Company Limited by Shares

Articles of Association

Of

National Stock Exchange of India Limited

Subject to the provisions contained in these Articles, the regulations contained in Table F of Schedule I to the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "Table F") shall apply to the Company in respect of any matter not expressly provided for in these Articles. In the event of any inconsistency or repugnancy between these Articles and Table F, these Articles shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.

Further, these Articles shall be read and interpreted in conjunction with the Companies Act, 2013, the various Schedules thereto, and the Rules made thereunder, as amended from time to time (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Act"). To the extent these Articles are inconsistent with the mandatory provisions of the Act, such provisions of the Act shall prevail and these Articles shall be deemed modified or replaced to conform to the applicable provisions of the Act.

Additionally, these Articles shall also be read and interpreted in conjunction with the Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Stock Exchanges and Clearing Corporations) Regulations, 2018 ("SCR (SECC) Regulations"), as amended from time to time, and circulars, notifications regulations, rules and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India, without prejudice to the applicability of the Act and Table F. To the extent these Articles are inconsistent with the provisions of the SCR (SECC) Regulations or such other circulars, notifications regulations, rules and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI"), such provisions of the SCR (SECC) Regulations or such other circulars, notifications regulations, rules and guidelines issued by SEBI shall prevail.

In the event of any amendment, re-enactment, or substitution of the Act or the SCR (SECC) Regulations, these Articles shall be read with and construed in conjunction with such amended provisions, to the extent applicable, as if these Articles have been amended, replaced and altered so as to conform with such amendment, re-enactment or substitution, as applicable, to ensure compliance with the legislative framework in force at such relevant time.

Nothing herein shall prejudice or affect any rights, powers, or obligations which may have accrued, been acquired, or been exercised under these Articles or under the Act prior to any such amendment or regulatory change.

INTERPRETATION:

1. In these presents, the following words and expressions shall have the following meaning unless excluded by the subject or the context,

SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS

3. Authorised Share Capital

The Authorised Share Capital of the Company shall be of such amount and of such description as is stated for the time being or at any time, in the Memorandum of Association of the Company and the Company shall have power to increase or reduce the share capital from time to time in accordance with the regulations of the Company and the legislative provisions for the time being in force in this regard.

4. Register of Members and Debenture holders etc.

The Company shall cause to be kept a Register of Members, an Index of members, a Register of Debenture-holders and an Index of Debenture-holders in accordance with Section 88 of the Act.

5. Inspection of Register of Members and Debenture holders etc.

The Register of Members, the Index of Members, the Register and Index of Debenture-holders, copies of all returns prepared under the Act, together with the copies of certificate and documents required to be annexed thereto under the Act shall, except when the Register of Members or Debenture-holders is closed under the provisions of the Act or these presents, be open during business hours, (subject to such reasonable restriction as the Company may impose) to inspection of any Member or Debenture-holder gratis and to inspection of any other person on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by the Act for each inspection. Any such Member or person may take extracts therefrom on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by the Act.

6. The Company to send extracts of Register, etc.

The Company shall send to any Member, Debenture-holder or other person on request, a copy of the Register of Members, the Index of Members, the Register and Index of Debenture-holders or any part thereof required to be kept under the Act, on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by the Act. The copy shall be sent within a period of seven days, or such other time as may be prescribed under the Act or rules made thereunder

7. Restriction on allotment

The Board shall observe the restriction as to allotment contained in Section 39 of the Act and shall cause to be made the returns as to allotment provided for in Section 39 of the Act.

8. Shares at the disposal of the Governing Board

Subject to Section 62 and other applicable provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the Capital of the Company for the time being (including any shares forming part of any increased capital of the Company) shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose off all or any of such shares to such persons in such proportions and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 53 of the Act) at a discount and at such times as they may from time to time think fit and proper with the sanction of the Company in the General Meeting to give to any person or persons the option or right to call for any Shares either at par or premium during such time and for such consideration as the Directors think fit, and may issue and allot Shares in the capital of the Company on payment in full or part of any property sold and transferred or for any services rendered to the Company in the conduct of its business and any Shares which may so be allotted may be issued as fully paid up Shares and if so issued, shall be deemed to be fully paid Shares.

Provided that option or right to call shares shall not be given to any person except with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting.

9. Board may allot shares as fully paid-up or partly paid-up

Subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents the Board may allot and issue shares in the capital of the Company as payment or part payment for any property sold or goods transferred or machinery supplied or for services rendered to the Company and any shares which may be so allotted may be issued as fully paid-up or partly paid-up and if so issued shall be deemed to be fully paid-up shares or partly paid-up shares.

