impacting our cash flows and operational results adversely.

46. *Adverse global economic, political, and social conditions have the potential to impede our business operations, escalate costs, and negatively impact our stock valuation.

Factors of a global economic and political nature, beyond our direct influence, play a pivotal role in shaping forecasts and directly impacting performance. Such factors encompass interest rates, economic growth rates, government fiscal and monetary policies, alterations in regulatory frameworks, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit accessibility, consumer debt levels, unemployment patterns, threats and activities related to terrorism, global military and domestic disturbances, conflicts, and other elements that shape consumer confidence, spending patterns, and tourism trends.

47. *The impact of natural or man-made disasters has the potential to negatively influence our financial performance, cash flows, and overall financial health. Instances of hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest, and other acts of violence have the potential to adversely affect financial markets and pose risks to our business.

The potential occurrence of natural disasters such as cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, pandemic diseases, and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, poses a risk to our results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition. Acts of terrorism and violence may have adverse effects on the Indian securities markets. Additionally, any deterioration in international relations, particularly between India and its neighbouring countries, may lead to investor concerns about regional stability, potentially impacting the price of Equity Shares. India has experienced local civil disturbances in recent years, and the possibility of future civil unrest or other adverse social, economic, or political events in India could negatively affect our business. Such incidents may also contribute to a perception that investing in Indian companies entails a higher level of risk, potentially impacting our business and the market price of Equity Shares.

48. *Investing in our Equity Shares involves inherent risks associated with investments in Indian companies.

As an Indian-incorporated entity with assets and employees based in India, our business, financial condition, and the market value of our Equity Shares are subject to various general risks linked to the Indian economic landscape. Changes in interest rates within India, policies enacted by the Government of India – encompassing taxation policies and industry-related measures – as well as broader political, social, and economic developments impacting the country can significantly influence our operations.

49. *Any potential downgrade of India's debt rating by an international rating agency could adversely affect our business.

The credit ratings of India, as assessed by international rating agencies, play a crucial role in determining the overall economic environment. An adverse shift in these ratings could negatively impact the Indian economy, potentially hampering our ability to secure additional financing in a timely manner or at all. This, in turn, may affect the interest rates and other commercial terms associated with such financing. The consequential impact could extend to our business and financial performance, our ability to secure funding for capital expenditures, and the market value of our Equity Shares.

50. *Our business faces potential adverse impacts from natural calamities, climate change, and health epidemics, including the COVID-19 pandemic, within India. Additionally, hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest, and acts of violence pose risks that could negatively affect our business operations, results, and financial condition.

India has encountered natural calamities such as earthquakes and floods in recent years. These events not only have the potential to adversely impact the Indian economy but could also damage or destroy our concentrated services or other assets located in a specific region. Any occurrence of such natural calamities could have cascading effects on our business, operational results, and financial standing.

The region has also experienced social, religious, and civil unrest, including instances like the mass protests by farmers against farm acts passed by the Indian Parliament in September 2020. Should mass protests escalate into civil unrest, it could impact our operations and have adverse effects on our business, results, and financial condition. Ongoing fragile relations between India and Pakistan, concerning issues like terrorism, armaments, and Kashmir, along with ongoing border disputes between India and China, pose geopolitical risks. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could disrupt communications and make travel more challenging, potentially influencing both the Indian and U.A.E. economies. Such political tensions may create a perception of increased risk associated with investments in Indian companies. Similar events of social and civil unrest in other countries in Asia and the Middle East could further influence the Indian economy and potentially have a material adverse impact on the market for securities of Indian companies.

51. *Our performance is linked to the stability of policies and the political situation in India.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised, and continues to exercise, a significant influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business, and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares, may be affected by interest rates, changes in government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. Any political instability in India may adversely affect the Indian securities markets in general, which could also adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Any political instability could delay the reform of the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance to the investors that these liberalization policies will continue under the newly elected government. Protests against privatization could slow down the pace of liberalization and deregulation. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting companies in the industrial equipment manufacturing sectors, foreign investment, currency exchange rates and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. A significant change in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies could disrupt business and economic conditions in India and thereby affect our business.

52. *Adverse global economic, political, and social conditions have the potential to impede our business operations, escalate costs, and negatively impact our stock valuation.

Factors of a global economic and political nature, beyond our direct influence, play a pivotal role in shaping forecasts and directly impacting performance. Such factors encompass interest rates, economic growth rates, government fiscal and monetary policies, alterations in regulatory frameworks, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit accessibility, consumer debt levels, unemployment patterns, threats and activities related to terrorism, global military and domestic disturbances, conflicts, and other elements that shape consumer confidence, spending patterns, and tourism trends.

53. *Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws and regulations, may adversely affect our business and financial performance.

Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by changes in law or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations in India applicable to us and our business. For further details please refer to the chapter "Key Industrial Regulations and Policies." beginning on page 171 for details of the laws currently applicable to us. There can be no assurance that the central or the state governments in India may not implement new regulations and policies which will require us to obtain approvals and licenses from the central or the state governments in India and other regulatory bodies or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the implementation of the new regulations may have a material adverse effect on all our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may have to incur capital expenditures to comply with the requirements of any new regulations, which may also materially harm our results of operations.

Notes:

1. The above Annexure of special tax benefits sets out the provisions of Tax Laws in a summary manner only and is not a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of shares.
2. The above Annexure covers only the special tax benefits under the Act, read with the relevant rules, circulars and notifications and does not cover any benefit under any other law in force in India. This Annexure also does not discuss any tax consequences, in the country outside India, of an investment in the shares of an Indian company. We have not considered the general tax benefits available to the Company, and/or its shareholders.
3. The above Annexure of special tax benefits is as per the current direct tax laws relevant for the assessment year 2026-27. Special Tax benefits, if any, several of these benefits are dependent on the Company or its shareholders fulfilling the conditions prescribed under the relevant provisions of the Tax Laws.

The option under section 115BAA of the Act once exercised cannot be subsequently withdrawn for any future financial year. The Amendment Act, 2019 further provides that domestic companies availing such option will not be required to pay Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') under Section 115JB. The CBDT has further issued Circular 29/2019 dated October 02, 2019 clarifying that since the MAT provisions under Section 115JB itself would not apply where a domestic company exercises option of lower tax rate under Section 115BAA, MAT credit would not be available.

In such a case, the Company is not allowed to claim any of the following deductions/ exemptions under the Act:

- Deduction under the provisions of Section 10AA.
- Deduction under clause (iia) of sub- section (1) of Section 32 (additional depreciation).
- Deduction under section 32AD or Section 33AB or Section 33ABA
- Deduction under section 35AD or Section 35CCC
- Deduction under section 80G

Lower corporate tax rate under Section 115BAA of the Act and Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') credit under section 115JAA of the Act which are in general available and hence may not be treated as special tax benefits.

6. This Annexure is intended only to provide general information to the investors and is neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for professional tax advice. In view of the individual nature of tax consequences, each investor is advised to consult his or her tax advisor with respect to specific tax consequences of his/her investment in the shares of the Company.

GLOBAL ECONOMY OUTLOOK

The global economy has been markedly more resilient than expected, despite last year's historic escalation in trade tensions and policy uncertainty. This resilience reflected significant front-loading of trade, supply-chain adjustments, limited tariff pass-through, easier global financial conditions, and a surge in AI-related investment. As these supports fade, global activity and job creation are set to ease. The modest slowdown comes on the heels of a post-pandemic rebound over 2021–25 that represented the strongest recovery from a global recession in more than six decades; however, this rebound was remarkably uneven and came at the expense of higher inflation and debt.

The outlook for global trade continues to be dampened by elevated trade tensions and policy uncertainty associated with higher tariffs. After global trade growth was propped up last year by the front-loading of goods trade ahead of tariff increases, it is projected to decelerate markedly in 2026, as stockpiling fades and the impact of tariff measures builds. In 2027, trade growth is expected to firm, as trade flows more fully adjust to tariff hikes and policy uncertainty recedes.

The weakening of global trade and a slowdown in some major economies are also expected to weigh on demand for energy and industrial commodities. Crude oil prices are projected to fall as demand softens and the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries and other affiliated oil producers (OPEC+) boost crude oil supply, with oil markets envisaged to face a substantial excess of supply. Meanwhile, the prices of industrial metals are set to be cushioned somewhat by green energy demand, partly offsetting muted growth of industrial and manufacturing activity.

