FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Draft Red Herring Prospectus contains certain “forward-looking statements”. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by words or phrases such as “aim”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “expect”, “estimate”, “intend”, “objective”, “plan”, “propose”, “project”, “will”, “will continue”, “will pursue” or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe our strategies, objectives, plans or goals are also forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, expectations and assumptions about us that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement. These forward-looking statements, whether made by us or a third party, are based on our current plans, estimates and expectations and actual results may differ materially from those suggested by such forward-looking statements.

Actual results may differ materially from those suggested by forward-looking statements due to risks or uncertainties associated with expectations relating to and including, regulatory changes pertaining to the industries in India in which we operate and our ability to respond to them, our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, technological changes, our exposure to market risks, general economic and political conditions in India which have an impact on its business activities or investments, the monetary and fiscal policies of India, inflation, deflation, unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices, the performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in domestic laws, regulations and taxes and changes in competition in the industries in which we operate.

Certain important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our Company’s expectations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Our revenue is substantially dependent on our B2B technology led education solutions for colleges and schools and our B2C test preparation and text books for competitive exams. Our inability to manage, sustain, or grow our customer base in these segments could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.
- The demand for our training and employability enhancement services may be adversely affected by a reduction in campus recruitment activities, particularly by IT and technology companies.
- Our success depends substantially on our ability to attract and retain faculty members. Any significant decrease in the number of our faculty members or a failure to attract persons of adequate competence could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.
- Our ability to attract and retain students depends on multiple factors, including our reputation, the quality of our courses and faculty, and student outcomes. Any failure in this regard could materially impact our business and financial condition.
- Our business is dependent on continued adoption of our solutions by schools, colleges and other educational institutions and on prevailing trends in the education sector. Any adverse changes in such trends or our inability to maintain and expand our relationships with educational institutions may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- Our test preparation business is dependent on student enrolments, continued demand for competitive examination preparation services, the success of our course offerings and educational content, and our ability to effectively operate and expand our offline and online delivery models. Any adverse developments in these areas may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- Our college branding and marketing services business is dependent on our ability to attract and retain educational institutions, maintain and grow our student database and digital platforms, and continue to generate measurable value for our clients. Any failure to do so may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- Our business is dependent on our proprietary course content, study materials and other intellectual property. Any unauthorised use, disclosure, misappropriation or reproduction of such content by our employees, faculty members, consultants or third parties may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- A significant portion of the Net Proceeds is proposed to be utilised towards the development of new AI-powered technology platforms and AI-ready academic content, and any delay, cost overrun, technological failure, inability to achieve commercial adoption or failure to realise the anticipated benefits from such investments could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

For further discussion of factors that could cause the actual results to differ from our estimates and expectations, see “Risk Factors”, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations” beginning on page 24, 143 and 271, respectively. By their nature, certain market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what actually occurs in the future. As a result, actual gains or losses could materially differ from those that have been estimated.

We cannot assure investors that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements will prove to be correct. Given these uncertainties, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements and not to regard such statements as a guarantee of future performance.

Forward-looking statements reflect current views as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and are not a guarantee of future performance. These statements are based on our management’s beliefs and assumptions, which in turn are based on currently available information. Although we believe the assumptions upon which these forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of these assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions could be incorrect. Neither our Company, our Directors, the Promoters, the Syndicate nor any of their respective affiliates have any obligation to update or otherwise revise any statements reflecting circumstances arising after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of underlying events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition.

In accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, our Company, the Promoters and the Book Running Lead Manager will ensure that the Bidders in India are informed of material developments until the time of the grant of listing and trading permission by the Stock Exchange for the Issue.

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

BUSINESS RELATED RISKS

- Our revenue is substantially dependent on our B2B technology led education solutions for colleges and schools and our B2C test preparation and text books for competitive exams. Our inability to manage, sustain, or grow our customer base in these segments could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

A significant proportion of our revenue is derived from two core business verticals: (i) technology led education solutions for Colleges and Schools (“B2B Business”) vertical; and (ii) test preparation and text books for competitive exams through both online and offline delivery channels (“B2C Business”) vertical. Our continued reliance on these two verticals exposes us to a range of business and financial risks that could adversely impact our performance. A breakup of revenue generated from these verticals for the relevant financial periods is set forth below:

Verticals		Dec 31, 2025		March 31, 2025		March 31, 2024		March 31, 2023

In our B2B segment for Colleges and Schools, increasing adoption of Artificial Intelligence, automation technologies, and evolving workforce strategies by employers may reduce the requirement for entry-level hiring and large-scale campus recruitment programs.

Further, the education sector in India is highly competitive and rapidly evolving, with the presence of organized players, regional and local coaching institutions, and free or low cost online content providers. This heightened competitive intensity could result in pricing pressures, eroding profit margins, and adversely affecting our ability to retain existing students and attract new ones. Our ability to sustain enrolment levels and profitability depends on our continued ability to deliver high quality, relevant, and innovative course content. Any failure to meet expectations of colleges, schools, students, adapt to evolving market demands, or effectively counter competitive pressures could result in reputational harm, reduced enrolments, and financial losses.

Furthermore, any disruption to our offline coaching centers or technical failures in our online delivery platforms could adversely affect student experience and retention. While we remain committed to addressing these risks through continuous improvements and strategic investments, there is no assurance that we will be able to effectively mitigate all such challenges. Any such failure could materially and adversely impact our revenue, profitability, and overall business operations. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on 143 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

- The demand for our training and employability enhancement services may be adversely affected by a reduction in campus recruitment activities, particularly by IT and technology companies.

A significant portion of our business is derived from providing training, assessment, placement preparation, aptitude development, communication skills, and employability enhancement programs to students of engineering colleges and other educational institutions. Our two revenue verticals are:

- Technology led education solutions for Colleges and Schools - B2B (Business to Business); and
- Colleges Branding and Marketing services - B2B (Business to Business)

We have recorded revenue from these two verticals as under:

Verticals		Dec 31, 2025		March 31, 2025		March 31, 2024		March 31, 2023
		₹ in Lakhs	As % of Revenue from Operations	₹ in Lakhs	As % of Revenue from Operations	₹ in Lakhs	As % of Revenue from Operations	₹ in Lakhs	As % of Revenue from Operations

The demand for our services is closely linked to campus recruitment activities undertaken by corporate employers, particularly large IT and technology companies.

The increasing adoption of Artificial Intelligence, automation technologies, and evolving workforce strategies by employers may reduce the requirement for entry-level hiring and large-scale campus recruitment programs. In addition, adverse economic conditions, industry slowdowns, hiring freezes, cost optimization measures, or changes in talent acquisition strategies adopted by IT and technology companies may further reduce the volume of campus recruitment.

Any decline in campus hiring activity may result in educational institutions reducing their expenditure on employability training programs or postponing engagements with external training partners such as us. Consequently, we may experience lower demand for our courses and training services, reduced student participation, lower contract renewals from educational institutions, and a decline in revenues.

Further, our inability to diversify our customer base, expand into new industry sectors, develop alternative service offerings, or adapt our business model to changing recruitment trends may exacerbate the impact of reduced campus hiring activity. If any of the foregoing risks materialize, our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows, and future growth prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

3. *Our success depends substantially on our ability to attract and retain faculty members. Any significant decrease in the number of our faculty members or a failure to attract persons of adequate competence could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Our business is fundamentally faculty driven. The quality of instruction delivered to students through our education solutions across online and offline platforms is directly contingent on the skill, experience, and continuity of our faculty base. Our faculty for competitive exams consists of highly qualified and experienced educators who specialize in their respective subjects. They include experts from reputed institutions and professionals with a deep understanding of exam patterns, syllabus trends, and effective teaching methods. The faculty focuses on concept clarity, problem-solving techniques, and exam-oriented preparation. Regular doubt-solving sessions, personalized guidance, and mentorship help students improve performance and build confidence. Given below is a list of our academic trainers:

Category	As on March 31, 2026
Full Time Academicians	24
Associates	15
Project Specific Trainers	79
Total	118

The coaching industry is, by its very nature, an intensely competitive market with low barriers to entry for new players, resulting in a structurally high level of faculty attrition across the sector.

Faculty members may leave our Company for a variety of reasons, including better compensation from competitors, the option to launch independent coaching initiatives, or personal considerations. We cannot assure you that our existing remuneration policy and human resource strategy will be sufficient to retain all faculty members or attract new talent of equivalent calibre in a timely manner. Importantly, our Company has not entered into binding service agreements or noncompete covenants with the faculty members engaged at our centers.

However, the operation of our Company is driven and controls by our Whole-Time Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management. We have Whole-Time Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management who are with our Company for years. The table below provides the attrition rate for our Whole-Time Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management for the years indicated:

Parameter	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Attrition Rate	Nil	4.55%	Nil	Nil

Any failure by such persons to continue their engagement with us or any decision on their part to join a competitor or establish a competing coaching institution could have a material adverse effect on our operations, reputation, and financial results.

Further, any difficulty or delay in identifying and onboarding faculty replacements could result in disruption to ongoing batches, adverse impact on student outcomes, and reputational damage that may affect future enrolment numbers and, consequently, our revenues.

4. *Our ability to attract and retain students depends on multiple factors, including our reputation, the quality of our courses and faculty, and student outcomes. Any failure in this regard could materially impact our business and financial condition.

Our business is critically dependent on the confidence reposed in us by schools, colleges, students and their families. The number of enrolments in any given year is significantly influenced by the results achieved by students enrolled in prior batches/colleges/schools, the quality of study materials and faculty instruction, and our brand perception across target geographies. We continuously strive to retain our standing by maintaining academic and operational quality and by enhancing the value delivered to our students through regularly updated course content and methodologies.

Our marketing and outreach strategy targets the student community through various online and offline mode. We use both paid and free marketing tools. Under paid marketing, we use an array of tools ranging from bill boards, pamphlets, tabloids, brochures, print and digital media advertisements among others. Under free marketing, we use our social media channels in form of youtube, instagram etc., and use website pages to attract student registrations through free account access. Accordingly, any deterioration in student satisfaction whether on account of academic quality, administrative shortcomings, or any other factor could negatively impact enrolment rates and, by extension, our revenues.

Further, the individual performance of each student in competitive examinations is influenced by factors beyond our control, including personal aptitude, examination pressure, and health. A decline in the visible pass rates or rankings of our students in a given year may adversely impact the perception of our brand and lead to reduced enrolments in subsequent years. Any such adverse outcome would have a direct impact on our revenues, profitability, and financial condition.

5. *Our inability to adapt and update our study materials and coaching methodologies in line with changes to competitive examination syllabi and patterns may adversely affect our business, reputation, and revenues.

We cover test series of almost all major entrance exams in India for UG admission. This include CUET, Law-CLAT, 4/5 Yr UG Courses at IIMs, JEE, NEET, NDA, CA-CPT, Symbiosis SET, Narsee Monjee NPAT etc. We also provide chapter wise NCERT question bank for +2 board preparation. We cover all major subjects across Sciences, Commerce & humanities. The format and pattern of questions in these examinations may be modified at short notice by altering nature, difficulty level, or distribution of questions across subjects. Any such revision requires us to undertake a comprehensive update of our study materials, course structures, testing methodologies, and faculty training programs to reflect the revised patterns a process that is inherently time consuming and resource intensive.

Our Company's competitive positioning is directly tied to the accuracy, currency, and effectiveness of the content we deliver. Any failure to update our course content in a timely manner or the delivery of outdated or inaccurate material could adversely affect student outcomes, leading to reputational damage and a decline in enrolments. Further, any inability to engage, train, and retain faculty members with the expertise required to address new or advanced syllabus components could compound our exposure to this risk. For more details, please refer to the chapter titled "Our Business" beginning on page 143 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

6. *Our business is dependent on continued adoption of our solutions by schools, colleges and other educational institutions and on prevailing trends in the education sector. Any adverse changes in such trends or our inability to maintain and expand our relationships with educational institutions may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

A significant portion of our business is derived from providing technology-led education solutions to schools, colleges and other educational institutions. The demand for our products and services is influenced by developments in the education sector, including changes in admission processes, competitive examination patterns, educational policies and the increasing emphasis on entrance examination preparedness and outcome-based learning. While initiatives such as the National Education Policy, 2020 and the introduction of the Common University Entrance Test (CUET) have contributed to increased focus on structured preparation for higher education and competitive examinations, there can be no assurance that such trends will continue or that educational institutions will continue to adopt our solutions at the same pace. Further, any adverse changes in government policies, regulatory framework applicable to educational institutions, examination patterns, admission criteria, educational curriculum, accreditation requirements, funding constraints faced by educational institutions, reduction in student enrolments, non-renewal or termination of arrangements with educational institutions, or our inability to effectively market and implement our solutions may adversely impact demand for our offerings. Any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

7. *Our test preparation business is dependent on student enrolments, continued demand for competitive examination preparation services, the success of our course offerings and educational content, and our ability to effectively operate and expand our offline and online delivery models. Any adverse developments in these areas may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

A significant portion of our business is derived from providing test preparation services for various competitive examinations through our offline centres and online learning platform. Accordingly, our growth and profitability are dependent on our ability to attract new students, retain existing students, maintain favourable student outcomes and continuously adapt our course offerings to evolving examination patterns, admission criteria and student preferences. The test preparation industry is highly competitive and fragmented, and we compete with established national and regional coaching institutes, ed-tech platforms, online learning providers and other educational service providers. Any inability to maintain the quality, relevance and effectiveness of our course content, teaching methodologies, study materials, faculty resources and technology platforms may adversely impact student enrolments and retention.

Further, our business is influenced by developments in the education sector, including changes in government policies, educational regulations, entrance examination structures, admission processes, eligibility criteria and evaluation methodologies. Any reduction in the significance of competitive entrance examinations, changes in examination patterns, increased adoption of alternative admission mechanisms, decline in student participation in competitive examinations, or adverse regulatory developments affecting coaching institutes, educational technology providers or educational institutions may reduce demand for our services.

Our offline business is dependent on the continued operation of our physical centres and our ability to attract students within the catchment areas served by such centres. Any disruption to the operations of our centres due to regulatory restrictions, infrastructure constraints, faculty attrition, natural calamities, public health emergencies or other unforeseen events may adversely affect our business. Similarly, our online offerings are dependent on the reliability, performance and security of our technology infrastructure. Any system failure, cyber-security incident, interruption in internet services, technology malfunction or inability to scale our platform in line with user demand may adversely impact the student experience and our reputation. In addition, a portion of our revenue is generated through educational content, including royalty income from the publication and sale of competitive examination preparation books through publishing partners. While such revenue is presently not significant, our ability to expand this business segment depends on the continued success, acceptance and distribution of our educational content and our relationships with publishing and distribution partners. Any inability to develop, update, market or distribute educational content effectively may adversely impact our future growth prospects.

Further, a portion of our students utilise financing arrangements provided by third-party financial institutions. Any reduction in the availability of such financing options, changes in financing terms, or termination of our arrangements with such financial institutions may adversely affect the affordability of our courses for prospective students and consequently impact enrolments. Any of the foregoing events may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

8. Our college branding and marketing services business is dependent on our ability to attract and retain educational institutions, maintain and grow our student database and digital platforms, and continue to generate measurable value for our clients. Any failure to do so may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

A portion of our revenue is derived from providing branding, student outreach and marketing services to colleges and other educational institutions. Our ability to maintain and grow this business depends on our ability to attract new institutional clients, retain existing clients, renew engagements and demonstrate the effectiveness of our marketing and student acquisition solutions. Educational institutions may reduce or discontinue their spending on branding and student outreach activities due to budgetary constraints, adverse economic conditions, changes in admission strategies, increased competition, regulatory developments or dissatisfaction with the results generated from our services. Any loss of existing clients or inability to secure new engagements may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our business is also dependent on the continued operation, reliability and effectiveness of our technology infrastructure. Any disruption arising from technology failures, cyber-security incidents, data privacy concerns, regulatory restrictions, changes in digital advertising practices or limitations on the collection, processing or utilisation of user data may adversely affect our ability to provide targeted marketing services. In addition, any changes in applicable laws and regulations relating to data privacy, digital marketing, consumer protection or educational advertising may require modifications to our business practices and increase compliance costs.

Further, our college branding and marketing services business is concentrated in the education sector. Any adverse developments affecting colleges, universities or the higher education sector generally, including changes in admission processes, educational policies, student enrolment trends or funding constraints faced by educational institutions, may adversely affect demand for our services. Any of the foregoing events may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

9. Our business is dependent on our proprietary course content, study materials and other intellectual property. Any unauthorised use, disclosure, misappropriation or reproduction of such content by our employees, faculty members, consultants or third parties may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our success depends, in part, on the quality and exclusivity of our course content, study materials, question banks, test series, recorded lectures, teaching methodologies and other proprietary educational resources developed by us. Although we take measures to protect our intellectual property and confidential information, there can be no assurance that our faculty members, employees, consultants or other third parties will not misappropriate, copy, disclose, distribute or otherwise misuse such materials without authorisation. Any unauthorised use or dissemination of our proprietary content may dilute our competitive advantage, adversely affect student enrolments, impair our ability to monetise our educational offerings and result in litigation or additional costs to protect our intellectual property rights. Any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

10. A significant portion of the Net Proceeds is proposed to be utilised towards the development of new AI-powered technology platforms and AI-ready academic content, and any delay, cost overrun, technological failure, inability to achieve commercial adoption or failure to realise the anticipated benefits from such investments could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We intend to utilise approximately ₹1,012.47 lakhs from the Net Proceeds towards the development of an AI-powered Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution, an AI-powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity and a proprietary AI-ready academic content repository for our Educational Content Delivery Engine. These initiatives involve the development of new products and capabilities in a rapidly evolving technology environment and are subject to various operational, technological, commercial and execution risks. While we have developed proof-of-concept models for certain proposed solutions and have prior experience in developing and monetising educational technology platforms and academic content, there can be no assurance that the proposed products will be successfully developed, deployed, commercialised or adopted by educational institutions within the envisaged timelines or at all. The success of these initiatives depends on several factors, including timely development and implementation, successful integration of artificial intelligence capabilities, availability of skilled technology and academic resources, evolving customer requirements, market acceptance, regulatory developments, cybersecurity considerations, data privacy requirements and our ability to effectively compete with existing and emerging technology providers.

Further, the proposed development activities are expected to be undertaken with the assistance of third-party technology and content development partners. Any delay, deficiency in performance, failure to meet agreed milestones, increase in development costs, disputes with such service providers, or inability to retain ownership and control over the resulting intellectual property may adversely affect the implementation of the Objects. In addition, the anticipated benefits from these investments, including customer acquisition, cross-selling opportunities, increased platform adoption, recurring revenue generation, enhanced operational efficiencies and expansion of our intellectual property portfolio, are based on certain assumptions and expectations of our management and may not materialise to the extent anticipated or within the expected timeframe. Any failure to successfully implement these initiatives or generate adequate returns on such investments may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and the utilisation of the Net Proceeds. For further details, please see “Objects of the Issue” on page 91.

11. Our current operations are concentrated in North India, primarily in the Chandigarh, Punjab and Haryana. Any region-specific economic downturns, natural disasters, regulatory changes, or other adverse developments in these geographies could disproportionately affect our business.

Our registered office is situated in Chandigarh, our corporate office is in Punjab, and our offline coaching centers are presently located in six (6) centres across five (5) cities in North India including two centers in Chandigarh and one each in Ludhiana and Patiala (Punjab), and one each in Yamuna Nagar and Ambala (Haryana). This concentration of our operations in a single geographic region exposes us to risks that could have a disproportionate adverse impact on our business.

The geographical distribution of our revenue during the past three (3) financial years and during the period ended December 31, 2025 are as under:

Region specific economic hardship including household income pressure or localised recessions may limit the ability of families to invest in coaching and educational services, reducing the pool of prospective students available to us. Natural calamities such as floods, earthquakes, or extended spells of extreme weather could disrupt our physical infrastructure, supply chains, or the delivery of educational services. Changes in regional policies including state specific educational regulations, taxation reforms, or political instability could create unforeseen compliance challenges, increase our operational costs, or constrain our ability to scale effectively within existing or adjacent markets. The competitive landscape in tier-2 and tier-3 cities across India has intensified with the entry of online players, which benefit from capital scale and digital reach across geographies. While our North Indian markets in Punjab and Haryana exhibit strong demand characteristics given the region's historically high participation in competitive examinations, this geographic concentration limits our ability to benefit from growth in other high-demand corridors, including Southern and Western India, where private university enrolments and CUET uptake are accelerating.

We cannot assure you that our current geographic footprint will not subject us to risks that a more diversified national operator might not face to the same degree. Any adverse developments in the North Indian markets in which we operate could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

12. *We derive a significant proportion of our revenue from a limited number of key customers. Any loss of, or reduction in business from, one or more such key customers could adversely affect our revenue, profitability, and financial condition.

Across our B2B and B2C segments, our revenue is substantially dependent on a relatively concentrated customer base. Revenue break up across our top five and top ten customers has been provided below:

Particulars	For the period ended Dec 31, 2025		For the financial year ended

* As certified by Ayam & Co., Chartered Accountant, the Statutory Auditor of our Company vide certificate dated May 30, 2026.

This reliance on a concentrated institutional customer base exposes us to the risk that the loss of one or more key accounts or a material reduction in the volume of business placed by any of them could significantly and adversely affect our revenues and profitability. Changes in the business strategies, budget allocations, procurement preferences, or institutional policies of such customers could lead to reduced demand for our services, nonrenewal of agreements, or a preference for competing providers. While we continuously strive to maintain and deepen relationships with our key clients, we cannot guarantee that we will continue to secure their business at historic levels or that we will be able to diversify our customer base in a timely and effective manner. Any failure to sustain or replace such key relationships could materially impact on our business, growth trajectory, and financial condition.

13. *Any actual or perceived cybersecurity breach or failure to comply with applicable data privacy laws could adversely affect our operations, reputation, and financial condition.

We are subject to the Information Technology Act, 2000 and the rules framed thereunder, and the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 and the rules thereunder as and when notified ("DPDP Act"). Our platforms collect, store, and process the personal data of students, faculty, and other individuals, including names, contact details, payment information, and academic records. Any failure of our data security systems whether resulting from external cyberattacks, denial of service incidents, ransomware, credential compromise, employee error, or third party vendor vulnerabilities could result in unauthorized access to or misappropriation of such data.

Any actual or perceived security breach could: (i) interrupt our business operations; (ii) damage our brand and competitive positioning; (iii) result in regulatory investigations and financial penalties under the DPDP Act and other applicable statutes; (iv) expose us to civil claims from affected students or employees; and (v) significantly undermine student confidence in our platforms and services. As our student and faculty base grows, the volume of personally identifiable information that we hold will increase correspondingly, amplifying our potential liability in the event of a significant data security failure. According to the India Cyber Threat Report 2025, EdTech companies face specific and recurring cyber threats, including phishing attacks and account compromise driven by high employee turnover. The report further identifies W32.Neshta.C as a significant malware threat within the EdTech sector. The Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 and the Digital Personal Data Protection Rules, 2025 notified on November 13, 2025 impose additional obligations on entities processing personal data of students, including minors, with penalties for non-compliance that could be material to our operations.

Further, our digital infrastructure including our learning management systems, student portals, and payment gateways relies on continuous technological uptime. Any disruption to our IT systems on account of hardware or software failures, infrastructure outages, natural calamities, cyberattacks, or other unforeseen events could prevent us from operating our business for significant periods of time, adversely impacting our reputation, revenues, and financial condition. For further details on applicable data protection laws, please refer to the chapter titled “Key Regulations and Policies” beginning on page 190 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

14. *Failure to protect students’ safety and security may negatively impact our reputation and business.

Safety of students is becoming an area of concern in our industry. A few instances of safety breaches in the past by other educational institutions, including the victimization and harassment of students in educational institutions, have recently been reported. While we have taken measures and safeguards to prevent the occurrence of harmful incidents and any physical injury to our students, there can be no assurance that such measures are effective or that events outside our control that could result in such harm or injury to students, which may adversely affect our reputation, business and financial condition. Any negative publicity regarding safety and security of students at our offline centers may adversely affect student enrolments, our business and financial condition. However, no assurance can be provided that any accidents or safety breaches will not occur in the future, and any failure to continue protecting student safety could have a material impact on our reputation, student enrolments, business and financial condition.

15. *Our offline test preparation business is dependent on the continued availability of our leased and licensed centres, many of which are occupied under relatively short-term arrangements. Any failure to renew such arrangements or secure suitable alternate premises may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our offline test preparation business is conducted through centres operating from premises occupied under rental arrangements, many of which have relatively short tenures and are subject to renewal on mutually agreed terms. For further details on our leased properties, For further details, see “Our Business – Properties” on page 188. In the event that any such arrangement is not renewed upon expiry or is terminated by the relevant licensor or lessor, we may be required to vacate the affected premises and identify alternative locations. The process of identifying suitable premises, obtaining necessary approvals, undertaking fit-outs and transitioning ongoing academic batches may involve significant time, costs and operational disruption. Any inability to renew existing arrangements on favourable terms or secure suitable alternate premises in a timely manner could adversely affect our ability to conduct classes, retain students and maintain our operations, and may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Further, we do not own the properties at which our Registered Office and Corporate Office are currently operating. The leave and licence/lease deeds entered into by us are renewable on mutually agreed terms. In the event that any of these arrangements is not renewed upon expiry or is terminated by either party whether on account of a breach, change in landlord intentions, or any other reason we may be required to vacate the affected premises and identify and relocate to alternate locations. Additionally, any upward revision in rental rates at the time of renewal could increase our operational expenditure and reduce our margins. Any failure to successfully relocate or to agree on commercially reasonable terms for renewal could result in disruption to our operations, loss of students, reduction in revenues, and an adverse impact on our profitability and financial condition.

