TROUBLE BREWING

McLeod Russel has erased its links with companies to sell 25-35% of its stake.

Analysts say buyouts would be perceived as responsible for the firm's profitability.

The company would need several measures to improve its profitability.

It is most likely that after the conclusion of the proposal, the company would have substantially fewer areas.

The company would be interested in buying only premium and profitable garden.

The proposal would be interesting to hold a board meeting.

Whoever would support the offered price.