Inflation has moderated in most countries, moving closer to central bank targets. While higher tariff rates contributed to a modest rise in U.S. goods inflation, the impact was attenuated by stockpiling of goods, among other mitigating factors. Going forward, global inflation is expected to edge down further, albeit with the continued effects of tariffs driving greater variation across major economies. Projected disinflation at the global level reflects various forces including the impact of softening labor markets in many economies, subdued demand for tradable goods, and falling energy prices.

Along with continued global disinflation, global financial conditions eased in the second half of last year. This was fueled by strong risk appetite and U.S. monetary policy easing amid softness in the U.S. labor market. Globally, equity indexes have seen substantial gains since June. The positive risk sentiment spilled over to EMDEs, which experienced strong debt-related inflows. EMDEs also benefited from the depreciation of the U.S. dollar, which boosted local currency bond returns. In addition, sovereign and non-financial corporate bond issuance by EMDEs in foreign currencies picked up and bond spreads narrowed further, despite steepening yield curves in advanced economies.

In all, global growth is estimated to have averaged 2.7 percent in 2025, 0.4 percentage point above June projections, in part as a result of stronger than-expected growth in major economies. As supportive factors fade, growth is forecast to edge down to 2.6 percent in 2026, driven by a notable slowdown in demand for traded goods and softening domestic demand in many major economies. It is then set to pick up slightly to 2.7 percent in 2027, as domestic demand benefits from earlier monetary policy easing and trade improves amid declining uncertainty. This baseline projection assumes no major new trade-related shocks materialize.

For the definition of EMDEs, developing countries, commodity exporters, and commodity importers, please refer to table 1.2. The World Bank is currently not publishing economic output, income, or growth data for Turkmenistan and República Bolivariana de Venezuela owing to lack of reliable data of adequate quality. Turkmenistan and República Bolivariana de Venezuela are excluded from cross-country macroeconomic aggregates. The region name "Middle East and North Africa" has been revised to "Middle East, North Africa, Afghanistan and Pakistan," reflecting the inclusion of Afghanistan and Pakistan in the region starting July 1, 2025.

1. Headline aggregate growth rates are calculated using GDP weights at average 2010-19 prices and market exchange rates.

2. GDP growth rates are on a fiscal year (FY) basis. Aggregates that include these countries are calculated using data compiled on a calendar year basis. For India and the Islamic Republic of Iran, the column for 2023 refers to FY2023/24. For Bangladesh, the Arab Republic of Egypt, and Ethiopia, the column for 2023 refers to FY2022/23.

3. World growth rates are calculated using average 2010-19 purchasing power parity (PPP) weights, which attribute a greater share of global GDP to emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) than market exchange rates.

4. World trade volume of goods and nonfactor services.

5. Indexes are expressed in nominal U.S. dollars (2010=100). Oil refers to the Brent crude oil benchmark. For weights and composition of indexes, refer to <https://worldbank.org/commodities>.

After remaining at 1.7 percent in 2025, growth in advanced economies is expected to edge down to 1.6 percent this year, as the effects of higher trade barriers weigh on activity, and remain at that pace in 2027. These projections reflect the offsetting effects of trade policy-related headwinds on the one hand, and the gradually waning boost from monetary policy easing, additional fiscal support, and tech-related investments on the other. Relative to previous projections, this outlook envisions a somewhat smaller and more delayed impact of trade policy shifts and uncertainty in major advanced economies, in line with the resilience seen in the global economy so far.

Growth in EMDEs was stronger than expected in 2025, at an estimated 4.2 percent. Activity in China proved more robust than anticipated, mostly on account of fiscal stimulus and increased shipments to non-U.S. markets. Many other EMDEs also benefited from stronger net exports, in addition to more solid investment. Growth in EMDEs is forecast to decelerate to an average of 4 percent in 2026–27, as the projected slowdown in China is partly offset by a gradual pickup in other EMDEs next year. Growth in China is expected to decelerate across the forecast horizon, as the effects of continued fiscal stimulus and other policy support measures are outweighed by lackluster confidence amid a structural slowdown.

In 2026, growth in EMDEs excluding China is projected to remain steady at 3.7 percent. More supportive financial conditions are set to boost investment, but this tailwind is expected to be offset by slightly softer consumption growth amid generally restrained confidence, and by the payback from earlier front-loading of EMDE exports as trade restrictions remain elevated. In 2027, growth in these economies is forecast to gain momentum, edging up to 4 percent. The projected pickup reflects an acceleration in domestic demand, driven by stronger investment and firmer consumption, in addition to a recovery in trade and manufacturing, with commodity exporters also supported by a modest rise in industrial commodity prices.

With an uneven and incomplete global economic recovery following the pandemic-related recession of 2020, per capita incomes in many vulnerable EMDEs—particularly low-income countries (LICs) and countries facing fragile and conflict situations (FCS)—remain below their prepandemic levels. Without stronger growth, many EMDEs will struggle to create sufficient jobs to productively employ growing working-age populations, especially as many economies and sectors undergo structural changes. This challenge is set to be amplified by the anticipated surge in young people entering the labor market in EMDEs over the next decade, requiring focus on key industries that are relatively labor-intensive, tradable, technologically upgradeable, and less susceptible to automation.

The global economic outlook is clouded by a high degree of uncertainty, and risks remain tilted to the downside. Heightened trade policy uncertainty amid a further proliferation of trade restrictions could weigh on trade prospects, business confidence, and investment. Furthermore, a substantial tightening in financial conditions could result from a correction in equity prices, more restrictive monetary policy due to stronger inflationary pressures, or higher government bond yields driven by concerns about elevated debt in major advanced economies. In a scenario where equity valuations decline sharply, leading to a plunge in risk appetite and consumer and business confidence, global growth could be up to 0.3 percentage point below baseline projections this year.

In addition, escalating conflict and geopolitical tensions could disrupt global trade and commodity markets. More frequent weather-related disasters with worsening impacts could hurt economic activity. These developments could also exacerbate risks to public health systems in vulnerable EMDEs, arising in part from declines in health related official development assistance (ODA) as well as shortfalls in financing for pandemic preparedness.

On the upside, firms could continue to display considerable flexibility in adapting to rising trade barriers and policy uncertainty—for instance, through supply-chain reconfiguration—thus limiting trade disruptions and easing inflationary pressures. Optimism over AI and related technologies could continue to boost associated investment, raising near-term growth and potentially strengthening labor productivity over the longer term.

Effective policy action is essential to confront continued economic challenges facing the global economy, even if the nature and urgency of these challenges vary across countries. Global cooperation is critical to foster a predictable multilateral trade system and address emerging challenges. Both advanced economies and EMDEs can also deepen integration with willing partners and expand the scope of existing trade agreements or strengthen regional trading relationships, which could help insulate goods trade growth from adverse policy shifts elsewhere. The poorest and most vulnerable EMDEs, including LICs and FCS, face acute constraints in mobilizing resources, often exacerbated by elevated debt burdens. In this context, the international community needs to boost efforts to support comprehensive debt relief, particularly in a context of declining ODA and increasing climate-related disruptions, which affect EMDEs disproportionately.

In terms of domestic policy action, EMDEs would benefit from bolstering fiscal sustainability, particularly in the context of large fiscal deficits in major economies. To help ease tight fiscal constraints, boosting domestic revenue mobilization is critical. These efforts can be complemented by measures to improve spending efficiency and strengthen fiscal frameworks—including the appropriate use of fiscal rules, which tend to support needed fiscal adjustment. Meanwhile, EMDE central banks may need to slow the pace of monetary easing if inflationary pressures re-emerge, carefully weighing risks and trade-offs to growth. At the same time, safeguarding monetary policy independence is key, as it can help anchor inflation expectations and reinforce credibility.

To improve longer-term growth and jobs prospects, EMDEs need to pursue reforms that reflect their diverse circumstances and capitalize on unmet economic potential. This involves addressing long-standing structural bottlenecks, enacting reforms that boost investment and productivity, and fostering stability. Generating sufficient job opportunities will be critical given that 1.2 billion young people are expected to reach working age in EMDEs by 2035. Key pillars to address this jobs challenge include policies that ensure the foundational physical, digital, and human capital infrastructure is in place to allow people—including women and youth—to thrive; that secure a better business environment, with policy and regulatory certainty so that firms can grow; and that mobilize private capital to help meet substantial investment needs. Some key sectors—infrastructure (including energy), agribusiness, health care, tourism, and value-added manufacturing—have particular potential for local job creation at scale in EMDEs.