16. *Our Company’s success depends largely upon its skilled professionals and its ability to attract and retain these personnel. The industry where our Company operates is a highly skilled and technical employee intensive industry.

Our Company’s ability to retain and to obtain new customers depends largely on their ability to attract, train, motivate and retain highly skilled academic professionals. The attrition rates in the industry in which we operate have been high due to a highly competitive skilled labour market in India. We invest in training human resources that we hire to perform the services we provide. These professionals are often targeted by the lateral recruitment efforts of our competitors.

The performance of our Company will be benefited on the continued service of these persons or replacement of equally competent persons. We may have difficulty in redeploying and retraining our employees to keep pace with continuing changes in technology, evolving standards and changing customer.

We incur various employee benefits expense, including salaries and bonus, contribution to provident and other funds and staff welfare expenses. For the period ended December 31, 2025, year ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, our employee benefits expense as a % of our Total Income were as under:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	Dec 31, 2025	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Employee Benefit expenses	520.84	572.6	480.88	467.67
% of total revenue	35.77%	32.91%	33.90%	46.22%

For further details, kindly refer section titled “Financial Information” beginning on Page 231 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

There is intense competition for experienced skilled professionals with academic experience and if we lose the services of any of these or other key individuals and are unable to find suitable replacements in a timely manner, our ability to realize our strategic objectives could be impaired. The loss of members of our team, particularly to competitors, could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations. For further details for employees of our Company, kindly refer section titled “Our Business” beginning on Page 143 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

17. Our Promoters, Hirdesh Madan, Deepak Kumar and Sanjay Kumar, play a key role in our functioning and we heavily rely on their knowledge and experience in operating our business and therefore, it is critical for our business that our Promoters remain associated with us.

The success of our business operations is attributable to our Promoters, Hirdesh Madan, Deepak Kumar and Sanjay Kumar, along with our team of faculty staff. We believe that our relation with our Promoters, who have rich experience in markets, managing customers and handling our businesses operations, has enabled us to experience growth and profitability. Our Promoters have been actively involved in the day-to-day operations and management. In case our Promoters disassociate themselves from our Company, we may have to incur additional costs to replace the services of our promoters or we may not be able to do so at all, which could adversely affect our business operations and affect our ability to continue to manage and expand our business.

18. There have been instances of delays in payment of statutory dues, i.e. GST by the Company. In case of any delay in payment of statutory due in future by our Company, the Regulatory Authorities may impose monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same which may have adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In the past, there have been certain instances of delays in payment of statutory dues, i.e. GST, by the Company. The details of the delay caused in payment of statutory dues have been provided below:

The Company acknowledges that delays in the filing of statutory returns are a matter of concern and have, at times, resulted in inadvertent non-compliance. The reasons for these delays have primarily included reconciliation issues and the complexities involved in compiling accurate data for filing. Steps taken by the Company to prevent future delays include:

- The Company has put into place system to ensure the reconciliation of accounts with customers has been done on time to avoid the delay. Stricter internal controls and periodic reviews has been setup to ensure that all required statutory forms and returns are filed in a timely manner. This includes ensuring that all departments are aligned and there is no delay in providing the necessary data. Accordingly there was no delay in filing of GSTR-3B return for Chandigarh and Haryana since November 2024, however, there are very few instances of delay in filing during GSTR-3B return for Punjab, for which the management is trying to ensure timely filing.
- The reconciliation process will be optimized to ensure that all financial data is verified and prepared well in advance, thus preventing last-minute delays due to discrepancies.
- A dedicated compliance would be set up, responsible solely for ensuring timely and accurate filing of all statutory returns, including GST and other forms.

We clarify that no penalty has been imposed by the statutory authority for the late filing of returns, however late fees and interest levied have been paid at the time of filing of returns. Further, the delays have been regularized as on date by the company

Our Company has already made provisions in the financials of the Company for such delay payments. It cannot be assured, that there will not be such instances in the future or our Company will not commit any further delays or defaults in relation to payment of statutory dues. The happening of such event may cause imposition of fine / penalty which may have adverse effect on the results of our operations and financial position.

19. *There have been instances of delays in filings of certain forms which were required to be filed as per the reporting requirements under the Companies Act, 2013 to RoC.

In the past, there have been certain instances of delays in filing statutory forms which have been subsequently filed by payment of an additional fee as specified by RoC. The details of such forms have been provided below:

To address this, the Company has strengthened its internal compliance processes by implementing a tracking mechanism for due dates, enhancing coordination with external consultants, and designating dedicated personnel Company Secretary to oversee statutory filings. 20. *Our business requires significant working capital, and any inability to obtain or maintain adequate working capital on commercially acceptable terms may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our working capital requirements have increased and are expected to continue to increase in line with our growth strategy, expanding institutional customer base and increasing focus on the B2B segment. The contribution of our B2B business to our revenue from operations has increased significantly in recent years and institutional customers generally operate on longer contractual payment cycles and credit periods, resulting in higher receivables and increased working capital requirements. Further, we are developing new AI-powered technology solutions and academic content offerings, which are expected to support customer acquisition, cross-selling opportunities and expansion of our institutional business. We also intend to expand our operations into new geographies, including western and southern India, which may require additional investments in sales, marketing, customer servicing and operational infrastructure. In order to support our growth plans, launch new products, expand our customer base and maintain competitive credit terms, we may be required to deploy substantial amounts towards working capital, particularly in relation to trade receivables. Any increase in receivables, delay in collections, inability to maintain adequate cash flows, secure additional financing or access other sources of funding on acceptable terms may adversely affect our liquidity and ability to fund our operations and growth initiatives. Consequently, any significant increase in our working capital requirements or any inability to meet such requirements may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Further, one of the objects of this Issue include funding of working capital requirements of our Company to the tune of ₹ 1,100.00 Lakhs for our Company, which is based on management estimates and certain assumptions. Basis of estimation of working capital requirement for our Company is as under:

For more information in relation to such management estimates and assumptions, please see “Objects of the Issue” on page 91. Our working capital requirements may be subject to change due to factors beyond our control including force majeure conditions, an increase in defaults by our customers, non-availability of funding from banks or financial institutions. Accordingly, such working capital requirements may not be indicative of the actual requirements of our Company in the future and investors are advised to not place undue reliance on such estimates of future working capital requirements.

Any delay in processing our payments by our customers may increase our working capital requirement. Further, if an intermediary defaults in making payments for a product on which we have devoted significant resources, it could affect our profitability and liquidity and decrease the capital reserves that are otherwise available for other uses. We may file a claim for compensation of the loss that we incurred pursuant to such defaults but settlement of disputes generally takes time and financial and other resources, and the outcome is often uncertain. In general, we take provisions for bad debts, including those arising from such defaults based primarily on ageing and other factors such as special circumstances relating to special customers. There can be no assurance that such payments will be remitted by our clients to us on a timely basis or that we will be able to effectively manage the level of bad debt arising from defaults.

21. Interruptions or performance problems associated with our technology and infrastructure may harm our business and results of operations.

Our continued growth depends in part on the ability of our existing and potential customers to access our solutions at any time. Although there were no instances in the past where interruptions or problems with our technology and infrastructure have caused performance issues, we may in future experience disruptions, data loss, outages and other performance problems with our technology infrastructure due to a variety of factors, including infrastructure changes, introductions of new functionality, human or software errors, capacity constraints, denial of service attacks or other security-related incidents. In some instances, we may not be able to identify the cause or causes of these performance problems within an acceptable period of time. It may become increasingly difficult to maintain and improve our performance, especially during peak usage times and as our products and websites of our customers become more complex and user traffic increases. If our products and websites of our customers are unavailable or if users of such products and websites are unable to access products and websites within a reasonable amount of time, or at all, our business would also be harmed. Any disruptions in these services, including as a result of actions outside of our control, would significantly impact the continued performance of our products. Any loss of the right to use any of these services could result in decreased functionality of our products until equivalent technology is either developed by us or, if available from another provider, is identified, obtained and integrated into our infrastructure. To the extent that we do not effectively address capacity constraints, upgrade our systems as needed, and continually develop our technology and network architecture to accommodate actual and anticipated changes in technology, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be harmed.

22. We do not own the premises used by our Company. Disruption of our rights as licensee/ lessee or termination of the agreements with our licensors/ lessors would adversely impact our operations and, consequently, our business.

As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our offices have been taken on rental basis by our Company from third parties. The details of our lease agreements have been provided below:

For details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business- Land and Property” on page 188 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

There can also be no assurance that our Company will be able to renew the lease agreements or deeds entered into with third parties in a timely manner or at all. Further, there can be no assurance that we will not face any disruption of our rights as a lessee/ licensee and that such leave and license and lease agreements will not be terminated prematurely by the licensor/lessor. Any such non-renewal or early termination or any disruption of our rights as lessee / licensee will adversely affect our business operations.

23. *We may not be able to sustain effective implementation of our business and growth strategy.

The success of our business will largely depend on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy. In the past we have generally been successful in execution of our business plan but there can be no assurance that we will be able to execute our strategy on time and within the estimated budget in the future. If we are unable to implement our business and growth strategy, this may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

24. *We are dependent on our Senior Management Personnel and Key Managerial Personnel. The loss of, or our inability to attract or retain, such persons could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Our operations and strategic direction are closely guided by our Senior Management Personnel and Key Managerial Personnel, particularly our Managing Director, Whole-time Director and Chief Financial Officer and other senior leadership, whose experience, industry relationships, and institutional knowledge are integral to our business. The loss of any one or more of these persons could have a material adverse effect on our business. We may not be able to promptly replace such individuals with persons of comparable skills, domain expertise, and experience, nor can we assure investors that we have adequate succession planning in place for all key roles.

We have Whole-Time Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management who are with our Company for years. The table below provides the attrition rate for our Whole-Time Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management for the years indicated:

Attrition Rate	Nil	4.55%	Nil	Nil

Further, our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel possess deep institutional knowledge of the industries and markets in which we operate. Their departure particularly if they join a competitor or establish a competing enterprise could result in knowledge transfer to competitors, loss of key client relationships, and disruption to ongoing transactions and operations. These factors would adversely affect our business prospects and financial results.

Additionally, as noted above, we have not entered into binding service agreements or noncompete undertakings with the Associate Teachers engaged at our coaching centers. Any failure on their part to continue engagement with us could disrupt the continuity of instruction at our centers, adversely affecting student experience and enrolment outcomes.

25. *We operate in a significantly fragmented and highly competitive market. Any failure to effectively compete on quality, pricing, or innovation could adversely affect our market share, profitability, and financial condition.

We operate in the test preparation and educational technology sector, which is characterised by intense competition from a diverse range of participants including large, organised players at the national level, regional and local coaching institutions, and a growing ecosystem of online platforms providing free or lowcost educational content. The business of providing competitive examination-oriented courses has low barriers to entry, enabling new participants to enter the market with relative ease. Smaller unorganised players frequently offer personalised instruction to limited cohorts at highly competitive price points, creating pricing pressure that affects our ability to sustain or justify premium pricing even where our offerings are demonstrably superior in terms of accuracy, depth, and effectiveness.

The proliferation of free content on platforms such as YouTube and the increasing accessibility of online learning have amplified price sensitivity among prospective students and their families. Any inability on our part to effectively communicate the quality and value for money of our services could adversely impact enrolment numbers and profitability. Further, consolidation among competitors or changes in the competitive dynamics of specific geographies or examination categories could compel us to reduce course fees or offer higher discounts to retain existing students and attract new ones, thereby eroding our margins and revenues.

Factors such as a failure to maintain or enhance our brand reputation, student dissatisfaction, or any negative publicity could further reduce enrolments. Any such adverse development could materially and adversely impact our business, profitability, and financial performance.

26. *We require certain approvals and licenses in the ordinary course of business, and the failure to obtain or retain them in a timely manner may adversely affect our operations.

Our operations are subject to government regulations, and we are required to obtain and maintain several statutory and regulatory permits, approvals, registrations and licenses under central, state and local government rules in India. Our Company has put into place system to ensure the timely payment of PF & ESIC. Stricter internal controls and periodic reviews has been setup to ensure that all required statutory payments and form and returns are filed in a timely manner. It cannot be assured, that there will not be such instances in the future or our Company will not commit any further delays or defaults in relation to payment of statutory dues. The happening of such event may cause imposition of fine / penalty which may have adverse effect on the results of our operations and financial position.

28. Our Group Company and Promoter Group Company are engaged in a similar line of business as our Company and may compete with us.

Our Group Company, namely Mind Tree Eduvation Private Limited, and Promoter Group Company namely Intellis Resources Private Limited are engaged in same business as that our Company, being the business of providing educational services. Mind Tree Eduvation Private Limited does not have any operations during the last 3 financial years and have only rental income. Intellis Resources Private Limited is engaged in providing educational services to schools, syllabus development and publication of books. Our Company, on the other hand, is engaged in the design, development and leasing of technology-driven digital platforms and software-as-a-service solutions to schools and colleges for academic delivery, assessment and career-related solutions, imparting training through workshops and seminars as well as providing skill training for competitive examinations. Owing to the distinct nature of business activities, delivery mechanisms and business models of the aforesaid entities, we do not foresee any conflict of interest. In the event any conflict arises in the future, our Company shall take appropriate steps to address the same. Further, we confirm that all the transaction in the past with Intellis Resources Private Limited and Mind Tree Education Private Limited have been conducted on an arm's length basis and in the ordinary course of business. Further, we have entered into non-compete agreement with Intellis Resources Private Limited dated June 3, 2026 and with Mind Tree Education Private Limited dated June 3, 2026 to ensure there is no business competing with our Company's Business.

29. We have experienced negative cash flows in the last three financial years. Any negative cash flows in the future would adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet its capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If we are not able to generate sufficient cash flow, it may adversely affect our business and financial operations. We experienced negative cash flows in the following periods as indicated in the table below:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	Nine months period ended Dec 31, 2025	For the year ended March 31,
		2025	2024	2023
Net Cash from Operating Activities	(27.37)	454.55	251.95	204.99
Net Cash from Investing Activities	(305.92)	(189.05)	(173.36)	(20.41)
Net Cash used in Financing Activities	(160.00)	246.68	(106.24)	(127.50)

There can be no assurance that our net cash flows shall be positive in the future. Any negative cash flows in the future over extended periods, or significant negative cash flows in the short term, could materially impact our ability to operate our business and implement our growth plans. As a result, our cash flows, business, future financial performance and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. For further details, see "Restated Financial information" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on pages 231 and 271, respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

30. We may not be able to collect receivables due from our customers, in a timely manner, or at all, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

A significant portion of our revenue is derived from course fees paid by students enrolled in our online and offline programmes and fees receivable from schools, colleges and other educational institutions availing our services. While course fees are generally collected upfront or in instalments in accordance with the terms agreed with students or institutions, there can be no assurance that all amounts due to us will be received in a timely manner or at all. Any delay in fee collections, increase in student dropouts, cancellations, defaults by students or educational institutions, or deterioration in the credit quality of our counterparties may adversely affect our cash flows, liquidity, results of operations and financial condition. Historically, we have not experienced any material instances of delayed payments or defaults by our students or institutional customers. The table below sets forth details of our trade receivables as of the dates indicated and allowances for expected credit losses during the relevant periods.

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	December 31, 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Trade Receivables	443.63	268.12	157.23	75.71
% of total revenue	30.47%	15.41%	11.08%	7.48%
Trade Receivable Days	110	56	40	27

We cannot assure you that we will be able to collect our receivables on time or at all, which could adversely affect our cash flows, results of operations and financial condition. We may have to initiate arbitration proceedings or legal proceedings against our customers, in order to recover the pending dues, which could adversely affect our relationships with our current or future customers, result in costly litigation, cause delay or stoppage in our projects, divert management's attention and resources and wastage of time and resources. We may also incur costs in collecting payments from our customers and we may not be able to recover such costs. While such events have not materially occurred in the preceding three Fiscals and the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, occurrence of any such instances in the future could adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

31. *We may not be able to prevent others from unauthorised use of our intellectual property and may in the future become subject to patent, trademark and/or other intellectual property infringement claims.

We rely on our registered trademarks to establish and protect our rights in our intellectual property. We have registered a trademark for protecting our logo ‘ hitbullseye’. For further details see “Our Business – Intellectual Property” on page 187 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. An intellectual property registration granted to us may not be sufficient to protect our intellectual property rights. We may not be able to prevent infringement of our trademarks. Further, our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate and may lead to erosion of our business value and our operations could be adversely affected. Further, if we do not maintain our brand identity, which is an important factor that differentiates us from our competitors, we may not be able to maintain our competitive edge. If we are unable to compete successfully, we could lose our customers, which would negatively affect our financial performance and profitability.

Further, the defence of intellectual property suits and related legal and administrative proceedings can be both costly and time-consuming and may significantly divert the efforts and resources of our technical and management personnel. We may not achieve a favourable outcome in any such litigation. While we have not experienced any instances of infringement of intellectual property or related litigation in the past three Fiscals and the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, there is no assurance that such instances will not occur in the future and if any claim is adversely determined against us in any of such potential litigation or proceedings, we could be subject to significant liability to third parties. We could further be subject to injunctions prohibiting the production or sale of our products. Protracted litigation could also result in our existing or potential customers deferring or limiting their purchase or use of our products until resolution of such litigation. Regardless of their merits, such claims could materially and adversely affect our relationships with current or future customers, result in costly litigation, delay or disrupt supply of products, divert management’s attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities, or require us to cease certain activities.

32. *We do not own any of the premises from which we operate. Our business activities are carried out from leave and licensed properties, and any termination, non-renewal, or adverse change in the terms of such arrangements may materially impact our operations and financial condition.

As of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Company does not own any of the properties used for our business operations, including our registered office and other commercial premises. These properties are occupied pursuant to lease or leave and license arrangements, which are subject to specific tenures and renewal terms. Any non-renewal, early termination, or legal dispute related to these agreements may require us to vacate the premises on short notice.

There is no assurance that such agreements will be renewed upon expiry or that they will be renewed on commercially favourable terms. In the event that a licensor chooses to terminate the arrangement or not renew it, we would be required to identify, negotiate, and shift operations to alternate locations. This may not only involve higher costs due to market rent escalation but could also result in temporary business disruptions, logistical delays, and operational inefficiencies during the transition period. Any of the foregoing events could materially and adversely affect our business continuity, client servicing, employee efficiency, and overall operational performance.

33. *We and our Promoters are party to certain legal proceedings that are pending at various levels of adjudication. Any adverse decision in these proceedings may subject us to liabilities or penalties and may adversely affect our reputation, business, and financial condition.

As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Company and our Promoter are involved in certain legal proceedings. These legal proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts and tribunals. The amounts claimed in these proceedings have been disclosed to the extent ascertainable and include amounts claimed jointly and/or severally from us and/or other parties, as the case may be. We cannot assure you that these legal proceedings will be decided in favour of our Company or of our Promoter or that no further liability will arise out of these proceedings. We may incur significant expenses in such legal proceedings and we may have to make provisions in our financial statements, which could increase our expenses and liabilities. Any adverse decision may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

34. *We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule

The proposed fund requirement for our expansion plan, as detailed in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” is to be funded from the proceeds of this IPO. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule. We therefore, cannot assure that we would be able to execute our future plans/strategy within the given timeframe. For details, please refer to the Chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 91.

35. *If we are unable to maintain and enhance our brand and reputation, the sales of our products may suffer which would have a material adverse effect on our business operations.

Our business depends significantly on the strength of our brand and reputation in industry we operate. We also believe that maintaining and enhancing the “ hitbullseye” brand, are critical to maintaining and expanding our customer base. We believe that continuing to develop awareness of our brand, through focused and consistent branding and marketing initiatives is important for our ability to increase our sales volumes and our revenues, grow our existing market share and expand into new markets. Consequently, product defects, consumer complaints, or negative publicity or media reports involving us, or any of our products could harm our brand and reputation and may dilute the impact of our branding and marketing initiatives and adversely affect our business and prospects. In addition, adverse publicity about any regulatory or legal action against us could damage our reputation and brand image, undermine our consumers’ confidence in us and reduce long-term demand for our products, even if the regulatory or legal action is unfounded or immaterial to our operations.

36. *Our Company has availed an unsecured loan from Mind Tree Eduvation Private Limited which is repayable on demand. Any such demand for repayment could adversely affect our cash flows and financial condition.

Our Company has availed an unsecured loan from Mind Tree Eduvation Private Limited, which is repayable on demand by the lender at any point in time. As of December 31, 2025, the outstanding amount under such unsecured loan aggregated to ₹ 176.52 lakhs. In the event that the lender calls for repayment of such loan, our Company would need to identify and access alternative sources of financing to meet such obligations. There is no assurance that such alternate financing will be available to our Company on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. Any demand for repayment of this unsecured loan could materially and adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition, and results of operations. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 285 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

37. *We have entered into related party transactions in the past and may continue to do so in the future. We cannot assure you that more favourable terms could not have been obtained in transactions with unrelated third parties.

In the ordinary course of our business, we have entered, and may in the future enter, into transactions with related parties. While we believe that all related party transactions entered into during the period ended December 31, 2025 and the Financial Years 2025, 2024, and 2023 were conducted on an arm’s length basis and in compliance with applicable law, including the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot assure you that more favourable commercial terms could not have been obtained had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties.

The related party transactions entered into by our Company with related parties for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, derived from our Restated Financial Information are as follows:

Potential conflicts of interest may arise in future related party transactions that could be detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders. We cannot assure you that such future transactions whether individually or in the aggregate will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations. For details on related party transactions, see the chapter titled “Restated Financial Information – Annexure – XXXI – Details of Related Party Transactions” on page 261 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

38. *The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on our management estimates and any bank or financial institution or any independent agency has not appraised the same. The deployment of funds in the project is entirely at our discretion, based on the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titles “Objects of the Issue”.

The fund requirement and deployment, as mentioned in the “Objects of the Issue” on page 91 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on the estimates of our management and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency. These fund requirements are based on our current business plan. We cannot assure that the current business plan will be implemented in its entirety or at all. In view of the highly competitive and dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently these fund requirements. The deployment of the funds as stated under chapter “Objects of the Issue” is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by any external independent agency. Further, we cannot assure that the actual costs or schedule of implementation as stated under chapter “Objects of the Issue” will not vary from the estimated costs or schedule of implementation. Any such variance may be on account of one or more factors, some of which may be beyond our control. Occurrence of any such event may delay our business plans and/or may have an adverse bearing on our expected revenues and earnings.

39. *Our Promoter, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management have interests in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits.

Our Promoter, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management, may be deemed to be interested in our Company, in addition to the regular remuneration or benefits, reimbursements of expenses, Equity Shares held by them or their relatives, their dividend or bonus entitlement, benefits arising from their directorship in our Company. Our Promoter, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management may also be interested to the extent of any transaction entered into by our Company with any other company or firm in which they are directors or partners. For further details please refer to the paragraphs titled — “Interest of our Directors” in the chapter titled — “Our Management”, the paragraphs titled — “Interest of our Promoter and Other Interests and Disclosures” in the chapter titled — “Our Promoter and Promoter Group”, “Financial Indebtedness” and “Restated Financial Information” on pages 210, 224, 285 and 231, respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

There can be no assurance that our Promoter, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Promoter and members of our Promoter Group will continue to exercise significant control over our Company, including being able to control the composition of our Board of Directors and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting of shareholders, and our other shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. Our Directors and our Key Management Personnel may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with the best interests of our Company or that of minority shareholders.

40. *The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters could be lower than the Issue Price.

Our Promoters’ average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company may be lower than the Issue Price which is proposed to be determined through book building mechanism. the average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares of the Company held by the Promoters of the Company in respect of their shareholding, as on May 30, 2026, is as follows:

Name of the Promoters	Number of Equity Shares held	Average cost of acquisition per share
Mr. Hirdesh Madan	16,15,176	9.03
Mr. Deepak Kumar	16,14,915	9.04
Mr. Sanjay Kumar	16,14,906	9.04

41. *Our future fund requirements, in the form of further issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the Shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any further issue of Equity Shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing Shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favorable to the then existing Shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt or preference shares, then it may substantially increase our fixed interest/dividend burden and decrease our cash flows, thus adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

42. A downgrade in our credit rating could adversely affect our ability to raise capital in the future.

As on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Company has not obtained any credit ratings in relation to its debt obligations. The interest rates of certain of our borrowings as well as the enhancement and sanction of any future borrowings may be significantly dependent on the credit ratings obtained by us. A downgrade of the credit ratings obtained by us in the future, could lead to greater risk with respect to refinancing our debt and would likely increase our cost of borrowing and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future prospects.

