Khericha continues to be a director of TDPSI, even though he has recently ceased to be a shareholder of the company in his individual capscity, while Kiloskar continues to be a shareholder.
Under the Seeli listing rules, companies are required to disclose agreements entered into by a director with a shareholder-which could, either directly or indirectly, impact the management or control of the listed entity, Recently, TDPSL promoters including Rhericha, Nikhil Kumar, Chartered Capital, Saphire Finman Services and Hitoshil Mastuse sold about 3.78 corce shares representing 24.21% of its equity in the open market safe (partly through block deals). These shares were acquired by institutional investors such as Aditya Birla Sun Life MF, BNP Parlbas, HDPC MF, ICCID Frudential MF, Goldman Sachs Life MF, Mahindra MF, Mirae MF, Oxbow Master Fund, Quant MF, Societe Generale among others. The sale resulted in the share holding of promoters going down from 58.45% to 34,30% in one of the sale of the share holding of the sale of the sal quarter. Earlier this month, proxy advisory firm InGovern Research Services raised firm InGovern Research Services raised figs over corporate governance issues at TDFSL and asked shareholders to voraginst are solution to responsit Khericha as a director. It also wanted shareholders to the demand a forensic audit into the engineering services firm's actions. HAPPY NEWS

- Several small players, which had earlier vacated some of the market segments during the peak of inflation, returned
- This intensified competition at the local level, forcing several big FMCG players to go for price corrections
- Most of the listed FMCG entities reported volume-based growth in home care, personal care, beauty and foods products businesses
- FMCG players are passing on the benefits to consumers, so there is a sequential reduction in price growth

Bakery food company Britannia Industries reported a 35,65% rise in consolidated net profit at 455.45 crore and net sales were up 8.64% to £3,969.84 crore. However, Britannia executive vice chairman & managing director Varun Berry also said: 'In this quarter, commodity prices marginally softened & hence, the local competition intensified.' — PTI

Deal wins for IT firms may hit their margins, believe analysts

SAMEER RANJAN BAKSHI

THE LARGE DEALS which IT firms like HCLTech and Infosys have recently bagged from companies like Verizon, State Farm, Liberty Global, and Danske Bank, respec-Liberry Global, and Danske Bank, respectively, are unlikely to be margin accretive for them. This is because a substantial number of employees of the firms concerned will be transferred to their rolls as part of the project, which are essentially rebadging deals. Since the employees are located across geographies, their average cost would be higher than the regular hires in India, analysts said.

The operating margins of TCS, Infosy, and HCITche have sequential decline during the April-June quarter. To improve margins, 11 firms are trying cost optimisation measures. What's acting in their favour is that the attrition rates are falling.

tion measures, what's acting in their favour is that the attrition rates are falling, which will help them in reining wage cost. However, analysts maintain that taking on employees as part of rebadging deals will increase the number of on-site employees, which may lead to higher wage cost, thus impacting magning.

Taking on higher cost employees come at a time when the IT firms are trying to contain wage cost. For instance, Wipro and HCLTech, have deferred salary hikes for their employees from the second to the

In Gart, HCTech has said that it will iskip salary hikes for senlor employees this financialyear. Usually, Timms give salary hikes during the second quarter of hefiscal. While announcing its April-une quarter earnings, Infosys had sharply cut its sevenue guidance for FY24 to 1.0-3.5% in constant currency terms from 4-7% of constant currency from 4-7% o

According to Peter Bendor-Samuel, CEO, bevest group, rebadging often delay margins and carries risk, so margins are likely to be get hit. However, he added that rebadging deals are often linked to cost cutting linitiatives, so more of such deals may come through in the days to come. Kamkumar Ramamoorthy, partner, Catalincs, a growth advisory firm, said that such mulci-year, robadging, deals are likely to be margin dilutive in the first few years, but maybe over the longer term, the IT firms will manage margins reasonablywell.
