2	% of Revenue from Operations	100%	-	95.31%	96.49%	91.26%

*The % has been derived by dividing the total amount received from top ten customers with the Revenue from operations of the company in the relevant year as mentioned in the Profit and Loss Statement as given in restated financials of the company.

As our business is currently concentrated among relatively few significant customers, we may experience reduction in cash flows and liquidity and our business would be negatively affected if we lose one or more of our major customers or if the amount of business from one or more of them is significantly reduced for any reason, including but not limited to a dispute with or disqualification by a major customer.

4. Our top three states contribute our major revenue for the period ended 30 June 2024 and for the year ended 31st March 2024, 2023, 2022. Any loss of business from one or more of these states may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our business operations span various regions across India and extend beyond international borders. Despite our diversified presence, we have a significant dependency on Delhi, Uttar Pradesh and Haryana, which contributed (100%, 91.86%, 94.36%, and 74.03%) of our total revenue from operations for the period ended on 30th June 2024, and for the financial years ending on March 31, 2024; March 31, 2023; and March 31, 2022, respectively.

Any factors relating to political and geographical changes in these states, growing competition and any change in demand may adversely affect our business. We cannot assure that we shall generate the same quantum of business, or any business at all, from these states, and loss of business from one or more of them may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

The contribution of top three states to our total revenue is as follows:

However, it is important to note that the above table is not entirely reflective of the geographical reach of our product. This is because one of our major clients, the Central Medical Services Society (CMSS), is a Central Procurement Agency established with the Cabinet's approval on 24th August 2011, to streamline the drug procurement and distribution system for the Department of Health & Family Welfare (DoHFW), under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India.

CMSS procures high-quality health-sector goods from us, adhering to the directives of the Government of India, and ensures timely and uninterrupted supply to State Governments and Union Territories. We supply goods to various CMSS warehouses located across multiple states. However, these transactions are recorded as sales in Delhi since CMSS is registered in Delhi.

Although, our company is in the process of undertaking necessary transfer formalities including submission of appropriate documentation for change of name we cannot confirm that this would be done in a timely manner and without facing any administrative delays. Such administrative delays could delay access to benefits, licenses, permits, or any legal endorsements required by our company. Contracts and agreements that were created under the partnership firm may face enforceability issues if new clients or partners insist on documents under the new name.

For details on the licenses, certificates etc. that are pending to be transferred in the name of our company, please refer to chapter titled “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page 263 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We may be required to fund the operations of our Subsidiary in the future and our investments in our Subsidiary may eventually be written off, which could subject us to additional liabilities and could have an adverse effect on our Company’s reputation, profitability and financial condition.

Our Subsidiary, Anondita Healthcare and Rubber Products (India) Limited, have incurred losses in the past, details of which are set out below:

(Amount in Rs. Lakhs)

Particulars	FY 2024	FY 2023	FY 2022

We may be required to fund the operations of our Subsidiary in the future and our investments in our Subsidiary may eventually be written-off, which could subject us to additional liabilities and could have an adverse effect on our Company's reputation, profitability and financial condition. We may similarly be required to furnish guarantees in the future to secure the financial obligations of our Subsidiary and in the event that any corporate guarantees provided by us are invoked, we may be required to pay the amount outstanding under such facilities availed, resulting in an adverse effect on our business, cash flows and financial condition.

8. We are dependent on third parties for the distribution and marketing of our products. If we do not maintain and increase the number of our arrangements for the marketing and distribution of our products, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Although, we sell and distribute majority of our products through our subsidiary, Anondita Healthcare & Rubber Products India Limited, we also rely on our stockiest, Calcutta Cosmetics and a bunch of other distributors to sell our products. In many of the regions, in which we do not have a presence through our subsidiary, we generally market, sell and distribute our products through third-party distributors. We also sell our products directly to several Governmental Procurement Agencies/Aids Prevention Societies. The following table sets forth details on our distributors, for the years indicated:

(Amount in Lakhs)

Particulars	Anondita Medicare Limited		M/s Anondita Healthcare (Proprietorship)
	June 30, 2024	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Anondita Healthcare & Rubber Products (I) Limited	389.59	-	903.27	692.92	57.05
Stockist	124.95	-	630.02	708.73	738.09
Governmental Procurement Agencies/ AIDS Prevention Societies	1,259.40	-	1,980.03	1,088.92	-
Other Distributors	29.15	-	1,129.89	938.50	969.52
Export	-	-	-	162.42	545.27
Total	1,803.09	-	4,643.21	3,591.49	2,309.93

Although, we have entered into an agreement with our stockiest, Calcutta Cosmetics; we do not have long term agreements with our third-party distributors. We engage our distributors either on an exclusive basis for a particular territory or a non-exclusive basis, depending on the geography. We have limited control over the operations and businesses of such third-party entities. As such, our dependence on such parties subjects us to a number of other risks, including (i) not being able to control the amount and timing of resources that they may devote to the marketing, selling and distribution of our products, (ii) the making of important marketing and other commercial decisions concerning our products without our input, (iii) financial difficulties, and (iv) significant changes in a distributor's business strategy that may adversely affect its willingness or ability to fulfil its obligations under any arrangement.

Further, we may not be able to find suitable distributors or successfully enter into arrangements on commercially reasonable terms or at all. Moreover, we retain some of our distributors on a non-exclusive basis, which allows them to engage with our competitors. We also compete for suitable distributors with other leading pharmaceutical companies that may have more visibility, greater brand recognition and financial resources, and a broader product portfolio than we do. If our competitors provide greater incentives to our distributors, our distributors may choose to promote the products of our competitors instead of our products.

As a result of these arrangements, many of the variables that may affect our business, are not exclusively within our control. Our reliance on, and inability to control, our marketing and distribution agents could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. None of our marketing and distribution agents have terminated their arrangements with us during the past three Financial Years. However, if any of these arrangements are terminated for any reason, or if our partners fail to fulfil their obligations or otherwise do not effectively market, sell or distribute our products, or if our relationships with any of such partners are disrupted, our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected.

9. There may be potential conflict of interests between Our Company, our Subsidiary, our Group Companies and other venture or enterprises promoted by our promoter or directors (Our Promoter Group Companies).

The main business object/activities of our subsidiary, our group companies and our promoter group companies viz, Anondita Healthcare and Rubber Products India Limited, Anondita Healthcare Products Private Limited, Anondita Latex Products India Private Limited, Anondita Exultia Healthcare Private Limited, Anondita Healthcare Private Limited permit them to undertake similar business to that of our business, which may create a potential conflict of interest and which in turn, may have an implication on our operations and profits. Conflicts of interests may arise in allocating business opportunities between our Company, our Subsidiary, our Group Company and our Promoter group Companies' activities in circumstances where their respective interests diverge. Further, our Group Companies are allowed to carry on activities as per their MOA, which are similar to the activities carried by our Company. Further, our Promoters Mr. Anupam Ghosh, Mrs. Sonia Ghosh, and Mr. Reshant Ghosh are Directors on the board of our Subsidiary and our Group Companies. This may be a potential source of conflict of interest in addressing business opportunities, strategies, implementing new plans and affixing priorities. In cases of conflict, our Promoters may favour other companies in which they have an interest.

To mitigate these risks, it is essential to establish clear policies and procedures for identifying, disclosing, and managing conflicts of interest. Implementing robust governance frameworks, including independent board oversight and transparent reporting mechanisms, can help ensure that potential conflicts are addressed proactively and transparently. Our company has executed a non-compete agreement dated September 09, 2024 with our subsidiary, our group company and our promoter group companies (Anondita Healthcare and Rubber Products India Limited, Anondita Healthcare Products Private Limited, Anondita Latex Products India Private Limited, Anondita Exultia Healthcare Private Limited, Anondita Healthcare Private Limited) to mitigate potential risks that may arise in the future.

10. Our company has limited operational experience and as such we may not be able to evaluate our business on the basis of past performance and compete in the industry due to limited history of our company.

Our company was incorporated on March 12, 2024 and thus has limited operational experience. Although, our promoter, Mr. Anupam Ghosh, has 25 years of experience in the business of manufacturing and sale of condoms, and our company had acquired the entire running business of the erstwhile proprietorship of our promoter, Mr. Anupam Ghosh, along with its goodwill, customers, assets etc. However, the primary concerns include an unproven past record and limited historical data, which may not allow to accurately reflect our future growth prospects or operational results. The company's success may rely heavily on the promoter's expertise, raising dependence and continuity risks. Limited operational data can make scalability and long-term growth difficult to assess, and there may be challenges in adapting fully to industry regulations and compliance. Nonetheless, the promoter's extensive experience and the goodwill of the M/s Anondita Healthcare, the proprietorship whose business has been acquired by our company, may help mitigate some of these risks by providing strategic direction, industry insights, trusted suppliers, and loyal customers.

11. Our proposed capital expenditure relating to purchase of plant and machinery is subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation and cost overruns.

We intend to use a part of our Net proceeds towards purchase of plant and machinery, as given in "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page no. 92 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Our proposed capital expenditure relating to the purchase of plant and machinery is subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation. These delays can disrupt the project timeline, delaying the operationality of critical additional manufacturing lines* that are essential for our business operations. Additionally, delays may lead to increased costs as the company may need to allocate more resources or extend contracts with the suppliers and or manufacturers of the machineries, to meet the revised timeline. Further, developing a manufacturing line* involves complex, multi-phase steps with potential for scope changes, unforeseen technical challenges, and additional requirements that emerge during the process. These factors can lead to cost overruns, where the actual expenditure exceeds the initial budget. These financial burdens can strain our budget, potentially requiring reallocation of funds from other critical areas or increasing our reliance on external financing. There can be no assurance that we will be able to complete the aforementioned expansion and additions in accordance with the proposed schedule of implementation and any delay could have an adverse impact on our growth, prospects, cash flows and financial condition.

A Manufacturing line is defined as a flow-oriented system consisting of multiple condom moulds which are arranged in a specific order to optimize the production process of final products. For more details on the manufacturing process please refer to Chapter titled 'Our Business' on page 146 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.*

12. Our company operations require significant amount of working capital for our smooth day to day operations and continuing growth of business. Any discontinuance or our inability to procure adequate working capital timely and on favorable terms may have an adverse effect on our operations, profitability, and growth prospects.

Our Company's business operations require a significant amount of working capital. In our business, working capital is often required to procure raw material and packaging material, maintain our machineries and manufacturing lines, and to pay salaries and wages of employees. In the event, we are unable to source the required amount of working capital, we might not be able to efficiently satisfy the demand of our clients in a timely manner or at all. Even if we are able to source the required amount of funds, we cannot assure you that such funds would be sufficient to meet our cost estimates, which could have adverse effect on our financial conditions and results of operations.

The details of our working capital for the Actual (Restated) and Projected period are as follows:

There exist substantial requirement of working capital and financing in the form of fund and non-fund based working capital facilities to meet our requirements. Our inability to maintain sufficient cash flow, credit facility and other sourcing of funding, in a timely manner, or at all, to meet the requirement of working capital or pay our debts, could adversely affect our financial condition and our results of operations.

13. Our Company has entered into certain related party transactions in the past and may continue to do so in the future.

As of June 30, 2024, we have entered into several related party transactions with our Promoters, individuals and entities forming a part of our promoter group relating to our operations amounting to an aggregate Rs. ___ Lakhs. In addition, we have in the past also entered into transactions with other related parties. However, the related party transactions entered into with Promoters/ Directors/ Promoter Group are on arm length basis and are in compliance with Section 188 of Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable laws and we confirm that the future transactions shall be in compliance with Companies Act, SEBI Regulation etc.

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Financial Information – Restated Financial Information – Restated Statement of Related Party Transactions” beginning on page 231. While we believe that all our related party transactions have been conducted on an arm’s length basis as per the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot assure you that we may not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or taken together, will not have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition, including because of potential conflicts of interest or otherwise. In addition, our business and growth prospects may decline if we cannot benefit from our relationship with them in the future.

14. Any delay, interruption or reduction in the supply of our raw materials from our third-party suppliers and manufacturers, or an increase in the costs of such raw materials, may adversely impact the pricing and supply of our products and have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

We depend on third-party suppliers for certain of our raw materials. The key raw materials that we use for our manufacturing operations include Amonia NH₃, Calcium Carbonate, Eunox, Caustic Soda, Sulphur for our formulations, Latex key starting materials and other materials such as Silicon Oil, Tamol, Zinc, Magnesium etc and packaging materials. The following table sets forth our raw materials costs, in absolute terms for the years indicated, and as per the restated standalone financial information:

(Amount in Rs. Lakhs)

Particulars	Anondita Medicare Limited		M/s Anondita Healthcare (Proprietorship)
	June 30, 2024	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Cost of Material Consumed	860.71	-	3147.09	2887.63	2052.29
Total Expenses	1,514.77	0.38	4,140.27	3,567.21	2,106.16
% of Total Expenses	56.82%	-	76.01%	80.95%	97.44%

If there are any delays or disruptions in the manufacturing facilities of such third-party suppliers, our ability to deliver certain products may be affected. Any of our third-party suppliers and manufacturers’ failure to adhere to contractually agreed timelines, whether due to their inability to comply with, or obtain, regulatory approvals, or otherwise, may result in delays and disruptions to our supplies, increased costs, delayed payments for our products and damage to our reputation leading to an adverse effect on our cash flows and results of operations. In the past three Financial Years, we have not experienced any significant disruptions in the supply of the raw materials.

15. We are subject to extensive government regulations which are also subject to change. If we fail to comply with the applicable regulations prescribed by the governments and the relevant regulatory agencies, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations will be adversely affected.

We operate in a highly regulated industry and our operations, including our development, testing, research, manufacturing, marketing and sales activities, are subject to extensive laws and regulations in India. For example, the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, as amended (the “Drugs and Cosmetics Act”) regulates and prohibits the import, manufacture and sale of certain drugs and cosmetics and also applies to the manufacturing of condoms. Further, Schedule R of the Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945 provides for ‘Standards for Condoms Made of Rubber Latex Intended for Single Use and Other Mechanical Contraceptives’ wherein various aspects including the description of the condoms, the material, the dimensions, the requirements for the average tensile strength elongation at break, procedure for testing, sampling of condoms, labelling and packing of the same have been dealt with in detail. As such, the company must adhere to these stringent regulations governing the manufacturing, packaging, labeling, marketing, and distribution of condoms. Any changes or updates to these regulations could require the company to alter its manufacturing processes or marketing strategies.