10. Acceptance of shares

Any application signed by or on behalf of an applicant for shares in the Company, followed by an allotment of any shares therein, shall be an acceptance of shares within the meaning of these presents; and any person who thus or otherwise accepts any shares and whose name is on the Register of Members shall for the purpose of these presents be a Member.

11. Deposits and calls, etc to be a debt payable immediately

The money, (if any), which the Board shall, on allotment of any shares being made by them, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by them, shall, immediately on insertion of the name of allottee in the Register of Members as the name of the holder of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the Company from the allottee thereof, and shall be paid by him accordingly.

12. Installments on shares

If, by the conditions of allotment of any shares, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by installments, every such installment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who, for the time being and from time to time, shall be the registered holder of such share or his legal representative.

13. Calls on shares of the same class to be on uniform basis

Where any calls for further share capital are made on shares, such call shall be made on a uniform basis on all shares falling under the same class. For the purpose of this Article, shares of the same nominal value on which different amounts have been paid-up shall not be deemed to fall under the same class.

14. Company not bound to recognise any interest in shares other than that of the registered holders.

Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any shares as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not (except as ordered by a Court of Competent jurisdiction or as by law required) be bound to recognize any benami, trust or equity or equitable, contingent or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or implied notice thereof.

15. Company's funds may not be applied in purchase of or lent on shares of the Company.

Except to the extent permitted by Section 67 of the Act no part of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of or lent on the security of the shares of the Company

16. Liability of Members

Every member shall pay to the Company the portion of the capital representation by his share or shares, which may for the time being remain unpaid thereon, in such amounts at such time or times and in such manner as the Board shall, from time to time, require or fix payment thereof.

17. Trusts not recognized

Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

17A. VARIATION OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

- (a) If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to the shares of any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to provisions of the Act, and whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourth of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class, as prescribed by the Act.
- (b) The right conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other right shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari-pasu therewith.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of the Act, to every such separate meeting, the provisions of these Articles relating to meeting shall mutatis mutandis apply.

UNDERWRITING COMMISSION

18. Commission for placing of shares

- (i) The Company may at any time pay a commission to any person for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether Absolutely or conditionally) for any shares, debentures or debenture stock or any other security of the Company or for procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions (whether absolute or conditional) for any share debentures or debenture stock or any other security of the Company but so that if the commission in respect of shares shall be paid or payable out of the proceeds of the respective issue or profit or both, the statutory conditions and requirements shall be observed and complied with and the amount or rate of commission shall not exceed the rates prescribed by the Act and the rules thereunder. The Commission may be paid or satisfied in cash or by allotment of, fully or partly paid up shares, debenture or debenture stock of the Company.

- (ii) The Company may also, on issue of such shares pay such brokerage as may be permissible under the Act.

CERTIFICATES

19. OMITTED

19A. Dematerialisation of securities

Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Company shall be entitled to dematerialise its securities and to offer securities in a dematerialised form pursuant to the Depositories Act, 1996. In respect of the securities so dematerialised, the relevant SEBI circulars and directives besides the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 and the relevant regulations shall apply. For securities dealt with in a depository, the Company shall intimate the details of allotment of securities to depository immediately on allotment of such securities.

CALLS

22. Calls

The Directors may, from time to time, make such calls as they think fit upon the Members in respect of all monies unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and each Member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by installments.

Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.

23. Notice of call

A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed and may be made payable by Members on the Register of Members on such date or at the discretion of the Directors on such subsequent date as shall be fixed by the Directors.

- 24. Not less than fourteen days notice of every call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment, provided that before the time for payment of such call the Directors may, be notice in writing to the Members, revoke the same.

25. Board may extend time

The Directors may from time to time, at their discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call and may extend such time as to all or any of the Members whom the Directors may deem entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.

26. Liability of Joint- holders

The joint-holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

27. Amount payable at fixed time or by installments as calls

If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed date or by installments at fixed times, whether on account of the nominal value or by way of premium, every such amount or installments shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice has been given and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or installments accordingly.

28. When interest on call or installment payable

If the sum payable in respect of any call or installment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof the holders for the time being or allottee of the share in respect of which a call shall have been made or the installment shall be due shall pay interest on the same at such rate as the Directors shall fix from time to time (maximum of 10% p.a.) from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may waive payments of such interest wholly or in part. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

29. Partial payment not to preclude forfeiture

Neither a judgment nor a decree in favour of the Company for calls or other monies due in respect of any shares nor any payment or satisfaction thereunder nor the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from the Member in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of payment of any money shall preclude the forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.

