NSE forms selection panel for new MD & CEO

MUMBAI: The National Stock Exchange has formed a four-member selection committee to find a replacement for Chitra Ramkrishna, who resigned as the MD&CEO on December 2.

The committee members are Usha Thorat, former Deputy Governor, RBI, Anand Mahindra, Chairman, Mahindra Group, and two public interest directors of NSE — T.V. Mohandas Pai and Dinesh Kanabar. The board has already appointed J.

Ravichandran to hold charge of the office of CEO. The panel, after due process, will recommend the names to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board of NSE. — Special Correspondent
