PAKISTAN POLL RESULTS OUT

Nawaz leads coalition amid fractured verdict

Imran candidates are 93, Nawaz's 75, Bilawal's 54

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Islamabad, February 11

THE THREE MAIN political parties in Pakistan on Sunday intensified their efforts for the formation of a coalition government after it became clear that the coup-prone country faced a hung Parliament after general elections. The general elections were held on February 8, but the unusual delay in the announcement of results vitiated the atmosphere as several parties cried foul and some resorted to protests.

Former prime minister and the Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N) supremo Nawaz Sharif received the backing of the powerful Pakistan Army chief general Asim Munir on Saturday for his call for a unity government to pull Pakistan out of its current difficulties.

The Election Commission of Pakistan has announced the results of 264 out of 265 contested seats in the 266-member National Assembly.

The result of one con-

Supporters of former PM Imran Khan's party, the PTI, shout slogans as part of their protest demanding free and fair results of the election, in Peshawar, on Sunday stituency was withheld by the ECP due to complaints of fraud and it would be announced after redressing the grievances of the aggrieved. Election to one seat was postponed after the death of a candidate.

Independent candidates, a vast majority of them backed by jailed former prime minister Imran Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI), won 93 seats in the National Assembly.

They were followed by three-time former Sharif's PML-N with 75 seats, which technically is the single largest party in Parliament. To form a government, a party must win 133 seats out of 265 contested seats in the National Assembly. Overall, 169 seats are needed to secure a simple majority out of its total 336 seats, which include the reserved slots for women and minorities which will be decided later.

The PML-N was leading the push to form the coalition government on the pattern of one it set up after Khan, 71, was removed as prime minister through a no-confidence vote in April 2022.

IMF chief confident on economic outlook

REUTERS
Dubai, February 11

THE MANAGING DIRECTOR of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), Kristalina Georgieva, on Sunday said that she was confident about the economic outlook despite uncertainties around war and geopolitics as the global economy has remained resilient.

Addressing the World Governments Summit, Georgieva said the IMF would publish a paper on Monday that shows phasing out explicit energy subsidies could save $336 billion in the Middle East, equivalent to the economies of Iraq and Libya combined. She added that in addition to savings, eliminating regressive energy subsidies "discourages pollution, and helps improve social spending," in a copy of the speech published on the IMF website.

In its latest regional economic update published last month, the IMF revised its GDP growth forecast for the Middle East and North Africa region downwards to 2.9% this year, due in part to short term oil production cuts.

"While uncertainties are still high, we can be a bit more confident about the economic outlook, because the global economy has been surprisingly resilient," she said.

Trump hints at free-hand to Russia against Nato

White House called Trump's remarks on NATO 'appalling'

ASSOCIATED PRESS
New York, February 11

REPUBLICAN FRONT-RUNNER DONALD Trump said on Saturday that, as president, he warned Nato allies that he "would encourage" Russia "to do whatever the hell they want" to countries that are "delinquent" as he ramped up his attacks on foreign aid and longstanding international alliances.

Speaking at a rally in South Carolina, Trump recounted a story he has told before about an unidentified Nato member who confronted him over his threat not to defend members who fail to meet the trans-Atlantic alliance's defense spending targets. But this time, Trump went further, saying he told the member that he would, in fact, "encourage" Russia to do as it wishes in that case. "You didn't pay? You're delinquent?" Trump recounted saying.

...I WOULD ENCOURAGE THEM (RUSSIA) TO DO WHATEVER THE HELL THEY WANT. YOU (NATO ALLIES) GOTTA PAY YOUR BILLS.

"No I would not protect you (Nato allies). In fact, I would encourage them (Russia) to do whatever the hell they want. You gotta pay. You gotta pay your bills."

Nato allies agreed in 2014, after Russia annexed Ukraine's

Crimean Peninsula, to halt the spending cuts they had made after the Cold War and move toward spending 2% of their GDPs on defense by 2024.

White House spokesperson Andrew Bates responded: "Encouraging invasions of our closest allies by murderous regimes is appalling and unhinged—and it endangers American national security, global stability, and our economy at home."

Trump mocks Haley for husband's absence

FORMER US PRESIDENT Donald Trump has mocked his Republican rival Nikki Haley over the absence of her husband drawing a sharp reaction from the Indian-American politician who said the person who disrespects military families has no business being commander-in-chief. "Where's her husband? Oh, he's away. ... What happened to her husband? Where's he? He's gone," Trump said at his rally in Conway in South Carolina, his first visit to the state this year.

Haley fired back at Trump's comments later on Saturday. "Donald, if you have something to say, don't say it behind my back; get on a debate stage and say it to my face," she said.