43. In addition to our existing indebtedness for our existing operations, we may incur further indebtedness during the course of business. We cannot assure that we would be able to service our existing and/ or additional indebtedness.

As on December 31, 2025, our Company's total fund based indebtedness is ₹ 180.52 Lakhs. In addition to the indebtedness for our existing operations, we may incur further indebtedness during the course of our business. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain further loans at favourable terms. Increased borrowings, if any, may adversely affect our debt-equity ratio and our ability to borrow at competitive rates. In addition, we cannot assure you that the budgeting of our working capital requirements for a particular year will be accurate. There may be situations where we may under-budget our working capital requirements, which may lead to delays in arranging additional working capital requirements, loss of reputation, levy of liquidated damages and can cause an adverse effect on our cash flows.

Any failure to service our indebtedness or otherwise perform our obligations under our financing agreements entered with our lenders or which may be entered into by our Company, could trigger cross default provisions, penalties, acceleration of repayment of amounts due under such facilities which may cause an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For details of our indebtedness, please refer to the chapter titled — “Financial Indebtedness” on page 285 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

44. Our inability to meet our obligations, including financial and other covenants under our debt financing arrangements could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. If we are unable to raise additional capital on favourable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations and financial condition could adversely affected.

As of December 31, 2025, our non-current borrowings were ₹ 180.52 lakhs while our current borrowings were ₹ Nil. Our existing operations and execution of our business strategy may require substantial capital resources and we may incur additional debt to finance these requirements in the future. However, we may be unable to obtain sufficient financing on terms favourable to us, or at all. If interest rates increase it will be more difficult to obtain credit. As a result, our development activities may have to be curtailed or eliminated and our financial performance and our ability to continue operations may be adversely affected.

We have entered into agreements for our borrowings with certain lenders. These borrowings include secured fund based and non-fund based facilities. These agreements include restrictive covenants which mandate certain restrictions in terms of our business operations such as change in capital structure, formulation of any scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction, declaring dividends, further expansion of business, granting loans to directors, repaying unsecured loans from third parties, undertake guarantee obligations on behalf of any other borrower, which require our Company to obtain prior approval of the lenders for any of the above activities. Further, some of our financing arrangements include covenants to maintain our total outside liabilities and total net worth up to a certain limit and certain other liquidity ratios. It may be possible for a lender to assert that we have not complied with all applicable terms under our existing financing documents. Further we cannot assure that we will have adequate funds at all times to repay these credit facilities and may also be subject to demands for the payment of penal interest. Defaults under one or more of our Company's financing agreements may limit our flexibility in operating our business, which could have an adverse effect on our cash flows, business, results of operations and financial condition.

We will continue to incur significant expenditure in maintaining and growing our existing infrastructure. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient capital for our current operations, any future expansion plans that we may have and our ability to complete such expansion plans. Our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner. Any unfavourable change to terms of borrowings may adversely affect our cash flows, results of operations and financial conditions. If we decide to meet our capital requirements through debt financing, we may be subject to certain restrictive covenants. If we are unable to raise adequate capital in a timely manner and on acceptable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows could be adversely affected.

45. *If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our businesses and reputation could be adversely affected.

We manage our internal compliance by monitoring and evaluating internal controls and taking reasonable steps to maintain appropriate procedures for relevant statutory and regulatory compliances. As risks evolve and develop, internal controls must be reviewed on an ongoing basis. Maintaining internal controls requires human diligence and is therefore subject to lapses in judgment and failures that result from human error. Any such errors can affect the accuracy of our financial reporting, resulting in a loss of investor confidence and a decline in the price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls, in a timely manner or at all, which may have an adverse effect on our business operations and financial condition.

46. *Industry information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus has been derived from public sources. There can be no assurance that such third-party statistical financial and other industry information is either complete or accurate.

We have relied on certain public sources for purposes of inclusion of industry related information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. This information is subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. We have not independently verified data from such sources. Although we believe that the data may be considered to be reliable, their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed and their dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics.

Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

47. *Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses to which we may be subject and this may have a material effect on our business and financial condition.

While we maintain insurance coverage, in amounts which we believe are commercially appropriate, we may not have sufficient insurance coverage to cover all possible economic losses, including when the loss suffered is not easily quantifiable and in the event of severe damage to our business. Details of our insurance policies have been provided below:

Type of Insurance	Coverage	Locations Covered Under Insurance	Insurer	Policy Number.	Sum Insured (₹ in lakhs)	Annual Premium (₹ in lakhs)	Expiry date
Burglary	Building, Furniture & Fixtures, Electrical Installations, Equipment, Computer Hardware	Corporate Office, and all 6 Branches	National Insurance Company Limited	420101592510000277	268.96	0.030	Feb 02, 2027

As on December 31, 2025, the aggregate insurance cover maintained by the Company amounts to approximately ₹650.55 lakhs, which represents approximately 21.76 times of the total value of the insured assets, based on management's assessment of replacement cost and risk exposure.

Even if we have made a claim under an existing insurance policy, we may not be able to successfully assert our claim for any liability or loss under such insurance policy. Additionally, there may be various other risks and losses for which we are not insured either because such risks are uninsurable or not insurable on commercially acceptable terms. The occurrence of an event for which we are not adequately or sufficiently insured could have an effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

In addition, in the future, we may not be able to maintain insurance of the types or at levels which we deem necessary or adequate or at rates which we consider reasonable. The occurrence of an event for which we are not adequately or sufficiently insured or the successful assertion of one or more large claims against us that exceed available insurance coverage, or changes in our insurance policies (including premium increases or the imposition of large deductible or co-insurance requirements), could have an effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

48. *We will continue to be controlled by our Promoter and Promoter Group after the completion of the Issue, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters submitted for approval of our shareholders.

As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Promoter and Promoter Group hold 94.24% of the issued and outstanding paid-up share capital of our Company. As a result, they will have the ability to influence matters requiring shareholders' approval, including the ability to appoint Directors to our Board and the right to approve significant actions at Board and at shareholders' meetings, including the issue of Equity Shares and dividend payments, business plans, mergers and acquisitions, any consolidation or joint venture arrangements, any amendment to our Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association, and any other business decisions. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will not have conflicts of interest with other shareholders or with our Company. Any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business.

49. *Our inability to manage growth could disrupt our business and reduce profitability.

A principal component of our strategy is to continuously grow by expanding the capacity, size and geographical reach of our businesses. This growth strategy will place significant demands on our management, financial and other resources. It will require us to continuously develop and improve our operational, financial and internal controls. Continuous expansion increases the challenges involved in financial management, recruitment, training and retaining high quality human resources, preserving our culture, values and entrepreneurial environment, and developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure. Any inability on our part to manage such growth could disrupt our business prospects, impact our financial condition and adversely affect our results of operations.

50. Any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds or in the terms of any contract as disclosed in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders' approval.

Our Company intends to use approximately the Net Proceeds towards the objects disclosed in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 91. Our Board and Audit Committee subject to applicable laws will have flexibility in temporarily investing the Net Proceeds as well as its inter se allocation across various heads under the objects as disclosed in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 91.

In case of any exigencies arising out of business conditions, economic conditions, competition or other factors beyond our control which adversely affect our business, we may require to use the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund which expenditure cannot be determined with certainty as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. In terms of Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds or in the terms of any contract as disclosed in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus without obtaining the shareholders' approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances requiring us to undertake variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds disclosed in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we cannot assure that we will be able to obtain the shareholders' approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such shareholders' approval may adversely affect our business or operations.

Further, our Promoters would be required to provide an exit opportunity to the shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Issue. Additionally, the requirement on Promoters to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake variation of objects of the Issue to use any unutilized proceeds of the Fresh Issue, if any, or vary the terms of any contract referred to in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our Company's ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilised portion of Net Proceeds, if any, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

51. Significant differences between Indian GAAP and other internationally recognised accounting principles may limit the comparability of our financial statements for prospective investors.

Our Restated Financial Statements for the period ended December 31, 2025 and the Financial Years ended March 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 have been prepared and presented in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“Indian GAAP”). Indian GAAP differs in certain material respects from U.S. GAAP, International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”), and other accounting frameworks with which some prospective investors may be more familiar. Accordingly, our financial results, cash flows, and financial position as presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus may differ substantially from the results that would have been reported had such financial statements been prepared in accordance with other accounting frameworks. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our Restated Financial Statements and consult their professional advisors to understand the differences between these accounting frameworks and those with which they may be familiar.

52. Our ability to pay dividends in the future may be affected by any material adverse effect on our future earnings, financial condition or cash flows.

Our ability to pay dividends in future will depend on our earnings, financial condition and capital requirements. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and our future dividend policy will depend on our capital requirements and financing arrangements in respect of our operations, financial condition and results of operations. Our Company has not declared dividends in the past, and there can be no assurance that our Company will declare dividends in the future also. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Dividend Policy” on page 230 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

53. *We have not independently verified certain data in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We have not independently verified data from the industry and related data contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regards to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy or the industries in which we operate that is included herein are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete, inaccurate or unreliable. Due to incorrect or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

54. *The requirements of being a listed company may strain our resources.

We are not a listed Company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. We will be subject to the listing agreements with the Stock Exchanges and compliances of SEBI (LODR) Regulations which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited half yearly results and limited review reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies which may adversely affect the financial position of the Company.

As a listed company, we will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions to support the existence of effective disclosure controls and procedures, internal control over financial reporting and additional compliance requirements under the Companies Act, 2013. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management oversight will be required. As a result, management's attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate listed company experience and technical accounting knowledge and we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely manner.

55. *The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Issue may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Although we currently intend that the Equity Shares will remain listed on the Stock Exchanges, there is no guarantee of the continued listing of the Equity Shares. Failure to maintain our listing on the Stock Exchanges or other securities markets could adversely affect the market value of the Equity Shares.

The Issue Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a fixed price process in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. You may not be able to resell your Equity Shares at a price that is attractive to you.

56. *There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the Emerge Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited in a timely manner or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuance of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the Emerge Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited due to delay in submission of required documents/ completion of formalities/compliance with required laws by the issuer. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

57. *There is no existing market for our Equity Shares, and we do not know if one will develop to provide you with adequate liquidity. Further, an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop and the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile.

An active public trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop or, if it develops, may not be maintained after the Issue. Our Company, in consultation with the lead manager, will determine the Issue Price. The Issue Price may be higher than the trading price of our Equity Shares following this Issue. As a result, investors may not be able to sell their Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price or at the time that they would like to sell. The trading price of the Equity Shares after the Issue may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to factors such as, variations in our results of operations, market conditions specific to the sectors in which we operate economic conditions of India and volatility of the securities markets elsewhere in the world.

58. *The price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile after the Issue.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Indian stock exchanges may fluctuate after this Issue as a result of several factors, including, volatility in the Indian and global securities market; our operations and performance; performance of our competitors and the perception in the market about investments in the our industry; adverse media reports on us or the industry; changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts; significant developments in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies; and significant developments in India's fiscal and environmental regulations. There can be no assurance that the prices at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the prices at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequently.

59. *You will not be able to sell immediately on the Stock Exchanges any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Issue.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Emerge Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading may commence. Upon receipt of final approval from the Stock Exchanges, trading in the Equity Shares is to commence within three (03) working days of the date of closure of the Issue or such other time as may be prescribed by SEBI. SEBI pursuant to its circular bearing reference number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 has reduced the time taken for listing of specified securities after the closure of public issue to 3 working days (T+3 days) as against the previous requirement of 6 working days (T+6 days); 'T' being issue closing date. The provisions of this circular were applicable, on voluntary basis for public issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on mandatory basis for public issues opening on or after December 1, 2023. Our Company shall follow the timeline provided under the aforementioned circular.

We cannot assure that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time period prescribed by law. Further, there can be no assurance that the Equity Shares to be Allotted pursuant to this Issue will be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all.

60. *There are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Our listed Equity Shares will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed on listed companies by the Stock Exchanges, which does not allow transactions beyond certain volatility in the trading price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on the Equity Shares' circuit breaker will be set by the Stock Exchanges based on historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchanges are not required to inform our Company of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker, and they may change the limit without our knowledge. This circuit breaker would effectively limit the upward and downward movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, there can be no assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares.

61. *The price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, which could result in substantial losses for investors acquiring the Equity Shares in the Issue.

The market price of the Equity Shares may be volatile and could fluctuate significantly and rapidly in response to, among others, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- volatility in the Indian and global securities market or in the value of the Rupee relative to the U.S. Dollar, the Euro and other foreign currencies;
- our profitability and performance;
- changes in financial analysts' estimates of our performance or recommendations;
- perceptions about our future performance or the performance of Indian companies in general;
- performance of our competitors and the perception in the market about investments in the industries in which we operate;
- adverse media reports about us or the industries in which we operate;
- significant developments in India's economic liberalisation and deregulation policies;
- significant developments in India's fiscal and environmental regulations;
- economic developments in India and in other countries; and
- any other political or economic factors.

These fluctuations may be exaggerated if the trading volume of the Equity Shares is low. Volatility in the price of the Equity Shares may be unrelated or disproportionate to our results of operations. It may be difficult to assess our performance against either domestic or international benchmarks.

Indian stock exchanges, including the Stock Exchanges, have experienced substantial fluctuations in the prices of listed securities and problems such as temporary exchange closures, broker defaults, settlement delays and strikes by brokers. The governing bodies of Indian stock exchanges have also, from time to time, imposed restrictions on trading in certain securities, limitations on price movements and margin requirements. Further, disputes have occurred between listed companies, stock exchanges and other regulatory bodies, which in some cases may have had a negative effect on market sentiment. If such or similar problems were to continue or recur, they could affect the market price and liquidity of the securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

62. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity-linked securities by our Company may dilute your shareholding and any sale of Equity Shares by our Promoter or members of our Promoter Group may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by our Company may dilute your shareholding in our Company; adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and our ability to raise capital through further issue of our securities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. The disposal of Equity Shares by any of our Promoter and Promoter Group, or the perception that such sales may occur may significantly affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that our Promoter and Promoter Group will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

63. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoter or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of Equity Shares by our Promoter or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sale of Equity Shares might occur.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

64. The impact of the Russian invasion of Ukraine, the Israel-Hamas war and the Iran-Israel conflict on the global economy, energy supplies and raw materials is uncertain, but may prove to negatively impact our business and operations.

The short and long-term implications of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, the Israel-Hamas war and the Iran-Israel conflict are difficult to predict at this time. As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we have not experienced any material interruptions in our business operations in connection with these conflicts. We continue to monitor any adverse impact that the outbreak of war in Ukraine, the subsequent institution of sanctions against Russia by the United States and several European and Asian countries, and the Israel-Hamas war or the Iran-Israel conflict may have on the global economy in general, on our business and operations and on the businesses and operations of our lenders and other third parties with which we conduct business.

To the extent the wars in Ukraine or Israel or the conflict between Iran and Israel may adversely affect our business as discussed above, it may also have the effect of heightening many of the other risks described herein. Such risks include, but are not limited to, adverse effects on macroeconomic conditions, including inflation; disruptions to our global technology infrastructure, including through cyberattack, ransom attack, or cyber-intrusion; adverse changes in international trade policies and relations; disruptions in global supply chains; significant volatility in commodity prices and supply of energy resources; political and social instability; changes in consumer or purchaser preferences and constraints; volatility, or disruption in the capital markets, any of which could negatively affect our business and financial condition.

65. *Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, cash flows, prospects and results of operations

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and is subject to change. The Government of India (“GoI”) may implement new laws or other regulations and policies that could affect hyperlocal commerce in general, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain approvals and licences from the government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements. New compliance requirements could increase our costs or otherwise adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Furthermore, the manner in which new requirements will be enforced or interpreted can lead to uncertainty in our operations and could adversely affect our operations. Any changes to such laws, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

For example, the Government of India has introduced Labour Codes which consolidate, subsume, amend and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. These Labour Codes are yet to be notified by the GoI. Similarly, the Government of State of Rajasthan passed the Platform Based Gig Workers (Registration and Welfare) Act, which regulates the engagement of gig workers and aims to provide social security and other benefits to platform-based gig workers through rules which are yet to be notified. Furthermore, Parliament passed the DPDP Act to replace the existing data protection provision, as contained in Section 43A of the IT Act. The implementation of such laws can increase our employee and labour costs and data security and compliance related costs thereby adversely impacting our results of operations, cash flows, business, and financial performance. Furthermore, as we continue to grow, we will collect, store and process the personal data of more individuals. The more personal data we hold, the greater the likelihood that a significant failure in our internal controls or data security measures could result in a data breach affecting more individuals, which could expose us to greater potential liability through fines and compensation claims, significant reputational harm and a loss of trust that could deter users from using our platform. Unfavourable changes in the applicability, implementation, or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. For example, our business operations are subject to Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Rules, 2019 and Consolidated Foreign Direct Investment Policy of 2020 (“FEMA Laws”) relating to e-commerce marketplaces that are constantly evolving. Furthermore, the RBI or the GoI may add to or modify the FEMA Laws applicable to the ecommerce marketplace businesses as they have done in the past from time to time. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with new requirements under any laws applicable to us, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. Additionally, if we are affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of such laws and regulations or any related proceedings or are required to bear any costs to comply with such provisions or to defend such proceedings, our business and financial performance may be adversely affected.

66. *We may be affected by competition law in India and any adverse application or interpretation of the Competition Act could in turn adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act was enacted for the purpose of preventing practices that have or are likely to have an adverse effect on competition in India and has mandated the Competition Commission of India to regulate such practices.

Under the Competition Act, any arrangement, understanding or action, whether formal or informal, which causes or is likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition is void and attracts substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which, directly or indirectly, involves determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, or shares the market by way of geographical area or number of subscribers in the relevant market is presumed to have an appreciable adverse effect in the relevant market in India and shall be void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. The Competition Commission of India (Procedure in regard to the transaction of business relating to combinations) Regulations (“Combination Regulations”) require acquisitions of shares, voting rights, assets or control or mergers or amalgamations that cross the prescribed asset and turnover based thresholds to be mandatorily notified to, and pre-approved by, the Competition Commission of India. The Competition Act aims to, among other things, prohibit all agreements and transactions which may have an appreciable adverse effect in India. Consequently, all agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the Competition Commission of India has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside of India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an appreciable adverse effect in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. We do not have any outstanding notices in relation to noncompliance with the Competition Act or the agreements entered into by us.

The Government of India has also passed the Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023 on April 11, 2023, which has made several amendments to the Competition Act. These amendments include the introduction of deal value thresholds for assessing whether a merger or acquisition qualifies as a "combination", expedited merger review timelines, codification of the lowest standard of control" and enhanced penalties for providing false information or a failure to provide material information. Such amendment to the Competition Act will result in additional costs for compliance, which in turn may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

67. *Political instability or adverse changes in India’s economic liberalisation and deregulation policies could harm our business and financial condition.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting the information technology sector, foreign investment and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. Any significant change in such liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India, generally, and our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations, in particular.

68. *A slowdown in economic growth in India or global economic instability could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We are dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operations are affected by factors influencing the Indian economy, as well as the economies of the regional markets in which we operate. Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on India. For instance, the confluence of pandemic-induced shutdowns, compounded by supply chain intricacies and the Russia-Ukraine conflict, has resulted in significant disruptions in energy and food markets, sparking a substantial inflationary surge and exacerbating a cost-of-living crisis. In case we are not able to react to adverse economic developments, sector specific conditions and cyclical trends in a flexible and appropriate way, business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations could be adversely affected. Trade barriers and the recent imposition of tariffs by the US can also impact the overall economy and the sentiments in the markets leading to unpredictable outcomes which can have a serious impact on our performance and our results of operation

69. *The market price of our Equity Shares may be subject to volatility on account of factors beyond our control. Indian securities markets have historically experienced significant fluctuations.

Indian securities markets, including the exchange on which our Equity Shares will be listed, have in the past experienced significant fluctuations in the prices and volumes of listed securities. The market price of our Equity Shares may be influenced by factors that are beyond our control, including macroeconomic and market conditions, changes in government policy or regulation, sector specific news, analyst coverage, investor sentiment, and fluctuations in the prices of equity securities of comparable companies. Any such fluctuation could result in a decline in the market price of our Equity Shares and adversely affect investors’ returns.

70. *Any downgrading of India's sovereign credit rating by an international credit rating agency may adversely affect our ability to raise financing on commercially acceptable terms.

India's sovereign credit rating affects the overall cost and availability of financing for Indian companies. Any adverse revision to India's credit ratings for domestic or international debt by international rating agencies could increase the cost of external financing and limit its availability. This could have an adverse effect on our business, future financial performance, and our ability to raise capital in the future, as well as adversely affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

71. *Inflation in India may increase our operating costs and adversely affect our profitability.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue. Increased inflation may result in higher costs for study materials, faculty remuneration, real estate and lease rentals, technology infrastructure, and other operating inputs. Any significant increase in inflation could increase our expenses in a manner that we may not be able to fully offset through increases in the fees charged to our students, given the highly competitive and price sensitive nature of the test preparation market. Such a scenario could adversely affect our margins, business, cash flows, and financial condition.

72. *Acts of terrorism, civil unrest, or other events beyond our control could adversely affect the Indian economy and our business.

Events such as terrorist attacks, acts of civil unrest, armed conflict, or other catastrophic events within India or in the broader region could adversely affect the Indian economy, disrupt financial markets, and create uncertainty that affects business sentiment and consumer spending. Any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and the market price of our Equity Shares.

73. *Natural calamities could adversely affect the Indian economy and have a negative impact on our business.

India is susceptible to natural calamities including earthquakes, floods, droughts, and cyclones. Any such event particularly in the geographic regions where we operate could adversely affect local infrastructure, the ability of students to attend our centers, and the general economic environment in which we operate. The extent and severity of natural disasters determine their impact on the economy, and any prolonged disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

74. *Future issuances or sales of Equity Shares by our Promoters could dilute your shareholding or adversely affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

The future issuance of Equity Shares by us, or the disposal of Equity Shares by any of our Promoters or major shareholders, or the perception that any such issuance or sale may occur, could lead to the dilution of your shareholding in our Company or significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Any such sales could also impair our ability to raise additional capital through future equity offerings. We cannot provide any assurance that our Promoters will not dispose of, pledge, or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

75. *The requirements of being a listed company may place significant demands on our management resources and increase our compliance costs.

We are currently an unlisted company and have not historically been subject to the heightened scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators, and the general public that is associated with a listed entity. Following the completion of the Issue, we will be subject to the provisions of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and the listing agreements to be executed with the designated Stock Exchange, which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly financial information, maintain adequate disclosure controls, and ensure ongoing compliance with corporate governance norms. Meeting these obligations will require significant legal, accounting, and regulatory resources that we have not historically been required to maintain. Failure to comply with any such requirements in a timely manner could expose us to regulatory action and adversely affect our reputation and business operations.

76. *Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of Equity Shares.

Under the current Indian tax laws and regulations, capital gains arising from the sale of Equity Shares of an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Long-term capital gains exceeding ₹1,25,000 arising from the sale of listed Equity Shares on the stock exchange are currently subject to tax at the rate of 12.5% (plus applicable surcharge and cess). Short-term capital gains arising from the sale of such Equity Shares on a recognised stock exchange are currently subject to tax at the rate of 15% (plus applicable surcharge and cess). Any future amendments to the applicable provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 including changes to applicable rates, exemption thresholds, or the securities transaction tax framework could adversely affect the returns available to investors from the sale of our Equity Shares.

77. *There is no monitoring agency appointed to oversee the utilisation of the Net Proceeds of the Issue, and the deployment of funds is at the discretion of our management subject to oversight by the Audit Committee.

As per Regulation 262(1) of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018 as amended, appointment of monitoring agency is required only if Issue size, exceeds ₹ 5,000 Lakhs. As the Issue Size of our Company is below this threshold, we have not appointed a monitoring agency. Accordingly, the deployment of the Net Proceeds of the Issue will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and management, subject to monitoring by the Audit Committee of our Board. Our Company will, however, inform the designated Stock Exchange about material deviations in the utilisation of Issue Proceeds and shall simultaneously make such material deviations / adverse observations of the Audit Committee available to the public in accordance with applicable SEBI circulars. The absence of an independent monitoring agency means that investors will rely on the oversight of our Audit Committee for the proper utilisation of Issue Proceeds.

78. *The schedule for deployment of Net Proceeds is subject to management estimates and inherent uncertainties. Actual deployment may differ from the schedule disclosed in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The fund requirements and deployment schedule set out in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on internal management estimates and our current business plan, and have not been independently appraised by any bank or financial institution. These estimates are subject to revision in light of changes in external circumstances, cost variations, exchange rate fluctuations, or changes in our business strategy. In view of the dynamic nature of our sector and the business environment in which we operate, we may be required to revise our expenditure estimates and rescheduled deployment of Net Proceeds at the discretion of our management. Any such revision could result in the Net Proceeds being deployed in a manner or over a timeline that is different from what is currently contemplated, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 91 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

79. *Investors outside India may face restrictions on enforcing foreign judgments against our Company or its management.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India. All Directors and senior management of our Company, as well as a substantial portion of our assets, are located in India. Accordingly, it may not be possible for prospective investors located outside India to effect service of process on our Company or such persons in non Indian jurisdictions, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties in foreign courts in India. Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is governed by Sections 13 and 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, which provide for enforcement of monetary decrees of courts in reciprocating territories only. India has reciprocal recognition arrangements with a limited number of jurisdictions, and judgments from nonreciprocating jurisdictions including the United States cannot be directly enforced by execution proceedings in Indian courts. Any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India may need to initiate fresh civil proceedings before a competent Indian court within the applicable limitation period. Furthermore, Indian courts may decline to award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if the quantum is considered excessive or inconsistent with Indian public policy.

