● 'WOMEN'S SAFETY TOP PRIORITY'

PM: Crimes against women unforgivable

No mercy for culprits, message should go from top to bottom: Modi

VALLABH OZARKAR
Jalgaon, August 25

AMID THE NATIONWIDE outrage over the rape and murder of a junior doctor at a Kolkata hospital and the protests over sexual abuse of two minor girls at a school in Thane's Badlapur, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said Sunday that crimes against women are "unpardonable sins" and the culprits should not be spared at any cost.

Speaking at the Lakhpati Didi Sammelan in Maharashtra's Jalgaon, the Prime Minister said, "Along with empowering mothers, sisters and daughters, ensuring their safety is also a priority for the nation. I have repeatedly raised this issue from the Red Fort as well. Today, be it in any state in the country, I understand the pain and anger of our sisters and daughters."

Prime Minister Narendra Modi interacts with 'Lakhpati Didis' in Jalgaon, Maharashtra, on Sunday

"I want to tell every political party in the country and every state government that crimes against women are unpardonable sins. No matter who the culprit is, they should not escape. Those who help them in any way should also not be spared. Whether it is a hospital, school, office, or police system, wherever there is negligence, accountability must be ensured," Modi said.

"A clear message should go from top to bottom that this sin is unforgivable. Governments will come and go, but protecting lives and safeguarding the dignity of women is a major responsibility for all of us, both as a society and as a government," he said.

The PM said the Bharatiya Nyay Sanhita (BNS) has an entire chapter on atrocities against women and children.

Pointing out that FIRs were not registered on time earlier and cases became very time-consuming, the Prime Minister said that such obstacles have been removed in the BNS and said that victims can register e-FIR if they do not wish to go to the police station. He also said that measures are in place to ensure swift action.

India considers Zelenskyy's peace summit proposal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, August 25

UKRAINE PRESIDENT VOLODYMYR Zelenskyy has told Prime Minister Narendra Modi that India can be a possible venue for a peace summit, and New Delhi is examining the offer to bring together the warring parties of Russia and Ukraine, The Indian Express has learnt. At a media briefing for visiting Indian journalists in Kyiv on Friday, Zelenskyy said he told Prime Minister Modi that the peace summit could be hosted in India.

"As for the peace summit, I truly believe that the second peace summit has to take place. It would be good if it could be held in one of the Global South countries," he said. "We are very open to it. There are countries like Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Türkiye and Switzerland. We are currently talking to those countries on hosting the peace summit."

"I told Prime Minister Modi that we could have the Global Peace Summit in India. It's a big country, it's a great democracy — the largest one," he said.

Whether that summit will be the next one or later is unclear. The inaugural peace summit was held at a resort near Lucerne in Switzerland in June that was attended by more than 90 countries and global institutions with a sole focus on bringing peace to Ukraine.

President Zelenskyy's proposal came during Prime Minister Narendra Modi's brief visit to Kyiv last Friday

Modi on Friday conveyed to Zelenskyy that both Ukraine and Russia should sit together without wasting time to end the ongoing war and that India was ready to play an "active role" to restore peace in the region.

Zelenskyy said India supports Ukraine's national sovereignty and territorial integrity and it is "critical because everyone in the world must equally respect the UN Charter".

"India (is a) big influential country, not only in the world (but) also through the circle of very skeptical countries. If we will change India's attitude to this war and to Russia, we will stop the war, because Putin will want to stop it," Zelenskyy said.

The Ukrainian President described Prime Minister Modi's first visit to Kyiv as "historic". During their bilateral talks, Modi invited Zelenskyy to visit India. "When you begin a strategic partnership, and you begin some dialogue, you don't need to lose time. That's why I think it will be good to meet together again, and if our meeting will be in India, I'll be happy," Zelenskyy said.

"I think, to understand a country is to understand people also. It's better to be in your country because to find the key to your country and to your PM is to see your people and I need very much to find the key to your country, because I very much need your country on our side, not balancing between the US and Russia," he said.