Any violations of the provisions of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and the Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945 including those pertaining to the manufacturing, packaging, labeling, marketing and distribution of condoms are punishable by a fine, imprisonment or both. If we fail to comply with the applicable regulations, we may be subject to penalties, incur increased costs, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer a disruption in our operations. For details of regulations and policies applicable to our business, see “Key Regulations and Policies” beginning on page 173 of this Draft red Herring Prospectus.

Further, the Government of India may implement new laws or other regulations and policies that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain fresh approvals and licenses from the Government of India. For instance, the draft of the Drugs, Medical Devices and Cosmetics Bill, 2022 was proposed by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India in July 2022 to consolidate the law relating to the import, manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs, medical devices and cosmetics as well as the law relating to clinical trials of new drugs and clinical investigation of investigational medical devices in India, which may eventually replace the prevailing Drugs and Cosmetics Act. Any change in the regulations, enforcement procedures or regulatory policies set by the relevant regulatory agencies could increase the costs or time of development of our products and delay or prevent sales of our products.

16. We are required to obtain, maintain or renew our statutory and regulatory approvals, licenses, and registrations to operate our business.

We are required to obtain and maintain a number of statutory and regulatory permits and approvals under central, state and local government rules in India, including regulations implemented by regulators such as the Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (“CDSCO”), the Rubber Board, Ministry of Commerce and Industry; State Drug Licensing Authority, among others. Such requisite licenses, permits and authorizations pertain to the manufacturing industry and include, among others, manufacturing permits, factory licenses, and environmental, health and safety permits, such as those required under the Factories Act, 1948, the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974, the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981, each as amended. We are also required to comply with the regulations and quality standards stipulated by regulators in jurisdictions where we market and sell our products from time to time and have ongoing obligations to regulatory authorities in such markets.

The cost of acquiring authorizations and approvals for conducting our business can be substantial. While we have not had any material instances of failure to obtain, maintain or renew approvals, licenses, and registrations required to conduct our businesses in India, we cannot assure you that approvals, licenses and registrations will be successfully granted or renewed in the future. We also cannot assure you that they will not be suspended or revoked in the future. Failure to obtain, maintain or renew the approvals, licenses and registrations required to operate our business could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

17. Any problems in our quality control or manufacturing processes may damage our reputation, subject us to regulatory action and expose us to litigation or other liabilities.

Pharmaceutical companies, such as ours, have obligations to, and are required to comply with the regulations and quality standards stipulated by regulators, including the Department of Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation (CDSCO), The Rubber Board, Ministry of Commerce & Industry and other regulatory agencies. While there is no fixed frequency of inspections, our manufacturing facilities and products are subject to multiple periodic inspection/audits by these regulatory agencies. Our products may be recalled due to quality issues and changes in the relevant regulatory requirements. We may proactively take corrective measures such as voluntary withdrawals of our products based on the outcome of the internal investigation of our manufacturing facilities or our processes.

Further, we have not received any critical adverse remarks or critical adverse observations as a result of such inspections over the last three Financial Years. However, we have, in the past, voluntarily withdrawn certain of our products on a precautionary basis while maintaining communication with the CMSS, for whom we manufacture condoms under the Nirodh brand.

While we maintain manufacturing and packaging process controls that enable us to assess any complaints or concerns relating to our products and take corrective measures in a timely manner, we cannot assure you that we will continue to be in compliance with the relevant regulatory requirements or quality control standards in the future or that our products will not be recalled in the future. If we are not in compliance with relevant regulatory requirements or quality control standards or if any of our products are recalled in the future, this may lead to loss of customer loyalty, damage to our brands and exposure to expensive legal proceedings, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

18. Our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Our production and distribution processes rely on anticipating product demand based on feedback from our marketing team and distributors. Accurately assessing market demand requires substantial investment in our sales and marketing network, as well as in the training of our marketing staff. Our business success is closely tied to how well we can estimate the demand for our products from customers. The following table sets forth details of our inventory levels, as per our Restated Standalone Financial Information, as of and for the years indicated:

(Amount in Rs. Lakhs)

Particulars	Anondita Medicare Limited		M/s Anondita Healthcare (Proprietorship)
	June 30, 2024	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Inventories	360.36	-	710.15	747.65	689.59
Current Assets	3,676.46	10.00	2,484.33	2,293.14	1,175.78
Inventories as a percentage of Current Assets (%)	9.80%	-	28.59%	32.60%	58.65%

While we strive to forecast demand as accurately as possible and plan production volumes accordingly, there is no guarantee that our estimates will always be precise. If we underestimate demand or lack sufficient production capacity, we may manufacture fewer quantities of products than required and be unable to meet the demand for our products, which could result in the loss of business or constraints in cash flows. We have not experienced any material instances of financial losses due to incorrect forecasting for demand of our products in the past three Financial Years.

19. Our company had obtained secured loans amounting to Rs. 2462.46 lakhs and unsecured loans amounting to Rs. 501.42 lakhs on a consolidated basis until June 30th 2024. As such any fluctuation in interest rates or change in repayment plan may adversely affect our Company's business. Moreover, unsecured loans could be recalled by our lenders at any time, which may be earlier than anticipated, affecting our repayment schedule.

Our company had obtained secured loans amounting to Rs. 2462.46 lakhs and unsecured loans amounting to Rs. 501.42 lakhs on a consolidated basis until June 30th 2024. As such, our company faces the risk of rising interest rates which increase our debt servicing costs, impacting our cash flow and leading to a liquidity crunch.

Further, we have outstanding unsecured loans of Rs. 501.42 Lakhs as at June 30, 2024 on a consolidated basis, which may be recalled by the lenders at any time. In the event that the lenders seek a repayment of any such loans, our company would need to find alternative sources of financing, which may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all, which may affect the result of operation and financial conditions of our business.

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 251 of this draft red herring prospectus.

20. Any disruption, slowdown or shutdown in our manufacturing operations could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

As of June 30, 2024, we operate a single manufacturing facility in Noida, Uttar Pradesh. The success of our business heavily depends on our ability to efficiently manage this facility, which faces various risks and challenges, including equipment breakdowns, industrial accidents, increasing costs for raw materials, consumables, labor, and difficulties in reaching optimal production levels. Other potential issues include product quality concerns, disruptions in power or water supply, delays in obtaining or renewing required approvals, and external factors such as extreme weather, natural disasters, labor strikes, or civil unrest. Additionally, changes in state or local government regulations and policies where our manufacturing facility is located may impact our operations.

Any of the above potential event could negatively affect our ability to meet our business commitments, impacting earnings during the affected period. Although we have not faced such disruptions in the past, we cannot guarantee that our operations will continue smoothly in the future. Our inability to effectively respond to any such disruption, slowdown or shutdown, and rectifying any disruption in a timely manner and at a reasonable cost, could result in us being unable to satisfy our contractual commitments, which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

21. We may be required to enter into strategic partnerships and acquisitions in the future, in relation to our growth strategy. If we are unable to successfully identify and integrate acquisitions, our growth strategy and prospects may be adversely affected.

We intend to utilise Rs. [●] Lakhs of our IPO proceeds for unidentified acquisitions. We have also mentioned the same in the chapter titled “Our Objects” beginning on Page 92 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Our Company may enter into strategic acquisitions and takeovers that are complementary to our business operations, including opportunities that can help us further improve our technology, profitability and market reach. These strategic acquisitions and subsequent integrations of newly acquired businesses would require significant managerial and financial resources and could result in a diversion of resources from our existing business, which in turn could have an adverse effect on our growth, profitability and business operations. Acquired businesses or assets may not generate expected financial results, integration opportunities, synergies and other benefits immediately, or at all, and may also incur losses. The cost and duration of integrating newly acquired businesses could also materially exceed our expectations, which could negatively affect our results of operation. We may also incur reputational or financial losses to resolve outstanding litigations, contractual liabilities or financial indebtedness we inherit from our strategic acquisitions. We may also face operational and structural integration challenges in integrating IT systems, retaining relationships with key employees of acquired businesses, and increased regulatory and compliance requirements. If any of such challenges are not resolved in our favour, we could lose opportunities in strategic acquisitions and alliances, and our business, financial condition and results of operations will be materially and adversely affected. We may face litigation, arbitral or other claims in connection with, or may inherit such claims or liabilities, as a result of any strategic transaction, including claims from erstwhile employees, distributors, customers, business partners or other third parties. Any inability to identify suitable acquisition, investment or other strategic growth opportunities or to complete such transactions on commercially viable terms in the future may adversely affect our competitiveness or growth prospects.

22. Any failure to maintain and enhance, or any damage to, our brands, product image or reputation could adversely affect the market recognition of, and trust in, our products.

Our business prospects depend on our ability to build, maintain and enhance our brands, product image and reputation, which in turn depend on our ability to effectively control our product quality and effectiveness, increase brand recognition among existing and potential customers through various means of marketing activities and effectively protect our intellectual property rights. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain our existing brand recognition, increase the covered market presence of our brands or continue to expand the brands in our portfolio. Furthermore, any unintended negative publicity in relation to our products or our brand ambassadors would damage our brands, product image and reputation. However, we cannot assure you that our campaigns or similar advertisements will not be continuously scrutinized by the public or extensively regulated by the Government of India in the future, which may in turn affect our reputation and increase our marketing and compliance costs.

23. We may be required to make substantial investments in brand ambassadors, product design, marketing, advertising, community relations and employee training.

As of June 30th, 2024 and for the Financial Years 2024 and 2023, we incurred advertising expenses of ₹47.39 lakhs, ₹0.08 lakhs, and ₹0.26 lakhs, respectively, representing 3.13%, 0.002%, and 0.007% of our total expenses for these years, respectively (On the basis of Restated Standalone Financial Statements). Although, our advertising and business promotion expenses are a meagre percentage of our total expenses for the past two financial years and for the stub period, the increase in advertising expenses from FY 2024 to the period ended June 30, 2024 represents a staggering 61,440.90% increase in a span of three months. This is primarily due to the hiring of celebrity faces as brand ambassadors to endorse our brand, who charge a premium over and above other means of advertising and marketing. We have also spent a considerable amount of money to enhance our digital visibility and online presence. However, our efforts to market our brands may not always achieve the desired success, and if these investments and initiatives are not well-timed with market opportunities or effectively executed, our operational results could be impacted. As we continue to look for new opportunities and face growing competition, we expect that maintaining and strengthening our brands will require ongoing effort and could result in substantial costs for the business. If our marketing activities fail to yield the intended results, or we fail to maintain or enhance our brand recognition and reputation or increase positive awareness of our products, or the quality of our products declines, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected.

24. Certain Loans and Borrowings are reported in the financial statements of our company but have not actually been transferred in the name of our company.

Our Company was incorporated as a Public Limited Company under the name “Anondita Medicare Limited” on March 12, 2024. Prior to this, the business of the company was run by our current promoter, Mr. Anupam Ghosh, as a sole proprietorship under the name of M/s Anondita Healthcare. Further, the entire business of M/s Anondita Healthcare, including all assets and liabilities, were transferred to our company, Anondita Medicare Limited, vide Business Transfer Agreement dated April 01, 2024.

As such, certain loans and borrowings are recorded under the name of "M/s Anondita Healthcare" in the records of banks, financial institutions, and lenders. The inclusion of borrowings and loans that have not yet been transferred poses a considerable financial risk, leading to uncertainty around the company's operations, liquidity, and potentially weakening trust in its financial integrity. However, our company has already initiated the process of transferring these borrowings and loans in the name of the company i.e. "Anondita Medicare Limited".

- 25. If we do not successfully develop or commercialize new products in a timely manner, or if the products that we commercialize do not perform as expected, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Our growth strategies and success depend significantly on our ability to develop and commercialize new niche and complex products in a timely manner. Although, we are one of the few companies globally to formulate and patent female condoms, the development and commercialization processes are both time consuming and costly, and involves a high degree of business risk. Commercialization of such new products may prompt operational changes in our existing manufacturing setup or require new manufacturing facilities which will increase our fixed costs. During these periods, our competitors may be developing similar products of which we are unaware that could compete directly or indirectly with our products under development. Additionally, we may not be able to achieve the first-to-market stage if our competitors commercialize similar products before us. Such unforeseen competition may hinder our ability to effectively plan the timing of our product development, which could have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition.

- 26. Our Company is yet to place orders for the machineries for our proposed object of capital expenditure related to purchase of machinery, as specified in the Objects of the Issue. Any delay in placing orders, procurement of machineries etc. may delay our implementation schedule and may also lead to increase in price of these plant & machineries, further affecting our revenue and profitability.

Our Company has not yet placed orders for any of the machinery necessary for our proposed object of capital expenditure related to purchase of machinery as outlined in the Objects of the Issue. Any delays in the ordering or procurement process could hinder our implementation schedule, potentially resulting in increased costs for these assets. Such delays may adversely affect our operational timelines and could lead to a reduction in revenue and profitability. We recognize that fluctuations in market conditions may further exacerbate these risks, impacting our ability to achieve our strategic goals within the anticipated timeframe. Also, since we intend to purchase some of our machineries from China, changes in foreign exchange rates might also lead to increase in procurement costs, thereby affecting our capex estimates and ultimately our revenue and profitability.

- 27. Our success depends on our ability to retain and attract qualified senior management and other key personnel, and if we are not able to retain them or recruit additional qualified personnel, we may be unable to successfully develop our business.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our individual Promoters, senior management and other key personnel. Our Promoter and Managing Director, Mr. Anupam Ghosh has 25 years of experience in the healthcare products manufacturing industry. Our Promoter and Executive Directors, Mrs. Sonia Ghosh has 10 years of experience in administrative activities and human resources management meanwhile Mr. Reshant has 3 years of experience in marketing, respectively. Further, our Chief Financial Officer, Ms. Sunita Nathani has an experience of 20 years in finance industry and our Company Secretary and compliance officer, Ms. Nutan Agrawal, has an experience of 5 years as practicing company secretary.