Following a period of broadly stagnant investment growth over the past 15 years, most EMDEs have made little ground in lifting investment per worker levels to those observed in advanced economies. This lack of investment is closely associated with lackluster productivity growth, given that investment embodies technological upgrades and can catalyze the infusion of new approaches to production. To this end, EMDEs will need to strengthen macroeconomic stability, improve the investment climate, and promote cross-border trade and finance flows. Policies that lift investment growth could help support stronger employment growth. In frontier markets, a diverse group of economies with some financial market access, the full benefits of financial integration have proven elusive amid relatively limited financial development, macroeconomic buffers, and institutional depth. These limitations can also exacerbate the impact of adverse global market shocks.

Post-pandemic recovery: Surprisingly strong and resilient

The 2009 and 2020 global recessions had different origins. The 2020 episode was associated with public health shutdowns and policy responses that drove simultaneous demand and supply contractions. The 2009 recession, by contrast, reflected years of financial sector excesses and rising private debt that eroded confidence and created severe balance sheet strains.

The recoveries following these episodes were shaped by these differing origins but also influenced by a wide range of developments, including post-recession shocks and policy responses. The recovery from the 2020 recession unfolded amidst a series of interlinked shocks: severe supply chain disruptions in 2021, a sharp surge in energy prices after Russia's invasion of Ukraine in early 2022, and the historic inflation spike of 2021–23, which prompted one of the most synchronized global monetary tightening phases in decades. The recovery was further threatened by elevated geopolitical tensions—including the conflict in the Middle East—alongside escalating trade restrictions and associated policy uncertainty.

The post-2009 environment was characterized by adverse developments of a different kind: the lingering effects of the financial crisis, including private sector debt overhangs, renewed banking sector stress, and the euro-area sovereign debt crisis in 2011–12. Commodity prices—first metals and agricultural goods, then oil—fell sharply from their 2011 peaks as a result of slowing demand growth and ample supplies (World Bank 2015).

Despite multiple shocks, the post-pandemic recovery has been the strongest after any global recession since 1960, substantially exceeding the post-2009 recovery. Five years into the recovery, global GDP per capita exceeds its 2019 level by 10 percent, a pace stronger than in previous post-recession episodes. The first year of the rebound delivered the largest annual increase in global per capita GDP across the five episodes examined here by Overall, the post-pandemic recovery has demonstrated exceptional resilience in an extremely challenging global environment.

Global trade

After a 90-day pause, the U.S. administration reinstated broad reciprocal tariff increases in August 2025 and introduced additional country and sector-specific tariffs, exempting countries with finalized trade agreements. As a result, the average effective U.S. tariff rate rose to about 17 percent by late 2025—the highest level since the 1930s and near the rate assumed in June, but well below the mid-April peak of about 28 percent. Since then, trade policy uncertainty has subsided somewhat from historical highs as the conclusion of new bilateral trade agreements has helped clarify future tariff trajectories.

Anticipation of rising U.S. tariffs, driven by earlier policy announcements, led to a sizable frontloading of imports ahead of tariff increases, particularly from countries facing higher tariffs compared with their competitors in the U.S. market. Subsequently, U.S. imports slowed markedly, with imports from countries subject to higher tariffs contracting in the second half of last year, and imports from other countries generally rising. The full impact from higher tariffs is expected to unfold gradually, partly because at imposition they did not apply to goods already in transit to the United States – a process that can take up to two months (CBO 2025b). This lag is reflected in the large gap observed in mid-2025 between implied tariffs, as measured by customs duty revenues, and the higher average effective tariff rate—a gap that has narrowed rapidly in recent months (Azzimonti 2025).

Economies with relatively diversified export destinations have generally seen improvements in their manufacturing PMI readings for new export orders, whereas those with more concentrated export markets have tended to experience declines. Meanwhile, services trade growth has slowed markedly, reflecting a pronounced deceleration in travel services following the post-pandemic recovery in global tourist arrivals. Transport services, which are closely tied to both travel and goods trade, have also decelerated notably.

Growth in global goods and services trade is expected to slow further this year, from 3.4 percent in 2025 to 2.2 percent in 2026, as the front-loading that supported trade in 2025 fades. Global trade growth in 2025 is 1.6 percentage points higher than June expectations, reflecting stronger stockpiling than anticipated. In turn, the unwinding of this temporary boost, along with delayed tariff effects, has resulted in a 0.2 percentage point downgrade to the trade growth projection in 2026. In 2027, trade growth is expected to firm to 2.7 percent, broadly in line with global output growth, as the impact of tariff hikes diminishes and policy uncertainty recedes. Countries with more diversified export destinations are expected to experience stronger trade growth over the forecast horizon. Tariff rates in effect as of late 2025 are assumed to prevail throughout the forecast period.

INDIAN ECONOMY OUTLOOK

Introduction

India's economic journey over the past few years has been marked by remarkable growth and a steady rise in its position on the global stage. After overtaking the United Kingdom (UK) to become the fifth largest economy in Q1 FY23, India has continued this upward trajectory to surpass Japan in June 2025 to become the fourth largest economy in the world. With a nominal Gross Domestic Product (GDP) of Rs. 3,31,03,000 crore (US$ 3.78 trillion), India's growth reflects a combination of strong domestic demand and policy reforms positioning the country as a key destination for global capital.

Further, India is projected to reach a GDP of Rs. 4,26,45,000 crore (US$ 5 trillion) by 2027 and is on course to surpass Germany by 2028. Rising employment and increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

Market Overview

India's Real Gross Domestic Product (GDP) or GDP at Constant Prices stood at Rs. 47.89 lakh crore (US$ 544.20 billion) in Q1 of FY26, up from Rs. 44.42 lakh crore (US$ 504.77 billion) in Q1 FY25, registering a growth rate of 7.8%. Nominal GDP or GDP at Current Prices for the same period was estimated at Rs. 86.05 lakh crore (US$ 977.84 billion), compared to Rs. 79.08 lakh crore (US$ 898.64 billion) in the corresponding quarter of the previous year, showing a growth rate of 8.8%. As on October 14, 2025, India was home to 123 unicorns, with six new startups achieving unicorn status in 2025.

India's current account recorded a deficit of Rs. 21,288 crore (US$ 2.37 billion) in Q1 FY26 (April-June), compared to Rs. 76,282 crore (US$ 8.6 billion) in the same period of FY25 depicting an improvement of 72.09%, according to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI). The improvement reflects a narrower merchandise trade gap and steady growth in service exports. Exports fared remarkably well during the pandemic and aided recovery when all other growth engines were losing steam in terms of their contribution to GDP. Going forward, the contribution of merchandise exports may waver as several of India's trade partners witness an economic slowdown. According to Minister of Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Textiles Mr. Piyush Goyal, Indian exports are expected to reach US$ 1 trillion by 2030.

Recent Developments

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With India's economy showing resilient growth, supported by strong domestic demand, policy reforms, and a healthy investment pipeline, several new projects and developments are underway across

- In May 2025, the overall Index of Industrial Production (IIP) stood at 156.6 (base 2011-12 = 100), reflecting a YoY growth of 1.2%. The mining, manufacturing and electricity sectors stood at 136.6, 154.3 and 216 respectively.
- According to data released by the Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation (MoSPI), India's Consumer Price Index (CPI) – Combined inflation was 3.34% in March 2025 against 4.85% in March 2024.
- India's wheat procurement for FY26 has reached 29.7 million tonnes as of May 22, 2025, the highest in four years and up 13.5% YoY. Strong production of 115.43 million tonnes, favourable weather, and bonuses above the Minimum Support Price (MSP) in key states have driven this growth. The Food Corporation of India

The Union Budget 2026–27, guided by Atmanirbhar Bharat, it emphasises strengthening domestic manufacturing, energy security, and reducing import dependence. It highlights inclusive measures supporting employment, agriculture, household purchasing power, and universal services, contributing to growth of around 7%. The Budget also recognises global trade disruptions, supply chain risks, and rapid technological change shaping the external environment.

Budget Highlights

Expenditure: The government is estimated to spend Rs 53,47,315 crore in 2026-27, 7.7% higher than the revised estimate of 2025-26. Interest payments account for 26% of the total expenditure, and 40% of revenue receipts.