Haley's husband Major Michael Haley is a commissioned officer with the South Carolina National Guard.

Totally up for fight to win UK polls, says Sunak

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, February 11

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Rishi Sunak has said he is "totally up for the fight" of pitching his policies to the electorate to win another term for the governing Conservative Party as he prepares for a general election expected to take place in the second half of the year.

In an interview with The Times this weekend, the 43-year-old British Indian leader said he had reasons to be optimistic because the economy was "pointing in the right direction" and that the "future is going to be better".

"At the beginning of this year there is a sense that the country is pointing in the right direction," he said.

"Because economic conditions have improved, because the plan is working, you are starting to see mortgage rates come down and we have been able to cut taxes.

I do believe those pressures are starting to ease and that hopefully over the course of this year, we can continue to make even more progress," he said. In a message as much for the voters as for the rebels within his own Tory ranks, the Conservative leader reiterated his plan to cut taxes for the hardworking people of the country. "It's because those are my values, those are the values of my party. It's one where hard work should be rewarded. And actually, the best way to express that through the tax system is to cut people's taxes so when they are working hard they get to enjoy more of the rewards of that for themselves and their family," he said.

"Because economic conditions have improved, because the plan is working, you are starting to see mortgage rates come down and we have been able to cut taxes," he added.

"I'm totally up for the fight," he said.

Musk ordered to testify in SEC's Twitter probe ordered Elon Musk to testify again in the US Securities and Exchange Commission's probe of his Twitter takeover, giving the regulator and the billionaire a week to agree on a date and location for the interview. US Magistrate Judge Laurel Beeler's order issued on Saturday night formalized a tentative ruling she made in December siding with the regulator. The SEC sued Musk in October to compel the Tesla CEO to testify as part of an investigation into his 2022 purchase of social media giant Twitter, which he renamed X.

A FEDERAL JUDGE

1) Repayment/Prepayment of Certain Debt Facilities

Our Company has entered into various financing arrangements, including borrowings in the form of long-term loans and cash credit facilities. As on December 31, 2023, our total fund-based borrowings amounted to ₹ 1,645.86 Lakhs. For further details, see "Statement of Financial Indebtedness" on page. Our Company proposes to utilize an aggregate amount of upto ₹ 438.35 Lakh from the Net Proceeds towards repayment and / or prepayment, in part or in full, of certain outstanding loans of our Company. Payment of interest, prepayment penalty or premium, if any, and other related costs may be made by us out of the Net Proceeds. The repayment / prepayment of certain loans by utilizing the Net Proceeds will help reduce our outstanding indebtedness. Further, we believe that it will reduce our debt-servicing costs and improve our debt equity ratio and enable utilization of internal accruals for further investment in our business growth and expansion.

Given the nature of the borrowings and the terms of repayment or pre-payment, the aggregate outstanding amounts under the borrowings may vary from time to time and our Company may, in accordance with the relevant repayment schedule, refinance or avail additional borrowings from the bank. Further, the amounts outstanding under the borrowings as well as the sanctioned limits are dependent on several factors and may vary with the business cycle of our Company with multiple intermediate repayments and enhancement of sanctioned limits. The selection of borrowings proposed to be prepaid or repaid amongst our borrowing arrangements availed shall be based on various factors, including (i) cost of the borrowing, including applicable interest rates; (ii) any conditions attached to the borrowings restricting our ability to prepay/ repay the borrowings and time taken to fulfil, or obtain waivers/ consents for fulfilment of such conditions; (iii) terms and conditions of such consents and waivers; (iv) provisions of any laws, rules and regulations governing such borrowings; and (v) other commercial considerations including, among others, the amount of the loan outstanding and the remaining tenure of the loan. The pre-payment or scheduled repayment will help reduce our outstanding indebtedness and finance cost, assist us in maintaining a favourable debt-equity ratio and enable utilisation of our internal accruals for further investment in business growth and expansion. In addition, it will also enable us to raise further resources in the future to fund potential business development opportunities and plans to grow and expand our business in the future. For further details, see "Statement of Financial Indebtedness" on page 201.

The following table provides details of certain borrowings availed by our Company as on February 09, 2024, which our Company proposes to prepay or repay, fully or partially, from the Net Proceeds:

Note: In accordance with Clause 9(A)(2)(b) of Part A of Schedule VI of the SEBI ICDR Regulations which requires a certificate from the statutory auditor certifying the utilization of loan for the purpose availed, the Company has obtained the requisite certificate dated September 26, 2023 from our Statutory Auditors, M/s Jay Gupta & Associates (Previously known as "M/s Gupta Agarwal & Associates"), Chartered Accountants.