We believe that the inputs and experience of our individual Promoters, senior management and key managerial personnel are valuable for the growth and development of business and operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. Competition among pharmaceutical companies for qualified employees is intense, and the ability to retain and attract qualified individuals is critical to our success. Furthermore, as we expect to continue to expand our operations and develop new products, we will need to continue to attract and retain experienced senior management and sales personnel.

We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees for our business needs. We cannot assure you that we will be able to recruit and retain qualified and capable employees or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all. If we lose the services of any of member of our management team or key personnel, we may be unable to locate suitable or qualified replacements, and may incur additional expenses to recruit and train new personnel. The loss of the services of such persons may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

- 28. The pharmaceutical and consumer healthcare industries are intensely competitive and if we are unable to respond adequately to the increased competition or pricing pressure we expect to face, we could lose market share and our revenues and profits could decline, which would in turn adversely affect our business.

The pharmaceutical and consumer healthcare industries are highly competitive with several major pharmaceutical companies present. Our products face intense competition from products commercialized or under development by competitors in pharmaceuticals and consumer healthcare industries. We may not be able to sustain our market position and market share as we compete with regional or multi-national companies. If our competitors gain significant market share at our expense, particularly in the male contraceptive category which contribute to a significant portion of our total revenue, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations could be adversely affected.

- 29. We may be unable to obtain and maintain the intellectual property rights for our brands or be able to prevent unauthorised use of trademarks obtained/ applied for by third parties, which may lead to the dilution of our goodwill.

As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we do not have the logo of our company registered in the name of our company and the same is used under a Right of Use granted by our promoter, Mr. Anupam Ghosh, under whose name the logo is registered under the Trademarks Act, 1999. Also, the word mark of the name of our company 'Anondita Medicare' is under the process of registration and has not yet been registered. As such, there is a risk that we may not be able to effectively prevent unauthorized use of our trademarks by third parties, including those that have obtained or applied for similar trademarks. If third parties use trademarks that are identical or confusingly similar to ours, it can lead to the dilution of our brand's goodwill and reputation.

Unauthorized use of our trademarks can create confusion in the marketplace, causing customers to mistakenly associate inferior or unrelated products and services with our brand. This not only undermines the distinctiveness of our trademarks but can also erode customer trust and loyalty, as any negative experiences with these unauthorized products or services could be wrongly attributed to us.

Also, preventing trademark infringement, particularly in India, is difficult, costly and time consuming. The measures we take to protect our trademarks may not be adequate to prevent unauthorized use by third parties, which may affect our brand and in turn adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

For further details on the intellectual property of our company, please refer the chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on page 146 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

30. Our Company has revalued its assets in the past.

Our Company has undertaken asset revaluations in the past. However, our company has not issued any equity shares from revaluation reserve. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our History and Certain Other Corporate Matters” on page no. 187 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. While we believe that all our revaluations have been conducted as per the Companies Act, 2013 and relevant accounting standards. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or taken together, will not have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

31. Reliance has been placed on declarations and affidavits furnished by the promoters and directors for details of their profiles included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Reliance has been placed on undertakings and affidavits furnished by the promoters and directors to disclose details of their experience in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and we have not been able to independently verify these details. Therefore, we cannot assure you that all information relating to the educational qualifications and experiences of our Promoter and Director included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is complete, true and accurate.

32. Improper handling of goods at our facilities could damage our reputation and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We remain susceptible to risks associated with the improper handling of goods at our facilities. Any shortcoming due to fraudulent activities, theft, negligence, human error, or otherwise by our labour force could damage our reputation, adversely affecting our business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, such activities may also result in legal proceedings being initiated against us, irrespective of whether such allegations have any factual basis.

33. Our inability to deliver products in a timely manner may affect our reputation and business prospects.

Time is of the essence in our business. Our operations are dependent upon timely pick-up and delivery of products that are stored in our warehouses. However, delivery of such products may be subject to delays including due to factors beyond our control. Any delay in the delivery of products may result in a breach of the contract with the relevant customer and may be grounds for penalties, fines, other damages or termination of such contract. Any inability to retain our customers may harm our reputation and will have an adverse effect on our financial performance and business prospects.

34. We are exposed to government price controls which could negatively affect our results of operations.

In addition to normal price competition, the prices of certain of our products are or may be restricted by price controls imposed by governments and healthcare providers in India, or in other countries to which we export our products. Price controls can operate differently across countries and can cause wide variations in prices between markets. The existence of price controls may limit the revenue we earn from certain of our products.

35. If any of our product comes out to be damaged or is damaged during the course of use, it could cause serious reputational damage as well as product recalls, and our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Although our products undergo significant quality testing procedures as mandated, defective products not detected by our quality management system or misuse of our products by consumers could reduce their effectiveness. Our products may be perceived to be ineffective and the product user may face a number of consequences, including:

- Unwanted pregnancies;
- Risk of Sexually Transmitted Diseases (“STD’s”), including HIV.

This could result in a significant decrease in the demand for, and sales of, the relevant products; and may even result in the recall or withdrawal of the relevant products, withdrawal or cancellation of regulatory approvals for the relevant products or the relevant manufacturing facility. This would damage our brand and reputation; and expose us to lawsuits and regulatory investigation relating to the relevant products that result in liabilities, fines or sanctions. As a result, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations could be adversely affected.

36. We are subject to the risk of loss due to fire, accidents and other hazards as the raw materials used in our manufacturing process are highly flammable and hazardous.

We handle and use hazardous materials in our manufacturing activities. The improper handling or storage of these materials could result in fire, accidents, injure our personnel and damage our property and/or the environment. Any accident at our facilities may result in personal injury or loss of life, substantial damage to or destruction of property and equipment resulting in the suspension of operations. In addition, we may be required to incur costs to remedy the damage caused, pay fines or incur other penalties for non-compliance. While we have not encountered any such material incidents in the past from the improper handling of flammable and hazardous materials, we cannot assure you that fires and other accidents will not occur at our manufacturing facilities in the future or that our safety measures are effective against preventing such accidents. Any accident at our facilities may result in personal injury or loss of life as well as substantial damage to or destruction of property and equipment. Further, in the event that any of our manufacturing facilities or operations at such manufacturing facilities are shut down or suspended, we may continue to incur costs in remedying the damage, rebuilding our existing facilities, repeat production of damaged inventory and continuing to pay labor compensation and other costs, despite such closure or suspension.

While we maintain adequate insurance policies to guard against losses caused to stock of latex, non-hazardous chemicals, condoms, raw materials; the insurance coverage may not be sufficient to cover all of our potential losses. If we suffer a large uninsured loss or if we suffer an insured loss that significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. For more details on our insurances, please refer to chapter titled ‘Our Business’ on page 146 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

37. We are exposed to counterparty credit risk and any delay in receiving payments or non-receipt of payments may adversely impact our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Due to the nature of, and the inherent risks in, the agreements and arrangements with our customers, we are subject to counterparty credit risk, including significant delays in receiving payments or non-receipt of payments. We extend credit to our customers in respect of our products sales, and, consequently, we face the risk of the uncertainty regarding the receipt of these outstanding amounts. We typically have credit terms of 90 to 120 days for our condoms sold under the Nirodh brand to CMSS/government institutions and we receive advance payments for the condoms sold under our brand name ‘Cobra’. As such, we cannot assure you that we would be able to accurately assess the creditworthiness of our customers. Further, macroeconomic conditions, which are beyond our control, could also result in financial difficulties for our customers, including limited access to the credit markets, insolvency or bankruptcy. Our customers may delay payment, request modifications to their payment terms, or default on their payment obligations to us, all of which could increase our trade receivables and/or write-offs of trade receivables.

38. We may not be able to detect or prevent fraud or other misconduct committed by our employees or third parties.

Fraud or other misconduct by our employees, such as unauthorized business transactions, leaking of confidential information especially in relation to products under development, and breach of any applicable law or our internal policies and procedures, may be difficult to detect or prevent. It could subject us to financial loss and sanctions imposed by government authorities while seriously damaging our reputation. Although, in the past, we have not terminated employment of any of our employees owing to misconduct, fraudulent conduct and/or breach of our Company’s code of conduct, we cannot assure you that fraud or other misconduct will not occur in the future. Any such deficiencies could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and prospects.

39. We have contingent liabilities and capital commitments. Our financial condition could be adversely affected if any of these contingent liabilities or capital commitments materialize.

Below are the contingent liabilities of our company for the period ending June 30th 2024 and for the financial years ended 2024, 2023 and 2022, as disclosed in our restated financial statements in accordance with applicable accounting standards:

For more details on the said matter, please refer to the chapter titled “Outstanding Litigations and Material Developments” beginning on page 254 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

In the event, that any of these contingent liabilities or a significant proportion of these contingent liabilities materialize, our future financial condition, result of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected. For further information about the contingent liabilities, please refer to the chapter titled “Financial Statements as Restated” on page 231 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

40. Our Promoters will be able to exercise significant influence and control over us after the IPO and may have interests that are different from or conflict with those of our other shareholders.

Our Promoter and Promoter Group will continue to collectively hold 61.71% of the post issue equity share capital of the company. By virtue of their shareholding, our Promoters will have the ability to exercise significant control and influence over our Company and our affairs and business, including the appointment of Directors, the timing and payment of dividends, the adoption of and amendments to our Memorandum and Articles of Association, the approval of a merger or sale of substantially all of our assets and the approval of most other actions requiring the approval of our shareholders. The interests of our Promoters may be different from or conflict with our interests or the interests of our other shareholders in material aspects and, as such, our Promoters may not make decisions in our best interests, and there is no assurance that such action will not have any adverse effect on our future financials or results of operations.

41. Information relating to the installed manufacturing capacity, actual production and capacity utilization of our manufacturing units included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity may vary.

43. Our insurance coverage in connection with our business may not be adequate and may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

Our Company has obtained insurance coverage in respect of its employees. For further details in relation to our Insurance, please refer to the section titled - Insurance in the chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on page 146 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The insurance policies are renewed periodically to ensure that the coverage is adequate, however, our insurance policies do not cover all risks. There can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance has been availed. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely.

44. Certain Agreements, deeds, licenses, certificates and other assets may be in the previous name of the company, we have to update the name of our company in all the statutory approvals and certificates due to the conversion of our Company.

Our company, Anondita Medicare Limited was incorporated on March 12, 2024. Prior to the formation of our company, our current promoter, Mr. Anupam Ghosh was carrying on the business as a sole proprietorship under the name of M/s Anondita Healthcare, which was taken over by our company on a going concern basis vide Business Takeover Agreement dated April 01, 2024. As such, certain agreements, deeds, licenses and certificates may be in the previous name of the sole proprietorship and we must update the name of our Company on all of our statutory approvals and certificates.

However, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to update all these in a timely manner and in case of failure to do so, it may affect our company’s business and operations. Further, we may also face legal and financial complications, increased compliance costs, which may have an adverse effect on our company’s financial condition and performance. For further details on licenses, certificates etc. which are pending updation with the name of our company, Anondita Medicare Limited please refer to the chapter titled “Government and other Approvals” beginning on page 263 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

45. In addition to normal remuneration, other benefits and reimbursement of expenses, some of our Directors (including our Promoters) are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company.

Some of our Directors (including our Promoters) are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company, in addition to normal remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses. As a result, our directors will continue to exercise significant control over our Company, including being able to control the composition of our board of directors and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting, and our other Shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. We cannot assure you that our directors or our Key Management Personnel would always exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company, thereby adversely affecting our business and results of operations and prospects.

For further details on the shareholding of our Director’s who are also the Promoters of our Company, please refer to the Chapter titled “Our Management” beginning on page 192 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

46. Any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders’ approval.

We propose to utilise the Net Proceeds towards the objects of the Company as mentioned in chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 92. At this stage, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control. In accordance with Sections 13(8) and 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds without obtaining the shareholders' approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the shareholders' approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such shareholders' approval may adversely affect our business or operations.

Further, our Promoters would be liable to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Issue or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement of our Promoters to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

47. Our Company is subject to foreign exchange control regulations which can pose a risk of currency fluctuations.

Our Company has in the past undertaken export of face masks and gloves and as such was involved in business transactions with international clients located globally and had to conduct the transactions in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed under FEMA. We cannot guarantee that we would not undertake exports in the future and our international operations as such would make us susceptible to the risk of currency fluctuations, which may directly affect our operating results. In case we are unable to adhere to the timelines prescribed under the applicable laws or are unable to mitigate the risk of currency fluctuation, it may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

48. Our Company has not paid any dividends in the past 3 financial years and our ability to pay dividends in the future may be affected by any material adverse effect on our future earnings, financial condition or cash flows.

Our ability to pay dividends in future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, and capital requirements. Our business is working capital intensive, and declaration of dividend will depend upon the financial performance of our Company at the time of declaration. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and our future dividend policy will depend on our capital requirements and financing arrangements (if any) in respect of our operations, financial condition, and results of operations. Our Company has not declared dividends in the past and there can be no assurance that our Company will declare dividends in the future. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Dividend Policy” on page 230 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

49. Industry information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus has been derived from industry reports from various websites. The reliability on the forecasts of the reports could be incorrect and would significantly impact our operations.

We have relied on the reports of certain independent third parties for the purpose of inclusion of such information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These reports are subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. We have not independently verified data from such industry reports and other sources. Although we believe that the data may be considered to be reliable, their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed, and their dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

50. Our Company's future funding requirements, in the form of further issue of capital or other securities and/or loans that might be availed by us, may turn out to be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms and conditions on which they are raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any further issue of Equity Shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt or preference shares, then it may substantially increase our fixed interest/dividend burden and decrease our cash flows, thus adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

51. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters is lower than the issue price.

Our Promoters' average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company is lower than the Issue Price of the shares proposed to be offered through this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer to chapter titled 'Capital Structure' page no. 74 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

52. There are certain restrictions on daily movements in the price of Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Following the Issue, we will be subject to a daily circuit breaker imposed by NSE, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker will limit the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance can be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time.

53. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including:

- Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- Performance of Company's competitors,
- Adverse media reports on Company or pertaining to our Industry;
- Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts; and

- Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies;

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There has been no public market for Equity Shares and the prices of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue.