Receipts: The receipts (other than borrowings) in 2026-27 are estimated to be Rs 36,51,547 crore, about 7.2% higher than the revised estimate of 2025-26. Tax revenue which forms major part of the receipts is also expected to increase by 8% over the revised estimate for 2025-26.

Road Ahead

India's economy grew by 6.5% in FY25. With a 7.4% growth rate in Q4 FY25, the RBI has revised India's GDP growth forecast for FY26 upwards to 6.8% from earlier estimate of 6.5%. India's comparatively strong position in the external sector reflects the country's positive outlook for economic growth and rising employment rates. In 2024, India rose to 15th place globally in FDI rankings and retained its position as South Asia's top recipient.

In H1 FY25, India's growth-focused approach was underscored by the government's capital expenditure outlay of Rs. 15,02,000 crore (US$ 176 billion), reinforcing its commitment to infrastructure-led development. In the Union Budget of FY26, capital expenditure took lead by steeply increasing the capital expenditure outlay by 10% to Rs. 11,21,000 crore (US$ 131 billion) over Rs. 10,18,000 crore (US$ 119 billion) in FY25. Stronger revenue generation because of improved tax compliance, increased profitability of the company, and increasing economic activity also contributed to rising capital spending levels.

India's total goods and service exports surged by 76% over the past decade, touching Rs. 70,36,425 crore (US$ 825 billion) in FY25, driven by strong performance in engineering goods, electronics, and pharmaceuticals. With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored. With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

AUTO COMPONENT INDUSTRY

Introduction

India has emerged as the fastest-growing economy in the world in recent years. Rising incomes, higher infrastructure spending, and supportive manufacturing incentives have together accelerated the automobile sector, making it a critical pillar of India's growth story. The two-wheeler segment, driven largely by the expanding middle class, continues to dominate the market, with sales reaching 19.6 million units in FY25. This surge in demand has also encouraged the expansion of original equipment and auto component manufacturers, helping India build strong expertise in this space and enhancing global demand for Indian vehicles and components.

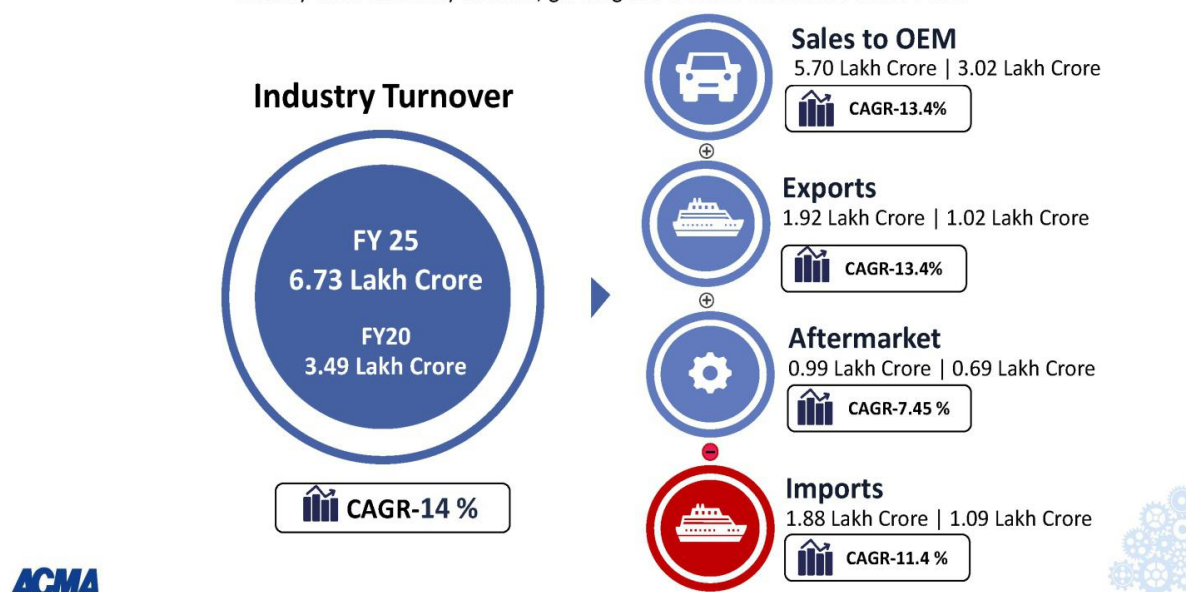

The industry is now witnessing a shift towards electrification, though internal combustion engine (ICE) vehicles continue to dominate. In 2024, India produced 100,000 electric cars and 900,000 electric two-wheelers, alongside 20 million two-wheelers and 5 million cars powered by ICE technology. Supporting this growth, the auto component industry has become a vital segment of the economy, spanning large corporations to micro enterprises across manufacturing clusters nationwide. It accounted for 2.3% of India's GDP in FY25 and provided direct employment to over 1.5 million people, a figure expected to rise as the sector's GDP contribution reaches 5-7% by 2026. India's auto-component industry is poised to reach US$ 200 billion by 2030, supported by its cost competitiveness, skilled workforce, and growing domestic demand, according to a McKinsey report titled Shaping the future of India's auto component industry.

The Indian auto component industry recorded a turnover of Rs. 6,73,000 crore (US$ 78.74 billion) in FY25, registering a CAGR of 14% between FY20 and FY25. The sector is projected to achieve exports worth Rs. 8,54,700 crore (US$ 100 billion) by 2030, underscoring its global competitiveness. In FY25, exports stood at Rs. 1,95,726 crore (US$ 22.9 billion). North America remained the largest export destination with a 32% share, recording 8.4% growth, while Europe, with a 29.5% share, registered a 2.1% decline. Asia accounted for 26% of exports and witnessed robust growth of 15.1%. The key export items included drive transmission and steering, engine components, body and chassis parts, suspension systems, and braking components. According to a McKinsey report, India's auto component exports are projected to reach US$ 70-100 billion by FY30, driven by rising demand for electric vehicle (EV) technologies and global supply chain diversification. Indian SMEs could capture US$ 20-30 billion of this opportunity by leveraging cost advantages and high-quality standards.

Market Size

India's auto components industry has significantly expanded its market share, driven by rising automobile demand from the growing middle class and strong global exports. The sector has attracted both Indian and international players and is broadly classified into organised and unorganised segments. While the unorganised sector primarily caters to the aftermarket with low-value items, the organised sector focuses on supplying high-value precision instruments to Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs).

India's automobile production further highlights the scale of demand that supports the component industry. In FY26 (April-September), domestic sales stood at 1,02,36,639 units for two-wheelers, 20,51,082 units for passenger vehicles, 4,63,502 units for commercial vehicles, and 3,94,450 units for three-wheelers. In FY26 (April-September), the total production of Passenger Vehicles, Commercial Vehicles, Three Wheelers, Two Wheelers and Quadricycle was 1,65,34,997 units.

In FY25, domestic OEM supplies accounted for about 54% of the industry's turnover, followed by the domestic aftermarket at around 10% and exports at 19%. Supplies to OEMs stood at Rs. 5,70,000 crore (US$ 66.69 billion), reflecting a 10% YoY growth, while the aftermarket segment was valued at Rs. 99,948 crore (US$ 11.6 billion), recording a 6% increase over FY24. India's Automotive Mission Plan 2047 aims to boost vehicle production to 50 million by 2030 and 200 million by 2047, positioning India among the top two global auto producers. It prioritizes sustainable vehicle production with hydrogen, electric, CNG, and biogas, while not curbing petrol or diesel vehicles immediately.

Government Initiatives for Auto Component Industry

The Government has reaffirmed its commitment towards EVs and its mission for 30% electric mobility by 2030. Budget announced customs duty exemption on the import of capital goods and machinery required for the manufacture of lithium-ion batteries that typically power EVs.

The Union Cabinet approved the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme for the Automobile and Auto Components sector on September 15, 2021, with a budgetary outlay of Rs. 25,938 crore (US$ 3.03 billion) from FY23 to FY27. The scheme is expected to attract fresh investments of over Rs. 42,500 crore (US$ 4.9 billion) during this period.

The Bharat New Car Assessment Program (BNCAP) will boost the auto component value chain by driving advanced manufacturing, fostering innovation, and promoting global standards.