80. *Anti-takeover provisions under Indian law could prevent or deter a third-party entity from acquiring us.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company, even if a change of control would result in the purchase of your Equity Shares at a premium to the market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our Shareholders. Under the Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors / shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Issue. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of SEBI Takeover Regulations.

Our Company’s capability in developing technology and academic solutions

The nature of our industry requires heavy investment in primarily three types of assets – Proprietary Technology Platform, Academic Content and now AI capabilities. Our company has a successful track record of building technology and academic solutions for both B2B (Business to Business) and B2C (Business to Consumer) domains. Our solutions offer an integrated approach combining technology and academics.

Over the last decade we have invested in building many intangible assets and successfully monetized such assets. These intangible assets are fundamental to our business model as they have helped us create solutions for various purposes in education domain catering to Schools, Colleges and competitive exams. Here are some significant intangible assets we have created over the last decade:

- i) Website “hitbullseye.com”: Our website has 1000’s of web pages developed by our team of content writers and designers and worked upon by technology and SEO (Search Engine Optimization) teams. Our website hosts both academic and informational resources free of cost for students across multiple competitive exams. The quality and relevance of content has allowed us to build significant traffic on our website with highest user base of 99+ lakhs in calendar year 2020. We were ranked No. 1 website in Education domain by Alexa, an Amazon company in 2019.

Image of Google Analytics (2020 Data)

Image of Google Analytics (2025 Data)

We have successfully monetised this traffic in our business verticals of - Test Preparation for Competitive Exams, Colleges Branding and Marketing services.

With the help of our website traffic, we have been able to on board prestigious customers for our B2B Colleges Branding and Marketing services include top institutions like Great Lakes Institute of Management Chennai, Institute of Management Nirma University, SDM Institute for Management Development, Goa Institute of Management, Birla Institute of Management Technology (Bimtech) and the ICFAI Foundation for Higher Education among others..

Future website traffic growth strategy: Today, our website broadly has two types of pages – pure informational and academic information. Such pages typically require continuous updates and SEO efforts. However, with the rise of AI, websites globally are experiencing declining traffic as users increasingly rely on AI-generated answers.

We have a database of over 440,000 academic questions and we plan to automatically generate academic pages such as CBSE solved papers and NCERT exercise solutions using our technology platform. These AI-readable pages face relatively low competition, require minimal long-term updates, and will help drive exponential growth in traffic. Since these are pure academic content pages, AI models are unlikely to generate complete, detailed solutions and long-form academic answers directly. Instead, they are more likely to reference and cite authoritative source websites. This creates an opportunity for our platform to become a trusted academic source that is frequently mentioned and linked by AI-powered search and answer engines.

The traffic growth will be a big boost for our B2C Test Prep business and B2B College Branding and Marketing Services business.

- ii) Academic Content: Our company has developed a comprehensive academic material database of 4,40,000+ question bank, 22600+ videos and 7700+ ebooks along with physical text books for competitive exams and also “text books for CUET in association with S. In light of our previous successes in development of technology and academic solutions, and our ability to create and monetize intangible assets, we are looking forward to develop more such solutions to propel our growth. This has become even more necessary with the advent of Artificial Intelligence (AI) as there are multiple new opportunities which are being created in educational ecosystem. Some of these envisaged solutions in education domain were nearly impossible without AI but are now not only possible but financially viable. On the existing solutions front, it has become imperative to bring updates to keep pace with changing times because of advancement in technology and rise of AI powered solution.

We need to further invest in latest technology and academic content to ensure we remain relevant with changing education landscape while exploring new business avenues for a sustainable growth and profitability. AI is now becoming integral to any education solution from both B2B and B2C perspective and hence we need to be ahead on the curve. AI in education offers personalized learning experiences, streamlines administrative tasks, and provides data-driven insights for improved teaching.

Contextual Understanding for New AI powered Solutions envisaged for propelling future growth of the company

Leveraging our long-standing relationships with large universities and colleges, we have identified two key problem areas that present significant new business opportunities.

First business opportunity is the student attendance and academic operations management at colleges. Surprisingly most colleges are still marking attendance manually in their ERP software. The lack of automation is eating into valuable lecture time as it is widely considered that almost 10-15% of lecture time (assuming typical lecture time of 40-45 mins) is spent in taking manual attendance in classrooms. Given the magnitude of the problem, we started working on an AI powered automation solution to solve this critical problem and we have already developed technology Proof of Concept for the same using combination of multiple technological interventions.

Second business opportunity is in exams and assessment monitoring space., With advent of AI, the usage of multiple AI tools has further aggravated the problem of cheating with students using such tools to solve their assignments or even mid/annual exams. This means that the teachers do not have correct data to and hence are unable to manage student's academic interference. We have conceptualized an AI powered solution to solve this problem and restore academic integrity with emphasis on affordability. We have already developed technology Proof of Concept for the solution.

In light of the above, we propose investment in following Objects:

DETAILS OF THE OBJECTS OF THE ISSUE

1. Investment on development of AI powered Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution

The Company proposes to utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds towards the development of an AI-powered Attendance and Academic Operations Management Platform for educational institutions. After extensive engagement with multiple colleges and universities, the Company has identified significant inefficiencies in managing attendance, student records, faculty coordination, and institutional reporting. These functions are currently resource-intensive, rely heavily on manual processes, and are prone to errors. The proposed solution aims to digitally streamline these processes, reduce administrative overheads, and improve accuracy, thereby enabling institutions to focus on academic excellence. Educational institutions are increasingly adopting technology solutions to streamline academic administration, student management, attendance monitoring, faculty coordination and institutional reporting. The growing emphasis on digital learning ecosystems and data-driven decision-making has further increased the demand for integrated attendance and operations solutions.

For example in a university where around 40,000 students are studying. On an average if a student attends average 4 lectures a day, then 1.6 lakh attendance records is generated daily. For such a university around 2500-3000 lectures are delivered daily by faculty. Today most of this data is either recorded manually or is partially digitized. Surprisingly most colleges are still marking attendance manually in their ERP software. The lack of automation is eating into valuable lecture time as it is widely considered that almost 10-15% of lecture time (assuming typical lecture time of 40-45 mins) is spent in taking manual attendance in classrooms. When translated into economic value of teachers man-hours is equivalent of at least ~ ₹ 300 lakhs annually per campus of 40,000 odd students.

Given the magnitude of the problem, we started working on an AI powered automation solution to solve this critical problem and we have already developed technology Proof of Concept for the same. We intend to develop a technology platform designed to support various academic and administrative functions through a centralized end to end digital environment. The proposed platform is expected to assist educational institutions in managing academic structures, student and faculty records, attendance processes, academic workflows, institutional reporting and related operational activities.

The proposed platform is expected to include technology-enabled attendance & academic operations management including AI-enabled automation, workflow optimization, analytical dashboards, and reporting functionalities. The solution will also feature attendance verification, student engagement, academic monitoring, and administrative support modules, providing a robust and scalable framework suitable for institutions of varying sizes.

All intellectual property developed specifically for the platform will be owned by our Company, ensuring complete control over the technology. The Software Requirements Specification (SRS) finalized with the development partner defines the scope, deliverables, development timelines, and maintenance commitments. The engagement of a specialized technology partner will provide the Company access to technical expertise, support timely development, and facilitate the deployment of a technology-led solution that aligns with the Company's growth strategy.

The proposed platform is expected to strengthen the Company's ability to offer integrated, scalable technology solutions, support the digital transformation of educational institutions, and serve as a foundation for additional offerings such as aptitude programs, technical training, and other value-added educational services. The investment will not only enhance operational efficiency for client institutions but also create avenues for customer acquisition, retention, platform adoption, and long-term growth opportunities, consistent with the Company's strategic objectives as outlined in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Key Highlights of the Proposed Solution

- Centralized digital platform for all academic administrative operations: All academic administrative tasks, from attendance to faculty coordination, will be managed in one place. This reduces duplication, simplifies workflow, and provides a single source of truth for all institutional data.
- AI-powered automation to reduce manual processes and errors: Routine processes like attendance tracking, notifications, and reporting will be automated using AI. This minimizes human errors, saves time, and allows staff to focus on more critical academic activities.
- Real-time attendance tracking with verification for college administration and parents: The system will record attendance instantly for each class and verify it automatically. Institutions can ensure accurate records, prevent proxy attendance, and quickly generate reports for administrators and regulators.
- Analytics dashboards for institutional insights and reporting: Visual dashboards will provide actionable insights into student performance, faculty workload, and operational efficiency. Decision-makers can quickly identify trends, address issues, and plan improvements effectively.
- Student engagement, feedback and academic monitoring features: The platform will include tools for tracking student participation, engagement, feedback and progress. This helps educators identify struggling students early and implement timely interventions to improve learning outcomes.

- Scalable architecture capable of supporting large institutions: The system is designed to handle tens of thousands of students, thousands of classes, and multiple campuses. It ensures performance and reliability even as the institution grows.
- Integration-ready modules to work with existing systems: The platform can connect with existing student management systems, learning management systems, and other institutional software. This allows a smooth transition without disrupting current operations.

The Company intends to engage a third-party technology development partner for the design, development, testing and implementation of the proposed platform. The selected technology partner will develop the software solution in accordance with the functional and technical requirements prescribed by our Company. The scope of work is expected to include software development, artificial intelligence integration, testing, deployment and post-implementation support.

The Company has finalized a Software Requirements Specification document with the selected technology partner setting out the scope of services, development timelines, payment milestones, performance obligations, confidentiality requirements, intellectual property ownership provisions and maintenance and support commitments. The engagement of a specialized technology partner is expected to provide access to technical expertise, facilitate timely development and deployment of the proposed platform and support the Company's technology-led growth initiatives.

The Company will retain all intellectual property rights relating to the AI powered Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution through an appropriate contractual arrangements to be entered into with the selected service provider. The Company will retain overall ownership, editorial control and commercialization rights in respect of the content assets developed under the proposed initiative.

Our Company intends to deploy an amount aggregating to ₹ 348.00 Lakhs from the Net Proceeds for the above development work.

Expected Benefits to the company from Investment in AI-powered Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution

The development of the AI-powered Attendance and Academic Operations Management Solution is expected to create multiple business advantages for the company. By offering this solution to existing partner colleges, the company can cross-sell additional services, such as aptitude programs, technical training, and other academic support modules. Furthermore, the platform can serve as an entry point into new institutions, helping our Company to establish relationships and demonstrate its technological capabilities. This not only strengthens customer acquisition and retention but also opens doors for other revenue-generating opportunities across educational services. The centralized, AI-powered platform, combined with its analytics and automation features, positions the company to deliver tangible value to institutions while creating a scalable foundation for long-term growth and expansion into complementary offerings.

2. Investment on development of AI-powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity

The Company proposes to utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds for the development of an “AI-powered Proctoring Solution”, an application-based platform designed to ensure academic integrity in educational institutions, certification bodies, and assessment providers. With the growing adoption of digital learning environments, online assessments, and remote examinations, traditional manual supervision has become insufficient. Institutions face challenges in scaling examination oversight, preventing impersonation, and maintaining fair and secure assessments. With advent of AI, the usage of AI tools like Chatgpt has further aggravated the problem of cheating with students using such tools to solve their assignments or even mid/annual exams. This means that the teachers do not have correct data to and hence are unable to manage student’s academic interference.

We have worked on AI powered solution to solve this problem and restore academic integrity. Our solution is in development stage with technology Proof of Concept available. The proposed solution leverages machine learning, computer vision, and analytics to provide real-time monitoring, automated alerts, and post-exam verification, thereby preserving the credibility and integrity of assessment outcomes.

The solution is designed to support the end-to-end examination lifecycle, including candidate verification, live and recorded monitoring, incident management, review workflows, reporting, and audit capabilities. By automating supervision, the solution reduces dependency on human resources, improves operational efficiency, and allows institutions to manage large-scale examinations seamlessly across multiple locations and formats. The solution will provide administrators with enhanced visibility into examination activities and outcomes, enabling better governance and compliance.

In addition to examination oversight, the solution will feature AI-enabled monitoring, workflow automation, analytics, and reporting functionalities, as well as multiple modes of supervision, including live monitoring, recorded review, and AI-assisted oversight. Structured data and dashboards will allow institutions to identify trends, assess performance, and maintain audit-ready records. These capabilities facilitate data-driven decision-making, strengthen examination governance, and help institutions uphold high standards of transparency and accountability.

The proposed investment is expected to position our Company as a leading technology partner in the education sector, providing a scalable solution that meets evolving institutional requirements. The AI-powered platform will support long-term growth by expanding our Company's technology offerings, enhancing customer adoption, and creating opportunities to offer complementary services, while addressing the increasing demand for secure, efficient, and reliable digital assessment solutions.

Key Highlights of the Proposed Solution includes:

- Application based Solution: App-based AI-powered proctoring offers higher security, reliable device control, and better AI performance than web-based systems. It ensures real-time monitoring, reduces cheating risks, and works smoothly even in low-bandwidth conditions. This enhances user experience and supports scalable, secure, personalized assessments.
- AI-Enabled Candidate Verification: The platform verifies student identity using facial recognition, biometrics, and behavioral patterns. This prevents impersonation and fraud while ensuring a secure, tamper-proof examination process.
- Live and Recorded Monitoring: Provides continuous real-time supervision during exams and also records sessions for post-exam review. This enables institutions to conduct large-scale assessments efficiently while maintaining audit trails for compliance purposes.
- Automated Incident Detection and Alerts: AI algorithms automatically detect suspicious activity, such as unusual movements or multiple logins, and generate immediate alerts. Administrators can respond promptly, ensuring examination integrity and reducing the need for manual monitoring.

4. Funding Working Capital Requirements

The Company proposes to utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds towards meeting its working capital requirements.

We are a “Technology led” “Academic Content” and “Academic Trainers” driven education company which is using Artificial Intelligence to develop solutions across academic and operational needs of institutions. Our company focuses on delivering a wide range of tech-driven educational solutions for colleges, entrance exam aspirants and schools. Our operations are diversified across the following key business verticals:

1. Technology led education solutions for Colleges and Schools - B2B (Business to Business)
2. Test Preparation and Text Books for Competitive Exams (Both online and offline) - B2C (Business to Consumer)
3. Colleges Branding and Marketing services - B2B (Business to Business)

In line with our Company’s strategy to expand into B2B segment, we have focused on the B2B clients during the last 3 years. As a results of the same our Company’s B2B business constitutes approx. 73% of the revenue from operations as on Dec 31, 2025 up from approx. 50% 3 years back. Over the last few fiscal years, the Company has experienced growth in its institutional and business-to-business (“B2B”) customer relationships. This has resulted in an increase in the scale of services delivered to educational institutions, corporate clients and other organizations. While such customer relationships contribute to revenue growth and business visibility, they are generally associated with contractual payment cycles and credit periods that may extend beyond the timing of service delivery. As our Company continues to expand its institutional customer base, the resulting increase in receivables and operating commitments is expected to place additional demands on working capital.

We are in the process of development of (1). AI powered Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution; (2). AI powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity; and (3). Academic Content for AI powered Educational Content Delivery Engine for Schools. The investment in these future products will enable our Company to offer these solutions to existing B2B customers as well as acquire new institutions with opportunities for cross-selling of complementary services. This will be a strong growth driver for our Company in the next 3 financial year. The acquisition of new B2B customers with contractual payment cycles generally demands higher credit periods that may extend beyond the timing of service delivery. As our Company continues to expand its institutional customer base, the resulting increase in receivables and operating commitments is expected to place additional demands on working capital.

Further, with the development of new products specially designed to provide solution to our B2B customers, we target to expand our B2B revenue from existing 73% contribution to over 80% in the next 3 financial years.

Further, our focus has been in North India as we have built sustainable relationships over the years. However, we see lot of value in expansion of our sales team to West and South India given the presence of many CS and IT engineering colleges in these regions. We have already hired an executive in Pune and have opened up West with important breakthrough in form of one large campus along with several other names in Pune. We are targeting similar success in South with hiring plans for Hyderabad, Bangalore and Chennai. The expansion into the said region also requires adequate working capital to support operations in the newly added regions.

To support the future growth strategy, our Company requires adequate working capital to support ongoing operations, service existing customers, onboard new institutional clients, execute growth initiatives and maintain service delivery standards. As the Company's operations continue to expand, particularly within its institutional and enterprise-focused business segments, the Company expects its working capital requirements to increase correspondingly.

Accordingly, the Company expects an increase in its overall working capital requirements to support its growth strategy, expanded product portfolio and anticipated growth in business operations.

Key parameters influencing our working capital requirements include the growth in revenue from operations, % of net working capital to revenue from operations are shown below:

(₹ in Lakhs except for percentage)

Particulars	December 31, 2025	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Revenue from Operations	1,456.19	1,739.99	1,418.45	1,011.80
Net Working Capital	291.70	155.56	126.99	-71.06
Percentage of net working capital to revenue from Operations (%)	20.03%	8.94%	8.95%	-7.02%
Growth in revenue from Operations (%)	-	22.67%	40.19%	114.97%

In order to effectively launch new product, offer new solutions to existing B2B customers as well as acquire new institutions with opportunities for cross-selling of complementary services, expand in other geographies in India, to cater to our increasing clientele and to support our future business plan, we need to have access to a larger amount of liquid funds and sufficient working capital. To attract and retain customer bases and as per market practice, we also plan to provide substantial credit period from our billing cycle and likewise substantial amounts of our funds are required for the working capital assets we would hold particularly debtors. With the smooth flow of funds in our business and healthy financial position, we will be able to pursue a broader range of customers and therefore maximize our business volume and profit margins.

Our Company proposes to utilize ₹1,100.00 lakhs of the Net Proceeds for our working capital requirements with 50%, i.e. ₹550 Lakhs, utilisation in FY2027 and balance of 50%, i.e. ₹550 Lakhs, in FY2028.

The planned utilization, implementation schedule and funding requirements would be at the discretion of our management, subject to compliance with the applicable laws. Subject to applicable laws, in the event of any increase in the actual utilisation of funds earmarked for the purposes set forth above, such additional funds may be financed by surplus funds including from internal accruals and any additional equity and/or debt arrangements from existing and future lenders, subject to compliance with applicable law.

The actual and proposed working capital requirements, as approved by the Board pursuant to a resolution dated June 8, 2026 and key assumptions with respect to the determination of the same are mentioned below. Our Company's existing working capital requirements are based on audited standalone restated financial statements for the period ended December 31, 2025 and for the financial years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, Estimated FY2026, Projected FY2027 and Projected FY2028, the proposed funding of such working capital requirement are as set out in the table below:

Justification for holding levels

Particulars	Justification
Trade Receivables	Trade receivables days is calculated as trade receivables as on balance sheet date divided by revenue from operations over 365 days for the financial years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 and trade receivables as on balance sheet date divided by revenue from operations over 275 days for the period ended December 31, 2025. Rationale for Trade Receivables Turnover Time: The Company's credit terms vary across geographies and types of customers. Historically, the Debtors Holding Days were 27 days, 40 days, 56 days and 110 days in FY2023, FY2024 and FY2025, respectively, and for the period ended December 31, 2025 were 110 days. The increase in receivable days in FY2025 was on account of the Company's focus on Business To Business Segment which typically has longer credit terms compared to the Business to Customer business. The increase in receivable days indicates that the Company is prioritizing customer acquisition and sales growth by offering longer credit periods to its customers. Going forward, the Company expects Debtors Holding Days to stabilize at around 94 days in FY2026, 116 days in FY2027 and 122 in FY2028. With the new products launch, the Company will focus on acquisition of new customers and cross selling of same to existing customers thereby requiring higher credit period. We mainly sell our products to educational institutions which requires higher payment cycle when it comes to selling new products. This will lead to higher trade receivables days. Hence, working capital is necessary to bridge this cash flow gap.

Particulars	Justification
	Our trade receivable days for increased from 40 days in FY2024 to 110 days for the nine-months period ended December 31, 2025. This was due to our Company's strategy to expand into B2B segment during the last 3 years. As a results of the same our Company's B2B business constitutes approx. 73% of the revenue from operations as on Dec 31, 2025 up from approx. 50% 3 years back. Our Company will continue to focus on the B2B business expansion. Over the last few fiscal years, the Company has experienced growth in its institutional and business-to-business ("B2B") customer relationships. With the current trends in business, we have conservatively estimated trade receivable days as 116 days in Fiscal 2027 and 122 days Fiscal 2028.
Trade Payables	The Company had a creditors' payment cycle of 3 days and 1 days in FY2024 and FY2025, respectively. And for the period ended December 31, 2025, the same were 5 days. In FY2023, we had 89 days of trade payables. Going forward, the Company expects creditor days to increase to around 8 days in FY2026 and 4 days in FY2027, primarily due to the nature of industry.

The proposed infusion of working capital is intended to strengthen the Company's liquidity position and provide the financial flexibility necessary to support the growth of its institutional business. Adequate working capital will enable the Company to continue investing in technology infrastructure, content development, employee costs, customer support, sales and marketing initiatives and other operational activities required to service existing customers and acquire new clients.

The Company believes that maintaining sufficient working capital is essential to support uninterrupted business operations and timely execution of customer engagements. The availability of working capital is particularly important in managing the timing difference between the incurrence of operating expenses and the realization of customer payments, especially as the Company expands its relationships with larger institutional customers and enterprise clients.

The Company believes that the proposed utilization of Net Proceeds towards working capital requirements will contribute to operational efficiency, financial stability and sustainable growth while supporting the continued expansion of its institutional and enterprise-focused business activities.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Overview of the Global Economy

The global economy is navigating a period of renewed uncertainty as we move through 2026, with resilience built over the post-pandemic years now being tested by fresh geopolitical shocks. The outbreak of conflict in the Middle East at the end of February 2026 has emerged as a significant disruptive force, compounding an already complex global environment shaped by elevated trade policy uncertainty, geoeconomic fragmentation, and structural headwinds.

Global headline inflation, which had been on a steady downward trajectory, is now projected to pause its decline and rise to 4.4% in 2026, up from 4.1% in 2025, driven primarily by higher energy and food prices stemming from Middle East supply disruptions. The IMF notes this represents an upward revision of 0.7 percentage points relative to its October 2025 projections. Inflation is expected to resume its decline thereafter, easing to 3.7% in 2027, as the effects of the supply shock fade. The disinflation trajectory is diverging across economies: advanced economies continue to move toward their pre-pandemic inflation targets, while emerging markets face more persistent price pressures, particularly those that are net commodity importers.

Global economic growth is projected at 3.1% in 2026 under the IMF's reference forecast — a downward revision of 0.2 percentage points from January 2026 projections — and is expected to recover modestly to 3.2% in 2027. This remains below the historical (2000–19) average of 3.7% and represents a deceleration from the 3.4% pace achieved in 2024–25. The IMF notes that absent the Middle East conflict, global growth would have been revised upward to approximately 3.4% for 2026, reflecting underlying tailwinds from technology-related investment, partial easing of trade tensions, and accommodative financial conditions.

Source: IMF staff estimates.

Advanced economies are expected to grow at a subdued 1.8% in 2026, reflecting the ongoing drag from elevated debt levels, tighter fiscal positions, and the pass-through of earlier monetary tightening. The Euro Area is forecast to grow at 1.1% in 2026, with Germany seeing a modest pickup to 0.8% supported by a significant ramp-up in infrastructure and defense spending. The United States is projected to grow at 2.3% in 2026, supported by technology investment and fiscal measures, though accompanied by below-trend employment growth.

Emerging market and developing economies are projected to grow at 3.9% in 2026, a moderation from 4.4% in 2025, with the downward revision of 0.3 percentage points relative to January 2026 projections being more pronounced than for advanced economies. India remains one of the fastest-growing major economies at 6.5%, while China's growth is forecast at 4.4%, as strong exports continue to offset weak domestic demand, particularly in the housing sector. Sub-Saharan Africa is projected to grow at 4.3%, and the Middle East and Central Asia at 1.9% — the latter severely impacted by the regional conflict. Regional disparities remain stark, with commodity-importing economies and those with pre-existing fiscal vulnerabilities facing significantly higher headwinds.

Downside risks dominate the outlook. The Middle East conflict introduces multiple transmission channels — higher commodity prices, second-round effects on inflation expectations, and financial market risk-off sentiment — all of which could amplify the shock considerably. Under an adverse scenario, global growth could slow to 2.5% in 2026 with inflation reaching 5.4%. A severe scenario, involving more sustained energy market dislocations and de-anchoring of inflation expectations, could push global growth to approximately 2% with headline inflation approaching 6%. Beyond the immediate conflict, additional risks include a potential re-escalation of trade tensions, reevaluation of AI-related investment expectations, fiscal sustainability concerns — particularly in advanced economies with eroded buffers — and structural challenges from geoeconomic fragmentation. Upside potential exists if AI adoption translates into strong productivity gains and if trade tensions see sustained de-escalation, but these remain contingent on conducive policy environments.