30. Payment in anticipation of calls may carry interest

The Directors may, if they think fit (subject to the provisions of the Act) agree to and receive from any Member willing to advance the whole or any part of the moneys due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the moneys so paid or satisfied in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made the Company may pay interest at such rate (unless the Company in General Meeting approves the interest shall not exceed twelve per cent. per annum) as the Member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon and the Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such Member one month's notice in writing; provided that moneys paid in advance of calls on Shares may carry interest but shall not confer a right to dividend or to participate in profits.

No Member paying any such sum in advance shall be entitled to voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would, but for such payment, become presently payable. The provisions of this Article shall mutatis mutandis apply to calls on any other securities, including Debentures issued by the Company.

31. Members not entitled to privilege of membership until all calls are paid

No Member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or exercise any privilege as a Member until he shall have paid all calls from the time being due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any person, together with interest and expenses if any.

32. If call or installment not paid notice must be given

If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or installment of any money due in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest on or before the day appointed for the payment of same the directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or installment or any part thereof or other monies remain unpaid or a judgment or decree in respect thereof remains unsatisfied in whole or in part serve a notice on such Member or on the person (if any) entitled to the share by transmission requiring him to pay such call or installment or such part thereof or other moneys as remain unpaid together with any interest that have accrued and all expenses (legal or otherwise) that may have been paid or incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

33. Form of Notice

The notice shall name a day not being less than fourteen days from the day of the notice and the place or places on and at which such call or installment or such part or other moneys as aforesaid and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the share in respect of which the call was made or installment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

34. In default of payment shares to be forfeited

If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any of the shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment required by the notice has been made, all calls or installments, interest and expenses or the money due in respect thereof, be forfeited by resolution of the Directors to the effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeiture shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture, subject to the Act.

35. Entry of forfeiture on Register of Members

When any share shall have been so forfeited an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall be made in the Register of Members.

36. Forfeited shares to be property of the Company and may be sold etc

Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold reallocated or otherwise disposed of either to the original holder thereof or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit.

37. Power to annul forfeiture

The Directors may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.

38. Shareholders still liable to pay money owing at time of forfeiture and interest

Any Member whose share have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the company all calls, installments, interest, expenses and other monies payable by him to the Company or in respect of shares at the time of the forfeiture together with interest thereon from the time of the forfeiture until payment, at such rates as may be prescribed by the Directors and the Directors may enforce the payment of the whole or a portion thereof if they think fit but shall not be under any obligation to do so. Liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

39. Company's lien on shares/debentures.

The Company shall have no lien on its fully paid shares on any account whatsoever and in the case of partly paid up shares, if any, the Company's lien shall be restricted to monies called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares. In the case of partly paid up shares/debentures, registered in the name of each member / debenture holder (whether solely or jointly with another or others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof the Company shall subject to applicable law have a first and paramount lien on every share / debenture (not being a fully paid share / debenture) registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all monies called or payable (whether presently payable or not) at a fixed time, in respect of such shares/debentures and no equitable interest in any share / debenture shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article will have fullest effect. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends, from time to time, and bonus declared in respect of such shares/ debentures subject to the Act. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares/ debentures shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares/ debentures. Provided that the Board may at any time declare any share / debenture to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article.

40. As to enforcing lien by sale

For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale may be made unless certain sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the share and default shall have been made by him in payment of the sum presently payable for fourteen days after such notice.

41. Application of proceeds of sales

The net proceeds of any such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists so far as the same is presently payable and the residue (if any) paid to the Member or the person (if any) entitled to the transmission of the shares so sold.

42. Declaration of forfeiture

A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director, Manager or the Secretary of the Company that the call in respect of a share was made, and that the forfeiture of the share was made, by a resolution of the Directors to that effect, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact stated therein as against all persons entitled to such share.

43. Title of purchaser and allottee of forfeited shares

The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale, allotment or other disposition thereof and the person to whom such share is sold allotted or disposed of may be registered as the holder of the share and such person shall not be bound to see the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, reallocation or other disposal of the share and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

44. Application of the forfeiture provisions

The provisions of these presents as to the forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which by terms of issue of a share become payable at a fixed time, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

45. Form of Transfer

The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing in the form prescribed under Section 56 of the Act and all the provisions of the Act, and of any statutory modification thereof for the time being shall be duly complied with in respect of all transfer of shares and registration thereof.