The Government of India's Automotive Mission Plan (AMP) 2006-26 has been instrumental in ensuring growth for the sector. The Indian automobile industry is expected to achieve a turnover of US$ 300 billion by 2026 by expanding at a CAGR of 15% from its current revenue of US$ 74 billion.

The government's AMP 2016-26 will help the automotive industry grow and will benefit the economy in the following ways:

- The auto industry's GDP contribution will rise to over 12%.
- Additional ~65 million direct and indirect jobs will be created.
- End-of-life policy will be implemented for old vehicles.

Export Opportunities

- India is emerging as a global hub for auto component sourcing and the industry exports over 25% of its production annually.
- Exports of auto components rose by 8%, reaching Rs. 1,95,726 crore (US$ 22.90 billion) in FY25, up from Rs. 1,81,196 crore (US$ 21.20 billion) in FY24.
- According to a McKinsey report, India's auto component exports are projected to reach US$ 70-100 billion by FY30, driven by rising demand for electric vehicle (EV) technologies and global supply chain diversification. Indian SMEs could capture US$ 20-30 billion of this opportunity by leveraging cost advantages and high-quality standards.

Policy Support

- The Union Cabinet approved the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme for the Automobile and Auto Components sector on September 15, 2021, with a budgetary outlay of Rs. 25,938 crore (US$ 3.03 billion) from FY23 to FY27. The scheme is expected to attract fresh investments of over Rs. 42,500 crore (US$ 4.9 billion) during this period.
- The Indian automobile sector saw transformative growth in 2025 driven by GST cuts on small cars (from 28% to 18%), expanded low-GST EV portfolios (5%), and government EV incentives promoting local manufacturing and global OEM entry. The Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme is boosting investments in advanced automotive technologies and supply chain localization.

Competitive Advantage

- A cost-effective manufacturing base in India keeps costs lower by 10-25% relative to operations in Europe and Latin America.
- India's Automotive Mission Plan 2047 aims to boost vehicle production to 50 million by 2030 and 200 million by 2047, positioning India among the top two global auto producers. It prioritizes sustainable vehicle production with hydrogen, electric, CNG, and biogas, while not curbing petrol or diesel vehicles immediately.
- Second-largest steel producer globally, hence a cost advantage.
- India is emerging as a global auto component sourcing hub due to its proximity to key automotive markets such as ASEAN, Europe, Japan and Korea.

Road Ahead

The rapidly globalising world is creating new opportunities for the transportation industry, particularly with the shift towards electric, electronic, and hybrid vehicles that are seen as more efficient, safe, and reliable. Over the next decade, this transition will open new verticals for auto component manufacturers, supported by strong government policy measures. The Indian government has already introduced production incentives and is investing heavily in electric vehicle (EV) infrastructure, including the exemption of customs duties on capital goods and machinery used for producing lithium-ion cells.

The EV ecosystem is expected to expand rapidly, with the number of charging stations projected to rise from 12,146 in February 2024 to 4 lakhs by 2026. This will enable the auto component industry to strengthen its capabilities in EV components manufacturing, positioning India as a global hub for clean mobility solutions. As global supply chains realign, India's automotive component trade is expected to expand 4-5% annually to reach US$ 80 billion by 2026.

At the same time, manufacturers are increasingly focusing on sustainable solutions, lightweight materials, and efficient production processes to meet the evolving needs of the automotive sector. The integration of digitalisation and data analytics is also becoming a priority to optimise operations and enhance product performance. Going forward, collaboration with automakers, continuous investment in research and development, and adaptation to changing regulations will be critical for the industry to stay competitive. With these shifts, the Indian auto component sector is set to play a pivotal role in shaping the future of mobility, reinforcing India's position as the world's third-largest automobile market by both value and volume.

Automotive Axle Market Size and Share Forecast Outlook 2025 to 2035

The global automotive axle market is projected to grow from USD 10.43 billion in 2025 to USD 31.53 billion by 2035, registering a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.7% during the forecast period.

This substantial growth is being driven by evolving performance requirements in commercial vehicles, the rise of electric drivetrains, and increased demand in high-load-bearing applications. Market expansion is further being supported by the growing preference for off-road, utility, and electric vehicle variants, which is prompting the adoption of advanced axle designs with enhanced durability, torque handling, and modular integration capabilities.

In March 2024, a new line of rear semi-float axles was introduced by Dana Incorporated for Jeep models in the aftermarket. These axles were designed to support heavier payloads and deliver improved off-road performance. Featuring bolt-in installation and modular compatibility, the new components are engineered for lifted or performance-modified vehicles, as reported by Aftermarket News.

Electrification trends are reshaping axle architectures across OEM platforms. In April 2024, Scania revealed a new three-axle battery-electric platform intended for urban transport applications. According to Bus-News.com, this configuration was optimized for city buses and logistics fleets, where axle integration plays a critical role in energy efficiency, weight distribution, and drivetrain performance.

Advancements in lightweight materials and CV axle innovation are also contributing to market evolution. In October 2024, Tenneco's DRiV division unveiled its next-generation MOOG® constant velocity axles, designed with thermoplastic boots and precision-rolled splines to improve the strength-to-weight ratio and extend service life.

According to the company's press release, this innovation was developed in response to increased demand for low NVH (noise, vibration, and harshness) and high durability in electric and hybrid vehicle platforms.

As OEMs continue transitioning toward modular electric architectures, the integration of hub motors and smart axle systems is expected to become standard. The automotive axle market is anticipated to benefit from regulatory mandates aimed at improving load efficiency, power distribution, and range optimization in electrified drivetrains. With rising investment in electric and hybrid segments, particularly across North America, Europe, and Asia-Pacific, the long-term outlook for the global axle market remains robust through 2035.

Drive Automotive Axles to Dominate with Expanding Electrified Drivetrains

Drive automotive axles are projected to lead the global automotive axle market, accounting for approximately 62% of total market share in 2025. Between 2025 and 2035, this segment is forecast to grow at a CAGR of 12.3%, surpassing the overall industry growth rate of 11.7%.

The rising production of all-wheel-drive (AWD), rear-wheel-drive (RWD), and electric vehicles has driven increased demand for high-performance drive axles that can efficiently transmit torque from the powertrain to the wheels.

Automotive manufacturers are emphasizing the development of lightweight and integrated drive axle modules to enhance power efficiency and reduce vehicle weight. In the electric vehicle (EV) segment, electric drive axles are being deployed with inbuilt e-motors and reduction gear units to streamline drivetrain architecture.

This trend is contributing to reduced energy loss and better weight distribution. Tier-1 suppliers are investing in advanced materials and manufacturing technologies such as hollow axle shafts and high-strength composites to improve performance without compromising structural integrity. Additionally, axle durability is being optimized to withstand higher torque loads associated with electrified and high-performance vehicles.

Rear Axles Remain Crucial in High-Torque and Load-Bearing Applications

Rear automotive axles are expected to contribute 58% of the global automotive axle market by 2025, with the segment projected to expand at a CAGR of 11.9% through 2035. Rear axles continue to serve as critical components in both commercial vehicles and performance-oriented passenger vehicles, particularly in RWD and AWD configurations.

The application of rear axles is being driven by their role in load-bearing, torque transfer, and suspension integration-especially in pickup trucks, heavy-duty SUVs, and vans. In electric vehicles, rear-mounted motor layouts are becoming increasingly common, placing greater emphasis on the performance and reliability of rear axles.

OEMs are responding by integrating multi-link suspension and regenerative braking mechanisms directly into rear axle assemblies. Furthermore, demand for modular rear axle platforms is rising, enabling compatibility across ICE, hybrid, and EV architectures. This flexibility is reducing development costs while allowing automakers to address a wider range of vehicle configurations and performance requirements.

Challenges and Opportunities

Challenges

- High Costs and Regulatory Complexities

High production costs, stringent regulatory requirements, and supply chain constraints are some of the challenges facing the Automotive Axle Market. Automotive axle production involves advanced materials, precision engineering, and compliance with international safety standards from organizations like the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and the European Union (EU).

The development of products also gets lengthened as meeting these stringent regulations escalates production costs. Additionally, raw material costs - steel and aluminum - have also fluctuated, which has increased costs and made it harder for manufacturers to maintain profitability.

To meet these challenges, firms should be focused on economical material sourcing, lean production methods, and advanced emission/safety regulations.