54. Market price of our share will be decided by market forces and issue price of equity share may not be indicative of the market price of our share price after the issue.

After listing and trading permission of equity shares, the price of the shares shall be driven by free market forces. The market price of a company's share is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the stock market. These forces are influenced by a variety of factors, including the company's financial performance, industry trends, economic conditions, and investor sentiment.

When a company issues equity shares, it sets an issue price based on various factors such as the company's valuation, the prevailing market conditions, and the demand for its shares. However, the issue price is not necessarily indicative of the market price of the shares after the issue.

Once the shares are listed on the stock exchange, their price is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the market. If there is strong demand for the shares, the price may rise above the issue price, and if there is weak demand, the price may fall below the issue price. Therefore, while the issue price of equity shares provides a starting point for the company's valuation, it is not necessarily a reliable indicator of the market price of the shares after the issue. Investors should carefully evaluate all relevant factors and information before making investment decisions in the stock market.

External Risk Factors

55. Changes in technology may render our current technologies obsolete or require us to make substantial capital investments.

The industry in which we operate is continually changing due to technological advances, scientific discoveries and novel chemical processes, with constant introduction of new and enhanced products. These changes result in the frequent introduction of new products and significant price competition. Although we strive to maintain and upgrade our technologies, facilities and machinery consistent with current international standards, we cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully make timely and cost effective enhancements and additions to our technological infrastructure, keep up with technological improvements in order to cater for the specific of our new products, geographical requirements, marketing needs, our customers' needs or that the technology developed by others will not render our products less competitive or attractive. In addition, the new technologies we adopt from time to time may not perform as expected. The cost of implementing new technologies for our operations could be significant, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

56. Future Outbreaks of contagious diseases, such as the recent outbreak of COVID-19, may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

India experienced multiple waves of COVID-19 which had impacted global supply chains and resulted in shortages of materials and components used in the manufacturing operations and an inability to meet the manufacturing targets and this impact continues till date. The COVID-19 pandemic had resulted in restrictions on travel and transportation and prolonged closures of workplaces, businesses and schools, with employees being asked to work from home and citizens being advised to stay at home. Consequently, there was a significant disruption in attendance at the manufacturing facilities.

There can be no assurance that any future outbreak of contagious diseases will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

57. Changes in the Government Policy could adversely affect economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

Our business, and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares, may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. Elimination or substantial change of policies or the introduction of policies that negatively affect the Company's business could cause its results of operations to suffer. Any significant change in India's economic policies could disrupt business and economic conditions in India generally and the Company's business in particular.

58. A slowdown in economic growth in India could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

We are dependent on domestic, regional and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. Demand for our services may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. Economic growth in the country in which we operate is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand, global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

59. Inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and if significant, on our financial condition.

Inflation is typically impacted by factors such as governmental policies, regulations, commodity prices, liquidity and global economic environment. Any change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect the inflation rates. Continued high rates of inflation may increase our costs such as salaries, travel costs and related allowances, which are typically linked to general price levels. There can be no assurance that we will be able to pass on any additional costs to our clients or that our revenue will increase proportionately corresponding to such inflation. Accordingly, high rates of inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and, if significant, on our financial condition.

60. Taxes and other levies imposed by the Government of India or other State Governments, as well as other financial policies and regulations, may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Taxes and other levies imposed by the Central or State Governments in India that affect our industry include STT, GST, income tax and other taxes, duties or surcharges introduced on a permanent or temporary basis from time to time. Imposition of any other taxes by the Central and the State Governments may adversely affect our results of operations.

61. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause our Company's business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunami, floods etc. in recent years. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

62. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India's economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks, other incidents such as those in Ukraine, Russia, Israel, and Gaza, and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade the global equity markets as well generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company's business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

Process Details: Each piece undergoes a thorough inspection, identifying and removing defective items before packaging.

8. Foil Machine

Description: The foil machine is a sealing and packing device that wraps individual products in foil with lubricant and, if needed, flavor.

Process Details: This machine creates a hermetic seal, preserving product freshness and ensuring hygiene.

9. Over-Wrapping Machine

Description: It applies an additional layer of polythene around individual product boxes, providing extra protection.

Process Details: The machine laminates or wraps boxes, safeguarding them against contamination and improving shelf life.

10. Printing Machine

Description: This machine applies batch coding and design elements onto each product package.

Process Details: It prints required details like batch numbers, manufacturing dates, and vendor information, ensuring compliance with regulatory standards.

11. Lubricant Tumbler Machine

Description: The lubricant tumbler machine evenly applies lubricant to products.

Process Details: It gently tumbles products in a chamber filled with lubricant, achieving uniform coverage on each piece.

12. Shrink Wrapping Machine

Description: Similar to the over-wrapping machine, this machine covers outer boxes with a protective layer of polythene.

Process Details: The shrink wrap adds an extra layer of protection, sealing each box to prevent exposure to moisture or contaminants.

13. DM Water Storage Tank

Description: A tank designated for storing demineralized (DM) water, which is crucial for mixing and rinsing stages.

Process Details: The water is kept free of minerals and impurities, ensuring it does not react with latex or interfere with product quality.

14. Strapping Machine

16. Trolley:

Description: A wheeled cart for transporting materials or products within the production facility.

Process Details: Trolleys streamline movement between stations, allowing quick and easy material handling, reducing manual labor and improving workflow efficiency.

17. Weight Balancing Machine:

Description: A machine used to measure and balance product weight accurately.

Process Details: Products are weighed to meet quality standards, ensuring each package contains the correct amount, reducing errors and waste in production.

18. Thermopack Plant and Pipeline:

Description: A thermal packaging plant that generates and distributes hot water or steam.

Process Details: The thermopack heats and circulates steam or hot water through pipelines to various equipment, maintaining optimal temperatures for consistent production quality.

19. Main Electric Panel:

Description: The central control panel for electrical distribution across the plant.

Process Details: It manages power supply, load distribution, and protection for equipment, ensuring stable and safe power distribution throughout the facility.

20. Chiller:

Description: A cooling unit that reduces the temperature of water or air used in manufacturing processes.

Process Details: Chillers maintain controlled cooling for machinery or materials, helping regulate temperature-sensitive processes and improving production stability.

21. ETP (Effluent Treatment Plant):

Description: A system that treats wastewater generated from manufacturing.

Process Details: The ETP processes and purifies waste, ensuring discharged water meets environmental standards and reduces pollutants.

22. Inflation Testing Machine:

Description: A device that tests product durability by inflating them to specific pressures.

Process Details: It checks for leaks or defects, ensuring that each product meets safety and durability standards before packaging.

23. Stabilizer (30, 75, 100 KVA):

Description: Voltage stabilizers that ensure steady power supply.

Process Details: These units protect sensitive equipment by stabilizing voltage, preventing fluctuations, and enhancing machine longevity.

24. Lift (Elevator):

Description: An elevator system for transporting materials or personnel between facility floors, improving efficiency and safety.

GLOBAL ECONOMY

Steady Disinflation, yet Bumps in the Road Still Possible

In many advanced economies, disinflation has come at a relatively low cost to employment, thanks partly to offsetting supply developments. These included a faster-than-expected decline in energy prices and a surprising rebound in labor supply, bolstered by substantial immigration flows that helped cool labor markets (April 2024 World Economic Outlook). Moreover, temporary sectoral bottlenecks during and after the pandemic led to a steepening of the Phillips curve and implied a small sacrifice ratio (the slack required to decrease inflation).

Since the beginning of 2024, signs that cyclical imbalances are being gradually resorbed have helped bring inflation rates across countries closer together. Disinflation has continued broadly as expected but did show signs of slowing in the first half of the year, suggesting potential bumps on the road to price stability.

Policy Mix: Tight Monetary, Loose Fiscal Policies

Economic developments over the past four years have had a lot to do with how individual countries have deployed fiscal and monetary policies since the pandemic.

Following an initial period of easing, monetary policy has tightened significantly, with central banks in many emerging markets starting earlier than major central banks in advanced economies (Chapter 2). Most central banks stopped increasing nominal policy rates in the first half of 2023. But real rates continued to rise as inflation expectations started to decline (Figure 1.5, panel 1), tightening the monetary policy stance further.

Real policy rates are currently above estimates of the natural rates and thus are acting to cool down economic activity and bring inflation back to target.

Higher policy rates have led to higher mortgage and bank lending rates, a sign that the first leg of monetary transmission has worked as expected. The pass-through to market rates has been gradual but seems to have finished. The increase in borrowing costs has in turn held back private credit growth and investment, moderating aggregate demand.

Rising Geopolitical Tensions but Limited Impact on Global Trade So Far

Despite ongoing geopolitical tensions, global trade volume as a share of world GDP has not deteriorated. However, signs of geoeconomic fragmentation have started to emerge, with increasingly more trade occurring within geopolitical blocs rather than between them. Specifically, when the averages for the periods 2017 to 2022 and 2022 to the first quarter of 2024 are compared, goods trade growth is observed to have declined by approximately 2½ percentage points more between geopolitically distant blocs than within blocs. A more fragmented global trade landscape could emerge if geopolitical tensions continue to develop in a way similar to that during the Cold War. Although fragmentation, if it goes hand in hand with an increase in intrabloc trade, may not necessarily imply rapid deglobalization (Gopinath and others 2024), it could reduce the resilience of global supply chains, increase funding costs, disrupt cross-border capital flows and lower market efficiency, slow the transfer of knowledge between advanced and emerging market and developing economies (hampering income convergence), increase costs and risks for businesses, and induce a larger economic cost for the green transition.

Risk Assessment Surrounding the World Economic Outlook's Baseline Projections

The IMF's Group of Twenty (G20) and Global Integrated Monetary and Fiscal (GIMF) models are used in this box to derive confidence bands around the World Economic Outlook forecast and to quantify two scenarios.

Risks to growth are currently considered moderately tilted to the downside. The risk of global growth falling below 2 percent—an outcome that has occurred only five times since 1970—in 2025 is now assessed at 17 percent, compared with 12 percent in April, in part because the risk of a recession in the United States has increased moderately. Risks for global inflation are considered broadly balanced.

Impact on World Output and Inflation

Figures 1.2.2 and 1.2.3 present the effects for scenarios A and B. Panel 1 in each figure shows the effects on the level of GDP during 2024–30 for three economies (China, United States, euro area) and for the world. Panel 2 shows the effects for inflation. Effects on GDP are presented as percent deviations from the baseline, whereas effects on headline inflation are presented as percentage point deviations from the baseline.

In scenario A, the increase in tariffs affects activity in all regions. Imposing tariffs on imports raises domestic input costs, and higher tariffs on exports lower external demand. The net effect on inflation depends on the relative strength of these two channels but is small. There is a small negative impact on investment; the impact on consumption is limited, because tariff revenue is transferred back to households. Across regions, the impact on the United States is larger, because US trade flows are subject in their entirety to the new tariffs: GDP falls by 0.4 percent in 2025 and by 0.6 percent in 2026. The impact on other regions and the world reaches –0.3 percent of GDP by 2026, and global imports and exports also fall by about 4 percent, relative to the baseline. The effects on GDP are permanent, however. The trade policy uncertainty layer has a more immediate impact on global activity.

Global investment (not shown) falls by close to 2 percent by 2026, lowering GDP by 0.4 percent over the same period, while global inflation falls by 10 basis points.

INDIAN ECONOMY

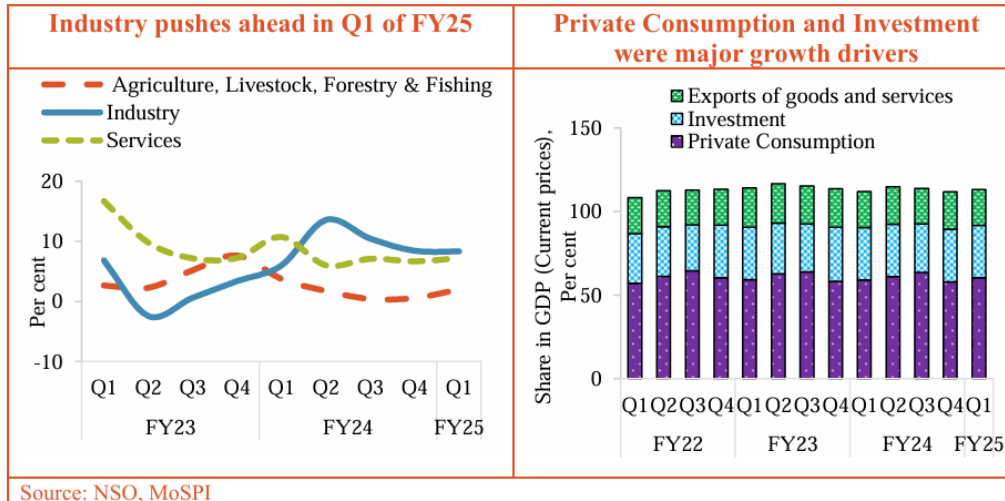

India’s economic momentum was sustained in the first quarter of FY25. With a cumulative real GDP growth of around 27 per cent from FY21, the economy had not only regained the ground lost during the pandemic but also achieved transformational changes in many productive sectors by the end of FY24. Building on this base, India’s GDP at constant prices grew by 6.7 per cent in Q1FY25. Growth in all major non-agricultural sectors stayed well above 5 per cent in Q1, indicating broad-based expansion. With the advancing monsoon, kharif sowing has also picked up, brightening prospects of agricultural production.