Overview of the Indian Economy

India's economy has maintained strong growth momentum amid a challenging global environment, with real GDP estimated to grow at 7.4% in FY26 according to the First Advance Estimates released by MoSPI — surpassing earlier projections and reaffirming India's position as the fastest-growing major economy for the fourth consecutive year. Growth continued to be anchored by domestic demand, with private final consumption expenditure (PFCE) rising to 61.5% of GDP, the highest share since FY12. Gross fixed capital formation (GFCF) expanded by 7.6% in H1 FY26, remaining well above the pre-pandemic average, supported by sustained public capital expenditure and a revival in private investment announcements.

On the supply side, industry expanded by 6.2% in FY26, led by manufacturing growth of 7.0%, with capacity utilisation remaining above its long-run average. Services, the dominant contributor to GVA, accelerated to 9.1% in FY26 from 7.2% in FY25, with all sub-segments growing above 9%, supported by resilient domestic demand and steady export activity. Agriculture and allied activities grew by 3.1%, underpinned by a favourable monsoon and progressing rabi sowing, providing a stabilising force for rural demand and farm incomes.

Inflation dynamics in FY26 have been notably benign. Headline CPI declined to 1.7% (April–December 2025), driven primarily by a sharp disinflation in food prices, particularly vegetables and pulses, supported by favourable farm conditions and supply-side interventions. Core inflation, while exhibiting some persistence due to price spikes in precious metals, remained materially softer when adjusted for these. The broader inflation outlook remains benign, aided by GST rate rationalisation and favourable supply-side conditions.

Fiscal policy continued to combine consolidation with sustained public investment, earning three sovereign rating upgrades during FY26. Effective capital expenditure as a share of GDP rose to 4.0%, while the central government remained on track to meet its fiscal deficit target of 4.4% of GDP for FY26. Markets acknowledged this fiscal credibility through lower sovereign bond yields, with the spread over US bonds declining by more than half. S&P Ratings upgraded India from 'BBB-' to 'BBB', and CareEdge Global assigned an inaugural 'BBB+' rating. Monetary policy complemented this stance with a cumulative 125 basis point reduction in the repo rate since February 2025, with effective transmission bringing gross NPA ratios to multi-decade lows of 2.2%.

India's external sector remained broadly stable. Total exports of merchandise and services reached a record USD 825.3 billion in FY25, with continued momentum in FY26. Despite heightened US tariffs, merchandise exports grew 2.4% and services exports by 6.5% in April–December 2025. The current account deficit remained moderate at 0.8% of GDP in H1 FY26, supported by a growing services trade surplus and resilient remittance inflows. Gross FDI inflows rose 16.1% YoY in April–November 2025, and foreign exchange reserves provided cover for over 11 months of imports as of January 2026.

Labour market conditions improved steadily, with the unemployment rate declining to 4.9% by Q3 FY26 and the labour force participation rate rising to 55.8%. Formalisation of employment continued apace, with EPFO monthly net additions running at three times FY19 levels. The notification of Labour Codes marked a significant regulatory milestone, simplifying compliance and extending social security coverage to gig and platform workers.

Looking ahead, the Economic Survey projects real GDP growth for FY27 in the range of 6.8–7.2%, supported by stronger domestic demand, improving private investment intentions, ongoing trade negotiations with key partners, and the cumulative impact of structural reforms. Importantly, the Survey concludes that India's medium-term growth potential has strengthened to 7%, underpinned by higher capital stock growth, rising labour participation, and improving total factor productivity driven by digital public infrastructure and allocative efficiency gains. While global uncertainties — including geopolitical tensions, trade fragmentation, and commodity price volatility — pose external headwinds, India's macroeconomic stability, healthy balance sheets across households, firms and banks, and a reform-oriented policy environment position the economy well to sustain its growth trajectory.

Indian Education System: A Comprehensive Overview

India's large English-speaking population is one of its most significant competitive advantages in the global education market. This linguistic capability facilitates the easy delivery of educational products and services, making India an attractive destination for educational ventures. In the English Proficiency Index, 2025, India was ranked 74th out of 111 countries, underscoring the country's strong command of the language. This proficiency is reflected in the global recognition of Indian educational institutions. Nine Indian institutes, including the IISc in Bengaluru and eight IITs, were ranked among the top 500 universities in the QS World University Rankings 2025. These rankings highlight the quality of education and research capabilities present in India, further enhancing its reputation on the global stage.

India, with the largest population in the 5-24 age bracket—comprising 580 million people—presents a tremendous opportunity for the education sector. The country has over 250 million school-going students, more than any other nation. However, there exists a significant demand-supply gap in the education system, with an additional requirement of 200,000 schools, 35,000 colleges, 700 universities, and 40 million seats in vocational training centers.

The "Study in India" (SII) program aims to attract more than half a million foreign students for higher education in India by 2047. As of 2025, India's K-12 education segment was valued at US$ 48.9 billion and is expected to grow at a rate of 10.7%, projected to reach an impressive US$ 125.8 billion by 2032. India's education market is projected to reach US$ 225 billion by FY25. Between April 2000 and March 2024, Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) equity inflows in the education sector totaled US$ 9.51 billion.

The edtech sector has seen significant growth, attracting over US$ 4 billion in private equity investments over the last five years. In FY22 alone, Indian edtech startups secured investments totaling US$ 3.94 billion across 155 deals. Notably, in June 2022, edtech platform PhysicsWallah became India's 101st unicorn, raising US$ 100 million in a Series-A funding round from WestBridge Capital and GSV Ventures, valuing the company at US$ 1.1 billion.

IT & Education Sector in Union Budget 2026

The Union Budget for FY 2026–27, presented by Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, continues to place strong emphasis on education, skilling, technology adoption, digital infrastructure, and emerging sectors such as artificial intelligence, semiconductors, cloud services, and electronics manufacturing. The budget reflects the government's broader objective of creating human capital for Viksit Bharat by strengthening the link between education, employment, enterprise, and technology-led growth. This analysis evaluates the key provisions for the IT and education sectors in the 2026 Union Budget, based on official government sources.

Increased Budget Allocation

The Ministry of Education has been allocated ₹1,39,289.48 crore for FY 2026–27, marking an 8.27% increase over the Budget Estimates of FY 2025–26. Of this, the Department of School Education & Literacy has received ₹83,562.26 crore, while the Department of Higher Education has been allocated ₹55,727.22 crore. This increase reflects the government’s continued focus on improving school education, higher education, research, digital learning, and skill-based development.

Key Initiatives in Higher Education

Centre of Excellence in AI for Education: The budget provides for a Centre of Excellence in Artificial Intelligence for Education, with an allocation of ₹100 crore for FY 2026–27. This initiative aims to strengthen the use of AI in teaching, learning, academic research, and institutional processes.

PM-One Nation One Subscription: The PM-One Nation One Subscription scheme has been allocated ₹2,200 crore. This initiative is expected to improve access to research journals and academic resources for students, faculty, and researchers across institutions.

PM Research Fellowship Scheme: The PM Research Fellowship has been allocated ₹600 crore for FY 2026–27. The scheme is aimed at encouraging high-quality research in advanced and technology-driven fields, particularly in premier institutions.

Support to Higher Education Institutions: The allocation for IITs has been increased to ₹12,123 crore, while NITs have been allocated ₹6,260 crore. Central Universities have received ₹17,440 crore, and UGC has been allocated ₹3,709 crore. These allocations are expected to support infrastructure, academic expansion, research quality, and capacity building in higher education.

Skill Development and Innovation

Education to Employment and Enterprise Committee: The budget proposes a High-Powered “Education to Employment and Enterprise” Standing Committee to recommend measures for strengthening the services sector as a key driver of Viksit Bharat. The committee will also assess the impact of emerging technologies, including AI, on jobs and skill requirements.

AI and Emerging Technology Skilling: The budget highlights the need to upgrade skill development in line with emerging technologies. It proposes measures for embedding AI in the school curriculum, upgrading teacher-training institutions, and reskilling technology professionals and engineers in AI and other emerging technologies.

Atal Tinkering Labs: A new flagship initiative under the Department of School Education and Literacy provides ₹3,200 crore for Atal Tinkering Labs in FY 2026–27. This is expected to promote innovation, experimentation, and practical learning among school students.

AVGC Content Creator Labs: The budget also proposes India’s Animation, Visual Effects, Gaming, and Comics content creator labs in 15,000 secondary schools and 500 colleges. This initiative is expected to support digital creativity and prepare students for opportunities in the fast-growing AVGC sector.

Initiatives for the IT Sector

Supporting IT Services as a Growth Engine: The budget recognizes India as a global leader in software development services, IT-enabled services, knowledge process outsourcing, and contract R&D services related to software development. These services are proposed to be clubbed under a single category of Information Technology Services, which may help simplify classification and improve policy clarity for the sector.

Semiconductor and Electronics Manufacturing: The budget announces the launch of India Semiconductor Mission 2.0, focusing on semiconductor equipment, materials, full-stack Indian intellectual property, stronger supply chains, industry-led research, and training centres. The outlay for the Electronics Components Manufacturing Scheme has also been proposed to be increased from ₹22,919 crore to ₹40,000 crore.

Data Centres and Cloud Services: To attract global technology investment and strengthen digital infrastructure, the budget proposes a tax holiday till 2047 for foreign companies providing global cloud services by using data centre services from India. It also proposes a safe harbour of 15% on cost for related entities providing data centre services from India.

Use of AI in Government Systems: The budget proposes the expansion of advanced imaging and AI technology for risk assessment in customs processes, with the objective of scanning every container across all major ports in a phased manner. This indicates the government's continued push toward technology-enabled governance and operational efficiency.

The Union Budget for FY 2026–27 outlines a focused roadmap for strengthening India's education and IT sectors. The education sector receives higher funding for school education, higher education, research, AI integration, digital access, and innovation-led learning. At the same time, the IT sector receives policy support through measures related to semiconductor manufacturing, electronics components, data centres, cloud services, AI adoption, and technology-led governance. Together, these initiatives indicate a continued shift toward a knowledge-based, digitally enabled, and skill-driven economy.

INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

The education landscape in India has been undergoing a significant digital transformation, accelerated by the COVID-19 pandemic and further propelled by the rapid integration of artificial intelligence (AI). The adoption of AI-powered digital learning platforms, virtual labs, and smart classrooms has seen a sharp rise, enabling personalized and adaptive learning experiences that cater to individual student needs. This shift is primarily fueled by the growing accessibility of the internet, with 806 million users in India at the start of 2026, representing approximately 55.3% penetration and bridging urban-rural divides.

This demographic tailwind is amplified by India's young population, with ~44% under age 25 and a median age of 28 years, prioritising investments in skill development and higher education amid upward mobility from low-to middle-income segments. Education, comprising ~51% of essential spending in FY2024, ranks among the top five consumption categories per MoSPI data, with middle-income households channelling rising discretionary spends toward quality undergraduate preparation to secure spots in prestigious institutions.

IT and AI/ML-based Skilling

Government initiatives such as Digital India, PM eVidya, and the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 have further strengthened the digital infrastructure in schools and colleges, ensuring that education is increasingly accessible and inclusive across both urban and rural areas.

In particular, AI is transforming education by automating administrative tasks, generating customized content, and fostering innovative teaching methods like gamified learning and AI assistants, making education more flexible, inclusive, and distributed.

Institutions are increasingly focusing on STEM education, coding, and digital literacy by incorporating AI, machine learning (ML), cloud computing, and data science into their curricula, aligning with industry demands for future-ready skills. However, current IT curricula in many Indian institutions remain inadequately prepared for the AI era, with significant gaps in faculty training, highlighting the urgent need for curriculum overhauls to integrate AI from foundational levels. (Source: Redseer Report on Education in India)

Source: WEF, Future of Job Survey, 2025

Within the IT sector, AI/ML upskilling has emerged as the core future skill, driven by the sector's robust growth trajectory. NASSCOM projects the Indian IT industry to reach $282.6 billion in revenue for FY25, growing 5.1% year-on-year, with overall IT spending rising amid AI adoption across verticals.

(Source: NASSCOM Skilling in India )

The World Economic Forum's (WEF) Future of Jobs Report 2025 underscores that AI and ML specialists, alongside big data and fintech engineers, are among the fastest-growing roles globally, with technological advancements, particularly AI and information processing (86% impact) which is expected to transform 50% of core skills by 2030 due to disruption from robotics, automation, and energy innovations.

(Source: WEF Future of Jobs Report, 2025)

In India, NASSCOM estimates the AI/ML market to grow at a CAGR of 25-35% through 2027, reaching $17 billion and creating 2.3 million new jobs in AI-related fields, yet nearly half of these roles remain unfilled due to a persistent skills gap. This demand-supply mismatch, where only a fraction of the workforce is AI-proficient, has spurred collaborations between EdTech providers and engineering colleges to integrate specialised AI training programs in areas like natural language processing, computer vision, and predictive analytics. For instance, platforms are partnering with institutions to deliver upskilling courses that address the critical gap, as India's IT curricula lag behind, with many graduates lacking hands-on AI/ML exposure despite producing thousands of engineers annually; upcoming mandates, such as AI curriculum integration from Class 3 starting in the 2026-27 academic session under NEP 2020, signal a shift toward AI-centric education.

(Source: The NASSCOM–Deloitte India report “Advancing India’s AI Skills: Interventions and Programmes Needed”)

Source: Economy Profile: India, WEF 2024

The competitive landscape in IT upskilling is dominated by players like UpGrad, Simplilearn, and Coursera, which offer AI/ML certifications in partnership with global tech giants such as Google and IBM, emphasizing practical, industry-aligned modules to bridge the readiness gap in traditional IT programs. These platforms cater to working professionals and students, while higher education integrations prioritize curriculum enhancement to make IT programs AI-ready.

Institutional partnerships between EdTech companies and universities, both public and private, are accelerating the infusion of AI/ML content into formal systems, though challenges persist in scaling faculty upskilling. Meanwhile, government efforts like the National AI Portal and the India AI Talent Mission provide open-source resources and aim to position India as a global AI hub by creating up to 4 million AI-enabled jobs by 2030.

(Source: rbsa.in; AI.gov.in; education.gov.in)

Pricing trends in IT upskilling have evolved to promote accessibility, with many platforms offering freemium services or subscription-based models for colleges and individuals, often subsidized under initiatives like Skill India to reach underserved regions. The blended learning model (merging online AI simulations with offline mentorship) is gaining traction for its cost-effectiveness and ability to simulate real-world AI applications, helping future-proof IT graduates amid curriculum shortcomings.

For rural areas, programs like Skill India and SWAYAM ensure affordable access to AI/ML training through mobile-first portals, addressing the digital divide while emphasizing AI as the foundational skill for tomorrow's workforce.

Technologically, AI is at the forefront of transforming education, with platforms leveraging machine learning to deliver hyper-personalized upskilling experiences that adapt to learner paces and predict skill deficiencies, essential as future jobs pivot toward AI/ML proficiency.

Major Business Drivers of the Industry

1. Government Initiatives and Digital Infrastructure

Government initiatives like Digital India, PM eVidya, and the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 are strengthening the digital infrastructure in schools and colleges, making education more accessible and inclusive across urban and rural areas. These programs are directly supporting AI/ML integration by creating an environment conducive to digital literacy and AI adoption from a young age.

(Source: Redseer Report on Education in India)

2. Technological Advancements and Job Demand

According to the World Economic Forum's Future of Jobs Report 2025, AI and ML specialists, along with big data and fintech engineers, are among the fastest-growing roles globally. The rise of AI-driven technologies and automation is expected to disrupt 50% of core skills by 2030. This technological transformation is fueling the demand for skilled professionals in AI/ML fields, with AI/ML becoming the core future skill for IT professionals.

(Source: WEF Future of Jobs Report, 2025)

3. Industry Growth and Market Potential

NASSCOM estimates the AI/ML market in India to grow at a CAGR of 25-35% through 2027, reaching $17 billion and creating 2.3 million new jobs in AI-related fields. However, the supply of skilled professionals remains insufficient to meet this demand, highlighting the need for extensive AI/ML upskilling programs. As India's IT sector is expected to reach $282.6 billion in revenue for FY25, AI adoption across verticals will continue to drive significant job creation.

(Source: NASSCOM report on State of Data Science & AI Skills in India)

4. Curriculum Enhancements and Institutional Collaboration

Many institutions are overhauling their IT curricula to incorporate AI, ML, cloud computing, and data science to align with industry needs. However, current curricula still face gaps, particularly in terms of faculty training and hands-on exposure to AI/ML. NASSCOM has reported collaborations between EdTech providers and engineering colleges to address this gap by offering specialized training in areas like natural language processing and computer vision. (Source: NASSCOM report on State of Data Science & AI Skills in India)

5. Government Support for AI Talent Development

Government efforts, such as the National AI Portal and the India AI Talent Mission, are pivotal in fostering a strong AI ecosystem in India. These initiatives aim to create up to 4 million AI-enabled jobs by 2030 and provide open-source resources to accelerate AI education and talent development. (Source: The NASSCOM-Deloitte India report "Advancing India's AI Skills: Interventions and Programmes Needed")

Challenges for the Industry

- Skills mismatch and quality gap in training

India's AI talent requirement is expected to grow from ~600,000-650,000 in 2022 to over 1,250,000 by 2027 — indicating a significant demand-supply gap in talent

(Source: The NASSCOM-Deloitte India report "Advancing India's AI Skills: Interventions and Programmes Needed")

- Rapid obsolescence of skills and training irrelevance

According to the, "skills gaps remain the most significant barrier to business transformation" and a large portion of job-skills are expected to shift substantially by 2030. (Source: WEF Future of Jobs Report, 2025)

- Lack of faculty/trainer competence and infrastructure

The NASSCOM commentary states that while India has a strong talent concentration, it "lacks the depth of AI experience in specific domain areas to develop, test, and deploy AI-solutions at scale."

(Source: NASSCOM report on State of Data Science & AI Skills in India)

- Oversupply of certification with under-utilised credentials

While many organizations plan to upskill workers, the challenge remains how effectively those upskilling programmes translate into meaningful employment — signalling the risk of credentials without commensurate value.

(Source: WEF Future of Jobs Report, 2025)

- Regulatory, privacy & ethical risks affecting adoption and training demand

Massive technological transformation (including AI) is subject to governance, regulatory and ethical issues—meaning slower or cautious adoption in some sectors could dampen demand for upskilling.

Test Preparation

The Indian test preparation market has experienced significant growth over the past decade, fueled by the increasing competition for entrance exams like JEE, NEET, CUET, CAT, CLAT, and various government exams. This growth is driven by a rising number of students aspiring to prestigious institutions, the demand for government jobs, and the recognition of coaching's importance in securing admissions and placements.

The pandemic further accelerated the shift to online test preparation, with EdTech companies offering flexible learning options and mock tests through apps and platforms. Industry trends reflect this transition, with major players like Byju's, Unacademy, and Vedantu providing comprehensive online courses, while many companies adopt blended learning models that combine online resources with in-person coaching. The use of AI and data analytics is revolutionising the market, enabling personalised study plans and adaptive learning platforms.

Fig. Segmentation of India's Education Market; Source: UDISE, MoSPI, AISHE, NTA, Redseer research and analysis

The competitive landscape is diverse, with online platforms like Unacademy and Testbook gaining ground in tier-2 and tier-3 cities, while traditional centers like Allen and FIITJEE maintain their presence in major urban areas. Pricing models have become more affordable, with subscription-based services and performance-based payment options gaining popularity. Discounts, free resources, and mock test packages are key strategies for attracting students in a competitive market. Technological advancements, such as AI-driven learning, mobile-first platforms, gamification, and virtual classrooms, have improved engagement and accessibility for students preparing for high-stakes exams.

(Source: IRR Advisory: Industry Research Report on the Indian Online Education and Training Sector)

A key growth engine is the Common University Entrance Test (CUET), introduced under the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which standardizes admissions to over 250 central, state, and deemed universities. CUET segment is projected to grow at a CAGR of 30% from 2023–2028, with over 1.5 million registrations in 2024 alone, up from 1 million in 2023. This expansion addresses the surging demand for undergraduate admissions in non-technical fields, creating opportunities for specialized coaching in subjects like humanities, commerce, and sciences. The overall test preparation market size in India is estimated at ₹75,000 crore in 2024, with CUET contributing 15–20% to this growth, driven by its pan-India reach and emphasis on Tier-2/3 cities—where 65–70% of net additions to middle-income households (projected to reach ~68% of total households by FY 2029).

CUET's structure, focusing on domain-specific subjects and general aptitude, aligns with this trend, democratizing access beyond metros and boosting enrollment in non-STEM UG programs, where coaching demand is projected to surge in the future.

The competitive landscape is diverse, with online platforms like Unacademy, Testbook, and Physicswallah gaining ground in Tier-2 and Tier-3 cities—where economic formalization (e.g., ~13 million new EPFO jobs in FY2025) and digital penetration are enabling affordable, scalable UG coaching, while traditional centers like Allen and FIITJEE maintain their presence in major urban areas.

Pricing models have become more affordable, with subscription-based services and performance-based payment options gaining popularity. Discounts, free resources, and mock test packages are key strategies for attracting students in a competitive market. Technological advancements, such as AI-driven learning, mobile-first platforms, gamification, and virtual classrooms, have improved engagement and accessibility for students preparing for high-stakes exams like CUET, particularly as essential education spends prioritize adaptive tools for the ~1.4 billion-strong population's youth bulge.

Major Business Drivers of the Industry

- Increased Internet Speed: While Internet access has reached most parts of the country, speed limitations still pose challenges to the widespread adoption of online education. However, with advancements in high-speed technologies like 5G, optical fiber networks, and satellite internet, the stage is set for a new wave of digital transformation in schools and colleges, enhancing the delivery of online education and related products. (Source: Kantar Internet in India 2024)
- Rise of Generative AI: Generative AI is revolutionizing the education industry by automating routine administrative tasks and content generation. This not only improves efficiency but also enables institutions to offer customized solutions, allowing educators to focus on delivering more personalized and high-quality learning experiences. (Source: UNESCO Artificial Intelligence in Education in India)

- Openness to Digital Education Post-COVID-19: Before the pandemic, digital education was not widely embraced by educational institutions. However, COVID-19 forced a rapid shift to digital tools, and today, digital education has become a standard expectation for ensuring quality education. The mindset toward digital adoption has shifted from being an option to a necessity in modern education. (Source: UNICEF: Education in Post-Covid World)
- Government Initiatives such as India's National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and the introduction of the Common University Entrance Test (CUET) are driving digital transformation in education. Globally, governments are investing heavily in digital infrastructure and promoting online learning to enhance the effectiveness of their education systems, creating fertile ground for growth.
- Rise of IT Education in India: Over the past five years, there has been a significant increase in IT education, with a surge in the number of computer engineering graduates. In many large private universities, up to 80% of the student population is enrolled in computer engineering programs, with some campuses producing 5,000–6,000 engineers annually. This trend presents a vast, untapped opportunity for businesses to leverage this growth and cater to the evolving needs of the IT education sector.
- Scalability of Educational Platforms: Digital platforms offer the ability to scale up content delivery to large numbers of learners at once, whether in a single country or across the globe. This scalability helps educational institutions and edtech companies reach a broader audience efficiently and cost-effectively. (Source: UNICEF Report: Education 4.0 India)
- Environmental Sustainability: The shift to digital learning reduces the need for physical materials such as textbooks, paper, and travel to campuses, contributing to environmental sustainability and appealing to institutions and students alike who are conscious of reducing their carbon footprint.

Challenges for the Industry

1. Data Privacy and Security Concerns: With increasing reliance on digital platforms, EdTech companies handle massive amounts of sensitive data, including personal information, academic records, and financial details. The sector contends with common threats such as phishing. Account compromise, fuelled by high turnover, is a prevailing challenge. W32.Neshta.C8 emerged as a significant threat within this sector (Source: India Cyber Threat Report 2025)
2. Regulatory Compliance: The Indian government is tightening regulations in the EdTech sector, especially concerning advertisements, fee structures, and misleading claims. Non-compliance could lead to penalties or bans, affecting the growth of EdTech companies. Recently the government banned coaching for students under the age of 16. Such regulatory changes can adversely impact the industry (Source: Ministry of Education's Guidelines for Regulation of Coaching Centres)
3. Digital Divide: Despite growing internet penetration, many rural and economically disadvantaged areas in India lack adequate digital infrastructure. The ASER 2023 report highlights the digital gender gap among rural youth aged 14-18. It reveals that males are twice as likely to own smartphones compared to females, and this digital literacy gap extends to various digital tasks. This uneven access creates barriers for EdTech companies, limiting their potential user base. (Source: ASER Report 2023)
4. Increased Competition: The EdTech space in India is rapidly growing with new entrants, making the market highly competitive. Established players face challenges from startups offering innovative, low-cost solutions. (Source: Inc42 Report on Edtech Sector)

5. Teacher Resistance and Adoption Challenges: Educators may resist adopting new technologies, either due to a lack of digital skills or scepticism about their effectiveness. This can hinder the integration of EdTech solutions in traditional educational systems. This resistance is more predominant in Tier-2 and Tier-3 cities (Source: CPPR Report: Edtech, Examining Experiences, Challenges and Future Directions)
6. Quality Assurance and Content Credibility & Technological Obsolescence: Concerns over the quality of educational content provided by EdTech platforms can undermine their credibility. If the content fails to meet academic standards, it could result in customer attrition and reputational damage. Similarly, rapid advancements in technology require EdTech companies to constantly update their platforms. Falling behind in technological innovation can lead to loss of relevance in a competitive market. (Source: UNESCO Report: Educational technologies in the time of COVID-19)

The EdTech segment has seen remarkable growth and transformation, accelerated by technological advancements, changing educational paradigms, increased digital penetration, rising demand for digital learning, adaptive assessments, and intelligent tutoring systems, and increasing focus on lifelong learning and professional development.