- Market Saturation and Price Competition

The automotive axle market is characterized by a great deal of competition, with a large number of global and regional producers supplying similar products. Price wars come when there is market saturation, which means profits are low and companies find it hard to distinguish themselves.

Electric and hybrid vehicle demand is also revolutionizing traditional axle designs, with the OE segment having to adapt to new vehicle architectures. In order to stay ahead of the game, companies should prioritize innovation while using lightweight materials for their customized axle solutions that will benefit future vehicle designs.

Opportunity

- Growing Demand for Lightweight and High-Performance Axles

Rising demand for fuel-efficient, high-performance vehicles is paving the way for the growth of the Automotive Axle Market. Automakers are turning to high-strength steel and other lightweight materials to enhance fuel efficiency by making vehicles lighter.

Cutting-edge axle technologies, such as independent suspension systems and electronically controlled differentials, are helping to improve vehicle performance and drive market growth. As the automotive industry continues to evolve, businesses that invest in research and development into durable but lightweight, high-performance axles will gain a competitive advantage.

- Technological Advancements in Electric and Autonomous Vehicles

Wind of change in the Automotive Axle Market with the advent of electric and autonomous vehicles Dent said, Your electric vehicles (EVs) will extract torque differently, meaning they will need different gearing elements, as well as features designed for regeneration. Precision-engineered axles with integrated sensors and smart control systems are directed for autonomous vehicles' stability and safety.

An electric component can last the life of multiple vehicles, creating the potential for open new revenue streams for manufacturers with modular and scalable axle designs. The next decade will witness the advent of electrical innovations in axle technology as applications for AI-integrated mobility solutions, such as electric drive axles, are developed by leading manufacturers, and companies that will find innovative ways to incorporate advanced features in axle designs will lead the pack in this regard.

COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

1. Integrated manufacturing enabling diversified product offerings with enhanced value addition.

Our integrated manufacturing framework encompasses multiple stages of production, including raw material procurement, forging, heat treatment, precision machining, surface hardening, inspection and packing. This end-to-end integration enables us to exercise control over critical manufacturing parameters throughout the production cycle.

By managing these processes in-house, we are able to manufacture a diversified range of transmission and driveline components across different sizes, specifications and applications. Integrated operations support the manufacture of both standardised and application-specific products, while enabling higher levels of value addition through controlled metallurgy, dimensional accuracy and surface characteristics.

End-to-end integration also allows for quality assurance at each stage of production, facilitating early identification and correction of process deviations. This contributes to consistent product quality, reduced dependence on external vendors and improved responsiveness to customer requirements. As a result, our integrated manufacturing capabilities support product complexity, reliability and scalability across multiple vehicle segments.

2. Safety-Critical and Load-Bearing Products

We manufacture components that are vital to vehicle performance and safety, serving automotive, defence, EV and off-highway applications. We manufacture safety-critical and load-bearing components that perform essential functions within vehicle driveline, axle and suspension systems. These components are directly involved in the transmission of torque, support of vehicle loads and maintenance of vehicle stability, and therefore play a vital role in overall vehicle performance and operational safety.

Our products are designed to operate under high mechanical stresses, cyclic loading and demanding service conditions, including heavy payloads, variable terrains and continuous operation. Accordingly, our products require controlled forging, heat treatment and precision machining processes to achieve defined mechanical properties, dimensional accuracy and durability.

These components are supplied for use across automotive, defence, electric vehicle and off-highway applications, each of which is subject to stringent technical specifications, validation procedures and quality requirements. Given their critical nature, such products are typically subject to extended qualification cycles and ongoing quality and performance monitoring by customers.

Our focus on safety-critical and load-bearing components supports long-term customer relationships and creates entry barriers due to the technical expertise, quality standards and process capabilities required for consistent manufacturing and supply.

3. Scale and Experience

With approximately three decades of operations, we have developed in-house expertise across forging, heat treatment, precision machining and quality control processes. Our long operating history has enabled us to build institutional knowledge relating to material behaviour, process optimisation and component performance across multiple vehicle platforms and applications.

Further, our Promoters, Mr. Parveen Kumar Garg, Mr. Abhishek Garg and Mr. Deepak Garg with over six decades of experience collectively in the Automotive Industry have progressively scaled our manufacturing operations and established production systems designed to support repeatability, consistency and efficient capacity utilisation. This experience enables us to plan production across a diverse product mix, balance high-volume and lower-volume components, and optimise the use of machinery and infrastructure.

Our scale and experience also support stable process parameters, trained personnel and standardised operating practices, which contribute to consistent product quality and reliable delivery performance. These capabilities allow us to respond to evolving customer requirements while maintaining operational discipline.

4. Quality Assurance and Standards

Our quality management systems are designed to ensure that products consistently meet customer specifications, applicable regulatory requirements and automotive industry standards. The Company maintains a robust quality assurance system that encompasses multiple inspection and testing procedures throughout the manufacturing process to ensure compliance with stringent technical and quality standards.

Raw materials undergo chemical composition analysis using spectrometers and crack detection via ultrasonic testing. Dimensional inspections are performed at various stages including cutting, forging, CNC turning, spline hobbing, grinding, drilling. And final inspection are done utilizing precision instruments such as vernier calipers, steel tapes, height gauges, micrometers, and coordinate measuring machines (CMM). Heat treatment processes are validated through hardness testing with Brinell hardness testers, while surface hardness after induction hardening is assessed using Rockwell testers. Additionally, crack detection is carried out through magnetic particle testing using specialized inspection equipment. This comprehensive quality control framework enables the Company to uphold strict process controls, minimize variability, and consistently deliver products that meet customer specifications and applicable industry standards.

The quality function is supported by experienced personnel engaged in inspection, testing, and quality assurance activities at various stages of the production process. Our Company has a dedicated in-house team of 44 members responsible for ensuring adherence to quality standards across its manufacturing operations. The team collectively monitors product quality, dimensional accuracy, and compliance with customer specifications and internal standards.

In addition, our Company has obtained the following quality assurance certifications, which support its quality management systems:

Sr. No.	Nature of License / Approvals / Ratings	Issuing Authority	Particulars of License / Approvals / Certificate no.	Date of Issue	Date of Expiry

BUSINESS STRATEGIES

1. Focus on Expansion to New Geographies

We intend to selectively expand our export footprint for certain products, subject to customer qualification, regulatory compliance and logistics feasibility. Export markets provide opportunities for diversification of revenue streams and alignment with global supply chain sourcing trends, while maintaining a balanced mix between domestic and international customers.

Our exports has been increased from Rs. 829.33 lakhs constituting 10.10% of our revenue in FY 2025 to Rs. 871.40 constituting 18.74% of our revenue in the period ended on September, 2025, whereas exports to Indonesia has been increased from Rs. 397.59 lakhs constituting 4.84% of our revenue in FY 2025 to Rs. 455.36 lakhs constituting 9.79% for the period ended on September 30, 2025.

Revenue breakup between domestic and international sales for preceding 3 financial years and stub period ended on September 30, 2025 are as follows:

Further please refer to the “Risk Factor - A portion of our revenue is derived from our growing export operations that are concentrated in select overseas markets, particularly Indonesia, and are subject to risks arising from changes in international trade policies, government regulations and geopolitical developments” in the chapter titled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 31.

2. Optimizing Product Mix

We intend to optimise our product mix by allocating manufacturing capacity based on value contribution, production complexity and volume visibility. Products that combine higher volumes with efficient cycle times and process stability are prioritised for continuous production, while higher-value components are scheduled to optimise machine utilisation and reduce changeover inefficiencies.

This approach allows us to balance volume growth with value enhancement, while maintaining operational efficiency.

High volume components usually refers to the parts manufactured for high-volume vehicle platforms with repeat production schedules such as used by OEM’s in Tractors and Automotive sectors.

High-value components are characterised by higher engineering content, stringent quality requirements, complex manufacturing processes and critical functional roles within vehicle systems. These components typically command higher realisations and are subject to extensive customer validation like in defence and heavy-duty applications.

Going forward, we intend to increase our focus on:

- Expanding variants of S cam brake shafts, disc spring rings forging, axle shafts and spindles across different load ratings, vehicle categories and applications
- Increasing participation in platform-based programs that offer both volume visibility and value addition
- Developing value-added variants within existing product families to enhance realisations without proportionate increases in capital intensity

This approach is intended to support sustainable growth, margin stability and efficient utilisation of our manufacturing infrastructure.