INDIAN ECONOMY DEMONSTRATES RESILIENCE AMID GLOBAL CHALLENGES

1. The World Economic Outlook of the IMF released in July 2024 projected global growth to be 3.2 per cent in 2024, a shade lower than the pre-pandemic decade. Relative to the April 2024 projections of the IMF, the first quarter growth surprised many countries on the upside. Gradual cooling of labour markets, together with an expected decline in energy prices, can bring global levels of headline inflation back to the target levels by the end of 2025. Global trade moderated due to rising geopolitical tensions, cross-border restrictions, supply chain disruptions and slower growth in advanced economies. Developments in the services trade have been more upbeat, partly offsetting the decline in goods trade. Trade growth is expected to recover in FY25 and align with global GDP growth again.
2. Data released by the National Statistical Office has estimated that India’s GDP grew by 6.7 per cent at constant prices in Q1 FY25. India’s growth, which surpassed that of major advanced and emerging economies, remains steady in the face of ongoing global headwinds. It is important to exercise caution while interpreting economic growth rates in the post-Covid years. In India’s case, after the pandemic-inflicted, short-lived downslide, pent-up consumption and investment demand gave an immediate boost to growth in FY22 and FY23, which carried forward to FY24. Growth averaged 8.3 per cent in these three years. We have analysed these patterns and concluded that the gap between the current GDP and its pre-pandemic trend has been progressively closing. The GDP level was close to the pre-pandemic trajectory in Q4FY24. Thus, the growth rate of 6.7 per cent achieved in Q1FY25 on a reasonably high base and amidst an unfavourable external demand situation is a sign of the underlying dynamism and strength of the Indian economy.
3. Robust domestic consumption and investment underpinned GDP growth in Q1. Private final consumption expenditure (PFCE) and gross fixed capital formation (GFCF) at constant prices grew by 7.4 per cent and 7.5 per cent, respectively, while exports (of goods and non factor services) increased by 8.7 per cent. The share of private final consumption in GDP (at current prices) rose to 60.4 per cent in Q1 of FY25 from 57.9 per cent in Q4 FY24, while the shares of GFCF and exports remained steady.

4. On the supply side, real gross value added (GVA) grew by 6.8 per cent in Q1FY25, with the industry and services sector displaying resilience. Agricultural GVA at constant prices grew at 2.0 per cent YoY, mostly reflecting the impact of the adverse weather conditions that prevailed during the previous year. As the effect of favourable and more even distribution of monsoon gets captured in this year’s output, the overall agricultural output in the subsequent quarters is likely to strengthen.

5. The industrial sector grew by 8.3 per cent at constant prices in Q1FY25. The growth in the sector is supported by manufacturing, which grew by 7 per cent in real terms. The construction sector performed well, registering a YoY growth of 10 per cent in Q1 of FY25.
6. The services sector saw continued robust growth, showcasing a real growth of 7.2 per cent in Q1 of FY25. The expansion in the services sector is evident in robust PMI readings, a surge in digital transactions, a rise in foreign tourism, and heightened cargo traffic. The real estate sector is also drawing an increasing number of participants. The JLL Global Real Estate Transparency Index 2024², highlighted that India's Tier-I markets have entered the 'transparent' zone for the first time with a composite score of 2.44. India is the top global improver in the real estate transparency index. Greater data coverage and improved quality in core and niche property sectors, more proactive financial regulators, new climate risk disclosure guidelines, streamlined building regulations and digitised land records have contributed to its leading cities entering the 'Transparent' tier.
7. India’s e-commerce industry has emerged as a dominant player in driving services sector growth in recent years. The box below discusses the performance of the e-commerce industry.

INFLATION REMAINS BENIGN IN AUGUST 2024

Retail inflation remains benign at 3.7 per cent in August 2024, driven by softer food and core inflation. Major items of food inflation, such as cereals, meat & fish, milk, sugar and spices, saw a decline in inflation. The inflation rate in vegetables increased in August due to the elevated inflation rate in potatoes and onions. Food inflation in August stood at 5.7 per cent, a modest increase from July, yet notably lower than the 8.9 per cent experienced in Q1 of FY25. Inflation in the fuel & light group continued to remain in the deflationary zone for the 12th consecutive month. The core inflation, which excludes food and fuel, remained low at 3.3 per cent in August. Overall, retail inflation in April-August 2024 has significantly declined to 4.4 per cent compared to 5.6 per cent in the corresponding period of the previous year. Core inflation eased to 3.2 per cent compared to 5.1 per cent in the corresponding period of FY23.

CHANGING GLOBAL TRADE DYNAMICS

The recent geopolitical events, characterised by ongoing conflicts and trade disputes, are reshaping the contours of international trade in terms of protectionist trade policies and shifting global supply chains.

Another concern for international trade trends is the impact of climate change through changing costs, comparative advantages, and global supply chains.⁸ For example, Hurricane Ian, which hit the Caribbean and the US in September 2022, led to a 75 per cent drop in shipments and added 2.5 days to shipping times.⁹ Weather issues cause 23 per cent of all road delays in the US, costing trucking companies between USD 2 billion and USD 3.5 billion annually due to disruptions in work shifts, holding costs, late fees, and customer retention problems.¹⁰ Extreme weather also significantly impacts agriculture. Recent disruptions in the Red Sea have forced changes in trade routes, causing higher shipping costs and longer delivery times, particularly for trade between Asia and Europe.¹¹ The survey by The Economist shows that around 20 per cent of executives view global warming and extreme weather as major concerns for global trade in 2024 and 2025, with inflation and geopolitical issues being more prominent concerns.

CONCLUSION AND OUTLOOK

The recent developments analysed above indicate strong foundations of macroeconomic stability in India with steady growth, investment, employment and inflation trends, a strong and stable financial sector, as well as, a resilient external account including comfortable foreign exchange reserve position. A challenge on the macroeconomic front is of navigating the continuing uncertainty in global economic prospects. We will likely encounter a cycle of policy rate cuts globally, amid fears of a recession in advanced economies and continuing geopolitical conflicts.

For the remaining part of the financial year, a reasonable expectation is that public expenditure will pick up, providing added growth and investment impetus. In the farm sector, higher kharif acreage is already visible. Adequately replenished reservoir levels will potentially give a fillip to the upcoming Rabi crops as well. The skewed spatial distribution of rain may have an impact on farm output in a few regions. However, in the absence of any serious adverse climate shocks, rural incomes and demand should get stronger, and food inflation will be milder. There are also incipient signs of strains in certain sectors. For instance, the automobile dealers’ body, FADA, has pointed to moderating sales of passenger vehicles and a build-up of inventory. Data from Nielsen IQ indicated that the growth of fast-moving consumer goods sales in urban areas slowed in Q1 FY25. While these may turn out to be transient with the onset of the festival season, they warrant monitoring. Further, capital spending by Indian states has declined in the current financial year. Stock markets around the world are booming, reinforced by recent policy announcements in a few countries. Consequently, the risk of an eventual correction has risen. If the risk materialises, the spillover effect may be felt globally as well. Amidst these concerns, low oil prices is a bright spot for the economy.

On balance, the GDP growth of 6.7 per cent in Q1FY25 and the movements in high frequency indicators till August fit well with the real GDP growth projection of 6.5 –7 per cent for FY25 provided by the Economic Survey 2023-24.

Global Pharmaceutical Industry

Industry Size and Growth

Market Trends and Key Drivers: The global pharmaceutical market is poised for rapid growth, projected to reach $2,092.95 billion by 2028, at a CAGR of 13.4%. Key trends driving this growth include increased government support, improved healthcare access, rising investments, a growing elderly population, heightened healthcare expenditure, and greater awareness of immunization and vaccination. Emerging trends include the use of biomarkers for drug development, a focus on next-generation biologics, personalized medicine, AI in drug discovery, combination drug therapy for respiratory diseases, partnerships with wearables companies, 3D printing in drug manufacturing, microneedle pills for drug delivery, and advancements in mRNA vaccine technology.

Impact of Chronic Diseases: The rise in sedentary jobs, busy lifestyles, and evolving consumer preferences have significantly impacted the global disease landscape, particularly the prevalence of non-communicable diseases like cancer, diabetes, and cardiovascular conditions. According to the World Health Organization (WHO), non-communicable diseases account for 41 million deaths annually, representing 74% of global mortality. This trend underscores the growing demand for biologic drugs to address these conditions, driving the expansion of the pharmaceutical market.

Rare Diseases: The increasing prevalence of rare diseases is also expected to propel market growth. Rare diseases affect a small percentage of the population but require significant pharmaceutical intervention. Global Condom Market Overview

The global condom market size was reached at USD 11.07 billion in 2022 and it is expected to hit around USD 25.97 billion by 2032, growing at a CAGR of 8.9% over the forecast period 2023 to 2032. The rising prevalence of sexually transmitted Infections (STIs) across the globe is expected to boost the growth of the condom market.

Market Overview

A condom is a contraceptive device made of latex, polyurethane, or other materials worn to prevent the exchange of bodily fluids, such as semen and vaginal secretions, and reduce the risk of sexually transmitted infections (STIs) and unintended pregnancy.

By considering the rising prevalence of sexually transmitted infections and the increasing involvement of the younger generation in unsafe intercourses, many governmental bodies, administrations, and even non-governmental organizations have started focusing on spreading awareness about the use of condoms. This is one of the most significant factors for benefiting the market players by boosting the demand for condoms.

According to a report published by the World Health Organization (WHO), in 2022, more than 1 million sexually transmitted infections will be acquired in just one day worldwide.

Condom Market Dynamics

Drivers

1. Rising Awareness and Adoption of Contraception

The global condom market is primarily driven by the increasing awareness and adoption of contraceptive methods. According to a 2022 report by the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the global contraceptive prevalence rate for modern methods reached 57.7% in 2022, up from 54.8% in 2015. This growth in contraceptive use, including condoms, is driven by factors such as improved access to family planning services, increased education, and government initiatives promoting reproductive health.

2. Increasing Prevalence of Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs)

The rising prevalence of STIs, such as HIV/AIDS, chlamydia, and gonorrhea, is also a significant driver for the condom market. Condoms are an effective barrier method for preventing the transmission of these infections. According to the World Health Organization (WHO), there were an estimated 376 million new cases of four curable STIs (chlamydia, gonorrhea, syphilis, and trichomoniasis) globally in 2020.

3. Growing Demand for Condoms in Emerging Markets

Developing regions, such as Asia-Pacific and Latin America, present significant growth opportunities for the condom market due to factors like population growth, increasing disposable incomes, and improving access to healthcare services. For instance, the Asia-Pacific condom market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 7.8% from 2023 to 2030, according to a report by Reports and Data.

4. Increased Focus on Sexual Health and Wellness

There is a growing awareness and focus on sexual health and wellness, which is driving the demand for condoms. This includes a greater emphasis on sexual education, the importance of safe sex practices, and the need for effective contraception. This trend is particularly evident among younger generations, who are more likely to prioritize sexual health and wellness.

5. Expansion of Online Sales Channels

The shift towards online shopping has significantly impacted the condom market. Online sales channels have become a major driver of growth, offering convenience, discretion, and a wider range of products. According to a 2022 survey by Swiggy in India, Mumbai witnessed a 570% increase in online condom orders in 2021 compared to 2020.

Restraints

1. Availability of Long-Acting Reversible Contraceptives (LARCs)

The growing popularity of LARCs, such as intrauterine devices (IUDs) and contraceptive implants, can potentially restrain the growth of the condom market. These highly effective and long-lasting contraceptive methods offer a convenient alternative to condoms, particularly for individuals seeking a more reliable and low-maintenance contraceptive solution.

Opportunities

1. Increasing Demand for Sustainable and Eco-Friendly Condoms

As consumer awareness and concern for environmental sustainability continue to rise, the demand for eco-friendly and biodegradable condoms is expected to grow. According to a 2023 market report by Grand View Research, the global sustainable condoms market is projected to grow at a CAGR of 8.2% from 2023 to 2030.

2. Expansion in Emerging Markets

Developing regions, such as Asia-Pacific and Latin America, present significant growth opportunities for the condom market due to factors like population growth, increasing disposable incomes, and improving access to healthcare services. For instance, the Asia-Pacific condom market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 7.8% from 2023 to 2030, according to a report by Reports and Data.

3. COVID-19 Impacts

The COVID-19 pandemic had a mixed impact on the global condom market. While it initially disrupted supply chains and led to temporary shortages, the shift towards online shopping during the pandemic contributed to increased condom sales in some regions. For example, a 2022 survey by Swiggy in India found that Mumbai witnessed a 570% increase in online condom orders in 2021 compared to 2020.

Description of the Machinery and Equipment used in our Business:

1. Dipping Machine

Description: A latex dipping machine is designed for immersing moulds into a latex solution, coating the surface evenly with latex material. This immersion step is essential in latex product manufacturing, such as gloves or condoms, to achieve a uniform layer on the mould.

Process Details: Moulds are dipped in the latex bath and then dried at controlled temperatures to form a latex film. This process may repeat two times to build up the desired thickness.

2. Condom Mould

Description: The condom mould, typically made of glass, is the template used for forming the shape of the condom. Its smooth surface ensures a precise shape and thickness for each product.

Process Details: The mould is dipped into latex solution and removed slowly, allowing a thin layer of latex to cover it. The latex layer is then dried and cured to form the final product shape.

3. Compounding Tank

Description: The compounding tank, also known as the latex maturation tank, is used for the vulcanization process, where latex is mixed with curing agents, stabilizers, and other additives.

Process Details: Latex matures in this tank for a specified period, allowing the mixture to achieve the necessary properties for product durability and elasticity.

4. Attritor

Description: The attritor is a high-efficiency mixing machine filled with ceramic balls used for dispersing materials within the latex solution.

Process Details: It grinds and blends materials into a fine consistency by using friction from ceramic balls, ensuring uniform particle distribution.

5. AOD Pump (Air-Operated Diaphragm Pump)

Description: An AOD pump uses compressed air to move materials, such as latex or slurry, through the equipment.

Process Details: The pump's air pressure allows for efficient material transfer, especially useful in environments where electric pumps aren't suitable due to safety concerns.

6. Washing Machine

Description: This machine removes unwanted chemicals and residues from latex-coated products after dipping.

Process Details: It thoroughly cleanses products, ensuring they are free of impurities before proceeding to the drying stage.

7. Hydro Extractor

Description: Used after the washing stage, the hydro extractor centrifugally removes excess water from the products.

Process Details: Spinning at high speeds, this machine removes as much water as possible, reducing drying time in the next stage.

8. Washing Slurry Tank

Description: A tank for storing and preparing slurry solutions needed for various washing stages.

Process Details: This tank stores and mixes of chemicals to create the appropriate washing solution for effective cleaning.

9. Drying Machine

Description: The drying machine removes moisture from latex products after washing.