Proctoring Market in India

The proctoring market in India is witnessing steady growth, supported by the rapid digitisation of education, online entrance examinations, corporate assessments, and remote hiring processes. With India having nearly 4.33 crore students enrolled in higher education as per AISHE 2021–22, the addressable base for digital assessments is significant. The wider adoption of online learning and testing is also supported by India's expanding internet base, which crossed 950 million active internet users in 2025. (Source: IAMAI report.)

Globally, the online exam proctoring market is projected to reach US$2,346.94 million by 2031, growing at a CAGR of 15.5% during 2025–2031. India is expected to be an important growth market within this trend, driven by the scale of competitive exams, university assessments, skill-certification tests, recruitment exams, and EdTech-led evaluations. The use of AI-based proctoring, browser lockdown, facial recognition, live monitoring, screen recording, and suspicious activity detection is increasing as institutions seek scalable and cost-effective ways to maintain exam integrity. (Source: Mercer Mettle, “The State of Online Examination”)

The market is further supported by policy and institutional shifts toward digital education, remote learning, and technology-enabled evaluation. For example, CBSE introduced an online remote-invigilation assessment system for school counsellors in 2026, initially covering around 10,000 counsellors through an AI-enabled platform. Overall, India's proctoring market is positioned for strong growth as education, certification, and hiring ecosystems continue moving toward secure, flexible, and technology-driven assessment models.

Major Business Drivers

1. Demand for AI-Content Detection Integrated Proctoring Solutions: The growing use of generative AI tools such as ChatGPT to circumvent assessments has created a clear and largely unaddressed market gap for next-generation proctoring platforms that combine traditional behavioural monitoring with AI-generated content detection capabilities. Institutions, examination bodies, and B2C skill assessment platforms represent a sizeable and underserved addressable market for solutions that can simultaneously detect impersonation, behavioural anomalies, and AI-assisted submissions within a unified proctoring framework. The increasing institutional awareness of this gap is expected to drive procurement of advanced, multi-layered proctoring solutions in the near to medium term.
2. Opportunity in Third-Party B2C Coding and Skill Assessment Platforms: The documented trend of students submitting AI-generated code on third-party coding and skill assessment platforms — resulting in inflated scores that misrepresent actual ability — creates a direct commercial opportunity for proctoring solution providers to partner with or embed their technology within such platforms. As corporates and campus recruiters increasingly demand verifiable and integrity-assured skill credentials, B2C assessment platforms face growing pressure to integrate robust proctoring mechanisms, representing a scalable and recurring revenue opportunity for AI proctoring vendors.

3. Regulatory and Policy Tailwinds Creating Mandatory Adoption Pathways Heightened regulatory scrutiny of examination integrity — evidenced by the Supreme Court inquiry into NEET-UG 2024 irregularities and the Ministry of Education's ongoing review of national assessment frameworks — is expected to translate into formal policy mandates requiring verifiable proctoring standards for high-stakes online examinations. Concurrently, the Digital Personal Data Protection Act 2023 and forthcoming subordinate regulations will necessitate investment in compliant, privacy-preserving proctoring infrastructure. These regulatory developments are likely to create non-discretionary adoption pathways, effectively expanding the addressable market for proctoring solution providers beyond voluntary institutional adoption into compliance-driven procurement.
4. Corporate Recruitment and Pre-Employment Assessment as a High-Growth Vertical The misalignment between candidate-reported skill metrics and actual performance during campus and lateral hiring processes has heightened corporate awareness of the need for independently proctored, integrity-assured pre-employment assessments. As India's IT industry — projected by NASSCOM to reach USD 282.6 billion in FY25 — continues to scale its hiring volumes, the demand for tamper-resistant, AI-monitored technical assessments within corporate recruitment pipelines represents a high-value and growing revenue vertical for proctoring technology providers, distinct from and complementary to the institutional education market.

Challenges for the Industry

1. Vulnerability to AI-Generated Content Undermining Assessment Integrity The proliferation of generative AI tools such as ChatGPT and similar large language model (LLM)-based platforms has introduced a qualitatively new dimension to academic dishonesty, fundamentally undermining the validity of unproctored or inadequately monitored online assessments. Unlike traditional plagiarism, AI-generated content produces original-appearing outputs that conventional detection systems are not designed to identify. This challenge is particularly acute in computer science and engineering education, where students practicing coding on third-party Business-to-Consumer (B2C) assessment platforms are increasingly submitting AI-generated code solutions, resulting in artificially elevated performance scores and skill ratings that do not reflect genuine individual proficiency. In the absence of robust proctoring mechanisms capable of detecting AI-assisted submissions, such platforms fail to serve their intended purpose as credible indicators of technical competency.
2. Misalignment Between Assessed Performance and Actual Capability The divergence between AI-assisted assessment scores and genuine individual ability becomes most consequential during campus recruitment and placement processes. When students whose performance metrics were inflated by AI-generated submissions are evaluated by recruiters through independent technical interviews or live coding assessments, their actual proficiency frequently fails to align with their recorded scores. This performance gap is a direct consequence of inadequate proctoring at the assessment stage.
3. Reputational Risk to Engineering Institutions The systematic misalignment between placement assessment performance and institutional academic records creates measurable reputational risk for engineering colleges and universities. Recruiters and corporate partners who observe consistent underperformance by candidates relative to their stated academic credentials may reassess their engagement with specific institutions, reducing placement opportunities and weakening industry-academia relationships. This outcome directly damages the long-term standing and employability record of the institution concerned.

Attendance Management System

Automated attendance management systems are becoming increasingly essential for large colleges and universities, especially those with over 10,000 students. In such institutions, manual attendance tracking is impractical and prone to errors, making digital solutions a necessity. Modern systems leverage biometric scanners, facial recognition, RFID cards, and mobile applications to ensure accurate, efficient, and scalable attendance capture. Cloud-based platforms allow centralized management across multiple campuses, while integration with student portals and Learning Management Systems (LMS) ensures seamless data flow between attendance, academic performance, and administrative processes. Mobile-first solutions further enable both students and faculty to mark attendance remotely or in hybrid learning scenarios, reflecting the growing adoption of technology in education.

The adoption of automated attendance systems in large educational institutions is driven by several factors. Operational efficiency is a key benefit, as these systems can handle thousands of attendance entries daily, drastically reducing administrative workload. Accurate records are also critical for regulatory compliance and accreditation, and digital systems provide secure, tamper-proof documentation. Additionally, AI-based features such as anomaly detection and facial recognition prevent proxy attendance, ensuring student accountability. With hybrid and online learning becoming more common, mobile and cloud-enabled attendance platforms allow institutions to capture attendance even outside the physical classroom, maintaining consistency and accuracy.

Several solution providers cater specifically to large universities and colleges. Platforms such as Truein, EduSec, Zoho People, TimeTrack, K12Tech, CampusCare, and MyClassAttendance offer a mix of biometric, RFID, and mobile attendance solutions integrated with Student Information Systems (SIS). Advanced AI-enabled modules allow institutions to manage attendance for thousands of students efficiently, reducing errors and streamlining administrative oversight. These solutions can scale to accommodate large student populations, multiple departments, and concurrent classes, making them ideal for high-volume campuses.

The future of automated attendance management in large colleges and universities looks promising. With increasing student populations, the rise of hybrid learning, and the continued push for digital transformation, cloud-first and AI-enhanced solutions will dominate. These systems offer reliable, scalable, and data-driven management of attendance, making them indispensable for institutions managing tens of thousands of students.

Major Business Drivers

1. Captive Market Opportunity — Large Private Universities (>30,000 Students): One of the most powerful growth drivers is the existence of large private universities and multi-campus educational groups in India, especially in Western and Southern states (e.g., Maharashtra, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu). These institutions often enrol 50,000+ students, creating a huge captive audience for automated attendance systems. In such settings, manual cloud-based registers and roll calls are utterly impractical — both administratively and academically. Institutions need systems that can automatically track and centralize attendance across lecture halls, labs, and multiple departments in real time. The shift toward intelligent management solutions is already happening as student numbers and academic complexity rise. Traditional systems using paper registers or spreadsheets fail to scale and do not support real-time data insights, pushing universities toward digital attendance platforms.
2. B2G Expansion — Government Schools, Colleges & Universities: Another enormous growth opportunity lies in Business-to-Government (B2G) deployments across public education systems. State education departments in India are mandating digital attendance tracking in schools and colleges to improve transparency and administrative efficiency. For example, government schools in Haryana transitioned to real-time online attendance via the state Nipuna portal, improving accuracy and speeding up reporting processes compared with manual registers. This demand isn't limited to one state — similar digital attendance initiatives are emerging across multiple regions as governments push for better accountability, lower error rates, and timely attendance monitoring to identify absenteeism early and reduce dropout risk. These large B2G rollouts represent a massive addressable market beyond private institutions, covering millions of students nationwide.

3. Compromised Integrity of Current Attendance Systems: In many large institutions, manual attendance registers or semi-automated systems are prone to errors, proxy attendance, and incomplete record-keeping. This compromises the integrity of attendance data and requires extensive verification and follow-up, which is time-consuming for faculty and administrative staff, directly reducing the time available for teaching and student engagement. Automated attendance systems address these issues by providing accurate, real-time, and tamper-proof records, improving operational efficiency and academic effectiveness.
4. Government Push for Smart Classrooms: The Indian government is actively promoting digital transformation in education through initiatives like Digital India, Smart Classrooms, and e-learning integration in schools and universities. Attendance automation forms a key part of these smart classroom initiatives by integrating with interactive boards, LMS, and student analytics platforms. This government push not only creates demand in public institutions but also sets a benchmark for private institutions to adopt similar technologies.

Challenges for the Growth of Automated Attendance Systems

1. Internet Connectivity and Infrastructure
Automated attendance systems, especially cloud-based and mobile solutions, require reliable internet connectivity and robust IT infrastructure. Many institutions, particularly in rural or semi-urban areas, face intermittent connectivity or lack of proper networking equipment, which can limit system adoption and affect real-time data capture.
2. Resistance from Educational Staff
Faculty and administrative staff may resist adopting new technology due to habitual reliance on manual methods, lack of technical proficiency, or fear of increased workload from learning new systems. Overcoming this resistance requires training, awareness, and change management programs.
3. High Initial Implementation Costs
Installing biometric devices, cameras, servers, and software licenses can involve substantial upfront investment, especially for large universities or multi-campus institutions. Budget constraints often delay or limit adoption, particularly in smaller or government-funded institutions.
4. Data Privacy and Security Concerns
Attendance systems often collect sensitive personal data, including biometrics, geolocation, and login credentials. Institutions must comply with data protection regulations and secure systems against unauthorized access, hacking, or misuse, which adds complexity to deployment.
5. Scalability Challenges
Systems must support large student populations and multiple departments or campuses without performance degradation. Ensuring real-time processing during peak hours, such as lecture times or examination periods, can be technically challenging and requires careful system architecture.
6. Policy and Regulatory Uncertainty
In government institutions, changing policies or inconsistent mandates regarding attendance tracking can affect investment decisions. Frequent changes in reporting requirements may necessitate system modifications, adding cost and complexity.

Contextual Understanding of Technical, AI and Aptitude Trainings: In order to understand the need of our solutions for colleges, it is important to build a contextual understanding of the environment we operate in.

As per multiple employability reports* and comments from IT industry leaders*, it is widely acknowledged that majority of Indian CS & IT engineering graduates are not immediately employable given lack of adequate coding skills. In past major global and India IT Services/Consulting companies used to hire students based on their profile, analytical and reasoning skill only. These companies used to then conduct long training programs for such recruits to make them industry ready. However, due to falling man-hour rates and increased global competition, these IT companies have now put the onus on colleges to train their students well. As such, the recruitment today is happening with emphasis on assessment of coding skills of graduates. These days hiring process of a typical IT company usually include a written Aptitude Test (Basic Math , Reasoning & English Language Skills), Technical Tests (Includes tech based MCQs & coding skills on compiler) and an interview.

(*Source: <https://iem.edu.in/news-events/real-reason-95-indian-engineers-cant-code/> & <https://www.thehindu.com/news/national/karnataka/there-is-a-need-to-improve-the-quality-of-engineering-education/article65373178.ece> )

However, the reality on the ground for engineering colleges is that many of their faculty does not have relevant industry experience and hence cannot impart practical coding skills. In recent years, this problem has further precipitated with a surge in number of students registering for Computer Science and IT related courses in engineering colleges in India. Large private universities have CS & IT batches of 2000 to 5000 students in a single year. This has inevitably led to surge in demand for high quality technical trainers.

Further, with the advent of Artificial Intelligence and its increasing usage in corporate world, the requirement of technical trainings has moved beyond routine programming languages etc. to include Prompt Engineering, Agentic AI, MLOps etc. However there is lack of both quality AI training content and AI trainers, especially in colleges. This has created an urgent need for colleges for outsourced AI training programs.

Contextual Understanding for New AI powered Solutions envisaged for propelling future growth of the company

Leveraging our long-standing relationships with large universities and colleges, we have identified two key problem areas that present significant new business opportunities.

First business opportunity is the student attendance and academic operations management at colleges. Surprisingly most colleges are still marking attendance manually in their ERP software. The lack of automation is eating into valuable lecture time as it is widely considered that almost 10-15% of lecture time (assuming typical lecture time of 40-45 mins) is spent in taking manual attendance in classrooms. Given the magnitude of the problem, we started working on an AI powered automation solution to solve this critical problem and we have already developed technology Proof of Concept for the same using combination of multiple technological interventions.

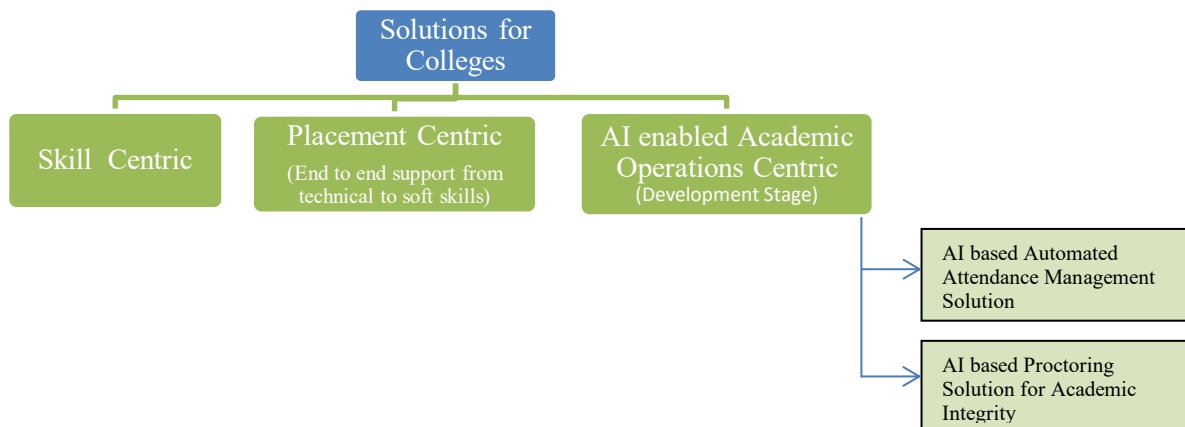

Second business opportunity is in exams and assessment monitoring space., With advent of AI, the usage of AI tools like Chatgpt has further aggravated the problem of cheating with students using such tools to solve their assignments or even mid/annual exams. This means that the teachers do not have correct data to and hence are unable to manage student's academic interference. We have conceptualized an AI powered solution to solve this problem and restore academic integrity with emphasis on affordability. We have already developed technology Proof of Concept for the solution.

Type of Solutions in Colleges

Our Company is providing broadly three types of solutions: skill / basic learning centric, placement centric and academic operations centric solutions to colleges through:

- Our Experienced Trainers with industry exposure.
- Our proprietary Tech and AI related academic content to learn & teach
- Our Tech Platform where students can practice Live coding & Tech questions
- Our two unique and advanced “AI Powered Automated Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution” and “AI Powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity”. Our technology proof of concept for both these solutions is ready.

As highlighted above, our Company is providing broadly three types of solutions: skill / basic learning centric, placement centric and academic operations centric solutions to colleges.

In skill centric solution, our trainers teach the complete / partial course in a semester replacing regular college faculty. These courses can be in any semester from 1st to last.

In placement centric solution, our trainers focus on up skilling / revision of the technical knowledge of students. Usually these trainings are delivered in pre final & final year before companies start visiting campuses for fresher hiring. Additionally, we help students prepare for placement process with support for general aptitude tests and interviews.

Both these solutions are different from perspective of Content, Delivery, duration & Trainers. While our platform is standardized; our classroom delivery solutions can be customized to individual college requirements.

In Academic Operations solutions, we will be offering advanced level AI powered Automated Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution for both students and teachers to do away with proxy attendance and avoid wastage of academic hours. Further, we will be offering AI powered Proctoring solution to empower teachers and management by stopping cheating in colleges.

C1.1 Skill Centric Solutions for colleges

Our company is providing academic learning centric solutions to colleges, with primary focus on computer science and IT-related disciplines.

I. Technical Trainings:

We help engineering colleges at learning stage across semesters. Our intervention is on a project basis usually for a particular year/semester. Our solution includes Quality Trainers, Academic content with Live Projects and our technology led learning platform for academic delivery. Our technical training solutions are delivered through a comprehensive mix of live classes, learning and practicing coding skills on Coding Compiler (a proprietary platform where a student can code and test his code in real-time) and practice material to enhance their conceptual and practical coding skills. Through such highly targeted programs students are equipped with relevant academic and practical industry knowledge.

We are associated with many colleges to deliver technical trainings designed for skill development or up skilling purposes as we deliver customised learning modules aligned with current academic and industry demands on full-stack development, programming languages (C++, Java, Python, etc.), database structures etc.

II. AI Trainings:

In today's rapidly evolving digital world, there is a strong need for workforce with knowledge of Prompt Engineering, Generative AI, and Agentic AI among others to service the ever changing requirements of businesses. Gen AI literacy helps students understand, use, and ethically engage with powerful tools that generate content, automate tasks, and personalize learning experiences, making them more effective learners and future professionals. Meanwhile, agentic AI represents the next frontier of autonomous systems that can pursue complex goals with minimal supervision, and training in this area equips students with skills increasingly demanded by industry and research. Integrating these trainings into college curricula fosters critical thinking, problem-solving, and adaptability; ensuring graduates are not just consumers of AI but thoughtful creators and leaders in an AI-driven world.

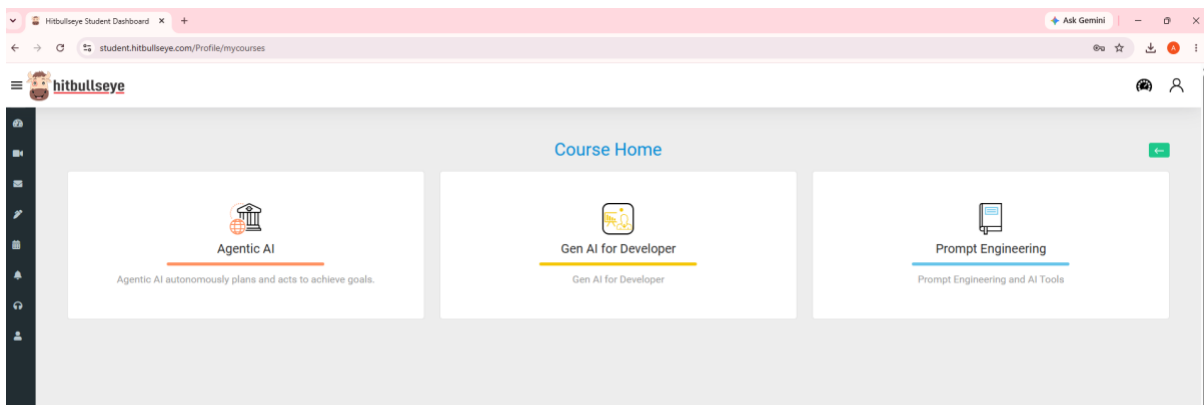

1. The rapid rise of AI coding tools has created concerns that software professionals may eventually become irrelevant. Today, AI can generate code, automate debugging, and even build basic applications within minutes. This has led many people to believe that programming itself may no longer be a valuable skill in the future. However, the real challenge in technology is not merely writing code, but understanding business problems, designing scalable systems, ensuring security, and creating meaningful user experiences. AI can assist in execution, but it still depends heavily on human direction, judgment, and validation. Professionals with AI knowledge will remain highly relevant because they know how to effectively guide, optimize, and apply AI tools to real-world situations. As coding becomes more automated, the value will shift toward strategic thinking, system architecture, domain expertise, and innovation. Organizations will increasingly seek people who can combine AI capabilities with human creativity and decision-making. In fact, AI is expected to increase productivity and create new categories of roles rather than eliminate skilled professionals entirely. Just as previous technology revolutions created more opportunities than they removed, the AI era will reward those who learn how to work alongside intelligent systems rather than compete against them.

The company has developed robust courses to service these requirements as advised below:

- *AI-Powered Productivity & Prompt Engineering
- *Agentic AI — Building Autonomous AI Systems
- *Generative AI Engineer — Full Stack Development
- Generative AI trainings for Non-Circuit branch students (Mechanical, Civil etc.)

We are offering detailed courses as outlined above to college students to improve their employability.

III. Assessments:

Assessments in Engineering colleges are generally conducted early in academic programs to critically evaluate the learnings of students and then later towards the end of the academic program to judge suitability of candidates for placement process. In some projects, we also use our platform to assess the students for weekly tests, mid semester or final exams with course credit.

Our prestigious customers in the college segment include top institutions like Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Chitkara University, Lovely Professional University, United Group of Institutions, University of Petroleum And Energy Studies (UPES) Dehradun, IILM University, among others.

C1.3 Academic Operations Centric Solutions for colleges (Under Development – Proof of Concept ready)

1. AI powered Automated Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution

After extensive engagement with multiple colleges and universities, the Company has identified significant inefficiencies in managing attendance, student records, faculty coordination, and institutional reporting. These functions are currently resource-intensive, rely heavily on manual processes, and are prone to errors. The proposed solution aims to digitally streamline these processes, reduce administrative overheads, and improve accuracy, thereby enabling institutions to focus on academic excellence. Educational institutions are increasingly adopting technology solutions to streamline academic administration, student management, attendance monitoring, faculty coordination and institutional reporting. The growing emphasis on digital learning ecosystems and data-driven decision-making has further increased the demand for integrated attendance and operations solutions.

For example in a university where around 40,000 students are studying. On an average if a student attends average 4 lectures a day, then 1.6 lakh attendance records is generated daily. For such a university around 2500-3000 lectures are delivered daily by faculty. Today most of this data is either recorded manually or is partially digitized. Surprisingly most colleges are still marking attendance manually in their ERP software. The lack of automation is eating into valuable lecture time as it is widely considered that almost 10-15% of lecture time (assuming typical lecture time of 40-45 mins) is spent in taking manual attendance in classrooms. When translated into economic value of teachers man-hours is equivalent of at least ~ ₹ 300 lakhs annually per campus of 40,000 odd students.

We intend to develop a technology platform designed to support various academic and administrative functions through a centralized end to end digital environment. The platform will assist educational institutions in managing academic structures, student and faculty records, attendance processes, academic workflows, institutional reporting and related operational activities. We propose to utilise ₹348.00 Lakhs out of the issue proceeds towards the development of Automated Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution.

Key Highlights of the Proposed Solution

- Centralized digital platform for all academic administrative operations: All academic administrative tasks, from attendance to faculty coordination, will be managed in one place. This reduces duplication, simplifies workflow, and provides a single source of truth for all institutional data.
- AI-powered automation to reduce manual processes and errors: Routine processes like attendance tracking, notifications, and reporting will be automated using AI. This minimizes human errors, saves time, and allows staff to focus on more critical academic activities.
- Real-time attendance tracking with verification for college administration and parents: The system will record attendance instantly for each class and verify it automatically. Institutions can ensure accurate records, prevent proxy attendance, and quickly generate reports for administrators and regulators.
- Analytics dashboards for institutional insights and reporting: Visual dashboards will provide actionable insights into student performance, faculty workload, and operational efficiency. Decision-makers can quickly identify trends, address issues, and plan improvements effectively.
- Student engagement, feedback and academic monitoring features: The platform will include tools for tracking student participation, engagement, feedback and progress. This helps educators identify struggling students early and implement timely interventions to improve learning outcomes.
- Scalable architecture capable of supporting large institutions: The system is designed to handle tens of thousands of students, thousands of classes, and multiple campuses. It ensures performance and reliability even as the institution grows.
- Integration-ready modules to work with existing systems: The platform can connect with existing student management systems, learning management systems, and other institutional software. This allows a smooth transition without disrupting current operations.