The Board may decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless-

- (i) the instrument of transfer is in the form prescribed under the Act;
- (ii) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
- (iii) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

46. Execution of instrument of transfer

Every such instrument of transfer shall be executed both by the transferor and the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee shall have been entered in the Register of members in respect thereof

47. The Company, the transferor and the transferee of the shares shall comply with provisions of Section 56 of the Act.

47A. On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

48. Transfer instrument to be presented with evidence of title

Every instrument of transfer shall be presented to the Company duly stamped for registration within a period of sixty days from the date of execution, or such lesser period as may be prescribed under the applicable law, accompanied by the relative share certificates and such evidence as the Board may require to prove the title of the transferor, his right to transfer of shares and generally under and subject to such conditions and regulations as the Board shall from time to time, prescribe and every registered instrument of transfer shall remain in the custody of the Company until destroyed by order of the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of law.

49. Title of shares of deceased member

The executors or administrators or holders of a succession certificate or the legal representative of a deceased (not being one of two or more joint holders) shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and Company shall not be bound to recognize such executors or administrators or holders of succession certificate or the legal representatives unless they shall have first obtained Probate or Letters of Administration or Succession Certificate or other legal representation as the case may be, from a duly constituted court in the Union of India provided that in any case where the Board in its absolute discretion thinks fit, the Board may dispense with production of probate or letters of Administration or Succession certificate, upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Board, in its absolute discretion may think necessary and under Article 51 register the name of any person who claims to be absolutely entitled to the shares standing in the name of the deceased member as a member.

50. Insolvency or liquidation of one or more joint holders of the shares

In the case of insolvency or liquidation of one or more of the persons named in the register of members as the joint-holders of any share, the remaining holder or holders shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to, or interest in, such share, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of the person under insolvency or liquidation from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person.

51. Registration of persons entitled to shares otherwise than by transfer

Subject to the provisions of the Act, any person becoming entitled to shares in consequences of death, lunacy, bankruptcy, insolvency or liquidation of any Member, by any lawful means other than by a transfer in accordance with this Articles, may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either (a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or (b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made. The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

Provided nevertheless, that the person who shall elect to have his nominee registered shall testify the election by executing in favour of his nominee an instrument of transfer in accordance with the provisions herein contained, and until he does so, he shall not be freed from any liability in respect of the shares.

52. Fee on transfer or transmission

No fee shall be charged for registration of transfer, transmission, probate, succession certificate and letters administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney or similar other document.

53. Register of Transfers to be kept

The Company shall keep a book, to be called the "Register of Transfer" and therein shall be fairly and distinctly entered particulars of every transfer or transmission of any share. The Company shall also use a common form of transfer.

54. Closure of transfer books

The Board shall have power on giving at least seven days', or such lesser period as may be prescribed under the applicable law, previous notice, in such manner as may be prescribed, by advertisement at least once in a vernacular newspaper in the principal vernacular language of the district and having a wide circulation in the place where the Registered Office of the Company is situated, in English language in an English newspaper circulating in that district and having wide circulation in the place where the Registered Office of the Company is situated and publish the notice on website as may be notified by the Central Government and on the website of the Company, to close the Transfer Books, the Register of Member or Register of Debenture Holders at such time or times and for such period or periods not exceeding thirty days at a time and not exceeding in aggregate forty-five days, or such lesser period as may be prescribed under the applicable law, in each year as it may deem expedient.

55. Directors may refuse to register transfers

Subject to the provisions of the Act, these Articles, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended, and any other applicable law, the Board may, at its absolute and uncontrolled discretion decline or refuse with cause whether in pursuance of any power of the Company under these Articles or otherwise to register or acknowledge any transfer of, or the transmission by operation of law of the right to, any securities, whether fully paid or not, or interest of a member in the Company, or debentures of the Company, and the right of refusal, shall not be affected by the circumstances that the proposed transferee is already a member of the Company but in such cases, and the Company shall within thirty days or such lesser period as may be prescribed under the applicable law, from the date on which the instrument of transfer, or the intimation of such transmission, as the case may be, was delivered to the Company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee and the transferor or to the person giving intimation of such transmission, as the case may be giving reasons for such refusal.

Provided that the registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the grounds of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except where the Company has a lien on shares. Transfer in whatever lot shall not be refused.