Process Details: It applies gentle heat to remove remaining moisture, ensuring that the products maintain their shape and integrity.

10. Electronic Testing Machine

Description: This machine performs 100% electronic testing of each product to ensure quality.

Process Details: Each piece undergoes a thorough inspection, identifying and removing defective items before packaging.

11. Foil Machine

Description: The foil machine is a sealing and packing device that wraps individual products in foil with lubricant and, if needed, flavor.

Process Details: This machine creates a hermetic seal, preserving product freshness and ensuring hygiene.

12. Over-Wrapping Machine

Description: It applies an additional layer of polythene around individual product boxes, providing extra protection.

Process Details: The machine laminates or wraps boxes, safeguarding them against contamination and improving shelf life.

13. Printing Machine

Description: This machine applies batch coding and design elements onto each product package.

Process Details: It prints required details like batch numbers, manufacturing dates, and vendor information, ensuring compliance with regulatory standards.

14. Shrink Wrapping Machine

Description: Similar to the over-wrapping machine, this machine covers outer boxes with a protective layer of polythene.

Process Details: The shrink wrap adds an extra layer of protection, sealing each box to prevent exposure to moisture or contaminants.

15. DM Water Storage Tank

Description: A tank designated for storing demineralized (DM) water, which is crucial for mixing and rinsing stages.

Process Details: The water is kept free of minerals and impurities, ensuring it does not react with latex or interfere with product quality.

16. Strapping Machine

Description: This machine ties large shipping cartons securely with straps, readying them for transport.

Process Details: It uses durable straps to secure boxes, preventing movement or damage during transit.

17. Packing Machine

MANUFACTURING PROCESS

The Company's Manufacturing process for Male Latex Condom as follows:

Process Flow

- 1. Compounding: Compounding is a process wherein our special formulation is added to the latex to strengthen, preserve and make condoms thin and strong. Various chemical such as vulcanizing agent, activator, anti-oxidant, dispersing agent etc. are finely ground and are compounded with natural rubber latex in the predetermined ratio in the mixing tanks. The mixture of latex and chemicals are continuously agitated, heated and maintained at specified temperature for several hours for pre-vulcanization. It is then cooled. After cooling, a quantity inspection of the compound will perform for checking the physical properties such as total solids, PH, Viscosity, MST, tensile strength and elongation. The compounded latex will transfer to supply of tank.
- 2. Dipping: After latex is compound, it is dispersed in a dipping tank. Shafts called mould are then dipped into the latex which pick a thin layer of latex. After dipping, the mould's passes through special temperature controlled drying and curing ovens that help strengthen the condom. After drying, these moulds will pass the edge rolling unit. The edger rolled condoms then passes through the vulcanizing booth before the same is dipped into swelling agent and thereafter through the ant sticking agent. The condoms are stripped from moulds using slurry jets and the product along with the slurry is conveyed through PVC pipeline to the dehydrator. The moulds are then washed, cleaned, dried and cooled before the next dipping.

- 3. Slurry and Post Treatment: In this process, the slurry tank, agitator for mixing the slurry, slurry pumps etc. are installed. Slurry from slurry supply tank is pumped to the stripping unit of moulding machine. The return slurry from dehydrators goes to the slurry supply tank. The stripped products are separated from the slurry in the Dehydrator and further drying achieved by hot air. De-hydrator consists of rotary of mesh barrel fabricated out of stainless-steel material. This barrel rotates at low speed. The condom along with the slurry is conveyed into rotary barrel. Most of the slurry is discharged into the SS hopper provided underneath and it goes to slurry supply tank. The discharge end of the barrel rotates inside a hot air chamber and this point the condoms are completely de-hydrated and then pneumatic Vulcanizing Machines. The products then transfer pneumatically to the vulcanizing barrels of the Automatic Vulcanizing Machines. The product is dried and vulcanized for fixed duration at a fixed temperature. After vulcanization the condoms are transferred to quenching machine where its air cooled by rotation in barrels.

4. 100% Electronic Test: The products undergo various quality control checks. The selected lots then go to the inspection section where 100% pinhole testing is performed in an electronic pinhole testing.

Inspection machine consists of conveyor on which steel moulds are mounted and fed in two rows. The vulcanized condoms are covered on the moulds manually. The condoms are tested for pinholes and rolled in the machine. Condoms with and without pinholes are separated. After 100% pin hole test, the product goes through QA section for random sampling and test. Here the specified samples are drawn from each batch/lot and subject for various test as stipulated standard or document procedure.

5. Foiling & Packing: Condom which passed the sampling and acceptance level, will be sent for foiling. This is done by a heat-sealing machine. Condoms are placed manually on the feeding belt transported and automatically squeezed into the cells of the sealing cylinders. During the operation, a direct contact of the condom takes place with the foil which are taken two reeled and sealed hermetically. The condoms are pre-lubricated with silicon fluid along with feeding belt of the packing machine.

6. Finished Goods store: Finished goods warehousing is the storage of goods after they are manufactured into the final sellable product. After raw goods go through the assembly process, they are ready for sale or delivery to customers.

7. Dispatch: Dispatch of packed goods. For more details on this part please refer to section titled 'Customer Sourcing/Our Sales Channel' beginning on page 163 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

OUR QUALITY CONTROL PROCESS

Process Flow Chart for Quality Check of Latex Condoms

The quality control process for latex condoms at our company, as shown in the flowchart, involves several key checkpoints to ensure product quality and compliance with standards. Here's a brief overview:

1. Raw Material and Packaging Material Quarantine: Upon arrival, raw materials and packaging materials are quarantined. They undergo initial quality inspection to determine if they meet the required standards before being approved for production.
2. Quality Control and Release: Once the inspection is complete, Quality Assurance (QA) releases the approved materials, making them available for production.
3. Material Dispensing: Approved materials are then dispensed and moved to the compounding and processing stages. Here, in-process quality checks are conducted at various stages to maintain consistency in material quality.

4. In-Process Quality Control (QC) Checks: QC checks occur at critical stages, including:
 - Latex Compounding: Ensuring the latex mix meets the necessary standards.
 - Dipping: Monitoring the dipping process to achieve consistent condom thickness and strength.
 - Post-Treatment: This step includes processes like washing, drying, and cooling the condoms after dipping.
 - Lubricant/Flavor Preparation: Checking the quality and consistency of lubricants or flavors added to the condoms.
 - Foiling and Packing: Ensuring condoms are properly foiled and packed to maintain hygiene and durability.
5. 100% Electronic Testing and Visual Inspection: Each condom undergoes electronic testing to identify defects, such as holes or weak points, and is also visually inspected for physical flaws.
6. Packaging:
 - 6.1 Foiling (Primary Packaging)

Purpose: The primary packaging, or foiling, is the first layer of protection for the condom. This layer ensures that each condom is securely and hygienically sealed to prevent contamination and maintain its integrity.

Process: Condoms are individually placed in foil pouches and sealed. This foiling process typically uses heat-sealing methods to create an airtight and waterproof barrier, which helps in preserving the condom's quality over time by protecting it from moisture, dust, and air exposure.

Quality Checks: During foiling, quality control ensures that each condom is securely sealed without any leaks or wrinkles in the foil that could compromise the barrier. Proper sealing prevents exposure to external elements, helping maintain the condom's sterility.
 - 6.2 Secondary (Final Packaging)

Purpose: The secondary or final packaging holds multiple individually foiled condoms together, making it easier for consumers to handle and store. It also provides additional protection during handling and transportation, reducing the risk of damage.

Process: In this step, the foiled condoms are grouped and placed in boxes or packets, which are then labeled with essential information (e.g., batch number, expiry date, and instructions for use). Secondary packaging often includes a carton or box that is designed for both consumer convenience and retail display.

Quality Checks: Quality assurance teams inspect the secondary packaging for proper sealing, labeling accuracy, and any defects in the box or carton that might affect the product during distribution. Ensuring that the outer packaging is durable and correctly labeled is critical for maintaining product quality and regulatory compliance.
7. Final Quality Control Checks: Once packaged, the final QC checks confirm that all quality standards are met before the condoms are approved for storage.
8. Storage and Shipment: Approved condoms are stored in the finished goods area and prepared for shipment to customers, marking the completion of the quality control process.

This rigorous process flow helps maintain high standards of quality throughout production, ensuring that only safe, defect-free condoms reach customers.

COMPETITION

We operate in a competitive atmosphere. Some of our competitors may have greater resources than those available to us. While product quality, brand value, distribution network, etc. are key factors in client decisions among competitors, however, price is the deciding factor in most cases. Our aim is to provide branded, standardized, and uniform quality products at competitive prices to our consumers. Many of our competitors have substantially large capital base and resources than we do and offer a broader range of products.

We believe that our cost effective and integrated offerings, our focus on reliability combined with our quality consciousness, provide us with a competitive advantage in our business. Amongst listed Companies, we face competition from the following companies in our industry:

OUR BUSINESS STRATEGIES

The company's forward-looking strategy focuses on three main areas:

1. Expanding Global Reach:

Anondita Healthcare has already established a history of exporting to Africa, which demonstrates its capability to meet international standards. This experience serves as a foundation for the company's ambitions to expand its global footprint further. The company is actively pursuing opportunities to increase its presence in international markets, leveraging its existing export experience to drive growth beyond its current territories.

2. UN Qualification and Export Launch:

To enhance our global competitiveness and ensure the highest quality and compliance for international markets, our company is currently undergoing the process of obtaining a UN license. This is a significant step for the company, as UN qualification is a prestigious endorsement that can open doors to new markets and opportunities. The company views this qualification as a crucial element in its expansion strategy.

With the UN qualification in progress, our company has set a clear timeline for its export ambitions. The company is targeting to launch its export operations either by the end of the current financial year or within the first quarter of the next financial year. This strategic move aligns with their goal of expanding their global reach and positions them to tap into the international demand for high-quality condom products.

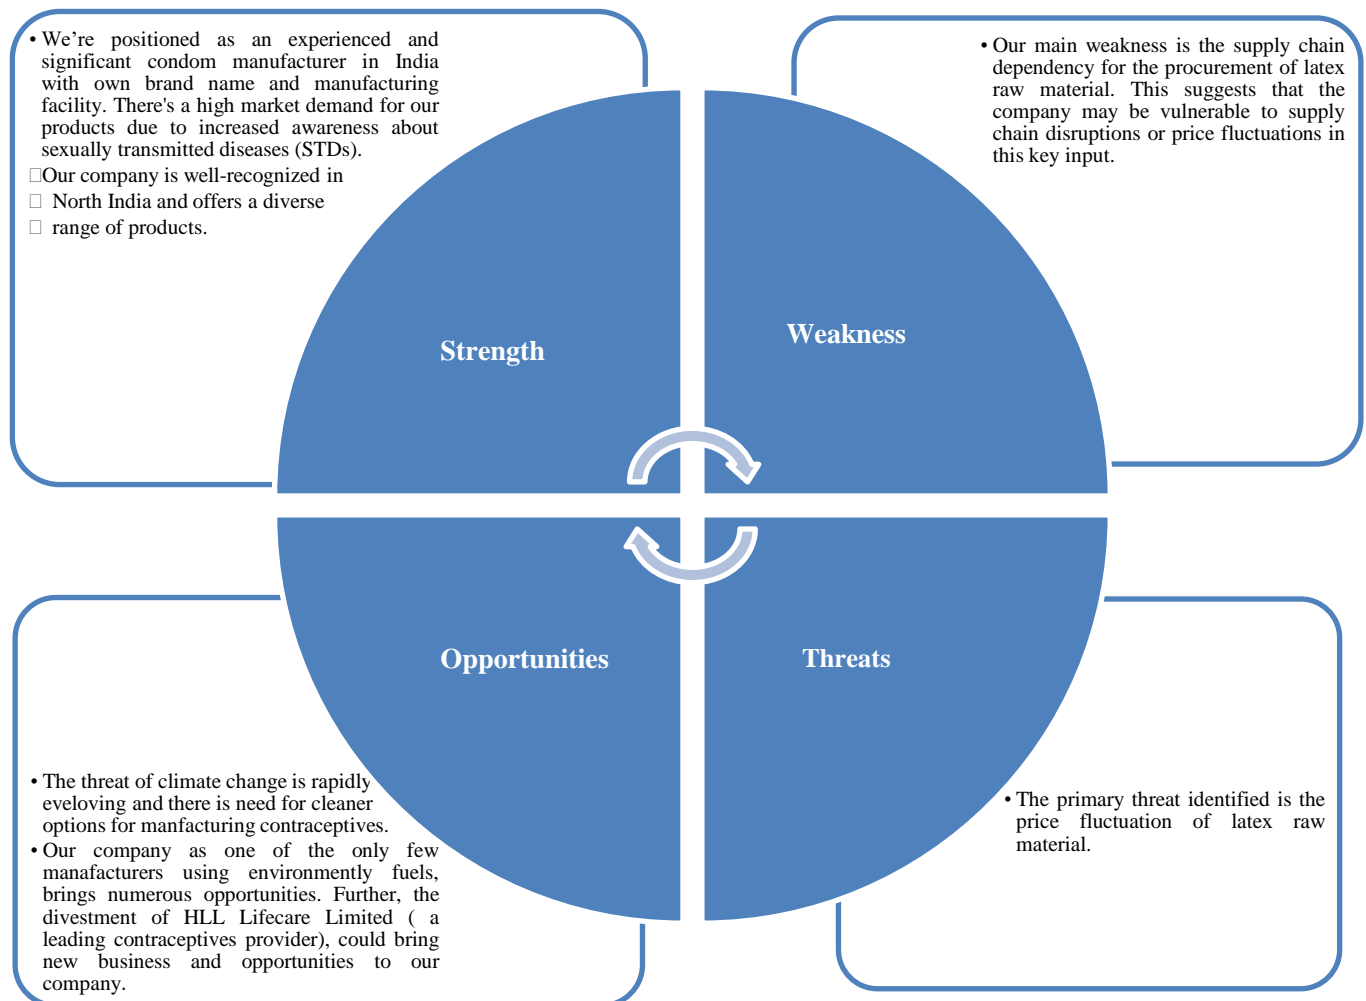

3. Introducing newer technology and automating manual processes

The strategic focus on introducing newer technology and automating manual processes involves transforming production, quality control, and overall operational efficiency. By adopting advanced machinery and automation systems, our company aims to enhance precision in manufacturing, resulting in consistent product quality and reduced defects. Automation helps streamline labor-intensive tasks, minimizing human error and allowing staff to focus on higher-level functions like quality assurance and product innovation. The integration of cutting-edge technology not only enables faster production cycles to meet increasing demand but also optimizes resource utilization, ultimately reducing costs and supporting sustainable practices.