Our proof of concept of the above said solution is ready (refer image):

2. AI-powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity

AI-powered Proctoring Solution is an application-based platform designed to ensure academic integrity in educational institutions, certification bodies, and assessment providers. With the growing adoption of digital learning environments, online assessments, and remote examinations, traditional manual supervision has become insufficient. Institutions face challenges in scaling examination oversight, preventing impersonation, and maintaining fair and secure assessments. With advent of AI, the usage of AI tools like Chatgpt has further aggravated the problem of cheating with students using such tools to solve their assignments or even mid/annual exams. This means that the teachers do not have correct data to and hence are unable to manage student's academic interference.

We have worked on AI powered solution to solve this problem and restore academic integrity. Our solution is in development stage with technology Proof of Concept available. The proposed solution leverages machine learning, computer vision, and analytics to provide real-time monitoring, automated alerts, and post-exam verification, thereby preserving the credibility and integrity of assessment outcomes. We propose to utilise ₹204.00 Lakhs out of the issue proceeds towards the development of AI powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity.

The solution is designed to support the end-to-end examination lifecycle, including candidate verification, live and recorded monitoring, incident management, review workflows, reporting, and audit capabilities. By automating supervision, the solution reduces dependency on human resources, improves operational efficiency, and allows institutions to manage large-scale examinations seamlessly across multiple locations and formats. The solution will provide administrators with enhanced visibility into examination activities and outcomes, enabling better governance and compliance.

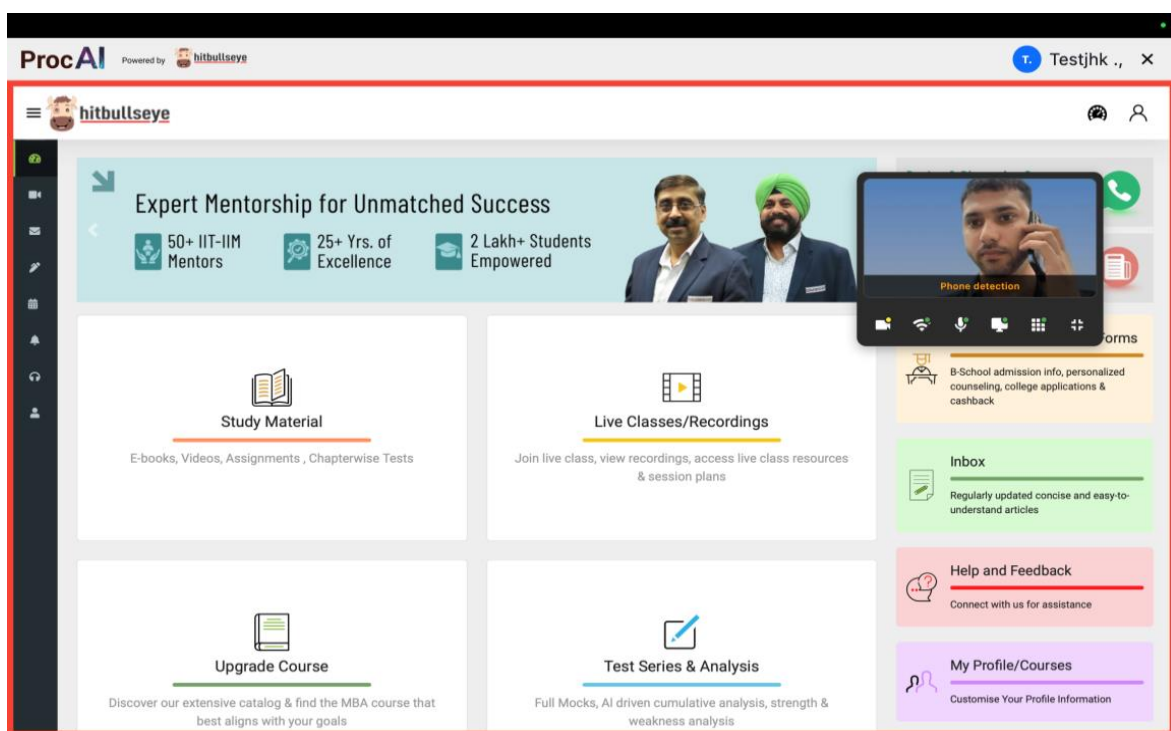

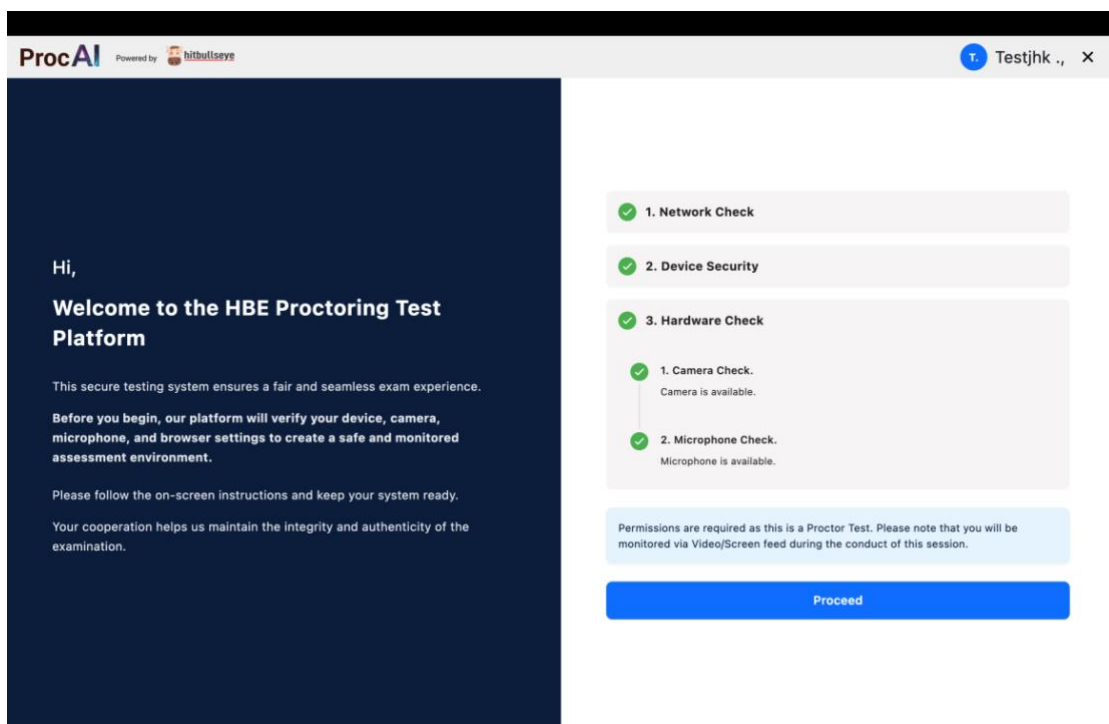

In addition to examination oversight, the solution will feature AI-enabled monitoring, workflow automation, analytics, and reporting functionalities, as well as multiple modes of supervision, including live monitoring, recorded review, and AI-assisted oversight. Structured data and dashboards will allow institutions to identify trends, assess performance, and maintain audit-ready records. These capabilities facilitate data-driven decision-making, strengthen examination governance, and help institutions uphold high standards of transparency and accountability.

Key Highlights of the Solution includes:

- Application based Solution: App-based AI-powered proctoring offers higher security, reliable device control, and better AI performance than web-based systems. It ensures real-time monitoring, reduces cheating risks, and works smoothly even in low-bandwidth conditions. This enhances user experience and supports scalable, secure, personalized assessments.

- AI-Enabled Candidate Verification: The platform verifies student identity using facial recognition, biometrics, and behavioral patterns. This prevents impersonation and fraud while ensuring a secure, tamper-proof examination process.
- Live and Recorded Monitoring: Provides continuous real-time supervision during exams and also records sessions for post-exam review. This enables institutions to conduct large-scale assessments efficiently while maintaining audit trails for compliance purposes.
- Automated Incident Detection and Alerts: AI algorithms automatically detect suspicious activity, such as unusual movements or multiple logins, and generate immediate alerts. Administrators can respond promptly, ensuring examination integrity and reducing the need for manual monitoring.
- Analytics and Reporting Dashboards: Transforms raw examination data into actionable insights. Institutions can identify patterns, monitor performance, detect operational gaps, and ensure adherence to regulatory requirements through intuitive dashboards and reports.
- Scalable and Secure Architecture: Designed to handle thousands of students and multiple examinations simultaneously. The platform ensures data security, reliability, and high availability, making it suitable for both small and large institutions.
- Integration-Ready Modules: Seamlessly integrates with existing Learning Management Systems (LMS) and Student Management Systems (SMS). This allows institutions to adopt the platform without disrupting current workflows or IT infrastructure.

Our proof of concept of the above said solution is ready (refer images):

C2. Technology led education solutions for Schools

Revenue Model for “C2 - Technology led Education Solutions for Schools”:

Contextual Understanding of School solutions: The Government of India unveiled New Education Policy (NEP) in 2020 introducing major structural reforms in schools and colleges education. One of the key reforms is to bring most Under-Graduate (UG) admissions under the umbrella of a single national test. While there already was NEET (for medical courses) and JEE (for engineering courses), other admissions for courses like B.Com, BBA, BA etc. were largely on basis of individual entrance exams or class XII boards marks basis. The Government introduced Common University Entrance Test (CUET) exam in 2022 to standardise such other admissions.

In 2026 ~15.69 lakh students registered for CUET UG test as per available information making it the 3rd largest entrance exam in India after NEET and JEE. NEET with ~22.79 lakh registrations is the No. 1 exam in the country. The JEE exam had registrations of ~16 lakh students in 2026. Further, more than 250 central, state and private universities and colleges accepted CUET score in 2025 for admission to their UG courses with prominent names like Delhi University, Banaras Hindu University, Jamia Milia Islamia, Chandigarh University, Chitkara University among others.

CUET is a MCQ exam that checks student's ability in subjects of +2 aligning with NCERT content. A Single student takes around 5 different papers in a single CUET exam. Apart from subject test the CUET exams check proficiency in one of the language (English, Hindi) and in General Aptitude (Math, Reasoning & General Knowledge). These two English & aptitude papers are beyond the school curriculum and hence require additional preparation.

Our School solutions are structured as digital products and eliminate the coaching for CUET and helps school to prepare students inside the school. It also empowers school teachers to teach effectively in school covering school & board preparation simultaneously.

Another key development has been the steps taken by Govt of India to recognize test prep coaching as an industry with attempts to introduce guidelines for their functioning. Some states have already introduced the Coaching Regulation Bill and others are in process. An important step in this direction is to control the “dummy” school concept wherein students don’t go to schools rather coaching institutes for entrance exam preparation.

Our school solution aligns with the Government narrative and emphasizes on preparation inside school campuses only thereby sidestepping the need for private coaching. Our company has developed an integrated one stop entrance exam preparation solution for school students. Since the focus of schools is also shifting now from performance of students in Boards to entrance exams, our solution is the right fit for them to support students. Our solution seamlessly combines preparation for CUET and other competitive exams, including JEE, NEET, NDA, IPM-IIM, CLAT, and CA-CPT. Our company has been entering into agreements with schools for implementation of this solution at the batch level.

Complete CUET English & General Ability Test Complete Prep

Our school solution provides complete digital resources like e-books, videos, assignments, recorded lectures for complete end to end preparation for CUET.

Competitive exams test series covered in our School Solution along with Board MCQs:

We cover test series of almost all major entrance exams in India for UG admission. This include CUET, Law-CLAT, 4/5 Yr UG Courses at IIMs, JEE, NEET, NDA, CA-CPT, Symbiosis SET, Narsee Monjee NPAT etc. We also provide chapter wise NCERT question bank for +2 board preparation. We cover all major subjects across Sciences, Commerce & humanities.

Our prestigious clients in the school segment include top schools such as Kanha Makhan Millennium School, Mathura; and Seth Anandram Jaipuria Education Society, Ghaziabad among others.

OUR JOURNEY AND EVOLUTION

The Evolution of a Digital Education Company (2013–2026)

2013-2016: The Genesis: Laying the Digital Foundation with website “hitbullseye.com”

In the early years of India's digital education movement, the landscape was filled with uncertainty and experimentation. Sensing the long-term potential in this emerging sector, our Company made a strategic decision to build a strong digital presence. This led to the development of an informational website aimed at students with primary focus on CAT and other MBA entrance exams.

The platform hosted a variety of free academic resources — videos, PDFs, eBooks, and more. These tools served a dual purpose: helping students prepare for various competitive exams while also positioning the site as a reliable academic destination.

2017: Building Revenue streams

Validation of Website work - The website “hitbullseye.com” achieved a consistent traffic of 45+ lakhs and the same was validated by top ranking on Alexa website rankings in 2017.

With web traffic in place along with a strong database of digital academic learning tools, the company decided to begin its monetisation efforts in form of multiple revenue streams as advised below:

- i) B2C Test Preparation - On the back of a strong online presence, the company decided to launch online courses for CAT/MBA entrance exams. This decision was based on free user registrations and student traffic insights. The first course launch was done with limited resources as a trial to understand the readiness of students for digital education.
- ii) B2B College Branding and Marketing Services – Basis strong visibility of our brand “hitbullseye”, the company began tie-ups with colleges for their branding on its website. The associations were in form of lead generation or pure marketing activities.
- iii) During this period, the company also started researching potential for association with Engineering colleges to help students during placement process. The recruiters, while visiting campus, conduct aptitude tests (maths, English, reasoning etc) for shortlisting candidates. Since the company had ready academic content for CAT/MBA entrance exams, minor modifications in the same allowed it to explore another source of revenue in form of placement readiness solutions. The company launched early modules of its self-prep placement readiness platform in 2017 on experimental basis, and successfully marketed it to colleges.

Our Company also developed its own course delivery and assessment platform essential for both direct-to-student offerings and live training programs in colleges.

2018-2021: Stabilizing revenue streams and planning for growth

With a growing student base and early monetization success, the company was ready to enter the next phase of growth. The company had built a good understanding of requirements of student community with respect to academic content, learning tools and tech driven delivery platform. However, the period coincided with a global shift: the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 dramatically accelerated demand for online learning.

The company's preparedness meant it could quickly pivot to meet this demand. As a result, FY 2020–21 became its best-performing year for online course sales, validating its strategy and infrastructure investments. Since there was high level of awareness and increasing acceptability of online education, the company invested heavily on strengthening the brand perception to ensure continued growth even after the pandemic subsided.

The company emphasised on stabilisation and growth of its existing revenue verticals during this period.

2022-2025: Emphasis on new solutions development and transition to primarily B2B domain

This exciting growth phase of the company saw many developments across the value chain:

i) *SPRUCE: A Future-Ready Comprehensive 360° Placement Prep Solution:

With success of initial aptitude solution pushed in the market to test acceptability, it was clear that there was a huge demand for placement readiness solutions in engineering colleges. As such, building on its early experimental placement readiness solution, the company started working on a full scale solution SPRUCE Version 2.0, a B2B platform targeting college placement readiness.

Understanding the evolving needs of the job market, we started investing on building an advanced level solution with comprehensive academic and tech suite, covering:

- Aptitude training: Maths, English, reasoning
- Soft skills: Resume writing, interview etiquette, communication, dress code
- Company-specific test series
- Stream-specific revision content for B. Tech students

Alongside content development, a dedicated B2B delivery platform was built to serve colleges and institutions. Secondly, the colleges also needed a coding compiler to allow their students to practice their coding skills while ensuring control with the academic team. As such, the work on coding compiler was also started, which was a combination of technology as well as question bank.

ii) Technical Trainings & Technical Content: Skill Development of Computer Science & IT students

In 2022, the company was presented with an opportunity to work closely with engineering colleges from an academic perspective. The business requirement was to send across trainers to colleges to teach technical subjects to the students as colleges were constrained by multiple factors such as lack of skilled trainers and relevance of theoretical knowledge in the industry among others.

The company quickly employed a team to generate technical training content such as programming languages, data structures, database management etc. This investment into developing the technical content has now become the foundation of company's growth in technical training vertical as more and more colleges are partnering with the company.

iii) CUET Academic Content and Strategic Expansion into B2B School Solutions

Having proven its mettle in content creation and technology, the company took a call to invest in developing B2B technology and academic solutions for schools, given the changing landscape of Under-Graduate admissions after introduction of CUET (Common University Entrance Test).

Our Company strategically positioned itself in the B2B market, focusing on schools. Since schools were going to be adversely affected by CUET, it was an opportunity to put them in play against tuition centres by integrating entrance exams preparation, especially CUET, with school curriculum given similarities in syllabus.

The company started developing its Integrated CUET and Other Entrance Exams solution. For this the company invested in:

- Academic content development across multiple streams
- A tech platform to serve as an integrated academic and administrative solution for schools

2025-2026: Investment in Research & Development for new AI powered Academic Solutions and continued investment in on-going projects (SPRUCE, CUET and AI Academic Content development as highlighted earlier)AI Trainings

In last 1 year, the company has made a leap forward, further accelerating its growth trajectory from a B2C to primarily B2B company with emphasis on SaaS solutions using Artificial Intelligence as a strong foundation going forward. The company has made significant achievement in form of two "Proof of Concepts" as advised below:

- AI Powered Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution: A SaaS solution designed to solve core operational challenges in educational institutions caused by irregular or evasive attendance behaviour of students and faculty, time spent on manual or inefficient methods of roll-calls, and the manpower required to ensure classroom management and attendance integrity.
- AI Powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity: A SaaS solution designed to combat cheating in education, where misuse of advanced AI tools enables students to finish assignments or exams without real understanding.

Further, the company has added AI Trainings (Prompt Engineering, Gen AI for Developers and Agentic AI courses) to its college vertical significantly expanding the scope of services.

REVENUE VERTICALS:

Over a span of 13 years, our Company evolved from a web-based information provider to a multi-solutions digital education firm with:

- Strong roots in content and technology
- Distinct B2B focus in both school and college education
- Sustainable revenue models through course sales, lead generation, and institutional partnerships

Each phase — from foundation laying to strategic diversification — was backed by timely investments, long-term vision, and adaptive execution. By 2025, Our Company had successfully built and monetized many revenue verticals as advised below:

1. B2B College Branding and Marketing Services: The Company is focussing on organic growth from this vertical as it keeps investing on its website creating more pages and putting in efforts to increase organic traffic.
2. B2B Technical Trainings, AI Trainings & Technical Content: This is one key focus segment of revenue growth for the company in next 5 years wherein lot of work is being done on technology platform and academic content. The monetization effort of the technical content has already demonstrated strong success as per detailed financials available above.
3. B2C Test Preparation and Books for Competitive Exams: The Company continues to see organic growth in its course sales vertical owing to strong website traffic and its prudent marketing efforts. This revenue vertical will continue to grow stably contributing significant cash flows.
4. B2B Placement Solution SPRUCE - A Future-Ready Comprehensive DIY Placement Readiness Solution: The Company is investing in this “Do It Yourself” platform to expand its presence across India. While the academic content work has been completed, the company is investing in building a robust AI enabled coding compiler.
5. B2B School Solutions: The school vertical of the company has started generating flows already as more work continues on both academic content and AI technology platform for delivery. The company sees this vertical contributing substantially to its growth story in the next 2-5 years.

Our journey stands as a testament to patient capital investment, content excellence, and tech-driven delivery, creating an enduring impact. We are in the process of developing new solutions using ARTIFICIAL Intelligence as corroborated by our PoC of two academic operations related solutions. This will help our company to further solidify its position as a leader in educational technology. The Company is also focussing on expanding its B2B College solutions to West, South and Northern region around Delhi/NCR. Throughout our journey, we believe in our commitment to integrate advanced digital solutions, ensuring a seamless, future- ready learning experience for students and institutions alike.

BUSINESS PROCESS FLOW

Our Company operates under both B2B and B2C business models, and the following outlines our business processes.

For our Business to Business verticals wherein we are reaching out to colleges and schools, we have a ground sales team. Our team has built a database of prospective customers and reaches out to them through direct calls, email etc. to set up meetings and discuss business association.

This flowchart explains the B2B sales process for acquiring schools and colleges as clients:

1. Database of Serviceable Market: The process begins with creating a database of schools and colleges that fall within the company’s target market and serviceable regions. This includes collecting details such as institution names, contact information, location, size, and academic segments.
2. Identification of Target Schools & Colleges: From the larger database, potential institutions are shortlisted based on factors such as requirements, budget potential, courses offered, student strength, and alignment with the company’s products or services.
3. Data Allocation to Inside Sales Executives/ Business Development Managers: Selected leads are assigned to inside sales executives and who primarily handle tele calling, email communication, lead qualification, and appointment scheduling remotely. At the same time, certain leads are assigned to business development managers who focus on relationship-building, strategic discussions, and higher-level institutional engagement, often involving in-person meetings.
4. First Interaction with Prospects: The sales team initiates the first interaction through phone calls, Zoom meetings, or physical meetings to understand the institution’s needs/challenges, current systems, and expectations.
5. Proposal Outlining Solutions and Financials: Based on the discussions, a customized proposal is prepared that explains the proposed solution, scope of services, implementation approach, pricing, commercial terms, and expected outcomes.

6. Demo of Solutions: A live demonstration of the solutions/ platform is conducted to showcase features, usability, benefits, workflows, and how the solution addresses the institution's requirements.
7. Follow-Up / Meeting: Follow-up discussions are conducted to resolve queries, negotiate commercials, gather feedback, and address concerns raised by decision-makers before closure.
8. Sales Conversion through MoU / Invoice/Official Emails: Once both parties agree, the deal is formally converted through signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), agreement, purchase order, or invoice issuance.
9. Client Onboarding: After conversion, the onboarding process begins, including account setup, implementation, training, deployment, support coordination, and activation of services for the institution.

For our Test preparation business wherein we are reaching out to students, we use both paid and free marketing tools. Under paid marketing, we use an array of tools ranging from bill boards, pamphlets, tabloids, brochures, print and digital media advertisements among others. Under free marketing, we use our social media channels in form of youtube, instagram etc., and use website pages to attract student registrations through free account access.

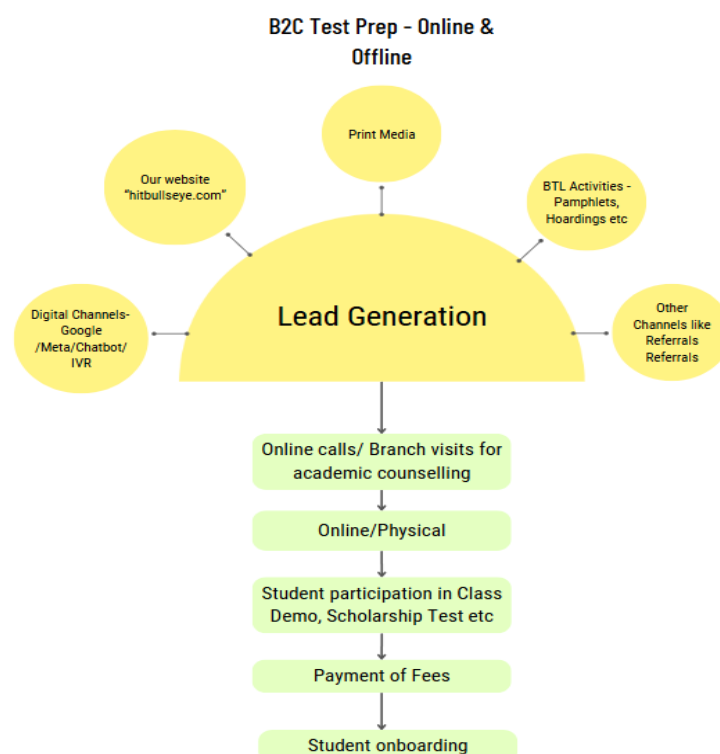

We also send out emails, sms and whatsapp messages to our registered student database. We have a team of academic counsellors who reach out to students on call to assist them in their test preparation journey.

This flowchart explains the B2C student acquisition and onboarding process for test preparation programs offered through online and offline channels:

1. Lead Generation: The process starts with generating student leads through multiple marketing and outreach channels to attract prospective learners interested in test preparation programs.

