VILOSES SUBSCRIBERS FOR 22 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS

JATH VORHEEZ

RELJION JIO, THE country’s largest telcom operator by subscriber base, has lost 22 consecutive months of net subscribers. An account of share of subscribers in the fourth quarter of 2022 shows that the telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

In another report, according to subscribers, the telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

The telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

The telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

The telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

The telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

The telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.

The telcom’s overall subscriber base has decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers. The telcom’s total subscriber base has also decreased from 407.54 million to 411.59 million, which is a decrease of 4.05 million subscribers.