4. Launching new product lines and unique products

Our company is amongst the few globally, to have acquired a patent for the manufacture of female condoms. As such we are looking to launch contraceptives for female use in the future and enhance our product offerings. This will allow us to tap into newer product segments and into the production of products for which there is ready demand but no supply at that moment.

SWOT ANALYSIS

SALES & MARKETING

Standard Operating Procedure of Marketing and Sales Department for our products are as follow:

A. Domestic Sales

A1. Government Sales

The tender process is the formal procedure by which government organizations, like the Central Medical Services Society (CMSS), invite suppliers or contractors to submit bids for the supply of goods, services, or work contracts. Below is a detailed overview of the general tendering process followed by government organizations.

Steps in the Tender Process

1. Publication of Tender Notice

- Medium: Tenders are published on the Central Public Procurement Portal (CPPP), Government e-Marketplace (GeM), the CMSS official website, and in newspapers.
- Details Included:
 - Description of the required goods/services.
 - Quantity and quality specifications.
 - Deadlines for submission.
 - Eligibility criteria and financial requirements.

2. Pre-Bid Meeting (Optional)

- Purpose: To clarify doubts about the tender.
- Attendees: Prospective bidders, CMSS representatives.
- Outcome: Bidders gain a better understanding of the requirements and can adjust their proposals accordingly.

3. Submission of Bids

- Bidders submit their proposals by the deadline specified in the tender notice.
Types of Bids:
 - Technical Bid: Includes details about the company, certifications, product quality, and compliance with eligibility criteria.
 - Financial Bid: Contains pricing and commercial terms.
- Mode of Submission: Online submission via CPPP or GeM, or as specified in the tender.

4. Evaluation of Bids

- Technical Evaluation: The technical bid is assessed for compliance with tender requirements (e.g., product specifications, certifications like CE, ISO).
- Financial Evaluation: Only bids that pass the technical evaluation move on to financial evaluation. The lowest bid (L1) that meets all requirements is usually preferred.

5. Award of Contract

- CMSS awards the contract to the successful bidder based on the evaluation results.
Key Criteria for Award:
 - Lowest price (L1) meeting technical specifications.
 - Ability to deliver within the timeline.

6. Agreement Signing

- A formal agreement is signed between CMSS and the successful bidder, detailing:
- Scope of work.
 - Delivery timelines.
 - Penalty clauses for delays or quality issues.

7. Performance Guarantee

- The winning bidder submits a performance guarantee (typically a percentage of the contract value) to ensure compliance with the terms.

8. Supply and Inspection

- The supplier delivers the goods/services as per the contract.
- CMSS inspects the quality and quantity of supplies before acceptance.

9. Payment

- Payment is made according to the terms specified in the contract, often upon successful delivery and inspection.

A2. Trade Business Partners (Super Stockists/Distributors)

i. Appointment:

The appointment of Business Partners in trade sales is based on recommendations from the MKT & CS Manager and approval of the MD. Records of these appointments are maintained. It's important to note that these appointments can be terminated upon the approval of the MD.

ii. Performance Review:

The performance of Business Partners, especially those of Wholesalers/Distributors/Dealers, is reviewed once yearly and recorded. Corrective actions, if any, are recommended by the Trade Sale I/C. Based on this review, non-performing Business Partners may be advised for improvement or have their partnership terminated upon approval from the MD.

B. International Sales

a) Receipt & Scrutiny of Enquiry:

Enquiries may be received in written or verbal form from various sources. These are usually either from Institutional buyers, such as the Ministries of Health of countries or Global NGOs, in the form of tenders, or from Private buyers (Individuals/companies). Upon receipt of the Tender/enquiry from International Buyers, a documentation checklist is created to list the required documents. For enquiries from Private buyers, the requirement is compared to the existing BRAND MASTER, which lists the standard attributes and packing details of each of the existing brands for a suitable match.

b) Proposal Submission & Negotiations:

Following the scrutiny of enquiries, proposals are submitted for the client's consideration. Negotiations, either verbal or written, are conducted as needed. Upon mutual acceptance of terms and price, the contract or order is issued by the Buyer, and a record of the same is maintained.

c) Contract Review:

Upon receipt, contracts are assessed by the MKT & CS Manager for comprehensiveness and viability with respect to the Company's available or accessible infrastructure to ensure execution. Upon satisfactory acceptance and approval from the MD, a Work Order is issued to the production department. The attributes of the product, particularly from Private Buyers, are checked against the BRAND MASTER, and any deviations are highlighted in the Work Order.

d) Contract Amendments:

In case a buyer issues an amendment to the order at a subsequent date after the issuance of the contract, it is scrutinized for viability of execution with the concerned department. A suitable amendment to the work order is then issued by the Manager-MKT & CS and recorded.

e) Design & Development of New Artwork:

For new customer brands, the MKT & CS Manager is responsible for originating the new artwork as per applicable national/international glove regulatory standards for packing and packaging materials. The process involves obtaining samples or artwork from the customer, developing proofs, getting customer approval, and finally providing the approved artwork to the QA I/C for inspection.

3. NATIONAL MEDICAL DEVICES POLICY, 2023 (THE “POLICY”) - National Medical Devices Policy, 2023 (the “Policy”) The medical devices sector is a critical component of India's healthcare system. Alongside healthcare providers, pharmaceuticals, and the health insurance industry, it plays a key role in achieving the objectives of the National Health Policy (NHP), 2017. This multi-disciplinary sector includes five broad categories: (a) electronic equipment; (b) implants; (c) consumables and disposables; (d) surgical instruments; and (e) in-vitro diagnostic reagents. Goods and Services Tax ("GST") is a comprehensive indirect tax on manufacture, sale and consumption of goods and services throughout India to replace taxes levied by the central and state governments on goods as services. This method allows GST-registered businesses to claim tax credit to the value of GST they paid on purchase of goods or services or both as part of their normal commercial activity. The mechanism provides for two level taxation of interstate and intra state transactions. When the supply of goods or services happens within a state i.e. intra-state transactions, then both the CGST i.e. Central Goods and Services Tax and SGST i.e. State Goods and Services Tax will be collected. Whereas if the supply of goods or services happens between the states i.e. inter- state transactions and IGST i.e. Integrated Goods and Services Tax will be collected. Exports are considered as zero-rated supply and imports are levied the same taxes as domestic goods and services adhering to the destination-based taxation principle in addition to the Customs Duty which has not been subsumed in the GST.

The date of implementation of the Code is yet to be notified.

Rules to implement the Code are expected to be finalized in the next few weeks. 1.02 Significant accounting policies

a) Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) in India. Indian GAAP includes mandatory accounting standards as specified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 and presentational requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and other accounting pronouncements of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in India (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the results of operations during the year. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the year in which the results are known or materialised. Examples of such estimates are estimated useful life of assets, provision for doubtful debts and retirement benefits, etc. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised prospectively in current and future periods.

c) Revenue Recognition

Revenue from sale of goods is recognized on transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the customer, which generally coincides with dispatch against orders from customers in accordance with the contract terms.

Sales are recognized, net of returns and trade discounts, on transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyer. Sales exclude Goods & Service Tax.

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

d) Current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities are classified into current and non-current

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:-

- a. It is expected to be realized in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle.
- b. It is held for the purpose of being traded.
- c. It is expected to be realized within 12 months after the reporting period.
- d. It is cash or cash equivalents unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.

Current assets include the current portion of non-financial assets.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

Liabilities

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:-

- a. It is expected to be settled in the company's normal operating cycle.
- b. It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded.
- c. It is due to be settled within 12 months from the reporting period
- d. The company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of liability at least 12 months after the reporting date. Terms of the liability that could at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Current liabilities include the current portion of non-financial liabilities.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Operating cycle

Operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents.

e) Fixed assets and depreciation

Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation and / or less accumulated impairment loss, if any. Cost of acquisition is inclusive of freight, duties, levies and all other incidental expenditure attributable to bring the assets to its working conditions for their intended use.

Depreciation is provided on straight line method at the rates which management believes is representative of useful lives of the assets prescribed under Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, except for cylinders which are depreciated over a period of 1 year. Assets costing up to Rs.5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of acquisition.

Leasehold improvements are amortised over the period of lease, or the useful lives of assets as prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, whichever is shorter.

Leasehold land is amortised on a straight line basis over the period of lease.

A fixed asset is eliminated from the financial statements on disposal or when no further benefit is expected from its use and disposal.

Losses arising from retirement or gains or losses arising from disposal of fixed assets which are carried at cost are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

f) Inventories

Inventories which comprise raw materials, work-in-progress and finished goods are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost of inventories comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

In determining the cost, FIFO method is used. In the case of manufactured inventories and work in progress, fixed production overheads are allocated on the basis of normal capacity of production facilities.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The net realisable value of work-in-progress is determined with reference to the selling prices of related finished products. Raw materials and other supplies held for use in the production of finished products are not written down below cost except in cases where material prices have declined and it is estimated that the cost of the finished products will exceed their net realisable value.

The comparison of cost and net realisable value is made on an item-by-item basis.

g) Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the respective transactions. Monetary foreign currency assets and liabilities remaining unsettled at the balance sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing on that date. Gains / losses arising on account of realization / settlement of foreign exchange transactions and on translation of foreign currency assets and liabilities are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

h) Employee benefitsShort-term employee benefits

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of receiving employee services are classified as short-term employee benefits. These benefits include salaries and wages, bonus and ex-gratia. The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits to be paid in exchange for employee services is recognised as an expense as the related service is rendered by employees.

Post employment benefit*Defined contribution plan*

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays specified contributions to a separate entity and has no obligation to pay any further amounts. The Company makes specified monthly contributions towards employee provident fund to Government administered provident fund scheme which is a defined contribution plan. The Company's contribution is recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss during the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Defined Benefit Plan

The Company's gratuity benefit scheme is the defined benefit plan. The Company's net obligation in respect of a defined benefit plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognised past service costs and the fair value of any plan assets are deducted. The calculation of the Company's obligation under plan is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method.

The Company recognises all actuarial gains and losses arising from defined benefit plans immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. All expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in employee benefits expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss. When the benefits of a plan are improved, the portion of the increased benefit related to past service by employees is recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The Company recognises gains and losses on the curtailment or settlement of a defined benefit plan when the curtailment or settlement occurs.

i) Taxation

Income-tax expense comprises current tax (i.e. the amount of tax for the year determined in accordance with the Income-tax Act, 1961) and deferred tax charge or credit (reflecting the tax effects of timing differences between the accounting income and taxable income for the year). The deferred tax charge or credit and the corresponding deferred tax liabilities or assets are recognised using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is reasonable certainty of realization. However, where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carried forward loss under taxation laws, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty of realisation of such assets. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down or written up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realised.

Minimum Alternative Tax ('MAT') under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 is recognised as current tax in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The credit available under the Act in respect of MAT paid is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the period for which the MAT credit can be carried forward for set-off against the normal tax liability. MAT credit recognised as an asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down to the extent the aforesaid convincing evidence no longer exists.

j) Operating leases

Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased term are classified as operating leases. Operating lease charges are recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term, considering the renewal terms, if appropriate.

k) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the cost of such assets to the extent that they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to Statement of profit and loss.

l) Earnings per share

The Company reports basic and diluted earnings / (loss) per equity share in accordance with Accounting Standard 20, Earnings per Share. The basic and dilutive earnings / (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net profit / (loss) attributable to equity shareholders for the period / year by the weighted average number of equities shares outstanding during the period / year. Dilutive earnings per share is computed and disclosed after adjusting the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares, if any, except when the results will be anti-dilutive.

m) Impairment of assets

The carrying amounts of assets are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated. For assets that are not ready for use, the recoverable amount is estimated at each reporting date. An impairment loss is recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss whenever the carrying amount of an asset or its cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recorded only to the extent that the carrying amount of the assets does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined net of depreciation or amortization, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

n) Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A contingent liability is recognised where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. The Company does not recognise assets which are of contingent nature until there is virtual certainty of the realisation of such assets. However, if it has become virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise the asset and related income are recognised in the financial statements of the year in which the change occurs.

1.03 Contingent liabilities and commitments

(to the extent not provided for)

Contingent liabilities:

(i) The Company has availed custom duty exemptions under the Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme of the Government of India on import of capital equipment for use in its manufacturing business. Under the said Scheme, the Company is required to discharge the export obligation 'Scheme' over a period of next eight years.

As of 31st, March 2024,

(A) Export commitment pending under Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme is NIL

(B) Duty amount saved on the pending export commitment is NIL

(ii) Estimated amount of contract remaining to be executed on capital account (net of advances) – Rs. NIL (In FY 2022-23 was NIL-).

1.02 Significant accounting policies

a) Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) in India. Indian GAAP includes mandatory accounting standards as specified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 and presentational requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and other accounting pronouncements of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in India (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the results of operations during the year. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the year in which the results are known or materialised. Examples of such estimates are estimated useful life of assets, provision for doubtful debts and retirement benefits, etc. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised prospectively in current and future periods.

c) Revenue Recognition

Revenue from sale of goods is recognized on transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the customer, which generally coincides with dispatch against orders from customers in accordance with the contract terms.

Sales are recognized, net of returns and trade discounts, on transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyer. Sales exclude Goods & Service Tax.

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

d) Current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities are classified into current and non-current

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:-

- It is expected to be realized in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle.
- It is held for the purpose of being traded.
- It is expected to be realized within 12 months after the reporting period.
- It is cash or cash equivalents unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.