3. Technological and Forging Infrastructure Enhancement

We intend to strengthen our manufacturing capabilities through continuous technological upgradation and enhancement of our forging infrastructure. Our strategy involves selective investments in advanced machinery, automation and process optimisation across forging and downstream manufacturing processes, with the objective of improving capacity utilisation, product quality, operational efficiency and consistency.

As part of this strategy, we plan to enhance our forging operations through the adoption of advanced forging technologies and equipment. These initiatives are aimed at improving material utilisation, dimensional accuracy, process stability and overall productivity, while supporting the manufacture of higher value-added and more complex components.

We also propose to introduce certain patented forging technology involving controlled and incremental deformation of material, which is designed to enable improved metal flow and structural integrity of forged components. The adoption of such technology is expected to support higher-performance forgings, improve yield and reduce process variability. The implementation of this technology will be aligned with our product development requirements and customer specifications.

These technological and forging enhancements are expected to support our existing product lines as well as facilitate the manufacture of heavier and more complex components, including those intended for specialised applications. The proposed upgrades are also expected to assist us in meeting evolving OEM quality standards and regulatory requirements.

OUR PRODUCTS

Detailed Description about the Products of our Company are as follows:

1. AXLE

a. Rear Axle Shafts for Tractors

The rear axle is one of the components of the tractor which is present in the differential. Its main function is to transmit power from differential to wheel. This component is mounted on the back wheels of the tractor, so it is named as Rear Axle.

b. Rear Axle Shafts for Commercial Vehicles

Rear axle shafts for heavy commercial vehicles are forged and machined, safety-critical driveline components that transmit torque from the differential to the wheels while bearing high loads and operating under demanding service conditions.

c. Rear Axle Shafts for Light Commercial Vehicles And 4*4 Vehicles

Rear axle shafts for light commercial vehicles are forged and machined driveline components that transmit torque from the differential to the rear wheels while supporting vehicle loads in light-duty transport applications.

d. Front Axle Shafts & Assembly

The front axle supports steering and absorbs road shocks.

Function: It is primarily responsible for steering and absorbing shocks from uneven road surfaces.

Location: It is located at the front of the vehicle.

Type: It Can be either a live axle (rotating with the wheels) or a dead axle (non-rotating).

2. SHAFT

a. Rock Shaft

A rock shaft for tractors is a machined, load-bearing component that transmits hydraulic lift motion to the three-point linkage system for raising and lowering agricultural implements.

b. S Cam Shafts

As the S Camshaft rotates, the two symmetrical brake pads are forced into the brake drum until the pressure is released and the brake pads return to their resting positions. Since the S-Camshaft principle is based only on a rotating shaft, it makes the brakes of large vehicles more compact and less moving parts.

c. Steering Shaft

A steering shaft is a crucial component of a vehicle's steering system, transmitting rotational motion from the steering wheel to the steering gear or gearbox. It plays a vital role in maintaining proper steering alignment and ensuring smooth, precise control. Typically made from high-strength materials like steel or aluminium, steering shafts are designed to withstand the stresses and loads imposed by the steering system. They often feature vibration-reducing designs, such as splines or universal joints, to minimize vibrations and improve steering feel. Steering shafts are commonly found in various types of vehicles, including trucks, buses, construction equipment, and agricultural equipment.

3. STUB AXLE

A stub axle or stud axle is either one of two front axles in a rear-wheel drive vehicle, or one of the two rear axles in a front-wheel drive vehicle. In a rear-wheel drive vehicle this axle is capable of angular movement about the kingpin for steering the vehicle.

4. SPINDLE

a. Wheel Bearing Spindles

Wheel bearing spindles for heavy vehicles are safety-critical structural components that form part of the axle or steering knuckle assembly and support the wheel hub and bearing system.

b. For Heavy Vehicles

These spindles provide the mounting surface for wheel bearings and enable smooth wheel rotation while supporting high vehicle loads and dynamic stresses. In heavy vehicles, wheel bearing spindles are designed to withstand substantial radial and axial loads, braking forces and continuous operating stresses arising from heavy payloads, long-haul usage and demanding road conditions.

c. For Heavy Vehicles

These spindles provide the mounting surface for wheel bearings and enable smooth wheel rotation while supporting high vehicle loads and dynamic stresses. In heavy vehicles, wheel bearing spindles are designed to withstand substantial radial and axial loads, braking forces and continuous operating stresses arising from heavy payloads, long-haul usage and demanding road conditions.

d. For Light and Medium Duty Vehicles

Wheel bearing spindles for light and medium duty vehicles are load-bearing mechanical components that support the wheel hub and bearing assembly and facilitate controlled wheel rotation. These spindles play an important role in maintaining wheel alignment, ride stability and braking performance.

5. ARM KNUCKLE

An Arm Knuckle serves as a connection point between the steering arm and the axle or steering knuckle. Its primary function is to:

- a. Provide a secure attachment point for the steering arm;
- b. Allow for smooth movement and rotation of the steering system;
- c. Help maintain proper steering geometry and alignment.

Arm Knuckles are usually made from high-strength materials, such as forged steel, to withstand the stresses and loads imposed by heavy-duty steering applications.

6. CASE DIFF

Found in the rear axle or final drive assembly. Its primary function is to:

- a. House the differential gears and bearings
- b. Provide a mounting point for the axle shafts
- c. Support the weight of the vehicle and transmit power to the wheels

Differential Cases are usually made from high-strength materials, such as cast iron or aluminium, to withstand the stresses and loads imposed by the drivetrain.

7. STEERING ARM

Each track rod is attached to a steering arm which is attached to the wheel hub, to which the wheel is bolted. As the rack moves, all these connections ensure the wheels turn together.

8. OTHERS

a. WHEEL NUT SPANNERS

Wheel Nut Spanners are specialized tools designed to securely loosen and tighten wheel nuts on vehicles, ensuring safe and efficient wheel changes, and available in various sizes and configurations to fit different wheel nut types.

b. TORSION BAR

Torsion Bar, Rod or Bar that resists twisting and has a strong tendency to return to its original position when twisted. In automobiles a torsion bar is a long spring-steel element with one end held rigidly to the frame and the other end twisted by a lever connected to the axle.

MANUFACTURING PROCESS

The manufacturing process of the Company involves a series of controlled and sequential operations designed to ensure dimensional accuracy, mechanical strength, and quality consistency of the finished products. The key stages of the manufacturing process are as follows:

The detailed description of our manufacturing process are as follows:

1. Cutting

Raw material is cut into required sizes to facilitate further processing.

2. End Bar Heating and Forging

Induction end bar heaters enable controlled and uniform heating of billets prior to forging, supporting consistent metal flow, reduced defects and improved process efficiency. Forging is a key manufacturing process used to impart strength, durability and structural integrity to our components through controlled deformation and grain flow, forming the basis for safety-critical and load-bearing applications.

3. Heat Treatment

Heat treatment is a critical process used to achieve specified mechanical properties through controlled heating and cooling, ensuring strength, durability and fatigue performance of safety-critical components.

4. CNC Turning

The forged blanks are machined on CNC turning Centres. It is a precision machining process used to achieve accurate dimensions and surface finish in rotational components, enabling consistent quality and repeatability across production batches.

5. Gear Hobbing & Gear Rolling

Gear hobbing is a precision machining process used to generate accurate gear and spline profiles, while gear rolling is a forming process that enhances strength and fatigue performance through improved grain flow.

The use of both gear hobbing and gear rolling allows us to select the most appropriate process based on component design, application requirements and production volume. This flexibility supports the manufacture of both high-value and high-volume driveline components while maintaining quality, performance and process efficiency.

COMPETITION

Manufacturers in automotive industry typically compete for OEM programs through a structured supplier selection process that evaluates technical capability, quality systems, cost structures, manufacturing scale and track record. Once qualified, suppliers are generally engaged over multi-year vehicle platforms, subject to ongoing performance reviews.

Competitive Positioning of Our Company

We compete by leveraging:

- Integrated manufacturing capabilities across forging, heat treatment and precision machining;
- Focus on safety-critical and load-bearing components, which require higher technical and quality standards;
- Established relationships with OEMs and Tier-I suppliers, supported by consistent quality and delivery performance;
- Ability to manufacture both high-value and high-volume components, enabling balanced utilisation of capacity;
- Designed to efficiently handle lower-volume, multiple-SKU production through flexible infrastructure, standardised processes and integrated operations. This specialisation allows us to cater to diverse customer requirements. Including lower-volume components within the product mix helps diversify revenue streams and reduces dependence on individual high-volume platforms or customers. This diversification can mitigate business risks arising from demand cyclicalities or program changes.