56. Rights to shares through transmission by operation of law

Nothing contained in Article 48 shall prejudice any power of the Company to register as shareholder any person to whom the right to any shares in the Company has been transmitted by operation of law.

57. Transfer by legal representative

A transfer of shares or other interest in the Company of a deceased member thereof made by legal representative shall, although the legal representative is not himself a member, be as valid as if he had been a Member at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

58. Company's power to refuse transfer

Nothing in these presents shall prejudice the powers of the Company to refuse to register the transfer of any shares subject to the provisions of the Act, these Articles and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended.

59. Transferor liable until the transferee entered on register

The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee is entered into the Register of Members in respect thereof.

60. Custody of transfer

The instrument of transfer shall after registration be retained by the Company and shall remain in its custody. All the instruments of transfer which the Director may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the person depositing the same. The Directors may cause to be destroyed all transfer deeds lying with the Company after such period as they may determine.

61. The Company not liable for disregard of a notice

The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of their registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by the apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the register of Members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right title or interest to or in the same shares notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice or referred thereto in any book of the Company and the Company shall not be bound or required or regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to them of any equitable title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred in some book of the company but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto, if the Directors shall so think fit.

62. Transfer Of Debentures

The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis, apply to the allotment and transfer of or the transmission by law of the right to Debentures of the Company.

63. Issue, acquisition and holding of Shares subject to SEBI Regulations

- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, the provisions of Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Stock Exchanges and Clearing Corporations) Regulations, 2018 or any modification thereto, as the case may be, shall apply in respect of issue, acquisition and holding of equity shares of the Company.
- (2) As provided in the foregoing Articles and without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 55, a member shall be at liberty to transfer the share:

Restriction on the transfer

Provided however that the Board may refuse the transfer if in its opinion –

- (a) the transfer is being made otherwise than in accordance with relevant SEBI circulars and directives beside the provisions of Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Stock Exchanges and Clearing Corporations) Regulations, 2018 or any modification thereto, as the case may be; or
- (b) the transfer, if made, will not be in the interest of the Company.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

64. Conversion of shares and reconversion

The Directors with the sanction of a resolution of the Company in General Meeting may convert any paid-up shares into stock and may convert all or any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination. When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may thenceforth transfer their respective interests therein or any part of such interest in the same manner and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit.

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

Such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

65. Rights of stockholders

The stock shall confer on the holders thereof respectively the same privileges and advantages as regards dividend, voting at meeting of the Company and for other purposes as would have been conferred by shares of equal amount in the capital of the Company of the same class as the shares from which such stock is converted but so that none of such privileges or advantages, except the participation in profits of the Company or in assets of the Company on winding up, shall be conferred by any such shares allotted part of stock as would not if existing in shares have conferred such privileges or advantages. Such conversion shall not affect or prejudice any preference or other special privileges attached to the shares so converted. Save as aforesaid all the provisions herein contained shall, so far as circumstances shall admit, apply to stock as well to the shares.

INCREASE, REDUCTION AND ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

66. Increase of Capital

The Company may from time to time, in General Meeting increase its Authorised Share Capital by issuing further shares of such amount as it thinks expedient.

67. Further issue of capital

(1) Where at any time the Board or the Company, having a share capital, as the case may be, may, propose to increase the subscribed capital by the issue of further shares then such shares shall be offered, subject to the provisions of section 62 of the Act, and the rules made thereunder:-

(A) to the persons who, at the date of the offer, are holders of the equity shares of the Company, in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit, to the paid-up share capital on those shares by sending a letter of offer subject to the conditions mentioned below;

(i) The offer aforesaid shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than 15 (fifteen) days or such lesser number of days as may be prescribed under the Act and not exceeding 30 (thirty) days from the date of the offer, within which the offer if not accepted, shall be deemed to have been declined;

(ii) The offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the person concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favour of any other person and the notice referred to in sub-clause (i) shall contain a statement of this right, provided that Board may decline, without assigning any reason therefore, to allot any Shares to any Person in whose favor any Shareholder may renounce the Shares offered to him; and

(iii) After the expiry of time specified in the notice aforesaid, or on receipt of earlier intimation from the person to whom such notice is given that the person declines to accept the shares offered, the Board of Directors may dispose of them in such manner which is not disadvantageous to the Shareholders and the Company;