Current assets include the current portion of non-financial assets.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

Liabilities

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:-

- It is expected to be settled in the company's normal operating cycle.
- It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded.
- It is due to be settled within 12 months from the reporting period
- The company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of liability at least 12 months after the reporting date. Terms of the liability that could at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Current liabilities include the current portion of non-financial liabilities.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Operating cycle

Operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents.

e) Fixed assets and depreciation

Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation and / or less accumulated impairment loss, if any. Cost of acquisition is inclusive of freight, duties, levies and all other incidental expenditure attributable to bring the assets to its working conditions for their intended use.

Depreciation is provided on straight line method at the rates which management believes is representative of useful lives of the assets prescribed under Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, except for cylinders which are depreciated over a period of 1 year. Assets costing up to Rs.5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of acquisition.

Leasehold improvements are amortised over the period of lease, or the useful lives of assets as prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, whichever is shorter.

Leasehold land is amortised on a straight line basis over the period of lease.

A fixed asset is eliminated from the financial statements on disposal or when no further benefit is expected from its use and disposal.

Losses arising from retirement or gains or losses arising from disposal of fixed assets which are carried at cost are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss

f) Inventories

Inventories which comprise raw materials, work-in-progress and finished goods are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost of inventories comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

In determining the cost, FIFO method is used. In the case of manufactured inventories and work in progress, fixed production overheads are allocated on the basis of normal capacity of production facilities.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The net realisable value of work-in-progress is determined with reference to the selling prices of related finished products. Raw materials and other supplies held for use in the production of finished products are not written down below cost except in cases where material prices have declined and it is estimated that the cost of the finished products will exceed their net realisable value.

The comparison of cost and net realisable value is made on an item-by-item basis.

g) Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the respective transactions. Monetary foreign currency assets and liabilities remaining unsettled at the balance sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing on that date. Gains / losses arising on account of realization / settlement of foreign exchange transactions and on translation of foreign currency assets and liabilities are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

h) Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of receiving employee services are classified as short-term employee benefits. These benefits include salaries and wages, bonus and ex-gratia. The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits to be paid in exchange for employee services is recognised as an expense as the related service is rendered by employees.

Post employment benefit

Defined contribution plan

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays specified contributions to a separate entity and has no obligation to pay any further amounts. The Company makes specified monthly contributions towards employee provident fund to Government administered provident fund scheme which is a defined contribution plan. The Company's contribution is recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss during the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Defined Benefit Plan

The Company's gratuity benefit scheme is the defined benefit plan. The Company's net obligation in respect of a defined benefit plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognised past service costs and the fair value of any plan assets are deducted. The calculation of the Company's obligation under plan is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method.

The Company recognises all actuarial gains and losses arising from defined benefit plans immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. All expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in employee benefits expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss. When the benefits of a plan are improved, the portion of the increased benefit related to past service by employees is recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The Company recognises gains and losses on the curtailment or settlement of a defined benefit plan when the curtailment or settlement occurs.

i) Taxation

Income-tax expense comprises current tax (i.e. the amount of tax for the year determined in accordance with the Income-tax Act, 1961) and deferred tax charge or credit (reflecting the tax effects of timing differences between the accounting income and taxable income for the year). The deferred tax charge or credit and the corresponding deferred tax liabilities or assets are recognised using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is reasonable certainty of realization. However, where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carried forward loss under taxation laws, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty of realisation of such assets. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down or written up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realised.

Minimum Alternative Tax ("MAT") under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 is recognised as current tax in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The credit available under the Act in respect of MAT paid is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the period for which the MAT credit can be carried forward for set-off against the normal tax liability. MAT credit recognised as an asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down to the extent the aforesaid convincing evidence no longer exists.

j) Operating leases

Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased term are classified as operating leases. Operating lease charges are recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term, considering the renewal terms, if appropriate.

k) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the cost of such assets to the extent that they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to Statement of profit and loss.

l) Earnings per share

The Company reports basic and diluted earnings / (loss) per equity share in accordance with Accounting Standard 20, Earnings per Share. The basic and dilutive earnings / (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net profit / (loss) attributable to equity shareholders for the period / year by the weighted average number of equities shares outstanding during the period / year. Dilutive earnings per share is computed and disclosed after adjusting the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares, if any, except when the results will be anti-dilutive.

m) Impairment of assets

The carrying amounts of assets are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated. For assets that are not ready for use, the recoverable amount is estimated at each reporting date. An impairment loss is recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss whenever the carrying amount of an asset or its cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recorded only to the extent that the carrying amount of the assets does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined net of depreciation or amortization, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

n) Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A contingent liability is recognised where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. The Company does not recognise assets which are of contingent nature until there is virtual certainty of the realisation of such assets. However, if it has become virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise the asset and related income are recognised in the financial statements of the year in which the change occurs.

1.03 Contingent liabilities and commitments

(to the extent not provided for)

Contingent liabilities:

(i) The Company has availed custom duty exemptions under the Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme of the Government of India on import of capital equipment for use in its manufacturing business. Under the said Scheme, the Company is required to discharge the export obligation 'Scheme' over a period of next eight years.

As of 31st, March 2024,

(A) Export commitment pending under Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme is NIL

(B) Duty amount saved on the pending export commitment is NIL

(ii) Estimated amount of contract remaining to be executed on capital account (net of advances) – Rs. NIL (In FY 2022-23 was NIL-).

1.04 The Previous Year figures have been regrouped/rearranged wherever necessary to make them comparable.

Reason for change in the Revenue from operation and Profit after tax
(Amount in Lakhs)

Particulars	FY 2023-24	FY 2022-23
Revenue from Operation	4,643.21	3,591.49
Change in %	29.28%

% Increase in Total Cost	16.06%
Profit after tax	384.47	34.69
Pat Margin in %	8.28%	0.97%

Increase in PAT Justification:

The increase in the profit after tax is attributed to:

1. The revenue of the company was increased by 29.28 % and the Cost of Goods Sold also increased by 14.30%. However, the COGS expense also decreased by 8.75 % due to which it directly impacted the PAT Margin of the company.
2. The raw material are purchased in bulk which help the company to get bulk discount, which reduced our expenses on the Cost of Goods Sold Expenses.
3. Our R&D team developed an optimized raw material (RM) composition formula for latex and other chemicals used in condom production. This innovation reduced material waste (scrap), decreased latex consumption, and significantly lowered production costs. As a result, gross margins increased.
4. In FY 2023-24, the prices of government orders increased by approximately 9% compared to FY 2022-23. This price adjustment contributed to higher sales values and improved profit margins.
5. Effective cost control, resource optimization, and streamlined operations led to improved cost-effectiveness and higher profit margins.

There was no requirement for condoms from the Government of India, and no tenders were floated during this period. Consequently, there was no turnover to CMSS (Central Medical Services Society) in FY 2021-22. In FY 2022-23, with the resumption of government tenders, there was a significant increase in turnover, driven by 30.32% sales to the Government.

Reason for change in the Revenue from operation and Profit after tax
(Amount in Lakhs)

Particulars	For the period March 31, 2023	For the period March 31, 2022
Revenue from Operation	3,591.49	2,309.93
Change in %	55.48%
Profit after tax	34.69	158.40
Pat Margin in %	0.97%	6.86%

Decrease in PAT Justification:

The decrease in the profit after tax is attributed to:

1. In FY 2021-22, sales were made exclusively to private parties, resulting in good margins. However, with a workforce of approximately 150–200 employees, maintaining plant operations was essential to cover operating expenditures. Consequently, government orders were accepted in FY 2022-23, albeit at lower margins (approximately 15% lower than private party prices). This led to a reduction in overall margins. The government turnover amounted to ₹11 Cr in FY 2022-23, contributing to a total turnover increase of ₹12.81 Cr compared to FY 2021-22.
2. Exports of gloves and masks in FY 2021-22 totaled ₹5.45 Cr, generating an average net profit margin of 25% and resulting in a PAT of 6.9%. Conversely, export sales in FY 2022-23 dropped significantly to ₹1.62 Cr, impacting overall profitability.
3. The production of condoms relies on a precise raw material (RM) composition, including latex and various chemicals. Changes in the quality and production team during FY 2022-23 resulted in mismanagement of this composition, leading to quality issues and increased scrap. This directly affected production efficiency and reduced margins.

Consequent to the tender dated February 08, 2019, granted to Anondita Healthcare (“Petitioner”) for supplying special polymer surgical gloves (“Product”) to Rajasthan Medical Services Corporation Ltd (“RMSCL”), 3 purchase orders (collectively referred to as the “Disputed Purchase Orders”) were issued to the Petitioner. Due to the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, from December 2019 onwards and all the related restrictions, the Petitioner was unable to import the required raw materials and chemicals from China and Malaysia as these countries had stopped exports in order to fulfil their domestic demand which has increased due to COVID-19. As a result of this, the Petitioner was unable to manufacture the Product, and the Disputed Purchase Orders could not be fulfilled.

RMSCL issued a show cause notice dated July 27, 2020 (“SCN”) to the Petitioner for non-supply of the Product mentioned in the Disputed Purchase Orders and thereafter a penalty dated August 05, 2020, was imposed thereby debaring the Petitioner from participating in the tender process of RMSCL for 1 year (“Penalty”). M/s Anondita Healthcare had engaged the services of Mohd. Faiz and Mohd. Imran (collectively “Manufacturers”) to manufacture machines for making surgical gloves. The machines were to be made using the designs that were the intellectual property of Anondita Healthcare. Swear Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. (“Swear Healthcare”) got a hold of these designs and in collusion with the Manufacturers, manufactured and started using 2 machines to manufacture and sell surgical gloves. A civil suit was filed by Anondita Healthcare and a permanent injunction preventing Swear Healthcare from using the 2 machines was passed by the Court of the Senior Civil Judge, Gautam Buddha Nagar, Uttar Pradesh. Since Swear Healthcare continued to use the said machines, Anondita Healthcare approached the Court of the Civil Judge, Senior Division, Noida who passed an order for attachment of the 2 machines and transferred the matter to court of the District Judge, Dholpur, Rajasthan (“Dholpur Court”), for attachment of the 2 machines. The Dholpur Court issued and executed warrants of attachment. Swear Healthcare filed an application for the stay of these warrants of attachment with a prayer to release the machines on the grounds that the same had been manufactured pursuant to agreements entered into by Swear Healthcare and are not based on the designs of Anondita Healthcare. On November 11, 2022, the Dholpur Court passed an order for release of 1 of the 2 attached machines (“Order”).

Thereafter, Swear Healthcare has filed a civil revision petition no. 273 of 2022 (Swear Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. Vs. M/s Anondita Healthcare) against the Order, before the High Court of Rajasthan, Jaipur Bench (“Court”) with a prayer to release the 2nd machine as well.

In its order dated January 19, 2023, the Court directed that this matter should be registered as a civil revision petition and listed along with the civil revision petition no. 273 of 2022. PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UNIFIED PAYMENTS INTERFACE

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI will be introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by RIIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a. Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Retail Individual applicant, besides the modes of Bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.
- b. Phase II: This phase commenced on completion of Phase I i.e. with effect from July 1, 2019 and was to be continued for a period of three months or launch of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Further, as per the SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019, the UPI Phase II has been extended until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount be continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the Application Form by a Retail Individual Applicant through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days during this phase.
- c. Phase III: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023, and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 ("T+3 Notification"). In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues are required to provide a facility to make applications using the UPI Mechanism. Further, in accordance with the UPI Circulars, our Company has appointed [●] as the Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Investors into the UPI mechanism.

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Offer BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

SEBI through its circular (SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/45) dated April 5, 2022, has prescribed that all individual investors applying in initial public offerings opening on or after May 1, 2022, where the application amount is up to Rs. 5,00,000, shall use UPI. Individual investors bidding under the Non-Institutional Portion bidding for more than Rs. 200,000 and up to Rs. 5,00,000, using the UPI Mechanism, shall provide their UPI ID in the Bid-cum-Application Form for Bidding through Syndicate, sub-syndicate members, Registered Brokers, RTAs or CDPs, or online using the facility of linked online trading, demat and bank account (3 in 1 type accounts), provided by certain brokers.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process:

Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Offer; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹ 24 per share, Offer size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Offer the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹ 22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the BRLM, may finalise the Offer Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹ 22.00. All Bids at or above this Offer Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Multiple Applications

An Applicant should submit only one Application (and not more than one) for the total number of Equity Shares required. Two or more Applications will be deemed to be multiple Applications if the sole or First Applicant is one and the same.

In this regard, the procedures which would be followed by the Registrar to the Issue to detect multiple applications are given below:

- (i) All applications are electronically strung on first name, address (1st line) and applicant's status. Further, these applications are electronically matched for common first name and address and if matched, these are checked manually for age, signature and father/ husband's name to determine if they are multiple applications.
- (ii) Applications which do not qualify as multiple applications as per above procedure are further checked for common DP ID/ beneficiary ID. In case of applications with common DP ID/ beneficiary ID, are manually checked to eliminate possibility of data entry error to determine if they are multiple applications.
- (iii) Applications which do not qualify as multiple applications as per above procedure are further checked for common PAN. All such matched applications with common PAN are manually checked to eliminate possibility of data capture error to determine if they are multiple applications.

In case of a mutual fund, a separate Application can be made in respect of each scheme of the mutual fund registered with SEBI and such Applications in respect of more than one scheme of the mutual fund will not be treated as multiple Applications provided that the Applications clearly indicate the scheme concerned for which the Application has been made.

In cases where there are more than 20 valid applications having a common address, such shares will be kept in abeyance, post allotment and released on confirmation of know your client' norms by the depositories. The Company reserves the right to reject, in our absolute discretion, all or any multiple Applications in any or all categories.

After submitting an ASBA Application either in physical or electronic mode, an ASBA Applicant cannot apply (either in physical or electronic mode) to either the same or another Designated Branch of the SCSB. Submission of a second Application in such manner will be deemed a multiple Application and would be rejected. More than one ASBA Applicant may apply for Equity Shares using the same ASBA Account, provided that the SCSBs will not accept a total of more than five Application Forms with respect to any single ASBA Account.

Duplicate copies of Application Forms downloaded and printed from the website of the Stock Exchange bearing the same application number shall be treated as multiple applications and are liable to be rejected. The Company, in consultation with the BRLM reserves the right to reject, in its absolute discretion, all or any multiple applications in any or all categories.