- Digital Channels – Google / Meta / Chatbot / IVR: Online leads are generated through digital advertising platforms such as Google and Meta (Facebook/Instagram), along with chatbots and IVR systems that capture student inquiries and automate responses.
  - Company Website (“hitbullseye.com”): Students visit the official website to explore courses, register for counselling, download information, attempt mock tests, or submit inquiry forms, which become qualified leads.
  - Print Media: Traditional advertising channels such as newspapers, magazines, flyers, and educational publications are used to create awareness and generate inquiries from students and parents.
  - BTL Activities – Pamphlets, Hoardings, etc: Below-the-line (BTL) marketing activities such as pamphlet distribution, banners, hoardings, seminars, and local promotions help attract students at the regional and city level.
  - Other Channels like Referrals: Existing students, alumni, partners, and word-of-mouth recommendations generate referral-based leads, which are often highly trusted and conversion-oriented.
2. Online Calls / Branch Visits for Academic Counselling: Interested students are contacted through counselling calls or invited to branch offices where counsellors understand their academic goals, exam targets, and suitable course requirements.
  3. Online / Physical Interaction: Students engage further either through online sessions or physical visits to gain clarity about course structure, schedules, faculty, and learning methodology.
  4. Student Participation in Class Demo / Scholarship Test: Prospective students are encouraged to attend demo classes, workshops, or scholarship tests to experience the teaching quality and evaluate the program before enrollment.
  5. Payment of Fees: Once the student decides to enroll, the admission process is completed through payment of course fees using online or offline payment modes.
  6. Student Onboarding: After successful enrollment, the student is onboarded into the system, which includes batch allocation, LMS access, study material distribution, orientation, and commencement of classes.

CAT is a national level competitive exam that opens the door for the 2M and other top B-schools in India. There are two IMs in this category—American and IIMs. IIMs form Chandigarh's leading MBA college. UIES (Panjab University) also admits students based on CAT scores.

Out of the 3.29 lakh candidates who registered for the exam, 2.93 lakh appeared for it. The exam took place on November 24-26 across 308 centres.

Madan Kumar, founder of Hothellays, says, "over the years, CAT trippers were predominantly from engineering backgrounds. However, this year shows a welcome change, with more students coming from commerce and non-engineering streams."

After the declaration of written test results, the university will start counselling according to their choice for the interview round. The next round of interviews will begin by January 10.

The selection process involves writing and interviews. Most of the interviews are generally held in person. The final results will be declared in April by most IMs.

[illegible]

i. Building a Future-Ready AI powered Platform with Content with Cutting-edge School & College AI powered Solutions

There is a significant gap in the education space for advanced generative AI (Gen AI) solutions. We have been early adopters in integrating Gen AI into our offerings, and we remain committed to building new use cases for AI in education, continually innovating to stay ahead of the curve and secure first mover advantage.

We have plans to integrate AI into our existing solutions to further their appeal and revenue potential. As such we are building a deep tech AI Engine ready with AI readable Academic Content with the objective to offer B2B solutions for schools, colleges and Competitive exams. However, unlike AI solutions being introduced across industries, our solutions are an intelligent mix of academic content database and AI layers. The integrated approach helps save cost, delivery output faster, provides scalability and consistency in responses thereby resulting in better academic outcomes.

ii. Develop AI Powered solutions to improve Academic Operations of Colleges and other Educational Institutions

Building on our 10+ years of deep engagement with colleges and universities, we have identified several structural inefficiencies in academic operations that directly impact institutional productivity, faculty bandwidth and student outcomes. These challenges primarily stem from manual processes, lack of real-time visibility, and limited scalability in core academic functions such as attendance tracking, assessment integrity, and performance monitoring.

To address these gaps, we are developing AI-led automation-first solutions that transform traditional academic workflows into intelligent data-driven systems. For two such problems, we have already developed proof of concepts i.e. AI powered Automated Attendance & Academic Operations Management Solution and AI powered Proctoring Solution for Academic Integrity. These are purely technology solutions and therefore offer much higher margins. Secondly, we expect these solutions to strengthen our offerings and in a lot of cases help us make inroads into hitherto impenetrable territories to cross-sell our other solutions.

iii. Continue transition from B2C centric business to B2B centric business to improve margins:

Our company has made conscious efforts in last 3 years to emphasis more on B2B business given higher margins, scalability in terms of revenue and ability to build sustainable relationships as evident from past associations.

While we will continue to grow organically in our test prep business, we are building the strategy of our business around B2B domains; both existing and new revenue streams.

Over the last few fiscal years, the Company has experienced growth in its institutional and business-to-business (“B2B”) customer relationships. The Company’s B2B business constitutes approx. 73% of the revenue from operations as on Dec 31, 2025 up from ~ 50% 3 years back.

iv. Cross sell to existing customers:

Our company’s long standing association with educational institutions in the Northern region is instrumental in its ability to understand requirements and build solutions. The objective of our Company is to further deepen the relationship with additional solutions to ensure a higher share of wallet and further strengthen the bond along with adding granularity to the revenue stream. For example, we started our association with Chitkara University with placement centric solution and have since added Technical Training business. Same is the case with multiple other colleges such UPES Dehradun among others. We will continue to deepen the relationship with new solutions in form of AI Proctoring for assignments and tests etc.

v. Shifting sales focus from Regional to National

Currently, our focus has been in North India as we have built sustainable relationships over the years. However, we see lot of value in expansion of our sales team to West and South India given the presence of many CS and IT engineering colleges in these regions. We have already hired an executive in Pune and have opened up West with important breakthrough in form of one large campus and several other names in Pune. We are targeting similar success in South with hiring plans for Hyderabad, Bangalore and Chennai.

Similarly for our schools division, we have plans to expand sales team across major cities where CUET participation is strong. For the time being, these states are primarily in North India and hence our objective is to invest in the sales team in these locations first and continue to expand the team as CUET gains momentum in coming years.

vi. Scaling up collaborations with S. Chand Publishers

Our existing association with S. Chand has started on a promising note as we sold 3600+ books in a short span of 2 months from launch in February 2025. Buoyed by the initial response, S. Chand approached us for another 5 titles and we launched the same in December 2025. This year the books are expected to be launched early in November 2026. We will continue to scale up this relationship with new titles and possible association across exams for generating both revenue and goodwill in the student community.

vii. Expansion of Test Preparation Centres

Our Company has witnessed consistent growth in revenue from its physical classroom coaching operations, reflecting a strong preference among students for classroom-based learning in the post-pandemic environment. In view of this trend, we propose to establish 2–3 additional test preparation centres in strategically identified locations across Delhi and Uttar Pradesh, which are among the largest contributors to CUET registrations in India. Further, recent developments in the Indian higher education ecosystem have contributed to increasing demand for undergraduate entrance examination preparation. Under the National Education Policy (NEP), several premier institutions have expanded their academic offerings, with management institutes introducing undergraduate programmes and technical institutions increasingly offering multidisciplinary courses. These developments have broadened opportunities available to students and have led to growing participation in competitive entrance examinations such as CUET, thereby increasing the demand for structured test preparation services.

The proposed expansion is expected to strengthen our market presence and enhance brand visibility in key education hubs. In addition to driving growth in classroom coaching revenue, an expanded offline footprint is expected to create a positive spillover effect on our online learning business by improving brand recognition, student outreach and customer acquisition. The initiative is also intended to support our long-term objective of building a pan-India presence and positioning the Company as a national player in the entrance examination preparation segment.

Accordingly, the proposed expansion of our physical coaching network is expected to enable the Company to capitalize on this growing market opportunity while supporting sustainable long-term growth.

viii. Increasing Website Traffic

We are targeting a significant boost in our website traffic in the next 2-3 years.

Today, our website broadly has two types of pages – pure informational and academic information. Such pages typically require continuous updates and SEO efforts. However, with the rise of AI, websites globally are experiencing declining traffic as users increasingly rely on AI-generated answers.

We have a database of over 440,000 academic questions and we plan to automatically generate academic pages such as CBSE solved papers and NCERT exercise solutions using our technology platform. These AI-readable pages face relatively low competition, require minimal long-term updates, and will help drive exponential growth in traffic. Since these are pure academic content pages, AI models are unlikely to generate complete, detailed solutions and long-form academic answers directly. Instead, they are more likely to reference and cite authoritative source websites. This creates an opportunity for our platform to become a trusted academic source that is frequently mentioned and linked by AI-powered search and answer engines.

Our investment on website is instrumental for both test prep business and college branding business. This also enhances overall brand awareness thereby giving an indirect push on school vertical as well.

The Company follows an integrated sales and marketing strategy across its B2C test preparation and B2B institutional training verticals, focused on brand building, relationship-driven engagement, student acquisition, and long-term institutional partnerships. The strategy combines digital outreach, on-ground activation, academic counselling, workshops, and thought leadership initiatives to establish strong visibility and credibility in the education ecosystem.

B2C Test Preparation: For its B2C test preparation business, our Company adopts a multi-channel student acquisition strategy through both online and offline mediums. We use both paid and free marketing tools. Under paid marketing, we use an array of tools ranging from bill boards, pamphlets, tabloids, brochures, print and digital media advertisements among others. Under free marketing, we use our social media channels in form of youtube, instagram etc., and use website pages to attract student registrations through free account access.

We also send out emails, sms and whatsapp messages to our registered student database. We have a team of academic counsellors who reach out to students on call to assist them in their test preparation journey.

Lead generation is carried out through digital marketing campaigns, website traffic, social media platforms, search engine marketing, referrals, webinars, chatbot and IVR systems, along with offline branding initiatives such as seminars, pamphlets, hoardings, and educational events. In addition to direct marketing, the Company actively collaborates with schools, coaching institutes, and tuition centres to conduct academic engagement activities including career counselling sessions, parent counselling programs, Vedic Maths workshops, English comprehension sessions, competitive exam awareness seminars, and aptitude development programs. These initiatives help the Company build trust with students and parents while simultaneously increasing brand recall in target markets.

The Company further engages prospective students through personalized counselling models including home counselling, branch counselling, Zoom counselling, audio counselling, demo classes, scholarship tests, and orientation sessions. These interactions are designed to understand the student's academic background, career aspirations, preferred entrance examinations, and preparation requirements. Through these consultative interactions, the Company educates students and parents regarding suitable career paths, examination strategies, course structures, and learning methodologies, thereby improving student conversion into paid enrollments.

The Company also conducts scholarship tests, mock examinations, and demo learning sessions as part of its conversion strategy. Such activities provide students an opportunity to experience the teaching methodology, evaluate their performance levels, and understand the value proposition offered by the Company. The counselling-led conversion model allows the Company to build long-term student relationships while improving retention and referral generation.

B2B Institutional Tie-ups: For its B2B business, the Company follows an institutional relationship-building approach aimed at strengthening brand visibility and creating strategic academic partnerships. The Company participates in events, educational conferences, counselling programs, and academic forums where it interacts with management, principals, counsellors, teachers, and students. In addition, the Company organizes its own networking and knowledge-sharing events inviting decision makers to discuss developments in the education sector, changing student expectations, evolving career trends, and technology-driven learning approaches. These initiatives function as indirect branding and trust-building exercises that help establish the Company as a knowledge-driven education partner rather than merely a service provider.

The company further intends to build on its existing strengths and add Hackathons and other competitive events to increase visibility in the country. The company also intends to start “Thought Leadership Articles” series to cover emerging education and technology trends, AI and its impact on future jobs, employability enhancement and skill development aligned with evolving recruitment trends. The articles will focus on emerging technologies, AI-driven skill requirements,

The Company leverages its website traffic, digital presence, student community, institutional network, and workshop ecosystem as branding tools to strengthen market positioning across both B2C and B2B verticals. By consistently engaging with students, parents, schools, colleges, counsellors, and placement teams through educational initiatives and awareness-driven activities, the Company seeks to build long-term relationships, improve brand credibility, enhance lead generation, and drive sustainable growth across its education and training businesses.

Attrition Rate

Employee retention is a key focus area for our Company, given the importance of a stable and experienced workforce in supporting our operational efficiency and long-term growth. We monitor attrition levels across different categories of personnel to assess workforce stability and to identify any underlying trends or areas for improvement.

The table below provides the attrition rate for our Whole-Time Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management for the years indicated:

No. of Employees who left during the year	Nil	1	Nil	Nil
Attrition Rate	Nil	4.55%	Nil	Nil

The table below provides the attrition rate for our administrative, technology, teaching and other team members for the years indicated:

Parameter	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
No. of Employees who left during the year	30	16	41	39
Attrition Rate	32.79%	18.39%	50.93%	46.99%

**Calculated as no. of employees that left during the said period over the average no. of employees at the beginning and end of the said period. The above data excludes human resources hired for short term specific roles during the year.*

While on the face of it the attrition rate seems high, it may be noted that we have experienced zero attrition at the SMP level and above. Due to the nature of business requiring high performing counselors and business development executives, along with project driven requirement for teachers; the attrition rate is observed at a higher level. This combined with the streamlining of manpower during the first 2 years after acquisition of physical test prep business from group concern in April 2022. However, the core employees have been stable and continue to drive growth.

ENVIRONMENTAL, HEALTH AND SAFETY

We are into education services and thus we are not subject to Environmental, Health And Safety regulations.

COMPETITION

Our Company operates in a competitive environment across both its business segments. We face competition from large integrated players as well as small and medium-scale educators and private training institutes, many of whom have established market presence. The competition we face includes:

- Technology led education solutions for Colleges: Competition in India's technical training sector is fierce and multifaceted, driven by a booming IT sector, government initiatives like IndiaSkills, private training institutes, and a growing demand for specialized. Key competitive factors include adapting curricula to real-world industry needs, bridging the gap between supply-driven training, the increasing role of private providers, and the impact of global digital transformation on skill requirements. There is a growing need for well-organized players who can offer a comprehensive solution to institutions to ensure seamless delivery and better control for management. We are well positioned to continue to gain market share in this segment. However, to stay competitive, it is imperative that we continue to innovate both in terms of technology platforms and academic delivery to ensure customer retention.
- India's test preparation industry is a rapidly expanding and highly competitive sector, characterized by a blend of established offline coaching centers and emerging online platforms. The market is segmented into organized players operating at regional and national levels, and unorganized players catering to city, state, or regional needs. These players compete across a wide range of entrance exams. However the test preparation industry in India is poised for significant growth, driven by technological advancements and the increasing demand for quality education. While competition is intensifying, opportunities abound for innovative solutions that cater to the evolving needs of students.
- Colleges Branding and Marketing services: In India, the college branding and lead generation industry is highly competitive, driven by a booming higher education market and rapid digital adoption. Competition comes from three main segments: digital marketing agencies specializing in education, EdTech companies, and general lead generation service providers that cater to educational institutions. However limited marketing budgets at many institutions mean that campaigns must be highly optimized for a strong return on investment. This pushes many towards the cost-effective model of test prep platform which offer multiple tools of marketing with direct access to a student database.

The CLRA provides that the appropriate Government may, after consultation with the Central or State Advisory Boards (constituted under the CLRA), prohibit employment of contract labour in any process, operation or other work in any establishment.

In addition to the CLRA, the employment of workers, depending on the nature of activity, is regulated by a wide variety of generally applicable labour laws. The various other labour and employment - related legislations (and rules issued thereunder) that may apply to our operations, from the perspective of protecting the workers' rights and specifying registration, reporting and other compliances, and the requirements that may apply to us as an employer, would include the following:

- (i) The Code on Wages, 2019 received the assent of the President of India on August 8, 2019. Through its notifications dated December 18, 2020 and November 21, 2025, the Government of India brought into force certain sections of the Code on Wages, 2019. It proposes to subsume four separate legislations, namely, the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 and the Equal Remuneration

Act, 1976;

(ii) The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020, and subsumes certain existing legislations, including the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970 and the Factories Act. This code provides for, among other things, standards for health, safety and working conditions for employees of establishments, and has come into effect on November 21, 2025; and

(iii) The Code on Social Security, 2020 received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020. Through its notification dated April 30, 2021, the Government of India brought into force Section 142 of the Code on Social Security, 2020. Further, through its notification dated November 21, 2025, certain other provisions of this code have been brought into force. The remaining provisions of this code will be brought into force on a date to be notified by the Government of India. It subsumes several separate legislations including the Employee's Compensation Act, 1923, the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, the Employment Exchanges (Compulsory Notification of Vacancies) Act, 1959, the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, and the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

(iv) The Industrial Relations Code, 2020 received the assent of the President of India on September 28, 2020, and it proposes to subsume three existing legislations, namely, the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Trade Unions Act, 1926 and the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946. The Industrial Relations Code, 2020 has come into effect from November 21, 2025.

Any non-compliance with the above can attract penalties and imprisonment, under the respective labour codes. These four labour codes have been made fully operational with effect from April 1, 2026

2. State shops' and establishments' legislations

D. Other Relevant Legislations

1. *The Information Technology Act, 2000 and the Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules, 2011

The Information Technology Act, 2000 ("IT Act") seeks to (i) provide legal recognition to transactions carried out by various means of electronic data interchange and other means of electronic communication, commonly referred to as "electronic commerce", involving alternatives to paper-based methods of communication and storage of information, (ii) facilitate electronic filing of documents and (iii) create a mechanism for the authentication of electronic documentation through digital signatures. The IT Act facilitates electronic commerce by recognizing contracts concluded through electronic means, protects intermediaries in respect of third-party information liability and creates liability for failure to protect sensitive personal data. The IT Act also prescribes civil and criminal liability including fines and imprisonment, for computer related offences including those relating to unauthorized access to computer systems, tampering with or unauthorised manipulation of any computer, computer system or computer network and, damaging computer systems and creates liability for negligence in dealing with or handling any sensitive personal data or information in a computer resource and in maintaining reasonable security practices and procedures in relation thereto. The IT Act empowers the Government of India to formulate rules with respect to reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data. In exercise of this power, the Department of Information Technology, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, Government of India, in April 2011, notified the Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules, 2011 ("IT Security Rules") prescribe directions for the collection, disclosure, and transfer of sensitive personal data by a body corporate or any person acting on behalf of a body corporate. The IT Security Rules further require that all such personal data be used solely for the purposes for which it was collected and any third-party disclosure of such data is made with the prior consent of the information provider, unless contractually agreed upon between them or where such disclosure is mandated by law.

2. *The Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023

The Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 (“DPDP Act”) received the assent of the President of India on August 11, 2023 and the provisions of the DPDP Act shall come into effect on such date as the Central Government may notify in the official gazette. The DPDP Act provides for collection and processing of digital personal data by persons, including companies. Further, companies collecting and dealing in high volumes of personal data are defined as significant data fiduciaries. ## FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Our business is subjected to various risks and uncertainties, including those discussed in the section titled “Risk Factor” beginning on page 24 of this DRHP. Our results of operations and financial conditions are affected by numerous factors including the following:

- Our revenue is substantially dependent on our B2B technology led education solutions for colleges and schools and our B2C test preparation and text books for competitive exams. Our inability to manage, sustain, or grow our customer base in these segments could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.
- The demand for our training and employability enhancement services may be adversely affected by a reduction in campus recruitment activities, particularly by IT and technology companies.
- Our success depends substantially on our ability to attract and retain faculty members. Any significant decrease in the number of our faculty members or a failure to attract persons of adequate competence could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.
- Our ability to attract and retain students depends on multiple factors, including our reputation, the quality of our courses and faculty, and student outcomes. Any failure in this regard could materially impact our business and financial condition.
- Our business is dependent on continued adoption of our solutions by schools, colleges and other educational institutions and on prevailing trends in the education sector. Any adverse changes in such trends or our inability to maintain and expand our relationships with educational institutions may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- Our test preparation business is dependent on student enrolments, continued demand for competitive examination preparation services, the success of our course offerings and educational content, and our ability to effectively operate and expand our offline and online delivery models. Any adverse developments in these areas may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- Our college branding and marketing services business is dependent on our ability to attract and retain educational institutions, maintain and grow our student database and digital platforms, and continue to generate measurable value for our clients. Any failure to do so may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

- Our business is dependent on our proprietary course content, study materials and other intellectual property. Any unauthorised use, disclosure, misappropriation or reproduction of such content by our employees, faculty members, consultants or third parties may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
- A significant portion of the Net Proceeds is proposed to be utilised towards the development of new AI-powered technology platforms and AI-ready academic content, and any delay, cost overrun, technological failure, inability to achieve commercial adoption or failure to realise the anticipated benefits from such investments could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Mindtree Limited (now succeeded by LTIMindtree Limited) (the “Plaintiff”) filed a civil suit bearing no. Com.O.S. 418/2025 under sections 134 and 135 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999 before the Court of the XVIII Additional City Civil and Sessions Judge, Bengaluru against our Promoters, namely Hridesh Madan, Deepak Kumar, Sanjay Kumar and Intellis Resources Private Limited, alleging infringement and passing off in relation to the plaintiff’s trademark “MINDTREE.” The Plaintiff has alleged that the defendants adopted and used marks such as “Mind Tree,” “Mind Tree School,” “Mind Tree School of Management,” and “Mind Tree Institute of Management,” which are allegedly deceptively similar to the plaintiff’s trademark and likely to cause confusion among consumers. The Plaintiff has sought, inter alia, permanent injunction restraining the defendants from using the impugned marks along with other consequential reliefs. Our Promoters filed their written statement denying the allegations and contending, inter alia, that they are prior users of the mark “Mind Tree” in relation to educational services and have been operating educational institutions under the said name since around 1999, and that their services are distinct from the plaintiff’s business activities. During the course of the proceedings, our Company filed interlocutory application under Section 124 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999, seeking framing of an issue regarding the validity of the plaintiff’s registered trademark “Mindtree Active” and stay of the suit to enable them to initiate rectification proceedings before the competent authority. The plaintiff filed objections to the said application and vide order dated January 19, 2023, the trial court allowed the application and granted the defendants three months’ time to approach the appropriate authority for rectification of the trademark register. Aggrieved by the said order, LTIMindtree Limited (successor-in-interest of Mindtree Limited) filed Writ Petition High Court of Karnataka bearing no. 11129/2023 under article 227 of the Constitution of India, challenging the order dated January 19, 2023 passed by the trial court. Subsequently, during the proceedings, the trial court framed a preliminary issue regarding pecuniary jurisdiction and, by order dated March 1, 2025, held that the dispute constitutes a commercial dispute relating to intellectual property rights and that the court lacked pecuniary jurisdiction in view of the provisions of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. Accordingly, in exercise of powers under Section 15(2) of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, the suit was transferred to the jurisdictional Commercial Court at Bengaluru. As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the suit is pending before the Addl. City Civil and Sessions Judge, Commercial Courts, Bengaluru and is presently at the stage of issuance of summons and listed for hearing on June 30, 2026, and the aforesaid writ petition is pending adjudication before the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka.

LTIMindtree Limited (the "Petitioner") filed a writ petition bearing no. 15967/2025 before the High Court of Karnataka under Article 227 of the Constitution of India challenging the order dated March 01.2025 passed by the XVIII Addl. City Civil and Sessions Judge, Bengaluru, whereby case bearing O.S. No. 4463 of 2017 (the "trial court matter") concerning trademark infringement of the mark "MINDTREE" was transferred to the Commercial Court, Bengaluru. The petitioner contended that although the dispute may qualify as a commercial dispute by subject matter, it failed to satisfy the pecuniary threshold applicable on the date of institution of the suit, i.e., July 01.2017, when the minimum specified value under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 was ₹100.00 lakhs. Accordingly, the petitioner sought setting aside of the impugned transfer order, restoration of the suit to the regular civil court, and interim stay of further proceedings before the Commercial Court. The High Court issued notice vide order June 06, 2025 to the respondents and granted an interim stay as on the trial court matter. As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the writ petition is pending adjudication before the High Court of Karnataka.

Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. SEBI vide its circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till March 31, 2020. However, the time duration from public Issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days (T+6) during this phase.

Phase III/ T+3: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 ("T+3 Notification"). Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue, it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹ 24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹ 22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the BRLM, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹ 22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

BASIS OF ALLOTMENT

Allotment will be made in consultation with the National Stock Exchange of India Limited. In the event of oversubscription, the allotment will be made on a proportionate basis in marketable lots as set forth here:

The total number of Shares to be allocated to each category as a whole shall be arrived at on a proportionate basis i.e. the total number of Shares applied for in that category multiplied by the inverse of the over subscription ratio (number of applicants in the category X number of Shares applied for).

The number of Shares to be allocated to the successful applicants will be arrived at on a proportionate basis in marketable lots (i.e. Total number of Shares applied for into the inverse of the over subscription ratio).

For applications where the proportionate allotment works out to less than [●] equity shares the allotment will be made as follows:

Each successful applicant shall be allotted [●] equity shares; and

The successful applicants out of the total applicants for that category shall be determined by the drawl of lots in such a manner that the total number of Shares allotted in that category is equal to the number of Shares worked out as per (2) above.

If the proportionate allotment to an applicant works out to a number that is not a multiple of [●] equity shares, the applicant would be allotted Shares by rounding off to the nearest multiple of [●] equity shares subject to a minimum allotment of [●] equity shares.

If the Shares allotted on a proportionate basis to any category is more than the Shares allotted to the applicants in that category, the balance available Shares for allocation shall be first adjusted against any category, where the allotted Shares are not sufficient for proportionate allotment to the successful applicants in that category, the balance Shares, if any, remaining after such adjustment will be added to the category comprising of applicants applying for the minimum number of Shares. If as a result of the process of rounding off to the nearest multiple of [●] equity shares, results in the actual allotment being higher than the shares issued, the final allotment may be higher at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, up to 110% of the size of the Issue specified under the Capital Structure mentioned in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The above proportionate allotment of shares in an Issue that is oversubscribed shall be subject to the reservation for small individual applicants as described below:

As the Individual Investor category is entitled to more than fifty percent on a proportional basis, the Individual Investors shall be allocated that higher percentage.

The balance net issue of shares to the public shall be made available for allotment to

Individual applicants other than Individual Investors and

Other investors, including Corporate Bodies/ Institutions irrespective of the number of shares applied for.
