39-member House panel set up, BJP MP Mahtab may lead

Winter session ends; LS functions 52% of scheduled time, RS 39%

ARCHIS MOHAN & PTI
New Delhi, 20 December

On the last day of the Winter Session of Parliament on Friday, both the Lok Sabha and the Rajya Sabha adopted resolutions setting up a 39-member joint committee to examine the two Bills proposing simultaneous elections, or "One Nation, One Election" (ONOE).

The government decided to increase the committee's strength from 31 to 39 as several political parties expressed the desire to be part of the exercise to scrutinise the Bills. The committee will have 27 members from the Lok Sabha and 12 from the Rajya Sabha.

Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)'s Lok Sabha member Bhartruhari Mahtab is tipped to be the chairman of the joint committee on ONOE Bills. Some other BJP MPs on the committee are Anurag Thakur, Parshottam Rupala, P P Chaudhary, Bansuri Swaraj, and Sambit Patra. Congress nominated Manish Tewari and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra as its representatives on the committee.

"The government agreed that the matter is very important and it relates to the reformation of the election process of our country. So, we agreed to include most of the prominent political parties," Parliamentary Affairs Minister Kiren Rijiju told reporters later.

He said there was no limit to the size of the Joint Committee of Parliament and pointed out that one parliamentary panel examining Centre-state relations had 51 members.

Among the 39 members of the Committee, 16 are from the BJP, five from the Congress, two each from SP, TMC and DMK, and one each from the Shiv Sena, TDP, JD(U), RLD, LJP(RV), JSP, Shiv Sena-UBT, NCP-SP, CPI(M), AAP, BJD and the YSRCP.

According to PRS Legislative Research, a think tank that studies India's legislatures, the Lok Sabha functioned for 52 per cent of its scheduled time and the Rajya Sabha for 39 per cent of its scheduled time during the Winter Session.

The session witnessed frequent disruptions over issues such as Congress' demand for a Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) probe into allegations against the Adani group, BJP's allegations that the Congress leadership has "links" with investor George Soros, and on Union Home Minister Amit Shah's remarks on the architect of India's Constitution, BR Ambedkar.

The highlight of the session was the debate on the 75 years of India's Constitution, which the two Houses discussed for a cumulative 33 hours. According to PRS, Question Hour did not function for more than 10 minutes on 12 out of 20 days in the Lok Sabha. While several notices for adjournment motions were received in the Lok Sabha, none was accepted.

Both Houses were adjourned without transacting any substantial business on the last day of the session amid Opposition protests. Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla warned members of action if any of them resorted to demonstrations and protests within the premises of Parliament.

The directions from the Speaker came after Parliament premises witnessed large-scale protests by both the Opposition and Treasury members on the issue of alleged insult to Ambedkar. "Do not resort to demonstration or protest at any gate or anywhere on Parliament premises. Else, the House will have to take serious action," Birla said in the House on Friday.

2.2K cases of violence against minorities in B'desh: Centre

A total of 2,200 cases of violence against Hindus and other minorities have been reported in Bangladesh this year till December 8, and India's expectation is Dhaka will take necessary measures to ensure their safety, the government said on Friday. MoS for External Affairs Kirti Vardhan Singh gave the information in a written response to a query in Lok Sabha, citing data from minority and human rights organisations.

In Pakistan, the number of cases of violence against Hindus and other minorities in Pakistan this year stood at "112 till October 2024," the MoS said. The corresponding figures for 2022 were 47 in Bangladesh and 241 in Pakistan, while in 2023 the figures were 302 in Bangladesh and 103 in Pakistan, according to the data he shared.

The minister said the Indian government has urged "Pakistan to take

India registers protest with Dhaka over 'claims' on territory

India has lodged a strong protest with Dhaka over a now-deleted social media post by a key aide of Bangladesh's interim government that claimed certain areas of Indian territory should be part of that country.

Mahfuz Alam, known for his provocative comments, had also posted on Facebook four days ago a map purportedly showing parts of West Bengal, Tripura and Assam as parts of Bangladesh. He deleted the post after it triggered backlash. Alam is a de facto minister in the Muhammad Yunus-led interim government of Bangladesh. In strongly reacting to the post, External Affairs Ministry spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal on Friday reminded all concerned to be "mindful" of their public comments. PTI steps to prevent religious intolerance, sectarian violence, systemic persecution and attacks on minority communities and ensure their safety, security, and well-being."

He added, "India continues to highlight the plight of minorities in Pakistan at appropriate international fora." Cases of violence against Hindus and other minorities in other neighbouring countries (except Pakistan and Bangladesh) is "nil," the minister said. PTI

1984 anti-Sikh riots: SC directs Centre to file report on trials in 2 wks

The Supreme Court on Friday directed the Centre to file a fresh status report within two weeks on the status of trials in the 1984 anti-Sikh riots.

A bench comprising Justices Abhay S Oka and Augustine George Masih asked additional solicitor general Aishwarya Bhati to file an affidavit and permitted the petitioners in the case to file detailed objections.

During the hearing, Bhati said recommendations of the special investigation team, set up by the top court, were carried out.

A counsel appearing for one of the petitioners submitted there were some glaring instances in the SIT report and said 500 cases were clubbed in one FIR. "There were many instances where 498 cases were clubbed in one FIR and IO had to investigate all of them. Initially when the hearing began, the court felt that it should be confined to Delhi only. But we have done nothing about other states. We have given examples of Kanpur, Bokaro, etc., nothing has happened," he said.

The top court assured it will look into all these aspects. Delhi witnessed large-scale violence and killings of persons from the Sikh community following former PM Indira Gandhi's assassination by her bodyguards in 1984 and the cases stemming from the incident have seen some major twists and turns 40 years on.

According to those at the forefront of the legal fight, while there have been significant milestones—reopening of cases and prosecution of political heavyweights—the road to justice is a long one. PTI

Former Haryana CM Om Prakash Chautala dies

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Gurugram, 20 December

Indian National Lok Dal president and five-time Haryana chief minister Om Prakash Chautala died here on Friday at the age of 89.

Chautala, former deputy prime minister Devi Lal's son, suffered a cardiac arrest at his house and was immediately rushed to a hospital but could not be saved, a party spokesperson told PTI. He breathed his last at around 12 noon in Medanta hospital, a senior police officer said.

Chautala, who came from a prominent political family in Haryana and was face of a prominent regional outfit, had been facing age-related health issues in the recent past.

He is survived by two sons and three daughters. His wife Sneha Lata had passed away over five years ago.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Haryana Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini were among a host of leaders who condoled the demise of Chautala. Expressing grief, Modi said on X, "He (Chautala) was active in the state politics for many years and strove consistently to advance the work of Devi Lal."

Saini said the demise of the INLD supremo is extremely sad. "My humble tribute to him. He served the state and society throughout his life. This is an irreparable loss for the politics of the country and Haryana state," Saini said on X.

Former chief minister and senior Congress leader Bhupinder Singh Hooda recalled that when Chautala was the chief minister, he was the Leader of Opposition in the Haryana assembly.

Chautala served the people of the state. There are many good memories with him, he said, adding that he was like his elder brother.