While competition may exert pressure on pricing and margins, particularly in commoditised products, higher engineering content and stringent quality requirements in certain components provide differentiation opportunities.

FINANCIAL YEAR 2025 COMPARED TO FINANCIAL YEAR 2024*Total Income:

Total income for the financial year 2024-25 stood at Rs. 8252.43 Lakhs whereas in Financial Year 2023-24 the same stood at Rs. 8223.85 Lakhs representing an increase of 0.35%. The factors affecting the revenue are described hereinbelow:

Revenue from Operations

During the financial year 2024-25 the revenue from operation of our Company increased to Rs. 8214.03 Lakhs as against Rs. 8090.85 Lakhs in the Financial Year 2023-24 representing an increase of 1.52%. The revenue from operations for FY 2024-25 and FY 2023-24 consists of sale of Axles, Shafts, Stub Axle, Spindle, Knuckle, Case Diff, Steering arms, rough steel forging, Job work, Scrap sale etc. Revenue from operations is derived from sale of products from Domestic and International markets. This relatively flat growth masks significant compositional changes in our revenue streams, with a notable strategic shift from domestic to international markets.

The changes in our revenue from operations during FY 2024-25 reflect a business in transition, navigating domestic market challenges while successfully executing an international expansion strategy. The 1.52% overall revenue growth, while modest, masks the significant compositional shift in our business with domestic sales declining by 8.28% and export sales growing by over 2,000%. This transformation represents both challenges and opportunities. The domestic sales decline, driven by cyclical factors, changes in business relationships, and OEM demand moderation, has been partially offset by exceptional export growth achieved through strategic product mix optimization and successful penetration of international markets offering superior margins.

Domestic sales constituted the predominant portion of our revenue base but experienced a decline during FY 2024-25. Domestic sales decreased from ₹8,051.39 lakhs in FY 2023-24 to ₹7,384.70 lakhs in FY 2024-25, representing a reduction of ₹666.69 lakhs or 8.28%. As a proportion of total revenue, domestic sales declined significantly from 99.51% in FY 2023-24 to 89.90% in FY 2024-25, reflecting a strategic and operational shift in our business composition. This decline, while substantial in absolute terms, was partially offset by the exceptional growth in our export business. The decrease was primarily due to change in business arrangements due to which there was change in customer relationships. During FY 2024-25, our Company underwent changes in its directorship and management structure. These organizational transitions resulted in modifications to certain existing business arrangements and customer relationships. The loss of these customers directly impacted our domestic sales volumes.

In FY 2024-25 Company's export sales increased exceptionally by 2001.69% amounting to a surge of Rs. 789.87 lakhs. Company's revenue from operations were Rs. 829.33 lakhs and Rs. 39.46 lakhs from its export sales in FY 2024-25 and 2023-24 respectively. The twenty-fold increase in export revenues within a single financial year is particularly noteworthy and reflects both the scalability of our export operations and the strong acceptance of our products in international markets. During FY 2024-25, our Company strategically optimized its product portfolio for international markets by focusing on products that command higher demand and better pricing in overseas markets. The favorable margin profile of export sales have helped partially offset the impact of domestic sales decline on our overall profitability.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

In the course of undertaking our business, we are exposed primarily to fluctuations in interest rates, credit risk, liquidity risk and foreign currency risk. Our primary focus is to achieve better predictability of financial markets and seek to minimize potential adverse effects on our financial performance.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company’s exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company’s debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Company’s fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flows will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

Foreign currency risk

Our Company derives a portion of our revenue from exports, primarily denominated in foreign currencies such as the U.S. Dollar and the Euro. A significant portion of our capital equipment purchases may also be denominated in foreign currencies. Consequently, fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates may affect our revenue, cost of operations, profitability and cash flows.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument will fail to perform or fail to pay amounts due causing financial loss. Credit risk arises from our exposure to domestic and international customers, trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, and other financial assets. We assess the creditworthiness of our customers and establish appropriate credit limits. We actively monitor outstanding receivables and undertake collection efforts to minimise credit losses. Our maximum exposure to credit risk is reflected in the carrying amounts of financial assets presented in our financial statements.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting its financial obligations as they fall due. We manage liquidity risk through effective working capital management, maintaining adequate cash reserves, committed credit lines and ongoing monitoring of future cash flow requirements.

Phased Implementation of Unified Payments Interface

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI will be introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by Individual Investors through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Individual applicant, besides the modes of bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six working days.

Phase II: This phase commenced on completion of Phase I i.e. with effect from July 01, 2019 and was to be continued for a period of three months or launch of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Further, SEBI pursuant to its circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019, the UPI Phase II has been extended until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount be continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the Application Form by a Individual Applicant through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six working days during this phase.

Phase III: The commencement period of Phase III is notified pursuant to SEBI press release bearing number 12/2023 and as per the SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 09, 2023, where the revised timeline of T+3 days shall be made applicable in two phases i.e. (i) voluntary for all public issues opening on or after September 01, 2023; and (ii) mandatory on or after December 01, 2023.

The issue is being under Phase III of the UPI (on Mandatory basis).

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalized under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – issue BRLMs will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues shall also provide the facility to make application using UPI. The Company will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/ or payment instructions of the Individual Bidders using the UPI.

For instance, assume a Price Band of Rs. 20 to Rs. 24 per share, issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (Rs.)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%

1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., Rs. 22.00 in the above example. ## RESTRICTION ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. Foreign investment is allowed up to 100% under automatic route in our Company.

The RBI and the concerned ministries/ departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment. The Government has from time to time made policy pronouncements on foreign direct investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (earlier known as the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion) (“DPIIT”), issued the FDI Policy, which, with effect from October 15, 2020 consolidated, subsumed and superseded all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect prior to October 15, 2020. In terms of FDI Policy, FDI of 100% is allowed in the steel industry via automatic route and no prior government approval is required. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular. FDI in companies engaged in sectors/ activities which are not listed in the FDI Policy is permitted up to 100% of the paid-up share capital of such company under the automatic route, subject to compliance with certain prescribed conditions.

In accordance with the FEMA Non-debt Rules, participation by non-residents in the Issue is restricted to participation by (i) FPIs under Schedule II of the FEMA Non-debt Rules, subject to limit of the individual holding of an FPI below 10% of the post-Issue paid-up capital of our Company and the aggregate limit for FPI investment currently not exceeding the sectoral cap i.e. 51% of the post issue paid up share capital; and (ii) Eligible NRIs applying only on a non-repatriation basis under Schedule IV of the FEMA Non-debt Rules. Further, other non-residents applying on a repatriation basis, FVCIs and multilateral and bilateral development financial institutions are not permitted to participate in the Issue. As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this issue. For details, please refer to the chapter titled “Issue Procedure” beginning on page 323.

The Government has from time to time made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (DIPP), issued consolidated FDI Policy, which with effect from August 28, 2017, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DIPP that were in force and effect as on August 27, 2017. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI Policy once every year and therefore, the Consolidation FDI Policy will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular.

The transfer of shares by an Indian resident to a Non-Resident does not require the prior approval of the FIPB or the RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the Consolidated FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the Consolidated FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by SEBI/RBI.

The foreign investment in our Company is governed by, inter-alia, the FEMA, the FEMA Non-debt Rules, the FDI Policy issued and amended by way of press notes.

Further, in terms of the FEMA Non-debt Rules, the aggregate FPI investment limit is the sectoral cap applicable to Indian company as prescribed in the FEMA Non-Debt Instruments Rules with respect to its paid-up equity capital on a fully diluted basis. For details, please refer to the chapter titled “Issue Procedure” beginning on page 323.

Further, in accordance with the FDI Policy, the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the FEMA Non-debt Rules, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country (“Restricted Investors”), will require prior approval of the Government, as prescribed in the FDI Policy and the FEMA Non-debt Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made a similar amendment to the FEMA Non-Debt Rules. Each Bidder should seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Issue. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder shall intimate our Company and the Registrar in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Bid/ Issue Period.