- (B) subject to the provisions of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Stock Exchanges and Clearing Corporations) Regulations, 2012 or any modification thereto, to employees under any scheme of employees' stock option subject to special resolution passed by the Company and subject to the Rules and such other conditions, as may be prescribed under applicable law; or
 - (C) to any person(s), if it is authorised by a special resolution, whether or not those persons include the persons referred to in clause (A) or clause (B) above either for cash or for a consideration other than cash, if the price of such shares is determined by the valuation report of a registered valuer subject to such conditions as may be prescribed under the Act and the rules made thereunder.
- (2) The notice referred to in sub-clause (i) of clause (A) of sub-section (1) shall be dispatched through registered post or speed post or through electronic mode or courier or any other mode having proof of delivery to all the existing shareholders at least three days before the opening of the issue
 - (3) Nothing in sub-clause (ii) of Clause (1)(A) shall be deemed:-
 - (i) To extend the time within which the offer should be accepted; or
 - (ii) To authorize any person to exercise the right of renunciation for a second time on the ground that the person in whose favour the renunciation was first made has declined to take the shares compromised in the renunciation.
 - (4) Nothing in this Article shall apply to the increase of the subscribed capital of the Company caused by the exercise of an option as a term attached to the Debentures issued or loan raised by the Company to convert such Debentures or loans into Shares in the Company or to subscribe for Shares of the Company:

Provided that the terms of issue of such Debentures or the terms of such loans containing such an option have been approved before the issue of such Debentures or the raising of such loans by a special resolution passed by the Company in a General Meeting.

- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in Article 67(4) hereof, where any debentures have been issued, or loan has been obtained from any Government by the Company, and if that Government considers it necessary in the public interest so to do, it may, by order, direct that such debentures or loans or any part thereof shall be converted into Shares in the Company on such terms and conditions as appear to the Government to be reasonable in the circumstances of the case even if terms of the issue of such debentures or the raising of such loans do not include a term for providing for an option for such conversion:

Provided that where the terms and conditions of such conversion are not acceptable to the company, it may, within sixty days from the date of communication of such order, appeal to the National Company Law Tribunal which shall after hearing the Company and the Government pass such order as it deems fit.

A further issue of shares may be made in any manner whatsoever as the Board may determine including by way of preferential offer or private placement, subject to and in accordance with the Act and the rules made thereunder.

- (6) In determining the terms and conditions of conversion under Article 67 (5), the Government shall have due regard to the financial position of the Company, the terms of issue of debentures or loans, as the case may be, the rate of interest payable on such debentures or loans and such other matters as it may consider necessary.
- (7) Where the Government has, by an order made under Article 67 (5), directed that any debenture or loan or any part thereof shall be converted into shares in the Company and where no appeal has been preferred to the Tribunal under Article 67, (5) or where such appeal has been dismissed, the memorandum of the Company shall, where such order has the effect of increasing the authorised share capital of the Company, stand altered and the authorised share capital of the Company shall stand increased by an amount equal to the amount of the value of shares which such debentures or loans or part thereof has been converted into.

67A. Buy Back of Shares

Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, but subject to all applicable provisions of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

68. Shares under control of General Meeting

In addition to and without derogating from the powers for the purpose conferred on the Directors under Articles 8, the Company in the General Meeting may in accordance with the provisions of Section 62 of the Act determine that any shares (whether forming part of the original capital of the Company or not) shall be offered to such persons (whether Members or holders of Debentures of the company or not) in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 53 of the Act) at a discount, as such General Meeting shall determine.

69. Same as original capital

Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents any capital raised by issue of further shares shall be considered part of the original capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and installments, transfer and transmissions, forfeiture, lien, surrender, voting and otherwise.

70. Reduction of capital

The Company from time to time by Special Resolution, subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by law, reduce its share capital (including the Capital Redemption Reserve Account and any share premium account if any) in any way authorised by law and in particular may pay off any paid up share capital upon the footing that it may be called up again or otherwise and if and so far as necessary alter its Memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its share accordingly.

71. Division and sub- division

The Company may in the General Meeting by Ordinary Resolution alter the conditions of its Memorandum as follows:-

- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares; Provided that no consolidation and division which results in changes in the voting percentage of shareholders shall take effect unless it is approved by the National Company Law Tribunal on an application made in the prescribed manner
- (b) Sub-divided shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than originally fixed by the Memorandum subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act in that behalf. Subject to these presents the resolution by which any shares are sub- divided may determine that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division one or more of such shares may be given any preference or advantage or otherwise over the others or any other such shares.
- (c) Cancel shares which at the date of such General Meeting have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of the shares so canceled.
- (d) increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount as it thinks expedient;
- (e) convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination.

JOINT HOLDERS

72. Joint Holders
